LOCAL & GOVERNMENT ISSUES

KRCW is committed to keeping viewers informed on local issues.

KRCW "Roseland Shooting" 10/7/2016 10:00 PM 2:39

Police say they still don't know who fired gunshots inside Portland's Roseland Theater last night. No one was hurt. Police say they think two shots were fired from backstage. Managers say it happened when staff told opening acts and their crews to clear the area for the headline-rapper "the game." police are hoping somebody inside comes forward with some information. The Roseland has metal detectors and pat-downs before the show so it's unclear how the gun got inside. A show scheduled for tonight is still on.

KRCW "Storm on the West Coast" 10/14/2016 10:00 PM 1:09

Whenever a *big storm bears down on the coast-- weather watchers flock to see the big waves and wind. One of the hot spots Astoria north to the long beach peninsula in Washington. For folks out there today's weather was a warning of what's to come.

KRCW "Drunk Driver" 10/21/2016 10:00 PM : 45

Quick thinking by two-truck drivers might have "saved" lives. This video is getting international attention it shows-- a suspected drunk driver swerving all over interstate 84 he eventually stops in the middle of the interstate to relieve himself. That's when a pair of truckers take matters into their own hands and box him in. Tonight we're hearing from one of those truckers.

KRCW "Salem Hotel Theft" 10/28/2016 10:00 PM 2:28

Room 210 at the super 8 in Salem looks nothing like it did at the beginning of the week. In fact it looks very little like a hotel room at all with the holes in the wall and missing things. Assistant g-m amarsaini says a man and woman checked in on Wednesday night. Security cameras show them walking in. They stay for an hour and leave separately. The woman then returns with three other men. Again it's captured by security cameras.

Three hours later the woman leaves with only one guy. Over the course of the next several hours. The two remaining men left as well. But not empty handed. Hotel management says they took the room safe and table lamps.

Even more so now. They have to clean up the mess left behind by the burglars. Then replace the stolen items. An inconvenience for any business but especially for a small, family-owned one.

KRCW "Racism Protest" 11/4/2016 10:00 PM 2:03

A protest at a southeast Portland business turned violent tonight! A fight broke out. After a group showed up to protest "checkers market" over accusations of racism! A small group arrived at the market around 4 p-m today. They say an activist witnessed a 'racist confrontation' earlier in the week between a black customer and a clerk who they claim used a racial slur. Around 6 tonight -- protesters got into a heated argument with a man who was questioning their message. That man is the one who ended up on the ground. The owner of the market says the accusations of racism are "not 100 percent accurate." the clerk tonight closed shop early. Protesters wrote "closed due to racism" on the side of the building in marker.

KRCW "Friday Protest March" 11/11/2016 10:00 PM 1:00

"Live" right now from sky 8 for the fourth night in a row -- more major protests in Portland. Officers have used 'flash bang grenades' i-5 closed * again. What started as a peaceful "sit- in"-- at city hall -- changed-- when protesters hit the streets just before 7 pm? It's not as organized-- as the last few nights. Factions splitting off -- moving around the city. Trying to cross bridges. It also has *not been as violent-- as we witnessed last night... Although there have been reports of vandalism and assault. We start with KGW's Dave Northfield marching with the demonstrators again tonight.

KRCW "Downtown Black Friday" 11/25/2016 10:00 PM 2:34

Portland's living room, lit up and alive, and brimming over with Christmas spirit. For many black Friday began before dawn. Shoppers searching the stores for sales saving some but mostly spending. Not everyone embraced black Friday. Some even protested against it in the pearl district, dozens of people set up tables on NW 13th & Everett. They blocked traffic, but invited those in need to eat with them and pick up supplies. They called it a block party some danced. Others carried signs supporting the "black lives matter" movement which to them far outweighs black Friday. Back at the tree lighting there's a glow not just coming from the tree but also from the faces beaming with a spirit of hope.

KRCW "SW Slide Concerns" 12/2/2016 10:00 PM : 29

First at 10, a hillside sliding and homes slipping off their foundation! It's happening in southwest Portland and tonight, several families are is placed. The city ordered mandatory evacuations of the seven unit apartment complex behind us. They also shut down a construction site.

The ground here isn't stable and they're not sure why. The foundation under the southwest Portland apartment complex is shifting. The soil beneath it, unstable. Part of the parking lot's a foot lower than it was last week. Now, the city's ordering everyone out for their safety.

KRCW "Power Lines Max Tracks" 12/9/2016 10:00 PM 1:52

First at 10 tonight breaking news. In the last 15-minutes trapped max riders were escorted off a stopped train. "Portland fire" tells us a couple of "high tension" lines went down blocking the ramps off 205 to Glisan and i-84. TriMet officials tell us that max train stopped near the "gateway station because of the downed lines and power outage.

KRCW "Dallas Officer Shot" 12/16/2016 10:00 PM: 26

One Dallas police officer was shot but investigators say he's going to be ok his injuries are not serious. As for the man suspected of shooting him he did not survive.

KRCW "UO Sex Investigation" 12/23/2016 10:00 PM 1:06

Two Oregon ducks football players are under investigation over reports of sexual assault. The lane county district attorney confirmed the investigation involving freshmen "Tristen Wallace" and "Darrian franklin". Our news partner the Oregonian reports former coach Mark Helfrich suspended both players back in October - and they remain suspended indefinitely. They are also banned from campus. However police haven't charged them with a crime. Details about this case are limited because the investigation is ongoing. Both are highly rated recruits and were red-shirted for the 2016 season.

HEALTH CARE ISSUES

KRCW remains committed to reporting on health news and safety alerts to help viewer's live productive lives.

KRCW "Cannabis Beer" 10/7/2016 10:00 PM : 47

Some think this creation from Colorado could become a hit in Oregon. It's a cannabis-infused beer called "General Washington's secret stash." a brewery has been selling it for a year in Colorado. But it's about to become available in all 50 states. Because the beer doesn't actually get you high the brewery got permission from the government to sell it. Marijuana is legal here in Oregon but it's still illegal on a federal level.

KRCW "Red Cross Aid" 10/14/2016 10:00 PM 1:06

Continuing our severe weather coverage tonight. Once word got out that a tornado took out homes and businesses in manzanita, the Red Cross jumped into action. Their number one concern is to make sure people get the help they need. Right now volunteers are already on the ground in manzanita and it's possible more may go, depending on what kind of weather we get this weekend. A shelter has already been set up at Calvary bible church in manzanita for folks recovering from the damage.

KRCW "Explosion Asbestos" 10/21/2016 10:00 PM : 42

The investigation into the "gas explosion" on northwest 23rd "stopped" unexpectedly today after crews on the scene found "asbestos" in the rubble. They re-started the investigation just after 5 p-m. The dew found *no health risk to the public. But today's delay isn't good news for businesses. This development means the block likely won't be re-opening this weekend which is a huge disappointment to the business owners.

KRCW "Salem Motel Theft" 10/28/2016 10:00 PM 2:13

Room 210 at the super 8 in Salem looks nothing like it did at the beginning of the week. In fact it looks very little like a hotel room at all with the holes in the wall and missing things. Assistant g-m amarsaini says a man and woman checked in on Wednesday night. Security cameras show them walking in. They stay for an hour and leave separately. The woman then returns with three other men. Again it's captured by security cameras.

Three hours later the woman leaves with only one guy. Check it out. Over the course of the next several hours. The two remaining men left as well.

But not empty handed. Hotel management says they took the room safe and table lamps. Even more so now. They have to clean up the mess left behind by the burglars. Then replace the stolen items. An inconvenience for any business. But especially for a small, family-owned one.

KRCW "Bata clan to Reopen" 11/4/2016 10:00 PM 1:07

The deadliest site of last year's attacks in Paris is set to reopen. The musician "Sting" is set to headline the re-opening concert of the "Bata clan" theater in Paris. It's been closed since last year's terror attack. That killed 130 people across the city. 90 of them inside the concert hall. It's been closed ever since undergoing extensive renovations. The concert is set for November 12th and comes one day before the anniversary of the attacks. All of the proceeds from the concert will go to charities supporting the victims. Sting says he hopes the concert will help Parisians "remember and honor those who lost their lives".

KRCW "Protest Cleanup" 11/11/2016 10:00 PM 1:37

This is that striking 'before picture'. Oregon's state seal with the anarchist logo painted over it. The work protest leaders say of violent rioters who hijacked their demonstration and their city. Today volunteers spent hours taking Portland back. They started in the pearl. Sweeping up glass and scrubbing graffiti. Boarded up windows became the norm. Lee Thomson was there all morning. Then she headed east to keep working. The graffiti slowly... Coming off. A lot of these people are tired. Especially knowing repairing the damage is the easy part healing will be much harder.

KRCW "Gresham Homicide Update" 11/25/2016 10:00 PM : 58

Police have named a suspect in a deadly shooting in Gresham earlier this week. Police say they are looking for 30-year-old Demarcostreeter of Portland. Streeter is wanted in connection to a shooting of "Harry Brogdon, junior". Brogdon was found shot to death Wednesday morning on southeast Stephens circle. Police believe streetwear is driving a black, four door sedan similar to this one with an "s-s" emblem on the front passenger door. The car may be a rental. Police say streetwear is considered armed and dangerous if you see him call 911.

KRCW "Michigan Yoga Instructor" 12/2/2016 10:00 PM : 28

A Michigan yoga teacher isn't just teaching her students to be healthy. She's teaching them you're never "too old" to do what you love! That's ill Hanson. She just turned 105 years old a couple days ago! It's not stopping her from teaching yoga once a week at her local senior center. Her class is made up of people in their 70s and 80s. Who when you think about it are young enough to be her children. But "ill" doesn't think of it that way saying she refuses to let her age define her. This probably won't surprise you but I'll still lives alone in the house she grew up in. She's also the president of her local bridge team.

KRCW "Mumps Outbreak" 12/9/2016 10:00 PM 1:09

Cases of mumps have hit a ten- year high this year. And it's hitting college campuses especially hard just in time for finals. Health officials are concerned it could spread even more when the students come home for the holidays. It's hitting almost every state. There are more than 38-hundred confirmed cases so far-- more than triple the number last year. The outbreaks are sometimes started by people who are *unvaccinated-- or under vaccinated who didn't get booster shots.

KRCW “Pot Delivery” 12/16/2016 10:00 PM : 47

Portland could start allowing marijuana delivery in the city. A proposed change to city policy would get rid of the restriction on delivery and allow couriers to apply for a license. Those couriers would not be allowed to sell pot from a storefront. They could deliver to both medical and recreational users. The city says it's a way to get more entrepreneurs into the industry. The council is expected to vote on the change next week.

KRCW “Terminal One Sale” 12/23/2016 10:00 PM 1:21

Portland is selling a spot homeless advocates had pushed to turn into a shelter. Medford based "Lithia motors" is buying "terminal one" for 12-point-5 million dollars. That's a lot more than the city expected to get. It bought the property for 6-point-3 million...back in 2004. Terminal one's size and location on the Willamette just north of the Fremont Bridge boosted its value. However homeless advocates say this was a missed opportunity.

MONEY, BUSINESS & TECHNOLOGY: CONSUMER AND ECONOMIC ISSUES

KRCW keeps a close watch on economic developments and consumer warnings to aid viewers in making wise spending decisions.

KRCW "Measure 97 Ad" 10/7/2016 10:00 PM : 42

It's an important issue on the ballot measure 97. Tonight - supporters say Comcast censored their ads, which mention them in a negative light. The measure would add a 2-point-5 percent tax on gross annual sales for companies doing more than 25-million-dollars a year in Oregon business. That money would fund education, health care and senior services.

Comcast told supporters if they wanted the ads to air, they had to remove the cable company's name and logo and it's not sitting well with many. What Comcast is doing is legal. They issued a brief statement saying the changes were made to protect the company's brand.

KRCW "Moxie Store Owner" 10/14/2016 10:00 PM 1:09

A lot of small businesses in manzanita are seriously damaged because of the tornado. The owner of a business called 'moxie' says the storm may have cost her everything. Sarah Simmons said she was planning to get everything out before *tomorrow's storm thinking she'd have time.

But now the roof is too unstable for her to get anything. She's owned moxie for 11 years. The store works with people all over the world especially women's cooperatives. Simmons says they'll pull through and is grateful for the support she's already getting.

KRCW "Drive-In Closing" 10/21/2016 10:00 PM : 28

One of the last drive-in theaters in Oregon. May be closing for good. The owners of "Dallas motor view drive-in" says this weekend could be their last! Keg's Katherine cook is just back from Dallas where a lot of people showed their support tonight.

KRCW "Uber Making Halloween Safe" 10/28/2016 10:00 PM 1:35

A former Portland police officer turned "umber" driver is offering up some tips to stay "safe" this Halloween weekend. "Kevin macho" (mock-oh) says-- calling for a ride home is a good *first step but there are other things to pay attention to. First make sure you're getting in the right car. Wait inside for your driver -- don't risk drawing attention to yourself as a potential target. And if you're driving "macho" says pay special attention during the hours when children are trick-or-treating Monday.

Their height can make them hard to see. Drive slower and as always, don't drink and drive.

KRCW "Food Cart Burglaries" 11/4/2016 10:00 PM 1:17

There have now been six break-ins at Portland food cart pods - in less than two weeks. The latest target the "piedmont station" carts near northeast killings worth and 7th. The thief cut a hole in the cyclone fence at the back of the pod...away from the watchful eye of the security camera. The thief stole from 5 carts and broke into a sixth without taking anything. It happened at around 2:30 this morning. Another food cart pod on killings worth and 42nd was hit earlier this week. Last week -- vandals hit the Portland Mercado and other food cart pods in southeast Portland.

KRCW "MODA Center Protest" 11/11/2016 10:00 PM : 50

We want to talk about the other big impact from this protest tonight-- we're talking about tens of thousands of people potentially stranded in the rose quarter following tonight's blazers and winter hawks games.

A lot of them-- probably trying to figure out how they're getting home-- because TriMet service has been disrupted and many of the area's roads are closed. The trail blazers even announced to the crowd tonight that they'd potentially have to wait for the protest to disperse.

KRCW "Hazelnut Pods" 11/25/2016 10:00 PM 2:03

It's barely big enough to fit a bed inside but this tiny home--built by volunteers at the rebuilding center in north Portland is about to become a much loved home. Loki Hamilton arrived at the hazelnut homeless camp between Greeley and Interstate Avenue--a year ago. She lived in a tent for a while--sometimes on city streets. Eventually another camper let her sleep in his tiny house but now she's getting her own space. Hazelnut grove is transitioning from tents to more permanent housing the goal is to have 30 little homes here. Today they're getting help from volunteers and students from arbor school. Andy oilskin is part of the citizen's crime commission--and thinks hazelnut grove may hold a solution and an example for many. She looks forward to her new home a reality that is still sinking in.

KRCW "Pot Shortage" 12/2/2016 10:00 PM : 59

There's an "emergency change" in pot testing to protect both public safety and Oregon's marijuana industry. The Oregon health authority is putting in temporary rules requiring fewer marijuana samples to be tested. Since Oregon started the process in October--marijuana growers and dispensaries say the cost of testing has driven up their prices created a supply shortage-- and driven customers back to the black market. The "o-h-a" plans to revise the rules moving forward to make sure there are *no harmful chemicals in the pot sold in the state. Governor Brown says-- the emergency change will make marijuana testing more efficient.

KRCW “Gorge Weather Impact” 12/9/2016 10:00 PM : 58

It was a rough day out in the gorge. They didn't see any thawing and an ice storm warning is in effect tonight. Cars crept along the roads all day-- though things have sped up a bit tonight. But road conditions there are still pretty nasty. Some truck drivers waited in Troutdale for a break in the weather while others headed east. And if they didn't have chains on already-- they quickly re-considered. That ice storm warning is in effect until 4 a-m.

KRCW “Ducks Defensive Coordinator” 12/16/2016 10:00 PM : 46

It's a big day for ducks fans. The Oregon football team hired a new defensive coordinator. His name is Jim Leavitt. The school made it official today. Leavitt spent the last two seasons turning around Colorado's defense as the buffalo's coordinator. Before that, he was an assistant coach with the 49ers under Jim herbage. According to fox sports, Leavitt is expected to be the highest paid assistant coach in Pac 12 history

KRCW “Grandparent Scams” 12/23/2016 10:00 PM 1:20

Grandparents need to be on alert tonight. Especially if you get a phone call like the one this guy got. Ken springer said when he picked up the phone it sounded like his grandson. And it sounded like he was in trouble.

The voice on the other side said he got into a car wreck and could face drunk driving charges and needed some money. So ken wired 17-hundred bucks to an attorney or so he thought. It turns out it was all a hoax.

His grandson was fine someone just scammed him.

ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

KRCW covered a variety of environmental topics. We strived to make sure viewers could stay apprised of severe weather events, pollutants in the environment, and the vitality of the region's natural resources.

KRCW "Hurricane Relief" 10/7/2016 10:00 PM : 38

Hurricane relief help continues. In Vancouver, "forward edge international" is working to help those suffering in Haiti. More than 800 people there were killed by this storm. Homes and villages are washed away. Buildings are destroyed and victims are still being discovered in the rubble. "Forward edge international" says it needs donations to help. The group is also helping volunteers get to the areas in Haiti - hit hard by the storm.

KRCW "Metro Flooding" 10/14/2016 10:00 PM 1:25

Just to the east of the east Moreland golf course. Traffic came to a screeching halt. A torrential downpour flooded the intersection of southeast 28th and Martins. Two cars stalled out in the high water.

Several others managed to stop just shy of it. Kailey Herren passed the time by talking on Facebook live then with us she explained how she had to pull over because her 19-80 Datsun was no match for the urban flooding. Kayleeditlefsen spent her Friday evening along southeast Powell. Near 19th Avenue. Not because she was stuck. But because others were she watched vehicle after vehicle drive into water that was several feet deep. She and others assisted the drivers and passengers who got stranded a lot of the flooding can be blamed on clogged storm drains.

Drains covered by the leaves that have been falling in recent weeks.

This was the scene along southeast Cesar Chavez. Neighbors doing their part to keep streets clear and traffic moving.

KRCW "New Giraffe" 10/21/2016 10:00 PM : 37

The "Oregon zoo" has another new resident. And this little guy isn't so little! Meet "buttercup" the giraffe. He is two-years-old 12-feet tall and is making his new home in the "Africa savanna" area of the zoo. "Buttercup" arrived in town Wednesday morning-- in an extra-tall trailer.

KRCW "Plane Crashes" 10/28/2016 10:00 PM 1:00

A crazy day on airport runways. Two planes caught fire today. Video from inside an American Airlines flight that caught fire in Chicago shows chaos inside the plane as terrified passengers try to get out. At least eight people were injured fire officials say more than 20 people went to the hospital. And tonight some mixed reports about what happened there. The FAA says the plane blew a tire. American Airlines says the engine malfunctioned. Whatever it was, it was a terrifying scene. The second plane fire today happened this evening in Fort Lauderdale. A FedEx plane burst into flames after the landing gear collapsed. Both pilots got out of the plane okay!

KRCW “Mystery Illness Identified” 11/4/2016 10:00 PM 47

The c-d-c says eight Washington kids sent to the hospital with a neurological illness have a rare disorder called "acute flaccid myelitis." it's a polio-like disorder that weakens the arms, legs and reflexes. Scientists at the c-d-c are trying to find the exact cause. They say a ninth boy who died last weekend did *not have a-f-m. It can be caused by common germs that cause colds and sore throats as well as more serious viruses.

KRCW “Yarn Bombing Downtown” 11/11/2016 10:00 PM : 47

And kicking off the holiday season -- several Portland statues are now a little more festive. City and business leaders all gathered at pioneer courthouse square today in "ugly Christmas sweaters" to kick off the holiday shopping season. That includes "yarn bombing" some statues with sweaters and scarves. You'll find them on the "allow me" statue in pioneer square. And on some of the "animals in pools" on Yamhill and Morrison streets.

KRCW “Christmas Tree Farms” 11/25/2016 10:00 PM 1:18

Now that Thanksgiving Day is over it's time for people to get their Christmas tree. But you might run into some problems finding the perfect fir this year. The supply of trees is down and that has Christmas tree farms all over the area scrambling to make sure they have enough trees to keep everyone happy. The u-s-d-a says last year's harvest and sales were down 26-percent compared to 20-10. For a while supply outpaced demand and a lot of farmers left the industry now those still growing trees are struggling to keep up. The tight supply means less selection. It also means you might pay a little more for your tree.

KRCW “TN Wildfires Update” 12/2/2016 10:00 PM : 40

Today many homeowners got their first look at the destruction in Tennessee after a historic wildfire. Officials say at least a thousand buildings throughout Gatlinburg and surrounding towns were damaged or destroyed by fire. And now 13-people are confirmed "dead." the fire's exact cause is still under investigation but the "national park service" says-- humans are behind it.

KRCW “Fukushima Radiation” 12/9/2016 10:00 PM 1:05

Radiation from Japan's Fukushima nuclear disaster has been detected for the first time on the Oregon coast. But levels are so low researchers say they don't pose a danger to people or the environment. Our news partners at the statesman journal report the radiation was found in ocean water samples taken from Tillamook Bay and gold beach. Radiation has also been found in some salmon in Canada but once again not at dangerous levels. Researchers have been tracking the radiation plume-- since the 2011 earthquake and tsunami and believe it has now spread from Alaska down to California. They say-- it's moving at roughly twice the speed of a snail!

KRCW “ODOT Salt Ice” 9/16/2016 10:00 PM 1:29

O-dot made a big shift in policy today. The agency says-- it will test salt on the roads state-wide on a limited basis. Odor says in our area that may include parts of i-5 near 99-w. Parts of sylvan hill and highway 26... All areas that were hit hard Wednesday night. For the last 4-years, odor has been using salt in pilot projects in southeast and southwest Oregon. Last night, odor used salt to clear ice on i-5 between Albany and Salem. The pilot program will last at least two years to collect data to compare its benefits with the economic and environmental impact.

KRCW “Increasing Railroad Standards” 12/23/2016 10:00 PM : 11

Today union pacific agreed to more thorough safety inspections six months after a train derailed in the gorge. The train went off the tracks near mossier sparking a fire that burned for 14 hours. Investigators say routine inspections should have caught a series of broken bolts on the rails. They also found more than 800 potential safety violations across the entire union pacific network. Inspectors will now have to inspect the type of bolts that caused the derailment every 120 days.

FAMILY AND COMMUNITY ISSUES

KRCW continued its focus on families and education with reports on school campus safety, family-oriented events in the area, crime prevention, and other stories that impacted families and the community at large.

KRCW "Bike and Brew" 10/7/2016 10:00 PM : 29

Speaking of brews the 9th annual handmade bike and beer festival kicked off tonight in north Portland! If you missed the opening the festival continues from 10 a-m to 8 p-m tomorrow. It features two of Portland's favorite things bikes and craft beer. It costs 10 dollars to get into the bike festival or 25 bucks for the bike show and beer package.

KRCW "Kaiser Lockdown" 10/14/2016 10:00 PM : 21

Scary moments in salmon creek as police descend on a "Kaiser Permanente" clinic to arrest a wanted man. It happened early this afternoon the clinic briefly went into lockdown mode as officials chased the suspect through the parking lot before taking him down and into custody. Thankfully no one was hurt. Early reports suggested an active shooter but it turned out to be a false alarm.

KRCW "Cyber Attacks" 10/21/2016 10:00 PM : 30

If you had trouble using your favorite internet service today ...chances are you're among the millions ...caught up in a massive cyberattack that spread to at least six countries. People blocked from using services like twitter, Netflix, amazon, PayPal and many, many more. Smart appliances were turned into an attacking army that overwhelmed a New Hampshire company named din ...which serves as an internet switchboard connecting users to web sites. Was it a state-sponsored attack by Russia or another country?

Was it black hat hackers? "There are a host of adversaries that can launch these types of attacks and we've got to make sure we are resilient network that is able to withstand these types of probes." the cyber-siege is more than an inconvenience. Two weeks before a presidential election, it's a reminder that the internet that makes our lives easier, can also makes us more vulnerable.

KRCW "Burns Reactions" 10/28/2016 10:00 PM : 48

Here in Harney County there are still lots of strong emotions about the federal government and land use now there are strong feelings about the verdict too. The Malheur refuge is limping back toward normal its friendly welcome is gone at the headquarters buildings now behind gates with guards and behind the scenes-in town there is concern. Isabelle Fleuraud is married to a federal employee and furious over the verdict. Ammon Bundy, his brother and supporters took over the Malheur national wildlife refuge January 2nd. they carried guns and posted security details and talked about giving the land controlled by the federal government--back to private citizens. It's exactly the sort of message Chris Briels wanted to hear. He is one of many in the burns area pleased with the not guilty verdicts. At the county courthouse--Steve Grasty--the county executive won't say what his reaction was at least not on camera.

KRCW "Blazers vs. Mavericks" 11/4/2016 10:00 PM : 49

The "portland trail blazers" got their first road win of the early season tonight! And they did so with a huge performance from their best player! The blazers knocked off the mavericks 105 to 95 in Dallas! Damian Millard had his best game of the year -- finishing with a season-high 42 points, 4 assists and 4 rebounds. Dillard was five of six on three pointers including some deep shots! The game was also terry stats' 300th win as head coach! The blazers next game is Sunday at Memphis.

KRCW "Bend Racism in Schools" 11/11/2016 10:00 PM 1:25

All across the country there are complaints about students harassing *other students at school in the wake of the election. Including Oregon. In bend -- students chanted trump and "build the wall" during lunch yesterday. A minority student said it started as people on both sides started arguing their support. After racist incidents across the country it has taken a toll on morale. Experts say-- teachers and parents need to come together to teach kids about the impact their words can have on others.

KRCW "Macy Portland Parade" 11/25/2016 10:00 PM : 22

Portland's holiday festivities kicked off with the annual "mace's" parade downtown. The tradition is famous for its floats but it also features costumed characters and you guessed it Santa himself! There were even real-life llamas and a new addition of a 12-foot tall snowman.

KRCW "Christmas Ships" 12/2/2016 10:00 PM : 46

Another Portland holiday tradition kicked off tonight. The Christmas ships returned to the Columbia and Willamette rivers.

60-boats are participating this year including seven-brand new displays.

The boats will parade for 15- nights. Check out the "Christmas ships website" to find out when and where the fleets will be out. This year the parade is on u-s-a today's list of "10 best holiday parades" in the country.

KRCW "West Burnside Trees Down" 12/9/2016 10:00 PM 1:36

The evening commute on west Burnside *interrupted by a falling tree. It took down several power poles and power lines with it. You'll notice p-g-e crews attempting to fix the mess. This incredible viewer video shows a tree crashing down near the intersection of northeast 42nd and wisteria. Zach Harris happened to be in the neighborhood. He said he heard a loud cracking sound followed by a ticking sound then boom. The same *can't be said about this power line damaged by the falling tree. A spokesperson with p-g-e says crews have been working around the clock to make repairs across the metro. But in some cases it may take hours before crews can get to a scene. Something to keep in mind as the big thaw continues. We haven't seen the last of scenes like this one. Downed power lines... And neighborhoods in the dark.

KRCW "Snow Heroes" 12/16/2016 10:00 PM 2:22

Wednesday night Nate all Britton's now beaten up sun was one of several stuck in what would become a 16 car pile-up. He had just seconds to act. Wednesday night Nate all Britton's now beaten up sun was one of several stuck in what would become a 16 car pile-up. He had just seconds to act.

But the bus did hit those cars. The kids still inside the sun. Thankfully the pile-up didn't move. The sun didn't crumble. The kids were okay. All Britton, his hands bleeding opened the sub's rear hatch and got the kids out. He walked with the family to safety. So the owner of Fairview based 'blue lake auto and rave repair' had taken his weather-ready sun down sandy boulevard toward 223rd looking for people who needed help. He found Connie Maher. The woman who wrote into our Facebook page. To say she and her husband. Like so many were stranded for several hours Wednesday night. Maher's husband fresh off an out-patient eye surgery. Wilson with that sun, towed their car to a gravel lot and drove the 70-something couple the rest of the way home.

KRCW "Santa Balloon" 12/28/2016 10:00 PM 1:07

Most kids mail their letter to Santa - but one girl decided to take to the air. Six year old Kenai (key-an-eye) page attached her letter to a balloon. It traveled about 800 miles from Louisiana to Indiana. And get this - it landed about 10 miles south of a town called "Santa Claus". "Rachel confined" found Kenai's letter - and decided to help Santa with this delivery. Rachel bought the gifts on Kenai's wish list and mailed them to her.

DECISION 2016 ELECTION

KRCW "Trump Comments and Reactions" 10/7/2016 10:00 PM 1:22

This short clip of Donald trump talking with entertainment reporter Billy bush. Is all we can share with you? The rest of the recording, taken from a 2005 taping for access Hollywood is too lewd and graphic. Trump boasts about getting physical with women and even a failed attempt to seduce-- his word-- a former host of access Hollywood. Political analyst Jim more thinks unlike trump's past antics this one could be a game changer for undecided voters. Rape survivor and activist Brenda Tracy hopes this does more than dissuade people from voting for trump. She hopes it opens their eyes to a broad culture fostered by men who've been allowed to behave like trump behavior trump excused tonight as quote - locker room banter. Trump is the republican presidential nominee but after this video more says there's no way celebrating that could help others on the republican ticket.

KRCW "BLM Protests" 10/14/2016 10:00 PM : 40

"Don't shoot portland" protesters have gathered outside mayor Charlie hales' home. They've set up tents to camp outside and are calling for him to resign. They're angry about the city council's vote to approve a new police contract and how police handled the protest that followed on Wednesday. Dozens of police officers have also gathered in the neighborhood, about a block away.

KRCW "Secretary of State" 10/21/2016 10:00 PM 1:20

"Secretary-of-state" is an important Oregon race but it seems many people don't even know who's running in it. According to a new poll republicans have the chance to win that election in Oregon for the first time in more than 30 years? The state wide poll found republican "Dennis Richardson" with 34- percent democrat brad avian with 33- percent and 26 percent of voters undecided. Our pat Dooris hit the streets to get local opinions and almost no one recognized either name. The secretary-of-state's office oversees elections and is second in line to become governor which is how Kate brown took office. It's important to note democrats do hold a large majority of registered voters in Oregon and could rely on party identification... *not "name recognition."

KRCW "Clinton Emails" 10/28/2016 10:00 PM 2:37

Hillary Clinton is trying to defuse a bombshell. Her campaign has gone from cruise control to crisis over a memo from FBI director James Comey to congressional leaders. He revealed the discovery of newly uncovered emails connected to Clinton's private server. Comey said it's not clear whether they contain classified information or are even important. Clinton: "we don't know the facts which is why we're calling on the FBI to release all the information it has. A law enforcement source telling NBC news the emails were found on a computer belonging to former congressman Anthony Weiner. The FBI is investigating whether he sent sexually explicit messages and photos to an underage girl. Weiner's wife is top Clinton aide Huma Abedin. After weeks of negative headlines ... It's a turn of good fortune for Donald Trump. It's unlikely to be settled before Election Day - which isn't good news for Clinton. Clinton says she's convinced voters have already made up their minds on the emails issue - but it's not something she wants to be talking about right now.

KRCW "Voter Turnout" 11/4/2016 10:00 PM 1:37

The election is just four days away. Now -- "robot calls" are targeting voters saying their ballots won't count. That information is wrong. Elections officials tell us if you got a ballot in the mail. Your registration is active and you're good to vote. Now the state is investigating to see if the calls are breaking any laws. State-wide, about 40 percent of voters have returned their ballots. Oregon has about 250-thousand more registered voters because of the motor voter law so it's possible the state will have a bigger number of voters but a slightly lower turnout percentage than four years ago.

KRCW "Election Night 2016" 10/28/2016 10:00 PM 30:00

We're also hearing from some of Oregon's leading politicians reacting to this surprising presidential results. Keg's pat Dooris has been with the democrats all evening-- many of whom are *simply shocked by what's happened. Now to one of the most *hotly contested races in Oregon. The corporate minimum tax. Measure 97. The controversial measure fails. It would have taxed big corporations that had more than 25 million dollars in sales in Oregon. Both supporters and opponents poured millions of dollars into ads. With "no on 97 eventually coming out on top." the hundreds of people here very excited and cheering the presidential election results all evening, watching it on the big screen. But more subdued for our statewide races as doctor bud pierce just couldn't get the votes. Pierce told me hours before the results came in, he would be completely at peace with the voter's decision. He was happy with the way he ran his campaign and says he was able to distinguish himself from Kate brown's views. But pierce had some gaffes that tripped him up during the campaign. In September, during his second debate with Kate brown, pierce said that well educated, wealthier women wouldn't be susceptible to abuse. His campaign spokeswoman quit later that day, saying she was offended by the comments. Pierce apologized but it wasn't going to help defeat a democratic for the first time since 1982. Bud pierce had endorsed Donald trump early on, but then backed off after trump's comments about women. Tonight he said, if he's elected president, he's our president and we have to support him so the country can go in the right direction. Norma Paulus. She was Oregon's last republican secretary of state in 1985. Tonight, it appears republican Dennis Richardson ends the democratic streak by a slim but widening margin he now leads democrat brad avian by 4 percent. Abakan has yet to make an appearance here at the democratic watch party. However, his campaign manager just shared this statement with us. It says "our campaign team is continuing to monitor the results closely. We are incredibly proud of the race we have run and are grateful for the thousands of volunteers and supporters across the state who helped us along the way." meanwhile in Salem Dennis Richardson just spoke with KGW he talked about how he would approach the secretary of state's job in a bi-partisan way foster a good working relationship with the governor.
