

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: July 1, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Sustainability & Hawaiian Affairs

Guests: Senator Kalani English, Senate District 7, Hawaii State Capitol

Synopsis: Hawaii Matter's Host Devon sits down with Senator Kalani English to get to know Senator English's role and responsibilities.

Senator English discusses the current culture in the Senate. Devon and Senator English have a conversation on Local issues being addressed in the Senate. Devon and Senator English talk about the 17 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and Senator English enlightens on the topic of Local government vs. Federal government policy

Hawaii Matters
Quarterly Report
Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: July 8, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Skin care in the sun

Guests: Dr. Allyson Spence-Shishido, pediatric dermatologist for Kaiser Permanente

Synopsis: With summer in full swing, Dr. Allyson Spence-Shishido, pediatric dermatologist for Kaiser Permanente, comes by Hawaii Matters to talk with Devon about how best to keep your keiki safe in the sun. We talk about the differences in sunscreens, how UV clothing works, and what exactly those SPF ratings you see on your sunscreen means.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: July 15, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Board of Water Supply

Guests: Sheri Mikami and Arthur Aiu, Community Relations specialists for the Board of Water Supply

Synopsis: Sheri Mikami and Arthur Aiu, Community Relations specialists for the Board of Water Supply, sits down with Hawaii Matters to talk about some of the history of the Board of Water Supply, the wonderful educational tours that you can take part in, and the special things that BWS has planned for the 30th annual Unthirsty Plant Sale at the Halawa Xeriscape Gardens in Halawa.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: July 22, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Helping Hands Hawaii

Guests: Jan Harada, President, and CEO of Helping Hands Hawaii

Synopsis: This morning, Jan Harada, President and CEO of Helping Hands Hawaii, comes by to talk with Devon about all of the services that HHH provides for people. From language access, which includes translation services, to behavior health services, and housing stabilization work, Helping Hands Hawaii is helping to make sure they help bridge the gap for people who are struggling.

Hawaii Matters
Quarterly Report
Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: July 29, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Senior Living

Guests: Percy Ihara, Editor/Publisher

Synopsis: Percy Ihara, Editor/Publisher, stops by Hawaii Matters to talk to Devon about “Generations magazine”, the free magazine that helps seniors stay healthy and find resources that can help them live active, full lives. He shares the inspiration behind how he became involved with Generations, and what he hopes to accomplish by providing this free publication for seniors.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: August 5, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Honolulu Department of Emergency Management

Guests: John Cummings III, Public Information Officer at the Honolulu Department of Emergency Management

Synopsis: This week on Hawaii Matters, our guest is John Cummings III, a public information officer with the Honolulu Department of Emergency Management. He helps us understand how the City of Honolulu and the State and Federal emergency management organizations work together and where their responsibilities lie, and also gives us an idea of what we can be expecting in the coming months as we move through hurricane season.

Hawaii Matters
Quarterly Report
Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: August 12, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Youth Sports Medicine

Guests: Dr. Ben Chun, a physician with Kaiser Permanente

Synopsis: Joining Devon in the Hawaii Matters studio is Dr. Ben Chun, a physician with Kaiser Permanente who specializes in Sports Medicine. We talk about children's sports and how specialization has lead to some repetitive sports injuries. We also talk about the current state of youth sports and how sports medicine is helping kids stay healthy and injury free.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: August 19, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Hawaii Nonprofit Organizations

Guests: Lisa Maruyama, President and CEO of the Hawaii Alliance of Nonprofit Organizations

Synopsis: Hawaii Matters welcomes Lisa Maruyama, President and CEO of the Hawaii Alliance of Nonprofit Organizations, otherwise known as HANO. She discusses what her organization does to assist non-profits to stay viable and healthy, and what they are doing to help the work of non-profits overall. We also discuss the changing landscape that non-profits are facing, and what can be done to help them achieve their goals.

Hawaii Matters
Quarterly Report
Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: August 26, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Hunger

Guests: Ku'ulei Williams, executive director of Aloha Harvest

Synopsis: Ku'ulei Williams, executive director of Aloha Harvest, stops by to tell us what Aloha Harvest does. She explains how Aloha Harvest takes advantage of the Good Samaritan law to allow groups to donate unused food from stores, hotels and other large producers of meals to those in need. We go over the way the Good Samaritan Law works, discuss how Aloha Harvest collects and distributes the food, and explain how people can get their companies to participate.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: September 2, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: financial health

Guests: Andrew Rosen of Hawaii State Federal Credit Union

Synopsis: In this week's episode of Hawaii Matters, Andrew Rosen of Hawaii State Federal Credit Union stops by to talk with Devon about financial health. He explains that it's more than just how much money you have in the bank, and some of the resources available to you that can help you better understand and support your goals.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: September 9, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Body Mass Index

Guests: Dr. Peggy Latare from Kaiser Permanente Hawaii

Synopsis: Dr. Peggy Latare from Kaiser Permanente Hawaii discusses the importance of maintaining a healthy weight. She talks about the health measuring tool, the Body Mass Index (BMI). We delve into the difference between “overweight” and “obese.” She also addresses obesity in kids both here in Hawaii and nationwide. How Hawaii compares in general to the rest of the nation as far as weight and health are concerned. We talk about some of the various diets, which ones work, and what’s best for one person may not be the best for another. Bariatric surgery has been an option over the last decade or so. Dr. Latare addresses some of the basic info from this area of weight management.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: September 16, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: Department of Emergency Management

Guests: John Cummings III, Public Information Officer at the Honolulu Department of Emergency Management

Synopsis: This week on Hawaii Matters, our guest is John Cummings III, a public information officer with the Honolulu Department of Emergency Management. He helps us understand how the City of Honolulu and the State and Federal emergency management organizations work together and where their responsibilities lie, and also gives us an idea of what we can be expecting in the coming months as we move through hurricane season.

Hawaii Matters

Quarterly Report

Jul Aug Sep 2018

Air Date: September 23, 2018

Aired on : KQMQ, KUMU, KDDB, KPOI

Air Time: 6:30

Duration: 30 minutes

Topic: homeless housing

Guests: Duane Kurisu, Founder, and Chairman of the AIO family of companies

Synopsis: A special guest for this week's Hawaii Matters: Duane Kurisu, Founder, and Chairman of the AIO family of companies. He talks with Devon about the dedication and many hands that went into the creation and building of the Kahauiki village, which is a homeless housing community that aims to bring hope and stability to Hawaii's working poor. He talks about how the project came together, and also how the group's shared remembrance of a Hawaii that was, informed and guided them as they try to bring some of those values to Kahauiki.