

WZSR-FM, STAR 105.5

Woodstock, Illinois

Quarterly Issues/Programming Report for January through March 2018

During this quarter, this station gave particular attention to the issues listed in the following report. These issues are not listed in order of importance and it should be noted that the station may have also aired other programming that was responsive to the community's informational needs.

ISSUE: COMMUNITY

Program Name Northwest Spectrum

Date January 7, February 11, March 11

Time and Duration 15minutes, 6am

Description

01-07 Interview with Charlie Sedivec, head of public relations for the Norge Ski Club...talking about the upcoming Norge Ski Tournament. This is a special event in that at least three ski jumpers are going to compete in the upcoming Winter Olympics.

02-11 Interview with Sue Dobbe Leahy, emcee for the Western Auction, Rotary Dawnbreaker Sue Kirby, and Rotary member Ryan Yantis. The Rotary Club of Crystal Lake Dawnbreakers has given away more than $1.5 million to charity....and they're back at it again.

03-11 Interview of Nancy Lingway, owner of A Car Tune and Stephanie Wilson, a distance learning specialist at McHenry County College. In a month-long celebration of Women's History Month, MCC is hosting events that honor contributions of women in history. One such celebration is called "Breaking The Barriers," a panel discussion that looked at women in non-traditional occupations.

ISSUE: HEALTH

Program Name Northwest Spectrum
Date January 21, February 25
Time and Duration 15 minutes, 6am

Description

01-21 Interview with Susan Karras, director of nursing and Keri Zaleski, community information coordinator for the McHenry County Department of Health. Cases of flu have been increasing throughout northern Illinois ...enough reason to bring back a couple of health officials with excellent information on the flu.

02-25 Interview with Pioneer Center For Human Services co-CEO Sam Tenuto and Pioneer Center Vocational Manager Sara Maxwell. Because March is Developmental Disability Awareness Month and that Pioneer Center is observing 60 years of service, Northwest Spectrum wanted to open up for discussion the work of the Pioneer Center in the world of developmental disabilities and the fact that more people either know someone with a developmental disability or are receiving treatment themselves for such medical conditions as autism, genetic disabilities and brain injuries.

ISSUE: GOVERNMENT

Program Name Northwest Spectrum
Date February 4, March 20
Time and Duration 15minutes, 6am

Description

02-04 Interview with Bob Anderson, a member of the McHenry Township Board of Trustees and a leading advocate of letting voters decide on the future services of road districts. The future of township road districts may hinge on what happens with an upcoming vote.

03-20 Primary election reports of 40 seconds twice an hour, beginning in the 8pm hour. Eight reports in total between 8pm and midnight on McHenry County primary contested races. Also complete election reports for McHenry County on the morning news; three newscasts/election wrap ups of 90-seconds apiece....or 4 ½ minutes total of election information on March 21st on the Joe and Tina Morning Show.

ISSUE: EDUCATION

Program Name Northwest Spectrum

Date March 4, March 25

Time and Duration 15minutes, 6am

Description

03-04 Interview with Dr. Clinton Gabbard, president of McHenry County College. Changing with the times, an agenda on target at MCC in tune with economic development. Discussion of the new state of the art Science Center, doubling down on jobs in great demand, helping veterans returning home from active duty and how to educate for the agricultural climate of the northwest suburbs.

03-25 Interview with McHenry County College Student Peace Action Network (SPAN) Pat Gaughan and three members of the Student Peace Action Network, Amber Steiger of Woodstock, McKenna Doherty of Crystal Lake, and Megan Bednaroski of Crystal Lake. Raising awareness of sexual violence, offering resources and promoting health are the key parts of an April 11th event called "Take BackThe Night," at McHenry County College.