Salvation Army Kettles :60 125

Certainly, you've noticed the familiar ringing of salvation army bells filling the air as you've been out shopping. And perhaps you've dropped a few coins or even bills into the kettles when you see them. But what you may not have seen but certainly need to know is how your holiday kettle donations help make a big difference in the lives of people right here in north Georgia. Not only are your donations used to provide Christmas to many less fortunate families in our area but they also help fund salvation army programs throughout the year. And this year the number of those who are seeking help from these programs has grown significantly. So when you're out doing your holiday shopping this year and you come across one of the salvation army volunteers and their kettle, please give what you can. If everyone gives just a little bit, the salvation army will make not only this Christmas but the coming new year better for many of your neighbors. Remember: Give to the salvation army this holiday season so that they may give help and hope to others throughout the year.

Boys & Girls Club :30 70

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Athens invite you to join them for the launch of their new YouthForce Innovation Hub on October 20th at five. The YouthForce Innovation Hub, which was made possible by Zach McElroy, the founder and Chairman of Zaxbys, will utilize interactive technology to help local teens to map a path to their future. These paths may include post-secondary education, technical skill training, or moving directly into the workforce. You can RSVP to the launch of the YouthForce Innovation Hub by visiting GreatFuturesAthens.com.

They'll be collecting items at local area Kroger stores on Epps Bridge, College Station, and the Kroger Marketplace on Highway 72. Join Hairy Dawg, UGA Cheerleaders, the Redcoat Band and many other surprise guests as we STUFF THE TRUCK and make the upcoming Holiday season better for those in need.

Stuff The Truck 3 :30 21

Hi, this is Georgia Football head Football coach Kirby Smart, Join me, the Food Bank of Northeast Georgia, and the University of Georgia's Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication as we set out to STUFF THE TRUCK with canned goods and other non-perishable items. We're tackling hunger once again this year on Tuesday November 1st at local area Wal-Mart's, where we'll be accepting your donations. Come join Hairy Dawg, the Georgia Redcoat Band, UGA Cheerleaders, and other special UGA Athletics guests as we make the upcoming Holiday season more enjoyable for those in need. Let's team up together and STUFF THE TRUCK as we stop local hunger at the goal line and deliver food to the hungry.
