

CONTACT

10/5/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

Chrisie Kahan, former high school principal, and authority on mental illness in young people discussed the problems they face today including bullying, broken homes, and sexual identity.

CONTACT

10/12/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

Josh Lucas founder of Workhard Pittsburgh, a co-operative business incubator talked about encouraging small business development in low income areas, both urban and rural.

CONTACT

10/19/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

After their second losing season in a row Pittsburgh Pirates play by play announcer conducted a post season post mortem on the club.

CONTACT

10/26/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

Thomas Schuster of the Sierra Club of Pennsylvania talked about how the Trump administrations rollback of EPA regulations, including the Clean Air Plan, is affecting the environment of our state.

CONTACT

11/2/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

William Shaw, Clearfield County District Attorney discussed how the local courts and law enforcement are dealing with the opioid epidemic in our area, and how they could be more effective in treating offenders.

CONTACT

11/9/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

Susan Ford and Malissa Martino of the Clearfield Jefferson Drug & Alcohol Commission talked about the opioid crisis in our two counties in terms of prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation.

CONTACT

11/16/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

75th District State Representative discussed recent legislative happenings in Harrisburg, including the passage and funding of the state budget, pension reform, and loosening of regulations on the gaming industry, alcohol sales, and the legalization of medical marijuana.

CONTACT

12/7/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

Dr. Bill Fritz, a local orthopedic surgeon talked about, in very emotional detail, the drug overdose death of his son. He also discussed a number of recommendations that he has for solved the country's drug problem, based on his medical expertise and extensive research into the problem.

CONTACT

12/14/17, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

Aaron Peters of 411 Networkers and Dave Reisinger, head of this year's Toys For Tots drive, talked about the campaign, including the support given to it by the community, and the needs faced by low income and unfortunate families during the holiday season.

CONTACT

12/21, 8:35 Am 50:00 minutes

Monsignor Charles Kaza of St. Tobias Church in Brockway expanded upon the meaning of Christmas from its religious significance to how its spirit can be kept alive all year round as a way to bring people together in these divisive times.