Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming 4th Quarter, 2023

Issue: Las Vegas Ride for Kids

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 7th and Sunday, October 8th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “12 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The demand for pediatric brain tumor research and family support is at an all-time high. More children under the age of 19 are diagnosed and dying from brain tumors than ever before. The Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation’s Ride for Kids is an annual fundraiser to help lead the way toward a future without childhood brain cancer. Participants are invited to hit the open road with their motorcycle.

Ride for Kids is the longest-running national motorcycle charity program with fundraising events across the country. Funds support promising early-stage research, focus greater attention on advocating for children with brain cancer, and direct family support resources where each dollar will have the greatest impact. Shannon McEwen, Task Force Leader for Las Vegas Ride for Kids, discussed the annual motorcycle ride in support of the Pediatric Brain Tumor Foundation.

Issue: Unshakeable Fundraiser

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 7th and Sunday, October 8th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “8 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Local nonprofit Unshakeable, with a mission to guide women recovering from various types of traumas, hosted one of the year’s most awaited fundraisers, The Most Horrible Horror Movie Ever. The 7th annual screening of the campy horror film Ghosts of Goldfield took place at The Beverly Theater in downtown Las Vegas.

Founded in 2016 by Debbie Isaacs, Unshakeable helps survivors of human trafficking, domestic and sexual violence, addiction, and homelessness. The organization guides women to return to the workforce to achieve financial independence. In 2007, Debbie produced Ghosts of Goldfield, based on the actual haunted hotel in Goldfield, Nevada. She admits this movie is not very good, but it began her production career. She screens the movie as a fundraiser for Unshakeable, because, like the clients of Unshakeable, “your past doesn’t define you.” Debbie discussed the organization and her annual fundraising screening of Ghosts of Goldfield.

Issue: Green Our Planet

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 14th and Sunday, October 15th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “17 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Green Our Planet has been making strides in the Las Vegas Valley and across the nation. Green Our Planet, a nationally recognized nonprofit located in middle of the Mojave Desert, was founded in 2013 and runs the largest school garden and hydroponics programs in the United States working with more than 500 schools and impacting over 200,000 students.

The garden program provides the ability for students to learn about nutrition, science, conservation and math through hands-on experience in outdoor gardens and hydroponics laboratories. Ciara Byrne, CEO and Co-Founder of Green Our Planet, discussed the organization’s 10th anniversary and their Giant Students Farmers Markets that teach kids financial literacy.

Issue: ADHD Awareness Month

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 14th and Sunday, October 15th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Over seven million children and over 23 million adults in the United States are diagnosed with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) with estimates suggesting that up to 50% of individuals are not receiving proper evaluation and treatment. And, ADHD diagnosis in the US, for school kids, has increased by 43% in less than 10 years.

That’s why ADHD Awareness Month is a critical time to raise awareness about the prevalence of ADHD as well as promote early identification and intervention – all which are vital steps in ensuring individuals with ADHD receive the support and resources they need to thrive. Dr. Ned Hallowell, one of the country’s foremost medical experts on ADHD, and Nancy Armstrong, Executive Producer of “The Disruptors”, discussed misconceptions and advancements around ADHD for ADHD Awareness Month.

Issue: National Bullying Prevention Month

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 14th and Sunday, October 15th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “8 minutes of a 60-minute program”

More than one third of teens reported being bullied in the past year, according to The Choose Kindness Project Survey conducted by Ipsos, with significantly higher rates for some groups. The survey also found that bullying happens in different places but is most frequently reported at school. And, of those bullied, 65% say bullying has had an impact on their mental health and confidence, while nearly one in three parents do not feel they have the resources to deal with bullying issues.

Dr. Yalda T. Uhls, child psychologist, author and Founder of the Center for Scholars & Storytellers at UCLA, discussed The Choose Kindness Project for National Bullying Prevention Month.

Issue: Communities in Schools Today for Tomorrow Gala

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 21st and Sunday, October 22nd, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Communities In Schools of Nevada (CIS of Nevada), part of the nation’s leading evidence-based stay-in-school organization, announced the return of its 13th annual fundraiser, Today for Tomorrow, with a Lace up for the Future theme to pay tribute to sneakerhead culture.

This year’s gala honored President Nikki Fargas and the 2022 World Champion Las Vegas Aces, who support equality into action as example role models for local students, demonstrating what can happen when talent and opportunity meet up. Tami Hance-Lehr, CEO and state director for Communities in Schools of Nevada, discussed the organization and their Today for Tomorrow fundraising gala.

Issue: Nevada State Contractors Board on Contract Requirements

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 21st and Sunday, October 22nd, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “12 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The Nevada State Contractors Board wants to make Nevada homeowners aware of new contract requirements for residential improvement projects. One of the most significant consumer protections included in the new law pertains to down payments – an area that has historically been tied to many consumer complaints and fraudulent actions when the work completed does not equal the amount that had been paid.

As of October 1, consumers engaging in contracts for home improvements to their single-family residence are required to pay no more than $1,000 or 10% of the aggregate contract price, whichever is less. Jennifer Lewis, PIO for the Nevada State Contractors Board, discussed the new statewide contract requirements for homeowners to be aware of.

Issue: Make-A-Wish Southern Nevada Star Unveiling

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 28th and Sunday, October 29th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “17 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The Neon Museum placed a neon Rivera Star on loan at The Wishing Place, headquarters of Make-A-Wish Southern Nevada. The Rivera Star was unveiled by representatives of The Neon Museum and Make-A-Wish Southern Nevada during a special ceremony attended by the nonprofits' donors and supporters.

Scott Rosenzweig, President and CEO of Make-A-Wish Southern Nevada, Aaron Berger, Executive Director of The Neon Museum, and magician Criss Angel, first recipient of the Beacon of Hope Award, discussed the organization at their Wish Upon a Neon Star unveiling.

Issue: Speedway Children's Charities PJ 5K Run

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, October 28th and Sunday, October 29th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "22 minutes of a 60-minute program"

Speedway Children's Charities held their 10th annual PJ 5K Run & 1-Mile Walk through Glittering Lights at Las Vegas Motor Speedway. Participants were invited to walk, run and push children in strollers through Nevada's premiere drive-through light show, all in pajamas. Those who donated a new pair of children's pajamas were entered into a drawing to win two tickets to Las Vegas Motor Speedway's 2024 NASCAR Race.

All donations support local children with educational, social, medical and financial needs to help them lead better lives. Paulette Anderson, Executive Director for the Las Vegas Chapter of Speedway Children's Charities, discussed their annual PJ 5K Run and other fundraising initiatives.

Issue: Three Square Holiday Match Campaign

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, November 4th and Sunday, November 5th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "10 minutes of a 60-minute program"

Three Square's mission is to provide wholesome food to hungry people, while passionately pursuing a hunger-free community. They work with a service network of community partners, including nonprofit and faith-based organizations, schools and after school and feeding sites, to reach struggling individuals and families at risk of hunger.

Kate Hibbard Gaines, Director of Development for Three Square, discussed the food bank's year-end Holiday Match Campaign, which means every dollar donated can provide up to six meals for hungry Nevada residents.

Issue: Project Homeless Connect

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, November 4th and Sunday, November 5th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “16 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The annual Project Homeless Connect event serves the Las Vegas valley’s homeless and low-income populations. In partnership with Nevada Homeless Alliance, Touro University Nevada, home to Nevada’s largest medical school, serves as the medical partner for the event. Faculty and students from Touro’s Physician Assistant program and Occupational Therapy department were on hand to provide general wellness exams and screenings, administer vaccines including COVID-19 and flu and provide blood pressure checks.

Under the leadership of Dr. Rebecca Edgeworth, Assistant Professor of Touro’s Physician Assistant program, Touro also coordinates all medical and dental outreach and services provided by many other health providers at the event. Dr. Rebecca Edgeworth, assistant professor at Touro University Nevada and Catrina Grigsby-Thedford, executive director for the Nevada Homeless Alliance, discussed their annual Project Homeless Connect event.

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The Nevada Childcare Fund is directed through a subaward agreement with the Nevada Division of Welfare and Supportive Services Child Care and Development Program, and administered by The Children’s Cabinet. The Division of Welfare and Supportive Services is the designated lead agency to administer the Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF), which assists low-income families, families receiving temporary public assistance and those transitioning from public assistance in obtaining child care so they can work.

CCDF funds are also used for Quality activities to improve the quality of child care by financially assisting child care providers in their professional development and maintaining healthy, safe, appropriate learning environments for children 0 to 12 years of age. Marty Elquist, Supporting Early Education & Development Department Director for The Children’s Cabinet, talked about the new Nevada Childcare Fund.

Issue: National Recycling Month

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, November 11th, and Sunday, November 12th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Republic Services opened its new Polymer Center in Las Vegas, which introduces a state-of-the-art plastic recycling process making it possible to turn an old plastic bottle into a new one. The opening of this facility makes Republic Services the first U.S. company to manage plastics from curbside collection to the delivery of high-quality recycled content, helping to advance circularity and keep valuable materials in the circular economy for the long term. □

Jeremy Walters, Sustainability Ambassador for Republic Services, talked about recycling myths and their new state-of-the-art Polymer Center in Las Vegas in honor of National Recycling Month.
