

KFAI Quarterly Issues/Program - Q3 2022

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Water Protection Work and Line 3 Protests	Power Persepctives	7/12/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Artist, Environmental Activist and Organizer Shanai Matteson
Sexism, Racism, Classism, and Pseudoscienceand it's impact on the adoption landscape and the lives of women who experienced unplanned pregnancy in America	Write-On Radio	7/12/2022	7:00 PM	1 hour	Kim Heikkila talks about Booth Girls, a book about the St Paul's Booth Memorial Hospital for unmarried pregnant women in the 1960's.
Vaccinating Families Against Covid-19	Wellness Signal	7/15/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Adriene Thornton, Manager of Health Equity for Children's Minnesota discusses healthcare equity, vaccine safety and the joys of vaccinating entire families
Accessibility at the MN Fringe Festival, and MN State Fair	Disability and Progress	7/28/2022	6:00 PM	1 hour	Dawn Bentley, Executive Director for the Minnesota Fringe will be talking about Fringe and Fringe accessibility. Also, Jill Boon will be talking about State Fair access.
Flow Northside (Minneapolis) Arts Crawl	Power Persepctives	7/28/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Kenna Cottman of Flow Northside Arts Crawl Flow is an arts celebrations of non-juried, self guided tours of studios, galleries, and theaters, commercial and vacant prosperities in North Minneapolis
Early Childhood Development and Nature Based Learning	Power Persepctives	8/2/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Sheila Williams Ridge Co-Director of Child Development Laboratory School
Curating Art in Minneapolis in the 20th Century	Minneculture	8/4/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	John R. Killacky's new book "because art: Commentary, Critique, & Conversation" is a collage of writings about his life and work across the country as a performing artist, arts administrator, curator and legislator. Prominent in the book is his time as the Performing Arts Curator at the Walker Art Center (1988-1996) in Minneapolis. This was a time of radical queer performance art, the AIDS Crisis, Reagan-Bush politics, culture wars of the time and attacks on the National Endowment for the Arts. Killacky is a gay, differently abled artist and is currently in the Vermont House of Representatives.
Celebrating 30 years of Theater Mu	Power Persepctives	8/16/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guests: Theater Mu Founding Director Rick Shiomi and current Artistic Director Lily Tung Crystal
Local Indigenous Theater and Cinema Events	Indigeneity Rising	8/17/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guests: BLOSSOM JOHNSON (Diné/Navajo) Playwright, Dramaturg, Literary Artistic Director, Playwrights Center, MN "Monster Slayer".; MISSY WHITEMAN (Arapaho/ Kickapoo), Filmmaker, Director, Cinematographer; Sundance Native Film Fellow, Sundance Institute, UT "The Coyote Way X"
Celebrating 30 years of Pillsbury House Theater	Power Persepctives	8/20/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Panel Discussion on the history of Lorraine Hansbury and the Pillsbury House Theater
Minnesota Ice Hockey and the elderly	Minneculture	8/23/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Twice a week at the Bloomington Ice Garden, a group of ex-Gophers, NHL players, and Olympians play an informal but structured game of hockey. It's a fun game with great players, but what makes them really impressive is average age of the players: 74 years old. They call themselves the Minnesota Old Timers.
Celbrating 30 years of Pillsbury Theater House	The Conversation with Al McFarlane	8/23/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Signe Harriday, Artistic Producing Director at Pillsbury House + Theatre will talk about the sculpture, "To Sit Awhile," which celebrates the life of Lorraine Hansberry, author of "A Raisin in the Sun." The art is currently in Minneapolis as part of a national tour to celebrate the 30th anniversary of Pillsbury House + Theatre.
Jobs for Youth and Teens in North Minneapolis	Power Perspectives	8/25/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Michael Chaney from STEP UP Youth Program, Oak Park Neoghhorhood in North Minneapolis
Affordable Home Ownership	The Conversation with Al McFarlane	8/30/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guests: Lawrence Spears and Mary Spears of Marles Realty share essential information about buying real estate in the current market; Chris Coleman, President & CEO of the Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity and Chad Dipman, Land Development Director for the Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity talk about the importance of expanding access to affordable homeownership, new opportunities being made available in the Twin Cities area, and how interested buyers get started.
Ribbon Skirts/Apparel and Healing the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women Crisis.	Indigeneity Rising	8/31/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Agnes Woodward (Cree), Owner, "ReeCreations" is presenting at a workshop in Minneapolis at the MN Indian Womxn's Resource Center and All My Relations Gallery.
Minnesota Indian Women's Resource Center	Indigeneity Rising	9/7/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Marisa Makonda Cummings (Umonhon/Omaha Nation-Nebraska), President and Chief Executive Officer, MIWRC
Bikeriding through Social Justice	Views From The Ground	09/07/2022	7:00 PM	1 hour	Bikers Riding Against Police Brutality (BRAPB) exists to advance social justice within the Minneapolis and surrounding Minnesota communities.
Housing for Disabilities	Disability and Progress	9/8/2022	6:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Jeremy Wendt, Executive Director of Episcopal Group Homes
Indigenous Musicians Performing at Local Community Festival	Indigeneity Rising	9/14/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest:Micheal Two Bulls (Lakota), The WAKE SINGERS, Native rock band from South Dakota.
Aid for Social Justice Workers and Protesters	Views From The Ground	9/14/2022	7:00 PM	1 hour	Justice Frontline Aid is a grassroots org that aids and equips those who put their body on the frontline for justice
Public Health and Community Safety	Power Perspectives	9/27/2022	1:00 PM	1 hour	Guest: Latasha Jennings feom LEAD Minneapolis, Let Everyone Advance With Dignity (LEAD) Minneapolis is a public health approach to community safety that connects individuals who have been cycling in and out of the legal system with a long-term case management model of care that utilizes a harm reduction approach