

KFAI Quarterly Issues/Program - Q4 2022

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Building Wealth and Community	The Conversation with Al McFarlane	10/4/2022	1:00 PM	1 hr.	An exploration of ideas, opportunities, resources, success stories, and community networks to have us all living our best lives. Guests: Jennifer Ho, the Minnesota Housing Commissioner; Alice Roberts-Davis, the Minnesota Department of Administration Commissioner; Tikki Brown, Children and Family Services Assistant Commissioner; Jeff Robinson, Program Manager at BuildWealth MN and the Co-Founder of the 9,000 Equities Initiative.
Voting Accessibility in MN	Disability and Progress	10/6/2022	6:00 PM	1 hr.	Guest: Justin Page from the Minnesota Disability Law Center
Opera Cinema from Local Indigenous Community	Indigeniety Rising	10/12/2022	1:00 PM	1 hr.	Zitkála-Šá Opera film premieres this month. A story of a renowned Lakota Woman who was an artist, activist and traditional representative. She lived in the early 20th Century. This opera/film, partially in Lakota, presents her life and legacy. Produced, composed, performed, filmed by an all Native, Female, Two-Spirit company of artists.
Encampment Evictions in Minneapolis	Views From The Ground	10/12/2022	7:00 PM	1 hr.	Reports from the latest encampment evictions of the houseless by the City of Minneapolis and Minneapolis Police Department.
Monkeypox & Covid-19	Somali Link Radio	10/18/2022	6:00 PM	1 hr.	Lynn Bahta is an Immunization Clinical Consultant for the Minnesota Department of Health. Bahta spoke with Somali Link host Abdirizak Bihi to share valuable insights on Monkeypox, including information on transmission and vaccination. The two also discussed COVID-19 vaccination and disinformation.
Independent Visually Impaired Entrepreneurs	Disability and Progress	10/20/2022	6:00 PM	1 hr.	Guest: Ardis Bazyn, president of the Independent Visually Impaired Entrepreneurs. She promotes the Independent Visually Impaired Entrepreneurs Online Business Expo, which takes place on November 12.
Pop Music in the Local Indigenous community	Indigeniety Rising	10/26/2022	1:00 PM	1 hr.	Guests: BRIAND MORRISON (Grand Portage Anishinabe/Ojibwe-MN), Musician, Artist; "WARBONNET" Native Rock Band, CHAZ WAGONER, Founder & Lead (Bois Forte Anishinabe/Ojibwe-MN)
Confronting COVID-19 in pandemic	KFAI's Wellness Signal	10/31/2022	1:00 PM	16 min.	Jerome Evans is an African-American queer man who works in marketing with the Minnesota Service Cooperatives. He is also co-chair of the Public Health Advisory Committee for the City of Minneapolis and host of the TV show "Bottomless Coffee with Jerome" on MCN6 sponsored by the Minnesota Department of Health. KFAI's Dixie Treichel spoke with Evans about how his work has met the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic.
Local Midterm Elections	Indigeniety Rising	11/2/2022	1:00 PM	1 hr.	Guests: Kathryn (Katie) Smith, Assistant City Clerk, Director of Voter & Election Services, City of Minneapolis; Elizabeth Day (Anishinabe), Director of Native Community Engagement, Native American Community Development Institute, Minneapolis.
Election Day 2022	The Conversation with Al McFarlane	11/8/2022	1:00 PM	1 hr.	This is an Election Day Special covering important races in Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Atlanta, Wisconsin, and more. Guests: Bob Bogle - President & CEO, Philadelphia Tribune; Janis L. Ware - Publisher & Editor, The Atlanta Voice; James Washington - President & General Manager, The Atlanta Voice; Thomas Mitchell - Milwaukee Community Journal; Bobby Jo Champion - Senator, Minnesota; Keith Ellison, Minnesota Attorney General; Jim Schultz, Candidate Minnesota Attorney General.
Local and National Elections	Democracy Now!	11/8/2022	8:00 PM	3 hr.	Live 3-hour election night special with in-depth analysis and real-time results from congressional and gubernatorial races, as well as ballot initiatives from around the country.
Providing Dental Care to Hospital Patients with Disabilities	Disability and Progress	11/10/2022	6:00 PM	1 hr.	Dentists that collaborate to provide hospital dental work to patients with disabilities: Dr. Dwight McCloud and Dr. Paul Big.
Humor as a form of medicine	Humor as Medicine & Decolonization	11/11/2022	2:00 PM	1 hr.	Anishinaabe Medicine People know much about plant medicine and the natural world. Deanna StandingCloud is an Anishinaabe woman who thinks humor is a form of medicine found inside our spirits, awaiting harvest—luckily, it's always harvesting season.
Local Ukrainain and Russian community discuss the current ongoing war back home, and it's effects here in MN.	Wave Project	11/13/2022	10:00 AM	1 hr.	The Eclectic Collective presents Grandmothers Speak: Gathering of Women on Ukraine and Russia discuss current conditions around Ukraine, events at the Museum of Russian Art, poems and music. Guests: Elena, Oksana and Katya. Maureen Skelly and Susu Jeffrey, members of the Collective, presented poems and music and introduced topics.
Self Defense Workshop Aims to Empower AAPI Community	Minneculture	11/14/2022	1:00 PM	8 min.	After listening to a news story about yet another case of violence against the Asian community, Katie Hae Leo wanted to organize a self defense class for AAPI women and nonbinary people. She texted a group of friends, including Jennifer Weir, who is the Executive Director of non-profit Taiko Arts Midwest. Taiko Arts Midwest took on the endeavor of creating and hosting a workshop, which is rooted in martial arts and empowerment.
Highway 252 - I94 Town Hall	The Conversation with Al McFarlane	11/29/2022	1:00 PM	1 hr.	Hwy 252-I94 project from the community leaders and Minnesota Department of Transportation employees who are helping to guide the outcome.

KFAI Quarterly Issues/Program - Q4 2022

Local Theater and COVID	KFAI's Wellness Signal	12/5/2022	1:00 PM	19 min.	Kim Hines is an African-American queer woman who is a theater artist, author, mentor and educator. She has been in the business of theater over 50+ years and her plays have been performed around the country. Belonging to a family of doctors and medical professionals, she is well-versed in health issues and her family has been severely impacted by the vast array of disinformation surrounding COVID-19. KFAI's Dixie Treichel spoke with Hines about her personal and professional experiences throughout the pandemic.
Care Providing during COVID	KFAI's Wellness Signal	12/5/2022	1:00 PM	7 min.	From its roots serving hot meals to those with HIV in the 1980s to its present-day comprehensive offering of social services, the Aliveness Project has expanded its 'person-centered-first' approach throughout the COVID-19 pandemic. Matthew Hoppe and Dylan Boyer from the Aliveness Project spoke with KFAI's Ryan Dawes in this audio portrait.
Updates on DACA	Views From The Ground	12/7/2022	7:00 PM	1 hr.	Updates and resources for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals citizens
Latine Culture and Folklore in Minnesota	Minneculture	12/26/2022	1:00 PM	6 min.	Border CrosSing doesn't just want to make the public aware that music from Latin America is more dimensional than some might think. It also performs its shows in both Spanish and English so that audiences can walk away with a sense of language enrichment. Five years in, the group is building a bi-lingual choral movement. Reporter Mike Moen has this profile.
Local Blues Music Scene in Pandemic	KFAI's Wellness Signal	12/30/2022	1:00 PM	17 min.	Jacquie "LadyJ" Maddix is the host of KFAI's Songs of the Soul, airing every Tuesday afternoon at 4 pm. LadyJ is also a television producer, blues musician, mother, performance host and published author. Long intertwined in the Blues music scene, locally and nationally, LadyJ discusses the resiliency of blue musicians as well as her own personal strategies for dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic.