7	Wednesday					The Bible and Reconciliation: Confession, Repentance, and Restoration. https://bakeracademic.com/series/A-Catholic-Biblical-Theology-of-the-Sacraments/4875. https://www.netgalley.com/widget/515087/redeem/92cef57b13ee0702f0abd9a5fc2c3c4418af0cc81d27956cbe82288220440b5f TALKING POINTS: Your new book explores the connections between the sacrament of Reconciliation and Scripture. How is it helpful to have an understanding of the biblical framework, especially for this sacrament? What are some of the stories in the biblical narrative that show people approaching God to confess their sins and seek forgiveness? Lent begins next week. How might studying these Scripture stories deepen our Lenten experience of reconciliation, confession, and penance? Why has it proved difficult to maintain recognition of how closely linked the sacraments are to Scripture? The Bible and Reconciliation is part of a series, A Catholic Biblical Theology of the Sacraments. Tell us about that.

His subjects of interest include the lives of the saints and interior life. He holds a master's in education from Franciscan University. You can visit his website at patrickrohearn.com	new book Our Lady of Sorrows . Talking Points 1) Devotion to Our Lady of Sorrows is one of the greatest but most hidden devotions in the Church, a devotion that goes back to the Middle Ages. 2) Our Lady promised to St. Bridget of Sweden seven great graces to those who meditate on her seven sorrows daily. 3) Our Lady of Sorrows can help us and our children have the most fruitful Lent ever. 4) Meditating on the Seven Sorrows of Mary offers many advantages to our spiritual life and one in particular according to exorcist, Father Chad Ripperger. 5) Fr. Chad Ripperger wrote the foreword for this book as well as four original prayers for children just for this book. This book also contains several traditional prayers for children in both English and Latin.

		7:45	Morning Show	Fr. Donald Calloway	Donald Calloway, MIC is an American author and Catholic priest in the Congregation of Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary. He is known for his conversion story and his 2020 book, Consecration to St. Joseph: The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father.	New book: 30 Day Eucharistic Revival. A retreat with St. Peter Julian Eymard . Several popes have referred to St. Peter Julian Eymard (1811-1868) as "the Apostle of the Eucharist." Nonetheless, he is not that well known in the universal Church. When it comes to worldwide recognition of his extraordinary life, as well as the many amazing things he did to foster a greater love for the Blessed Sacrament, most Catholics are unfamiliar with him and have never heard his name. That is about to change. 30-Day Eucharistic Revival is intended to help you, your children, your grandchildren, and all future generations rediscover and experience a revival of belief in the Real Presence, especially during the period of National Eucharistic Revival in the United States.

28	Wednesday	7:15	Morning Show	Eustace Wolfington	Executive Producer of CABRINI: Mother Cabrini's entrepreneurial spirit, passion and commitment to her vocation, perseverance, creativity, organizational skills, unwavering faith and love for everyone she encountered, have guided Eustace throughout his career, even naming one of his companies after her. In 2015, Sister Mary Louise Sullivan of the MSC order asked Eustace to help complete a film on Mother Cabrini. Her persistence wore down his initial resistance and he agreed to do it on two conditions: we make a film about a great woman who just happens to be a nun and we establish a 501(c)(3) where all the net revenues earned from the film go to charity.	Cabrini movie. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lihCRaOj0Lg . SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS: 1. Tell us the story of how you came to make the film CABRINI? (Was it an encounter with a nun?) 2. Your team on the film is incredible - screenwriter Rod Barr and director Alejandro Monteverde - how did they get involved? And can you tell us about your actors? How did they come to be a part of the film? 3. The film was made several years ago as an independent project. How did you get involved with Angel Studios to bring it to theaters? 4. CABRINI releases on International Women's Day - March 8 - was this date important to you and the filmmakers? 5. What is it about Francesca Cabrini that has, and continues to, inspire you? 6. You've called her an 'agent for change' in interviews. Why is being an agent for change important to you? 7. While the film is about CABRINI, it also touches on some tough topics like immigration, women's rights, and the issues surround orphans and those in harsh poverty. These issues are still top of mind for so many today - do you think these are problems that can be solved? 8. The film is incredibly quotable - is there a favorite quote of Cabrini that you hold close? 9. How can we get more information?
