

DATE	ISSUE	PROGRAM	INFORMATION
1-6	Teens self-medicating with pot	Parenting Today's Teens	Mark Gregston lays out healthy ways parents can help their children escape marijuana addiction/dependency.
1-15	Gaining courage for the toughest trials	A New Beginning	Pastor Greg Laurie delves into what God means when He says "be of good courage" and how we can have renewed confidence in Christ in times of trouble.
1-25	Alternatives to health insurance	Faith & Finance	Host Rob West and special guest Lauren Gajdek supply listeners who missed the "open enrollment" health insurance deadline to explore helpful alternatives.
2-3	Dare to dream	You Are There	Host Jerry Stewart emphasizes the importance of having a dream and how such aspirations play an important role in individuals' personal development and in American society as a whole.
2-17	Border crisis and the threat of terrorism	Dacus Report	Brad Dacus looks at Congress' attempts to deal with the border crisis and also explores the threat Hamas poses to Israel and the US today.
2-18	Confronting injustice without compromising truth	Crossroads	Hosts Rita Peters and Mark Meckler continue a series analyzing and applying cultural observations made by Thaddeus J. Williams in his recent book regarding the "Twelve questions Christians should ask about 'Social Justice.'"
3-4	Humility and focus on Jesus	Discover the Word	The panel of hosts discuss how John the Baptist used his actions AND words to pointed to Jesus instead of HIMSELF.

3-13	How to keep romance alive in marriage	Family Life Today	The hosts and special guests talk about bringing back burning love to marriage, having meaningful chats, and being honest and aware when things feel off in the relationship.
3-22	Jesus' death on the cross for sinners	Groundwork	The importance of the gospel accounts of Jesus' crucifixion to the message of salvation is presented as a beautiful tapestry clearly revealing the significance of what Jesus accomplished on the cross.