Re: Children's Programming Certification

Dear Erica:

This letter is in connection with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the requirement under FCC regulations that cable television systems maintain records sufficient to determine whether they are in compliance with the commercial content restrictions of the Act for "children's programming" which is defined as "programs originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and younger."

As requested, this will confirm that for the fourth quarter of 2015, Game Show Network, LLC certifies that the GSN Network is in compliance with the commercial content restrictions of the Act.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CERTIFICATION

4th Quarter (Oct 1, 2015 through Dec 31, 2015)

This is to certify that the list set forth below identifies all programs and series aired by SonLife Broadcasting Network during the above-referenced calendar quarter that were originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under. As a standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs and series identified below so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC"), (the "Regulations").

None of the following programs or series included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from, or that offered products related to, the underlying program or series. Any instances in which the children's programming commercial limits were exceeded during the referenced calendar quarter are explained in detail below. I further certify that I have been designated by SonLife Broadcasting Network as the official responsible for oversight of compliance with the FCC children's programming commercial limits, and I am familiar with the Regulations.

Re: Certificates of Compliance for the Children's Television Act of 1990

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 1st Quarter 2016. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, TBS, Turner Classic Movies, TNT, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

For your convenience, the certificates of compliance are also available online for your review. Please follow these steps in order to download the certificates:

1. Go to the Turner Resources web site at www.TurnerResources.com. [Note – if you do not have a user ID and password, you will need to register online with the web site.]
2. From the homepage for TurnerResources.com, you will find the Children's Television Programming certificates of compliance by clicking on a "link" called "FCC Compliance."

Ms. Kerry Ann Brennan
Executive Assistant To The Office of General Counsel

Dear Ms. Brennan:

This letter responds to your email requests dated January 7, 2016. Specifically, this letter addresses requests for certificates of "compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990, the Closed Captioning requirements set out under 47 C.F.R. 79.1, [and] the 21st Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act of 2010 and the Commercial Advertisement Loudness Mitigation Act.

CRT is not covered by the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("CTA"), codified, in relevant part, at 47 U.S.C. § 303a. The CTA prescribes requirements for a "commercial television broadcast licensee." Under the CTA, a "commercial television broadcast licensee" includes a cable operator, as defined in section 522 of this title." A "cable operator" is: "any person or group of persons (A) who provide cable service over a cable system and directly or through one or more affiliates owns a significant interest in such cable system, or (B) who otherwise controls or is responsible for, through any arrangement, the management and operation of such a cable system . . . ." 47 U.S.C. § 522(5). Under these definitions, CRT is not a "commercial television broadcast licensee," in part because it is not a "cable operator."

CRT is also not required to certify compliance under the Closed Captioning requirements set out under 47 C.F.R. 79.1. In fact, the Federal Communications Commission does not require any entity to file regular reports related to Closed Captioning. See Implementation of Section 305 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 – Video Programming Accessibility, MM Docket No. 95-176, Order on Reconsideration, 13 FCC Rcd. 19973, ¶¶ 118, 126, 1998 WL 675506 (1998). Nevertheless, we obtain programming from multiple dub houses that have internal and quality control procedures to verify all programming is properly closed captioned. In addition, we have internal procedures in place to ensure compliance with the federal rules and regulations. As a result and in accordance with Section 1.4.3 of the Affiliation Agreements, we hereby certify, at the time of our transmission of the content, the content complies with the Closed Captioning requirements. (See attached Certification)

Finally, CRT is not covered under the 21st Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act of 2010 ("CCVAA"). The CCVAA prescribes requirements for certain "service provider[s]" and "manufacturer[s]." See 47 U.S.C. § 618(a)(5)(B); 47 C.F.R. § 14.31(b). The applicable regulations define a "service provider" as: "a provider of advanced communications services that are offered in or affecting interstate commerce, including a provider of applications and services

Commercial Advertisement Loudness Mitigation (CALM) Certification

The undersigned hereby certifies that the television programming service(s) set forth below are in compliance in all material respects with the Commercial Advertisement Loudness Mitigation Act of 2010 and the associated Recommended Practice Techniques for Establishing and Maintaining Audio Loudness for Digital Television (A/85). This certification is effective upon the execution date shown below and will remain in effect until rescinded in writing by an authorized representative.

This certification is made in good faith and is true to the best of my knowledge.

Dear Mr. Singer:

In response to your recent request, this is to certify that QVC, Inc., a cable network, had no programs originally produced or broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under during the calendar quarter ended June 30, 2012. Accordingly, none of QVC's programming during such quarter constituted "children's programming" as defined by Section 73.660 of the FCC's rules, and, therefore, none were subject to the commercialization limits imposed on children's programming. (See 47 C.F.R., Section 73.660).

To the extent we should decide, in the future, to include any children's programming on our schedule, we would, of course, comply with all pertinent FCC requirements and would, at that time, notify you of the programming change.

If you have any questions about this matter, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Lawrence R. Hayes
