

4th Quarter Public Affairs Programming. Airtime Today is aired at 9:40 am Sundays and is a 20 minute commercial free program.

20161009

Host: David Ramirez, Airtime Today

Guest: Alexandria Winslow, Artist

Topic: Exhibition – AZ Weather at Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport

Tucson-area artist Alexandria Winslow was this week's guest on "Air Time with Phoenix Sky Harbor." Winslow has acrylic paintings in an exhibition at Phoenix Sky Harbor called "Arizona Weather – From Duststorms to Snowstorms," which will be on display in Terminal 4, level 3 through March 19, 2017. Winslow discusses her work and background as an artist.

20161023

Host: David Ramirez, Airtime Today

Guest: Kelly Sandbrink, Operations and Program Manager USO at Phoenix Sky Harbor

Topic: USO programs at PSH Airport

Kelly Sandbrink, USO Arizona Operations and Programs Manager, was on "Air Time with Phoenix Sky Harbor". She talked about upcoming USO programs and services throughout the state and at the USO Center at Phoenix Sky Harbor, which is open every day of the week and located in Terminal 4, east end, level 2. The 1300 square foot space is donated to the USO and everything at the USO center is free for military families. No reservations are necessary.

20161030

Host: David Ramirez, Airtime Today

Guest: June Mikkila and Steve Brumm Navigator Volunteers at Phoenix Sky Harbor

Topic: Navigator Volunteer Program at Phoenix Sky Harbor

Navigators June Mikkila and Steve Brumm were this week's guests on "Air Time with Phoenix Sky Harbor." The veteran volunteers discuss what it's like to be a Navigator at the airport, and the rewards they get from helping people passing through America's Friendliest Airport. They discussed their success stories and got a sneak peak at the newly refurbished terminal 3. Navigators are dressed in purple. One thing they realized is that not everyone who is travelling is on vacation and that help is really needed.

20161113

Host: David Ramirez, Airtime Today

Guest: Frank Gonzales, Artist

Topic: Relief In The Desert Exhibition

Frank Gonzales, a local artist and preparator at the Mesa Contemporary Art Museum, was this week's guest on "Air Time with Phoenix Sky." He discusses his artwork included in the current "Relief in the Desert" art exhibition in Terminal 4, as well as his background and showings throughout the United States. Birds are a theme in his art and Relief In the Desert features a cardinal.

20161204

Host: David Ramirez, Airtime Today

Guest: Ben Carpenter, Superintendent of Parking at Phoenix Sky Harbor

Guest: Craig Doyle, Business and Properties Services Team

Topic: Parking at Phoenix Sky Harbor

Ben Carpenter and Craig Doyle from the airport's Operations team are this week's guests on "Air Time with Phoenix Sky Harbor." The pair will highlight how the recently introduced valet parking program is working at America's Friendliest Airport, and how customers can take advantage of the new service. After studying the issue of valet parking for 2 years and looking at how other airports such as Dallas Fort Worth, San Francisco, and Las Vegas have implemented valet parking, Phoenix Sky Harbor introduced valet parking on 11/14/2016. Two separate services were launched off site and onsite valet parking. Epic Valet won the offsite contract and Freedom Park won the onsite contract.

20161211

Host: David Ramirez, Airtime Today

Guest: David Ross, Information Technology Analyst

Topic: Wait Times

David Ross, Information Technology Analyst, was this week's guest "Air Time with Phoenix Sky Harbor." David describes how passengers can view security wait times before they travel to Sky Harbor and again when they arrive at the airport courtesy of a listing of the checkpoint wait times. These times are posted on the airport's website and several places throughout Sky Harbor. The average wait time is 15 minutes. During peak times wait times can be much longer. Installing the sensors and the technology hardware was the hardest part of the process.

20161218

Host: David Ramirez, Airtime Today

Guest: Mary Shindell. Artist

Topic: Desert In The Details Exhibition

Mary discussed her work that is part of the "Desert in the Details" art exhibition, which is on display in the new Terminal 3 Gallery. She also touched upon her extensive public art that can be seen in several Valley cities, as well as her work in different mediums.