

Title	Body	Post date	Tags	Category	Created By
Second Alderson Broaddus Student Charged in Fight	A second Alderson-Broaddus University student has been charged and expelled in connection with a group fight at West Virginia Wesleyan College....	Sun March 30, 2014	Government, Alderson News		dmistich
Court Says W.Va. Jail Agency Not Liable in Lawsuit	The West Virginia Supreme Court has dismissed the state Regional Jail Authority from a lawsuit that alleged a male correctional officer repeatedly...	Sun March 30, 2014	Government, West Virg News		dmistich
McDowell Co. Lawmaker Charged with DUI	A McDowell County lawmaker has been charged with driving under the influence. State police arrested Delegate Clif Moore during a traffic stop early	Sun March 30, 2014	Government, Cliff Moo News		dmistich
Gov. Tomblin Vetoes 20-Week Abortion Ban Bill	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has vetoed a bill that would have banned abortion in West Virginia after 20 weeks. The Democratic governor said he vetoed the	Sat March 29, 2014	Government, Governor News		dmistich
Signing Up for Health Care Insurance, Winning the Iditarod, Meet Farmer Joe Riley and More	As the deadline for getting health insurance approaches, learn what itâ€™s like to go through the process. A Kentucky basketball great is in a West...	Sat March 29, 2014	Health & Science, Arts News		cmason
MCHM Disposal Ban Case at Hurricane Landfill Dismissed	A judge has dismissed a case that challenged a wastewater permit at a Putnam County landfill after state regulators granted a company's request to...	Fri March 28, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News		dmistich
WV TAP Says MCHM Lingers in 10 Homes Tested in Pilot Project	Taxpayer-funded researchers say the 10 West Virginia homes they tested each contained traces of a chemical that spilled into their water supply in...	Fri March 28, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News		dmistich
Coal Exports Drop	Government data shows a significant drop in coal exports contributed to a 26 percent decline in West Virginia's overall exports last year.U.S. Census	Fri March 28, 2014	Coal, Energy & Environ News		jilly
Reporters Discuss How They Covered the Elk River Spill	West Virginia Public Radio presents a new program called "West Virginia Talks," an occasional series featuring recordings of panel discussions and	Fri March 28, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News		bvorhees
W.Va. American Water Will Change Filters Next Week	West Virginia American Water will begin changing the water filters that were in place during the Jan. 9 chemical spill that contaminated drinking...	Fri March 28, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News		bvorhees
West Liberty Hilltoppers Head to National Championship Game	The West Liberty Hilltoppers will play for an NCAA Division II men's basketball championship for the first time in school history. The Hilltoppers...	Fri March 28, 2014	West Liberty University News		bvorhees
Hear Holly Williams, Sam Baker and More on This Week's Broadcast of Mountain Stage	Mountain Stage returns to your radio this weekend with another premiere broadcast of live music, featuring Holly Williams, Gary Nicholson, Sam Baker,	Fri March 28, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio		jsaul
College Student Finds Temple Away From Home	This article is part of a special series highlighting the Jewish experience in West Virginia. It's a companion to the television series The Story of...	Fri March 28, 2014	Story of the Jews, Mer News		jilly

How to Sign Up for Health Care, Bluefield's Ahavath Shalom, & Holly Williams with "Drinkin"	We take you through the process of signing up for health care coverage through the Affordable Care Act and Medicaid before Monday's deadline. We...	Fri March 28, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
The Really Big Questions: Why Do We Share?	Dean Olsher hosts The Really Big Questions. This special episode is entitled Why Do We Share? Are humans basically selfish, or basically giving?...	Thu March 27, 2014	Radio, The Really Big 'Radio	kgeorge
The Deadline is Approaching: What You Need to Know to Sign Up for Health Insurance	The deadline to sign up for health insurance or Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act and the state Medicaid expansion is Monday, March 31, but don...	Thu March 27, 2014	Affordable Care Act, WNews	amarra
Still No Decision on Possible UIC Well Near Decker's Creek	Energy Corporation of America still hasn't made a final decision on whether to turn a natural gas well near Decker's Creek in northern West Virginia...	Thu March 27, 2014	Energy & Environment News	badducchio
March Madness Public Media Style - Final Four	We're down to the final four contestants in our March Madness...Public Media Style Tournament. It's a powerhouse group consisting of 2 local WV Public	Thu March 27, 2014	March Madness Public About Us	CMatlick
Mayor Seeks Clarification on Gun Bill	Charleston's mayor wants clarity on whether a new state law can let people bring guns into city recreational centers that offer youth educational...	Thu March 27, 2014	Government, Charleston News	gboard
Census Report: Most W.Va. Counties Lost Population in 2013	Population declines in southern West Virginia counties have led to an overall drop in the state's population last year. Estimates released Thursday...	Thu March 27, 2014	Government, Population News	dmistich
Two W.Va. Humanities Projects Awarded Grants	The National Endowment for the Humanities has awarded grants to two humanities projects in West Virginia. West Virginia University Research...	Thu March 27, 2014	Arts & Culture, National News	dmistich
White Foam on Elk River Investigated, WVAM Says No Effect on Water Quality	Updated Thursday March 27, 2014 at 10:53 p.m. West Virginia America Water says test results of foam samples taken earlier today from the Elk River are	Thu March 27, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Worker Injured in W.Va. Explosion Sues Airgas	A worker at Airgas USA's former facility in Putnam County is suing the company over a 2013 explosion that he says left him permanently injured....	Thu March 27, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
CTCs Expand Gas Industry Program, Play Outlines Health Care Issues, Huntington Prep's Title Hopes	Noble Energy donates $250,000 to the Appalachian Petroleum Training Center to help expand drilling industry programs at Pierpont in Fairmont and...	Thu March 27, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
W.Va. to Get Nearly $700,000 in E-Book Settlement	West Virginia consumers who might have overpaid for e-books will receive nearly $700,000 from the partial settlement of a national lawsuit. Attorney	Thu March 27, 2014	Government, Lawsuit, News	dmistich
Alderson Broaddus Student from Va. Charged in Fight at Wesleyan	Alderson Broaddus University has expelled a student from Virginia following his arrest in connection with a group fight at West Virginia Wesleyan...	Thu March 27, 2014	Government, West Virginia News	dmistich

Listen to Holly Williams Perform "Drinkin'" Live on Mountain Stage	Holly Williams's™ lineage is bonafide country royalty: her father is Hank Jr. and her grandfather is Hank Sr. But as a singer-songwriter, her voice is...	Thu March 27, 2014	Radio, Mountain StageRadio	jsaul
Suddenlink Cable Subscribers in Charleston Get Improved WV PBS Service	Charleston, W.Va. -- March 27, 2014 -- West Virginia Public Broadcasting made significant improvements to how Suddenlink Cable subscribers in...	Thu March 27, 2014	Pressroom, Suddenlink>About Us	spatterson
The Story of the Jews: The Jewish Experience in West Virginia	Join us Friday, April 4 at 7:30 p.m. in Morgantown for a presentation about the national PBS documentary, "The Story of the Jews with Simon Schama"...	Wed March 26, 2014	Community Events, StNews	rmazza
Donald Fagen, Michael McDonald, Boz Scaggs: The Dukes of September	Great Performances: The Dukes of September premieres Friday, March 28 at 9 p.m. on WV PBS. Three music legends join forces as an all-star super group,	Wed March 26, 2014	Great Performances, CTV	rmazza
New Play Delves Into Problems With Health Care System	As the deadline for signing up for health insurance under the Affordable Care Act approaches audiences in the Eastern Panhandle of West Virginia will...	Wed March 26, 2014	Arts& Culture, Health &News	cmason
Donation Will Expand Marcellus Training Program at W.Va. CTCs	Governor Tomblin, alongside two state community and technical colleges, announced the donation of $250,000 to the Appalachian Petroleum Training...	Wed March 26, 2014	Appalachian Petroleum News	amarra
Can Huntington Prep Win a National Title?	Next week Huntington Prep will get the chance to play for a National Championship for the first time. Since being founded in 2009 Huntington Prep...	Wed March 26, 2014	Huntington Prep, High News	cdavis
W.Va. Delegation Asks Obama for Spill Help	West Virginia's congressional delegation is urging President Obama to reconsider the denial of extra federal aid after a January chemical spill. The	Wed March 26, 2014	Government, Congress:News	dmistich
Update: State Police Say Two Killed in Pileup During Whiteout in W.Va.	Updated Wednesday, March 26, 2014 at 12:30 p.m.: West Virginia State Police say two multi-vehicle accidents on Interstate 81 during whiteout...	Wed March 26, 2014	Government, Traffic, Ir News	dmistich
Will Coal Ever Be Clean?, Grafton Looks to Turn Itself Around, & A Thousand Mile Trek Through Alaska	National Geographic poses an important question in regards to studying climate change--can coal ever be clean? Taylor County's seat of Grafton...	Wed March 26, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Antero to Supply Proposed W.Va. Cracker Plant	Antero Resources says it will be the anchor ethane supplier for a proposed cracker plant in West Virginia. Antero announced an agreement on...	Wed March 26, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
WV TAP, Virginia Tech Studies Differ on Spilled Chemical Odor Analysis	A Virginia Tech study says a chemical that spilled into 300,000 West Virginians' water supply in January stops smelling at a level 47 times stronger...	Wed March 26, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
West Virginia Doctor Walks 1,000 Miles to Win Alaskan Iditarod Trail Invitational	The Iditarod. Referred to as the Last Great Race on Earth. The annual long-distance sled dog race occurs in early March from Anchorage, Alaska,...	Wed March 26, 2014	Iditarod, John Logar, A News	gboard
Conference at Marshall Will Explore Appalachian Issues	About 800 people are expected to attend a conference at Marshall University in Huntington Friday through Sunday for the 37th Annual Appalachian...	Wed March 26, 2014	Arts& Culture, Energy &News	cmason

'Can Coal Ever Be Clean?' NatGeo Explores Role in Climate Change	A feature article in April's™ edition of National Geographic Magazine examines what America and other key countries are doing to limit carbon dioxide	Wed March 26, 2014	Health & Science, Clim News	jlilly
Grafton Begins to 'Turn This Town Around'	Throughout the next year, West Virginia Public Radio will bring you stories about two communities in West Virginia. These are Matewan and Grafton....	Tue March 25, 2014	Turn This Town Around News	badducchio
Governor Signs Gun Bill Opposed By Charleston Mayor	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has signed a bill that makes municipal gun ordinances uniform around the state. The legislation was met with harsh opposition by	Tue March 25, 2014	Government, Municipa News	dmistich
Bill Protecting Pregnant Workers Receives Signature	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has approved a measure to help accommodate pregnant women in the workplace. The Pregnant Workers' Fairness Act allows employees...	Tue March 25, 2014	Pregnant Worker's Fai News	amarra
Governor Signs Bill Eliminating Meth Lab Clean Up Aid	The governor has signed off on changes made to the West Virginia crime victim compensation awards. Changes signed into law Monday no longer allow for	Tue March 25, 2014	Meth Labs, Crime Victi News	amarra
Who Shall Smite the Scorpion?	Many things are taught on Robert Fripp's guitar courses, but one cannot imagine that defensive tactics against scorpions is one of them. Saints...	Tue March 25, 2014	Robert Fripp, Guitar Cr Radio	jlange
Murray Energy Sues EPA, Alleges Law Noncompliance	An Ohio-based coal operator is suing the head of the Environmental Protection Agency over the agency's administration and enforcement of the Clean...	Tue March 25, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Gov. Tomblin's Brother Pleads Guilty to Drug Charge	The brother of West Virginia's governor faces up to 20 years in prison after pleading guilty to a federal drug charge. U.S. Attorney Booth Goodwin...	Tue March 25, 2014	Government, Governoi News	dmistich
Call the Midwife and Mr. Selfridge Return to Sunday Nights	Go back to East London on the eve of the Swinging Sixties when the British drama Call the Midwife returns for a third season on March 30 at 8 p.m....	Tue March 25, 2014	TV	rmazza
Update: Testing at WVAM Indicates Filtering Process Adds Trace Amounts of MCHM to Water Supply	Updated Tuesday, March 25 at 1:15 p.m.: Test results from sampling conducted by the National Guard in and around West Virginia American Water's Elk...	Tue March 25, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Buckhannon Police Investigate Student Brawl	Buckhannon police are investigating a weekend brawl involving about 20 students from West Virginia Wesleyan College and Alderson Broaddus University.	Tue March 25, 2014	Government, Higher E News	dmistich
State DEP Asked to Void Chemical Wastewater Dumping Permit	The state Department of Environmental Protection is being asked to void a permit that allowed wastewater to be transported from the site of a...	Tue March 25, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Media Coverage of Elk River Spill, Appalachian Studies, & Studying Climate with Backyard Ice Rinks	West Virginia University's P.I. Reed School of Journalism holds a panel discussing how local media covered the Elk River chemical spill and water...	Tue March 25, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
The Story of the Jews debuts Tuesday on WV PBS	Written and presented by historian and critic Simon Schama, the five-hour documentary draws on Schama's™ immense scholarship, his acute and original	Tue March 25, 2014	Story of the Jews, PBSTV	CMatlick

WVU Panel Discusses New and Old Newsgathering Methods Used During Water Crisis	Panelists discussing the media coverage of the recent Elk River water crisis say digital media platforms played an important role in how they...	Tue March 25, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	badducchio
Follow Along with WVU Journalism's Discussion of Media Coverage of #wvchemleak	Follow along with all of the discussion from WVU Journalism's panel on new media coverage of the Elk River Chemical spill here: Tweets about "#...	Mon March 24, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Logan Co. Mountain Top Mine Permit Revocation Stands	The Supreme Court has rejected an appeal from a coal company fighting to reinstate a water pollution permit for a massive West Virginia strip mine....	Mon March 24, 2014	MTR, Mountain Top RNews	gboard
Flood Insurance Subsidy Revamp Targets W.Va. Hard	West Virginia has the highest percentage of flood insurance policies that will see premiums rise as part of the federal government's overhaul of a...	Mon March 24, 2014	Government, Flood InsNews	dmistich
W.Va. Man Charged with Threatening U.S. Sen. Manchin	A West Virginia man has been arrested on charges of making violent threats against U.S. Sen. Joe Manchin and his family. U.S. Attorney Booth Goodwin	Mon March 24, 2014	Government, Senator News	dmistich
Celebrating 30 Years of Beth Vorhees at West Virginia Public Broadcasting	News Director Beth Vorhees signed on to work for West Virginia Public Radio 30 years ago Sunday. To commemorate the occasion, Beth tweeted a photo of...	Mon March 24, 2014	About Us, Beth VorheeAbout Us	dmistich
Former UBB Superintendent Wants Early Prison Release	A former mine boss is asking a federal appeals court to toss out his conviction for his actions at the West Virginia mine where an explosion killed 29	Mon March 24, 2014	Upper Big Branch, HeNews	jlilly
March Madness Public Media Style - Pick your Final 4!	Our March Madness...Public Media Style tournament is down to 8 contestants. 3 of our local personalities have survived, but the opponents keep getting	Mon March 24, 2014	March Madness PublicAbout Us	CMatlick
CDC's Face in W.Va. Water Crisis Resigns	The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has been heavily criticized in their response to the January 9 spill by Freedom Industries and the...	Mon March 24, 2014	Centers for Disease CNews	dmistich
Holocaust Survivor Educates W.Va. Youth	This article is part of a special series highlighting the Jewish experience in West Virginia. It's a companion to the television series The Story of...	Mon March 24, 2014	Story of the Jews, Dr. INews	gboard
Property Owners Sue Over 2012 Sissonville Pipeline Blast	NiSource Inc. and two subsidiaries are being sued by two Sissonville property owners over a 2012 natural gas pipeline rupture and explosion. John...	Mon March 24, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Child Advocacy Groups Question Budget, Holocaust Survivor Dr. Edith Levy and Her Life's Work	Child advocacy groups question Gov. Tomblin's budget priorities. Our Story of the Jews radio series continues with Dr. Edith Levy, a survivor of the	Mon March 24, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Child Advocacy Groups Question Priorities in Governor Tomblin's Vetoes	Child abuse and poverty prevention advocates are questioning Governor Earl Ray Tomblin's priorities. Among the $67 million worth of cuts from the...	Mon March 24, 2014	Governor Earl Ray Tor News	jlilly
W.Va. GOP Giving State Dems a Run for Their Money	By tying state Democrats to President Obama and Washington, West Virginia Republicans hope to claim congressional wins and end Democrats' 83-year-...	Sun March 23, 2014	W.Va. Politics, Govern News	amarra

'Recovery' Phase After Spill Includes Collecting Medical Records	State health officials are seeking patient data from physicians who might have treated people affected by the Jan. 9 chemical spill. The Charleston...	Sun March 23, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
A Muslim Candidate in Ky., Bobtown, Pa., Reaction to Free Pizza, New W.Va. Rocket Boys and More	Kentucky could get its first Muslim lawmaker if one candidate is successful. So what do folks in Bobtown, Pa., really think of those pizza gift	Sat March 22, 2014	Energy & Environment News	cmason
Report: W.Va. Taxes Natural Gas Drilling Four Times as Much as Pa.	A new report from a nonpartisan office of the Pennsylvania Legislature says its state's taxes on the natural gas drilling boom are among the lowest...	Fri March 21, 2014	Energy & Environment News	shiggins
Child Advocacy Groups Question Governor's Priorities	Child abuse and poverty prevention advocates are questioning Governor Earl Ray Tomblin's priorities. Among the $67 million worth of cuts from the...	Fri March 21, 2014	Governor Earl Ray Tor News	jlilly
WVU Panel Looks Into Charleston Water Spill	Monday evening, a special panel will be discussing the recent water spill into the Elk River. This panel will be made up of journalists who covered...	Fri March 21, 2014	P.I. Reed School of Jo News	badducchio
From McDowell County to the U.S. Senate, Thanks to You	When you become a member of West Virginia Public Broadcasting, you hope your support makes a difference, that it has the power to change minds and...	Fri March 21, 2014	News	sfinn
Watch the LIVE Webcast of This Sunday's Sold Out Mountain Stage	Even though this weekend's Mountain Stage with Robert Cray, The Blind Boys of Alabama & more is sold out, you can still watch the live webcast of...	Fri March 21, 2014	Radio, Mountain StageRadio	jsaul
Huntington Police Chief Resigns	Huntington Police Chief Skip Holbrook announced his resignation this morning. Holbrook will take over the same position in Columbia, South Carolina...	Fri March 21, 2014	Huntington Police Dep: News	cdavis
Righteous Remnant: Jewish Survival in Appalachia	Righteous Remnant: Jewish Survival in Appalachia is the West Virginia PBS documentary produced by West Virginia University School of Journalism...	Fri March 21, 2014	TV, PBS, DocumentaryTV	CMatlick
The Law Works - Heroin and Methamphetamine	Can you name two drugs, given to soldiers in wartime, and valued for their effects on behavior? One caused the troops to behave heroically. The...	Fri March 21, 2014	The Law Works, Dan FTV	bblaker
Tina Fey Continues to Uncover 'The Hidden World of Girls'	Host Tina Fey, star of 30 Rock, author of Bossypants and Saturday Night Live alumna, takes listeners around the world into the secret life of girls...	Thu March 20, 2014	Radio, women's historyRadio	jwtwright
Coal Company Cited by MSHA for Coal Slurry Death	A coal company has been cited by federal mining regulators for the November 2012 collapse of a Harrison County coal slurry impoundment that left a...	Thu March 20, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Morgantown Lawyer's Faith Shapes His Crusade to Fight Oppression	This article is part of a special series highlighting the Jewish experience in West Virginia. It's a companion to the television series The Story of...	Thu March 20, 2014	Story of the Jews, Mor: News	badducchio
W.Va. Juvenile Panel Expands Mission, Changes Name	A state juvenile commission has a new name, a new chairman and an expanded mission. The West Virginia Supreme Court says the Adjudicated Juvenile	Thu March 20, 2014	Division of Juvenile Se News	jlilly

Saints Coach Payton on Hand for W.Va. Bill Signing	While visiting the West Virginia Capitol, New Orleans Saints head coach Sean Payton praised his team's plans to move some of its training camp to The	Thu March 20, 2014	Government, The Green News	dmistich
Antiques Roadshow Would Like to See More W. Va. Furniture	The producers of Antiques Roadshow would like to see more furniture from West Virginia. The popular appraisal show will be in Charleston in August...	Thu March 20, 2014	Antiques Roadshow, F News	bvorhees
Huntington Groups Taking Fitness to the Next Level	Exercise advocates in the Huntington area are hoping to take advantage of the popularity of health related events this summer. Several groups in	Thu March 20, 2014	United Way, Huntington News	cdavis
Advanced Placement Courses Help Students and Teachers Achieve More	The West Virginia Center for Professional Development advances the quality of teaching and management in the schools of West Virginia through (1) the	Thu March 20, 2014	Center for Professional Education	spatterson
Gov. Tomblin Cuts or Vetoes Nearly $67 Million in Budget	The budget bill signed Thursday by Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin makes line item vetoes and cuts totaling nearly $67 million. Programs affected include those...	Thu March 20, 2014	Government, State Bureau News	dmistich
Sweet 16 Voting Live for March Madness...Public Media Style!	There's only 16 contestants left, and the choices keep getting tougher. You can vote now in the third round of our March Madness Public Media Style	Thu March 20, 2014	March Madness Public About Us	CMatlick
West Virginia American Water Chief Defends Water Firm's MCHM Actions	In this report from Ken Ward of The Charleston Gazette, West Virginia American Water president Jeff McIntyre defends his company's actions following...	Thu March 20, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
The Story of the Jews National Essay Contest	Prize-winning author and Emmy Award winner Simon Schama is bringing 3000 years of Jewish history to life in a new five-part documentary series, The...	Thu March 20, 2014	Story of the Jews, PBS TV	CMatlick
More Chemical Data Released	On Wednesday, the West Virginia Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management released Freedom Industries Tier II report filed in February...	Thu March 20, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Gov. Tomblin Signs Budget that Taps Reserves	West Virginia Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has signed a budget that dips into millions of dollars in state reserves. Tomblin approved next year's budget	Thu March 20, 2014	Government, State Bureau News	dmistich
Spirit of the Mountains Winner Sylvania Mathews Burwell, Rabbi Urecki, & Pickens Maple Syrup Festival	Thursday night, Sylvania Mathews Burwell will receive the annual Spirit of the Mountains Award from the Youth Leadership Association at a reception to...	Thu March 20, 2014	West Virginia Morning News	dmistich
W.Va. Gets Snapshot of Agriculture from Federal Government	New federal data show that the value of West Virginia's agricultural products increased 37 percent over the past five years to a total of $809...	Thu March 20, 2014	Government, Department News	dmistich
More than 4,000 W.Va. Taxpayers Could Be Owed 2010 Refunds	The Internal Revenue Service says more than $3 million in federal income tax refunds for 2010 haven't been claimed in West Virginia. The IRS...	Thu March 20, 2014	Government, Internal Finance News	dmistich

Listen to Deer Tick Perform "Mr. Sticks" Live on Mountain Stage	Originally based out of Rhode Island, Deer Tick have won fans over with their unique blend of country-soul, indie-pop, folk, and garage rock. Here...	Thu March 20, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	jsaul
Buzzer Beaters Ahead? - 2nd Round of Media Madness Ends Tonight	Voting in 2nd of March Madness..Public Media Style continues until Midnight on Wednesday. That's mean's there still time to make your vote count....	Wed March 19, 2014	March Madness PublicAbout Us	CMatlick
New Live Shows Announced for Mountain Stage	Mountain Stage w/ Larry Groce announces four new events scheduled at the Culture Center Theater in Charleston. Tickets for all four events go on sale	Wed March 19, 2014	Mountain Stage, Larry Radio	aharris
Mind-Body Connection, Pt. 2: The Morning Sitting	"Life without the morning sitting is like trying to walk without legs. This is the beginning, the foundation, of strengthening personal presence. If...	Wed March 19, 2014	morning sitting, Robert Radio	jlange
1st National FFA Officer from W.Va. in 40 Years: Wesley Davis	"Future Farmers of America" was founded in 1928 with a mission to prepare future generations for the challenges of feeding a growing population. They...	Wed March 19, 2014	Wes Davis, FFA, Agric News	gboard
Parkersburg South Teacher Responds to Suspension Over Facebook Post	Editor's Note: Dave Mistich is graduate of Parkersburg South High School and was a student of David Foggin while enrolled there. A Parkersburg South...	Wed March 19, 2014	Government, Parkersb News	dmistich
One Short Visit and He Knew He Found Home - Meet Rabbi Urecki	This article is part of a special series highlighting the Jewish experience in West Virginia. It's a companion to the television series The Story of...	Wed March 19, 2014	Arts & Culture, Religior News	bvorhees
W.Va. Taps Coordinator for Minority Health Office	West Virginia officials have selected a coordinator to focus on eliminating health disparities for the state's vulnerable populations. The West...	Wed March 19, 2014	Government, Minority F News	dmistich
MCHM Odors Linger, High-Dollar Requests for School Building Authority, & Beckley's Temple Beth El	Independent researchers involved in testing, odor analysis, and health effects studies on Crude MCHM answered questions Tuesday about their work and...	Wed March 19, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
They're Keeping the Faith at Temple Beth El	This article is part of a special series highlighting the Jewish experience in West Virginia. It's a companion to the television series The Story of...	Wed March 19, 2014	Arts & Culture, Religior News	shiggins
Exhibit to Teach Students About Natural Gas	Students across West Virginia and surrounding states will get a hands-on experience with science and technology thanks to a new mobile exhibit....	Wed March 19, 2014	Energy & Environment, "Power Yc	dmistich
Experts Say Lingering Odor Means Crude MCHM Remains in Water System	Researchers involved in a taxpayer-funded, independent water testing project in response to the January 9 spill by Freedom Industries began releasing	Tue March 18, 2014	WV TAP, Elk River Ch	dmistich
Schools Request Nearly $130 Million for Building and Upgrades	Over the past two days, 18 counties presented their facility needs to the state School Building Authority in Charleston. The requests totaled more...	Tue March 18, 2014	School Building Author News	amarra
WVU College Of Law Hosts Gay Marriage Discussion	West Virginia University's College of Law is hosting a forum this evening to discuss marriage equality in West Virginia. Evan Wolfson is the featured	Tue March 18, 2014	LGBT rights, WVU Col News	gboard

Freedom Industries Could Have $3 Million Left by June	The company that spilled chemicals into 300,000 West Virginians' water supply could have about $3 million left this summer before paying hundreds of	Tue March 18, 2014	Freedom Industries, B&N News	dmistich
Antiques Roadshow Wants to Get Into Your Drawers!	FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Charleston, W.Va. â€œ March 18, 2014 â€œ Antiques Roadshow is looking for furniture to appraise at its August 16 event in...	Tue March 18, 2014	Antiques Roadshow, PAbout Us	spatterson
What's Next For West Virginia? Share Your 6 Words	How would you describe the future of West Virginia in six words? We want to know as part of our digital project, What's Next for West Virginia? Here...	Tue March 18, 2014	Digital Project, #WVNeNews	CMatlick
W.Va. Regulators OK Power Company's Vegetation Trimming Plan	West Virginia regulators have approved American Electric Power's plan to trim vegetation along distribution and transmission lines in the state. The	Tue March 18, 2014	Government, Energy & News	dmistich
Meet W.Va.'s First FFA National Officer in 40 Years, Rehab Center for Drug-Addicted Babies, & More	Meet Wes Davis of Point Pleasant, West Virginia's first national officer of the Future Farmers of America in 40 years. Lilyâ€™s Place, a drug...	Tue March 18, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
State Senator Pulls Ad with WVEA Head Promoting Business	A southern West Virginia lawmaker has pulled a television ad for his car dealership that featured a testimonial by the president of the state's...	Tue March 18, 2014	Government, Ethics CcNews	dmistich
Charleston City Council Repeals Handgun Sales Ordinance	Charleston's City Council has repealed a 1993 ordinance that limited handgun sales in the city. The move is in response to state legislation that	Tue March 18, 2014	Government, CharlestcNews	dmistich
WVU Basketball Prepares For Postseason Play	West Virginia Universityâ€™s menâ€™s and womenâ€™s basketball teams are getting ready for post-season play this week. The teams are performing better than...	Mon March 17, 2014	WVU Sports, Basketb&News	badducchio
Lilyâ€™s Place Hoping to Open Soon	Lilyâ€™s Place, a drug rehabilitation facility for new born babies in Huntington, is still trying to open its doors to babies in need in the region....	Mon March 17, 2014	Lilys Place, Drug RehaNews	cdavis
Mountain Stage Host Featured Speaker at Creators Program Workshop	Larry Groce, the host and artistic director of Mountain Stage is speaking at the annual Creators Program Workshop tomorrow at the West Virginia State	Mon March 17, 2014	Larry Groce, Mountain About Us	spatterson
Expert Nose Has Ability to Detect MCHM 'Far Greater' Than Current Testing Methods	Researchers involved in the independent, taxpayer-funded testing project known as WV TAP say results from a single expert panel show that Crude MCHM...	Mon March 17, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Freedom Industries President Wants to Get Paid After Bankruptcy Filing	The president of the company that spilled chemicals into 300,000 West Virginians' water supply wants to get paid for work during bankruptcy...	Mon March 17, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Marshall Co. Sees Jump in Oil, Gas Tax Revenue	Marshall County's slice of the state oil and gas severance tax is growing. County Administrator Betsy Frohnappel tells The Intelligencer and Wheeling...	Mon March 17, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
March Madness...Public Media Style: 2nd Round Voting is Live!	We're down to 32 contestants left in March Madness..Public Media Style. The second round is chock full of compelling matchups and tough choices: Judy	Mon March 17, 2014	PBS, NPR, TV, Radio, About Us	CMatlick

Recap of W.Va. Legislature's Special Session, Students Enter Rocket Challenge, & Ginseng Hunting	The West Virginia Legislature clears ten bills in a one-day special session after finishing budget negotiations on Friday. With a rich history in the	Mon March 17, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	CMatlick
North Central W.Va. Students to Enter National Rocket Competition	West Virginia's got a rich history of young people involved in the science fields, many using rocket science to fulfill their dreams. A group of...	Mon March 17, 2014	NASA, Fairmont, Health News	badducchio
W.Va. Ethics Panel Fines State Emergency Official	A state emergency official who appeared in an online promotional video for a California company has been fined $525 by the West Virginia Ethics...	Mon March 17, 2014	Government, Ethics Cc News	dmistich
Ginseng TV Show Features Questionable Practices	The History Channel featured a new show this year that focused on ginseng in Appalachia. According to Neilson ratings, the show, called Appalachian	Sun March 16, 2014	Ginseng, Arts & Culture News	gboard
WVU Rifle Team Wins NCAA Championship	National Champs again! The No. 1-ranked West Virginia University rifle team won its 16th NCAA Championship in Murray, Ky., Friday. The Mountaineers...	Sun March 16, 2014	Rifle, WVU, NCAA, WV News	gboard
State Deadline Reached, Freedom Tanks Still on Site	A tank cluster that leaked chemicals into 300,000 West Virginians' drinking water shows few signs that it's on the brink of destruction. Freedom...	Sun March 16, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	amarra
McDowell vs. Fairfax County: 350 Miles and a World Apart	We've reported a lot about declining life expectancy in some Appalachian counties, including the place with among the lowest life expectancies in...	Sun March 16, 2014	News	sfinn
More Snowy Owls, Southern W.Va. Water Woes, Groundbreaking Crayfish Research & More	This winter has brought a lot of snow, and snowy owls. Some southern West Virginia residents almost always have unusable water. We visit an old...	Sat March 15, 2014	Energy & Environment News	cmason
W.Va. Environmentalists Unhappy with Fracking Bill	West Virginian environmentalists are concerned about a bill to overturn tonnage caps for landfills accepting gas well drill cuttings from hydraulic	Fri March 14, 2014	Government, Energy & News	dmistich
Laptops On the Way to All McDowell Middle School Students	Every middle school student in McDowell County will be given a free laptop next week. Approximately 875 laptops will be distributed to students and...	Fri March 14, 2014	Education, Reconnecti News	shiggins
DEP, DHHR: Chemical Leak Legal Action Now Moot	Near the beginning of February, public interest groups Appalachian Mountain Advocates and Mountain State Justice filed an emergency petition with the...	Fri March 14, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
DEP Cites Company That Moved Chemicals for Freedom Industries	West Virginia regulators have issued notices of environmental violations to a company that cleaned up and hauled a chemical from the site of a spill...	Fri March 14, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Marshall Basketball Coach Tom Herrion Resigns	Marshall Basketball's season ended last Wednesday night with a 73-58 loss to Old Dominion in the Conference USA basketball tournament. On Friday Head...	Fri March 14, 2014	Marshall Basketball, Tr News	cdavis
W.Va. Lawmakers Pass Budget Relying on Reserves	West Virginia lawmakers have passed a budget that dips into millions of dollars in reserves and gives public employees raises. The Senate voted 25-9...	Fri March 14, 2014	Government, State Budget News	dmistich

1st Round Voting Ends Sunday for March Madness Public Media Style	There's no timeouts left, but you still have a chance to make your vote count. 1st round voting ends Sunday at midnight in our March Madness...	Fri March 14, 2014	March Madness Public About Us	CMatlick
Governor Tomblin Calls for Special Legislative Session	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin Friday called for a special session of the state legislature. The proclamation, which follows the passage of the state...	Fri March 14, 2014	Government, Legislatu News	dmistich
WV PBS Remembers Celtic Thunder's George Donaldson This Saturday	Fans of Celtic Thunder can enjoy one of the group's concerts this Saturday as they remember the principal singer, George Donaldson, who died...	Fri March 14, 2014	Celtic Thunder, WV PETV	spatterson
W.Va. DEP Orders Fayette Co. Frack Waste Permit Revoked	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection has ordered a permit for an underground injection well in Fayette County to be revoked. The...	Fri March 14, 2014	Lochghelly Injection W News	jilly
Hear The Mountain Stage Irish Tribute Special This Weekend	This weekend Mountain Stage pays tribute to Ireland with a special episode featuring featuring Bell X1, Karen Casey & John Doyle, The Henry Girls...	Fri March 14, 2014	Radio, Mountain StageRadio	jsaul
Two New Trails Challenge Geocachers	Two new geocache trails geared toward tourists open this weekend in West Virginia. The Cabell County/Huntington Geotrail will take visitors on a...	Fri March 14, 2014	Arts & Culture, Geocac News	cmason
Tina Fey Uncovers 'The Hidden World of Girls'	Groundbreaking writer, actress and comedian, Tina Fey comes to West Virginia Public Radio's airwaves to host The Hidden World of Girls, two new hour-...	Thu March 13, 2014	Radio, women's historyRadio	CMatlick
"Real" Juice Bar Opens in Morgantown	Ruth Haas and her family moved to Morgantown from Elkins a year ago and about the same time decided it might be cool to open a juice bar. A year...	Thu March 13, 2014	Health & Science, Whē News	gboard
W.Va. Budget Deal Reached After Days of Debate	The House and Senate have come to an agreement on the state's budget for the next fiscal year. The process was stalled earlier in the week....	Thu March 13, 2014	Government, State Bu News	dmistich
Manchin Proposes Ban on Zohydro	Sen. Joe Manchin of West Virginia has introduced a bill that would force the Food and Drug Administration to withdraw the heavily criticized...	Thu March 13, 2014	Health & Science, Gov News	dmistich
The Gridiron Is Coming to The Greenbrier	The New Orleans Saints announced Thursday they will be using the Greenbrier Resort in White Sulphur Springs for part of its 2014 training camp....	Thu March 13, 2014	Football, The Greenbri News	badducchio
Listen to Bell X1 perform "Four Minute Mile" Live on Mountain Stage	Like their fellow Irish rockers U2, Bell X1 take their name from another iconic aircraft - the first to fly faster than sound - flown by Lincoln...	Thu March 13, 2014	Radio, Mountain StageRadio	jsaul
Basketball Players, Fans Bring High Hopes and Water Bottles to Charleston	The four-day West Virginia Girls state basketball tournament began Wednesday and many athletes and fans say they came to Charleston anxious about...	Thu March 13, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	shiggins
March Madness Public Media Style - 3 Updates That Might Surprise You	Voting continues today in March Madness...Public Media Style. You can find the current results below, but first these shocking (or not) developments...	Thu March 13, 2014	Radio, TV, NPR, PBS About Us	CMatlick

W.Va. Schools for Deaf and Blind Job Requirement Change Approved	Child care workers at the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and Blind will be required to have an associate degree in to order to keep their jobs....	Thu March 13, 2014	Public Education, Wes News	dmistich
WVU Professor Talks Russia/Ukraine Conflict	Tensions are high as negotiations continue over whether Russian forces will leave Ukraine's Crimean peninsula. One West Virginia University...	Thu March 13, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
WVU Professor Watches Crimea Closely, Looking at Appalachia Through Photographs, & More	One West Virginia University professor is hoping the conflict in Ukraine's Crimean peninsula is able to come to an end soon. Documentary photographer...	Thu March 13, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
W.Va. Delegation Urges President, FEMA to Support Governor Tomblin's Appeal	This week, Senators Jay Rockefeller and Joe Manchin, along with Representatives Nick Rahall, Shelley Moore Capito, and David McKinley, asked...	Thu March 13, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
The Law Works - Municipal Bankruptcy	Suppose you live in a town or city. You work for the municipal government. You depend on the government for your pension, your police and fire...	Thu March 13, 2014	Dan Ringer, Martin ShTV	bblaker
Heating Bill Aid Available for Low-Income West Virginians	Low-income West Virginians can get help paying heating bills through a state program. The Department of Health and Resources will begin taking	Thu March 13, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Bald Eagle Hit by Train in New River Gorge	A bald eagle has survived a collision with an Amtrak train in the New River Gorge. Wendy Perrone with the Three Rivers Avian Center tells the...	Thu March 13, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Gala Set for W.Va. Arts Awards on Thursday	West Virginia is celebrating some of its best artists and art supporters. The 2014 Governor's Arts Awards ceremony is scheduled for Thursday night...	Thu March 13, 2014	Government, Governor News	dmistich
Boy Meets Girl - Watch "Werther" in Theatres	Boy meets girl, passionate feelings, unrequited love, societal restraints of duty, hopeless love, tragic ending, all are plot elements in the lyric...	Thu March 13, 2014	classical music, Radio, Radio	ccarter
Concord University Announces Finalists for President	Only three finalists remain in the running for president for Concord University. The school's board of governors held a special meeting on Wednesday	Wed March 12, 2014	Government, Higher E News	dmistich
Freedom Industries Submits First Phase of Tank Decommission Plan	Freedom Industries has submitted the first phase of the Tank Decommission Plan for its Charleston facility, site of the Jan. 9 chemical spill of...	Wed March 12, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
You Can Help Paint a New Picture of Appalachia	Fifty years ago President Lyndon Johnson declared a War on Poverty, and photographs taken at the time continued to define what Appalachia looks like...	Wed March 12, 2014	Arts & Culture, Looking News	cmason
Miley to House: Prepare for Special Session	House Speaker Tim Miley has told members of the West Virginia House of Delegates to prepare for a special session at the end of the week. Wednesday	Wed March 12, 2014	House Speaker Tim MiNews	amarra
Student Allowed to Read Poem, State Officials Cite Miscommunication on Prior Denial	State officials blame miscommunication for denying a student's plan to recite a poem about the Upper Big Branch mine explosion at a state event....	Wed March 12, 2014	Government, Division News	dmistich

WVU Self-Study for 2014 Reaccreditation Available	A report prepared by West Virginia University for the Higher Learning Commission is now available online. Officials say the self-study demonstrates...	Wed March 12, 2014	Government, Higher Education News	dmistich
Calhoun School Workers Sue Over Spring Break Loss	Three Calhoun County school employees have gone to court over the county Board of Education's decision to cancel spring break. The Charleston Gazette	Wed March 12, 2014	Government, Public Education News	dmistich
California Students Dig Into Coal and Gas Industries, Brownfield Grant Improves Middleway, & More	Ten students from San Francisco are traveling around the area learning about the coal and gas industries thanks to an immersion trip taking place...	Wed March 12, 2014	West Virginia Morning News	dmistich
Antiques Roadshow Wants to Get Into Your Drawers!	Antiques Roadshow is seeking large pieces of furniture located within a 50-mile radius of Charleston, W.Va., to be included in the August 16 event at...	Wed March 12, 2014	Antiques Roadshow, WTV	spatterson
Your Weekly Earworm: Far From Any Road	There is no defense against an earworm. Even if the tune drives you mad (Call Me Maybe) and/or the lyrics are insipid (Blurred Lines) or the artist...	Wed March 12, 2014	The Handsome Family Radio	jlange
It's March Madness..Public Media Style!	UPDATE 3/31: We're down to the Championship Round, and it's your votes that decide who advances and who goes home. You can vote in the form below. If...	Wed March 12, 2014	TV, Radio, PBS, NPR, About Us	CMatlick
Historic Jefferson County Village Making Improvements	The village of Middleway, W.Va., appears to be a moment frozen in time. The historic district of the village is home to buildings that date back to...	Wed March 12, 2014	Arts & Culture, Jefferson County News	cmason
California Students Learn About Natural Gas, Coal Industries	Ten students from the University of San Francisco are in West Virginia this week, spending their spring break getting a first-hand look at the coal...	Tue March 11, 2014	Energy & Environment News	cmason
Gov. Tomblin Appeals FEMA Denial of Federal Assistance for Elk River Spill	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin today appealed the decision by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to deny West Virginia's request for federal...	Tue March 11, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
W.Va. Health Exchange Enrollment Surpasses 10,000	West Virginia continues to lag behind the rest of the country in the number of younger people enrolled in health insurance through the federal...	Tue March 11, 2014	Government, Health Care News	dmistich
Greenbrier Could Get Millions in W.Va. Tax Breaks	The Greenbrier resort and its billionaire owner could receive up to $25 million in tax breaks over 10 years for a new medical institute. Owner Jim...	Tue March 11, 2014	Government, Economy News	dmistich
Celebrate Music and Dance With An Irish Twist on West Virginia PBS	Fans of Irish music and dance won't want to miss the special programs Wednesday, March 12 on West Virginia PBS! Beginning at 8 p.m., the all-new...	Tue March 11, 2014	TV, PBS, Celtic Thunder TV	rmazza
Former Marshall Star Makes a Name with Globetrotters	The Harlem Globetrotters will crowd Tuesday night in Charleston and Wednesday night they will do the same in Huntington. Johnny Thomas played one...	Tue March 11, 2014	Arts and Culture, Harlem News	cdavis
Charleston Mayor to Governor: Veto This Municipal Gun Ordinance Bill	Charleston Mayor Danny Jones says he will meet with Governor Tomblin very soon and ask him to veto a gun bill passed by the legislature last week....	Tue March 11, 2014	Charleston, gun laws, News	bvorhees

Goldenseal Celebrates 40 Years	Goldenseal magazine, known as the state's journal of traditional life, is marking its 40th year of publication with a special commemorative issue,...	Tue March 11, 2014	Arts & Culture, Appala News	shiggins
The Three Bills Lawmakers Need to Balance the Budget	Members of the legislature are feeling the backlash of bills that failed on the final night of the session. There are three specific bills that are	Tue March 11, 2014	Budget, Budget Bill, Pr News	amarra
The Bills that Failed: What Happens Now?	Senators and Delegates worked late into the night, as usual, on the final day of the session voting on bills. The frenzy, however, was too much for...	Tue March 11, 2014	Pseudoephedrine, Pre: News	amarra
Another Tough Budget Year, Climate Change Research, & Huntington Revitalizes Fairfield Area	Lawmakers try to make sense of the state budget in the absence of a few bills that Senator Roman Prezioso says needed to pass but didn't. Climate...	Tue March 11, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Climate Change, Coal, & The Thompson's Research	In Washington, Senate Democrats are pulling an all-nighter on Capitol Hill. They're on the Senate floor, talking about global warming. They started...	Tue March 11, 2014	Coal, Climate Change, News	bvorhees
Familiar Licorice Smell Investigated in W.Va.	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection is investigating a business in Poca after reports of a familiar smell that followed January...	Mon March 10, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Bill to Regulate W.Va. Gas Drilling Waste on Hold	A bill to regulate the disposal of waste produced by gas-well drilling will likely be introduced by the governor in a special session. Lawmakers who	Mon March 10, 2014	Oil & Gas, Energy & Ei News	gboard
Enter the World of West Virginia Crayfish Research	Crayfish are one of the most endangered animal groups in the country, but recently a scientist at West Liberty University discovered three new...	Mon March 10, 2014	Crayfish, Stream Ecolc News	gboard
Former Mingo Chief Magistrate Sentenced to 27 Months in Federal Prison	A former chief magistrate is the latest defendant sentenced to federal prison time in a probe of corruption in Mingo County, West Virginia, United...	Mon March 10, 2014	Government, Mingo Cc News	dmistich
W.Va. Lawmakers Finalizing Budget, Tapping Reserves	West Virginia lawmakers are working out kinks in a budget that gives public workers raises and digs into reserves. The House of Delegates and Senate...	Mon March 10, 2014	Government, State Bu News	dmistich
WVU Parkersburg President Not Renewing Contract	The president of West Virginia University at Parkersburg says she isn't renewing her contract with the school. Officials said Monday that after 10...	Mon March 10, 2014	Higher Education, Gov News	dmistich
The Final Hours: What You Didn't See	While most of the night is strictly business, the final hours of the legislative session often have some light-hearted moments scattered throughout....	Mon March 10, 2014	Final Hours, WV Legisl News	amarra
NTSB Determines Cause of December 2012 Sissonville Pipeline Explosion	Federal investigators have determined the cause of a Columbia Gas Transmission pipeline explosion in West Virginia in December 2012. In a report...	Mon March 10, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
The Legislature's Final Hours Recap, & New Species of Crayfish,	The staff of The Legislature Today--news director and anchor Beth Vorhees, Senate reporter Ashton Marra, and House reporter Aaron Payne--give a...	Mon March 10, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich

Romney Center Abuse Allegations Probe Continues	A West Virginia State Police spokesman says an investigation of child abuse allegations at a center in Romney might not be completed until the fall....	Mon March 10, 2014	Potomac Center, Child News	dmistich
W.Va. Inmate Charged with Threatening President	A West Virginia inmate faces federal charges of threatening President Barack Obama and his family. Robert Dale Tasker is charged in an indictment...	Mon March 10, 2014	Government, Presiden News	dmistich
Higher Education Policy Commission Approves WVU Selection of Gee	Updated 12:29 p.m. Monday, March 10, 2014: The Higher Education Policy Commission voted to approve the WVU March 3 action to amend its search process...	Mon March 10, 2014	West Virginia Higher E News	dmistich
Final Hours via Twitter	Follow along with the action in both the Senate and House of Delegates with this Twitter list curated by @wvpublicnews. Members on this include our	Sat March 8, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Ten Friends Board Positions Open	Nominations open March 8-27, 2014 The Board of Directors of The Friends of West Virginia Public Broadcasting is vital to strengthening local support...	Sat March 8, 2014	Friends of West Virgini About Us	spatterson
The Legislature Today: Final Hours Live Blog	At midnight on Saturday, March 8, The 81st West Virginia Legislature will adjourn. This post will be the home for The Legislature Today's online...	Sat March 8, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Kentucky's Race to the Top, Photographers Asked to Document Appalachia, Fasnacht and More	Kentucky launches a new education program with its federal Race to the Top grant. Retired military members make a case for better climate change...	Sat March 8, 2014	Energy & Environment News	cmason
Four Senate Bills the House Passed on the Next-to-Last Day of the Regular Session	With today being the next-to-last day of the regular session, time is running out for lawmakers to complete legislation to be sent to the governor....	Fri March 7, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Senate Passes Minimum Wage Hike	The West Virginia Senate has passed a bill to raise the minimum wage by $1.50 over three years. Under the bill passed Friday, the wage would increase...	Fri March 7, 2014	Minimum Wage, WV S News	amarra
Senate Approves Bill for Frack Waste	Members of the state Senate unanimously passed a bill Friday allowing for the drill cuttings from natural gas fracking sites to be disposed of in...	Fri March 7, 2014	Fracking Waste, Horiz News	amarra
March 11 is A Cappella Night on West Virginia PBS	An all-new a cappella group comes to West Virginia PBS at 8 p.m. on March 11 with the premiere of Gentleman's Rule in Concert, followed by the cast...	Fri March 7, 2014	music, PBS Specials, l TV	rmazza
City of Huntington Works to Revitalize Fairfield Area	One area of Huntington will soon see demolition and construction that could go a long way towards changing the city's reputation. A plan to tear...	Fri March 7, 2014	Huntington, Mayor Ste News	cdavis
Townes Van Zandt on Mountain Stage	Legnedary Texas singer and songwriter Townes Van Zandt made three appearances on "Mountain Stage w/ Larry Groce" before his death in 1997. In honor...	Fri March 7, 2014	Mountain Stage, Larry Radio	aharris
Rep. Capito Wants U.S. 35 Upgrade Finished in W.Va.	U.S. Rep. Shelley Moore Capito wants to see a long-debated widening project finished on U.S. Route 35 in Mason and Putnam counties. The West Virginia	Fri March 7, 2014	Government, Roads, U News	dmistich

FBI Visits Company that Hauled Chemicals for Freedom Industries	Federal agents have visited a company that cleaned up and hauled chemicals from the site of a spill that contaminated 300,000 West Virginians' water...	Fri March 7, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Researcher Gives Some Insight Into How the Brain Works	We all have one- but there's a lot of mystery behind how it works- the brain, that is. People who attended West Virginia University's Festival of...	Fri March 7, 2014	WVU, Education, Heal News	cmason
WV Morning: Legislative Coverage, Brain Research, and Del McCoury	On this West Virginia Morning, the Senate deals with minimum wage, the budget, and fracking waste while the House considers construction worker...	Fri March 7, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	gboard
Hear the Del McCoury Band, Keller Williams & More on This Week's Mountain Stage	Mountain Stage returns to your radio this weekend with our first premiere episode of 2014, featuring The Del McCoury Band, The Travelin' McCourys...	Fri March 7, 2014	Radio, Mountain StageRadio	jsaul
The Water Protection Bill, State Budget, Healthcare Lobbyist Thom Stevens, & More	The House passed the Water Resources Protection and Management Act on Wednesday. The Senate passes their version of the budget bill and calls for $125	Thu March 6, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Bill to Require Construction Workers to Participate in Safety Program Passes	Senate Bill 376 would require onsite employees at certain works construction projects to complete an Occupational Safety and Health Administration	Thu March 6, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Groups Appeal Lochghelly Injection Permit	A law office in Fayette County says the West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection violated state and federal law. The Rist Law Office in	Thu March 6, 2014	Fayette County, Lochg News	jlilly
Senate Budget Uses $125 Million from Rainy Day Fund	Senators voted on their version of the budget bill Thursday.It included the governor's recommended pay raises for school service personnel and State	Thu March 6, 2014	State Budget, Budget News	amarra
Hearing on Capitol Hill Considers Lessons Learned from Elk River Chemical Spill	The U.S. Senate Committee on Environment and Public Works had a hearing Thursday in Washington that focused on improving chemical safety. Committee	Thu March 6, 2014	Downstream Strategie News	gboard
Rape Evidence Collection Bill Passes W.Va. Senate	Legislation to regulate and improve the training of nurses who collect forensic evidence in sexual assault cases has passed in both the West Virginia	Thu March 6, 2014	Government, Rape Evi News	dmistich
W.Va. Senate OKs Pregnant Workers' Fairness Act	The West Virginia Senate has passed legislation to help accommodate pregnant women in the workplace. The Pregnant Workers' Fairness Act allows...	Thu March 6, 2014	Government, West Virg News	dmistich
West Virginia No Longer Fattest State in the Nation	From 2010 to 2012 West Virginia was ranked the most obese state in the country according to Gallup's Well Being State of the States report. This year	Thu March 6, 2014	Obesity, Health & Scie News	cmason
W.Va. Unemployment Rate Drops Slightly in January	West Virginia's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate fell slightly to 5.9 percent in January. WorkForce West Virginia says the number of unemployed	Thu March 6, 2014	WorkForce WV, Econc News	dmistich
Guitarist Joe Bonamassa Treats Viewers to Four Set Lists	Watch Joe Bonamassa: Tour De Force - Live In London Saturday, March 8 at 8:30 p.m. on WV PBS This documentary chronicles Joe Bonamassa's atmospheric...	Thu March 6, 2014	Joe Bonamassa, WV FTV	spatterson

Listen to the Del McCoury Band Perform "In Despair," Live on Mountain Stage	One of the most respected bluegrass bands of all time, The Del McCoury Band is one of the few groups who are equally beloved by audiences at...	Thu March 6, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage	Radio	jsaul
To the Beat of the Boom!	Percussion, in all of its variants, is simply exciting to me and always has been. From Ringo's groove on Ticket to Ride or Charlie Watt's weird back...	Thu March 6, 2014	Boomwhackers	Radio	jlange
Legislative Coverage, Incubator Schools, and Inspiring Paleoclimatologists	On this West Virginia Morning we revisit an Inspiring West Virginian segment that profiles two of the world's leading paleoclimatologists; that,	Thu March 6, 2014	Inspiring West Virginia	News	gboard
Five Things That Happened Before W.Va. House Passed the Water Resources Protection & Management Act	There is little doubt that the bill aimed to protect water resources in the state, in response to the Jan. 9 spill of MCHM into the Elk River by...	Thu March 6, 2014	Government, WV Legis	News	apayne
House Judiciary on Future Fund and Crime Victim Compensation, Local Issues in Senate, & Frack Waste	The House Judiciary Committee deals with a constitutional amendment to partner with the establishment of a Future Fund and also deals with a bill that	Wed March 5, 2014	The Legislature Today	News	dmistich
W.Va. Finance Panel Waters Down Minimum Wage Bill	The West Virginia Senate Finance Committee has watered down a House bill to raise the minimum wage. The minimum wage would be increased by $1.50 over	Wed March 5, 2014	Government, Economy	News	dmistich
Senators Bring Local Issues to Senate Floor	Two senators rose to speak on the floor Wednesday about local issues they feel could have larger state impacts. />Senator Bill Laird brought to the	Wed March 5, 2014	Hawks Nest State Park	News	amarra
Senator Supports Legislation Promoting Deer Farms	A Senate Committee saw controversy as House Bill 4286 was discussed. The bill pulls the state deer farming program from the oversight of the Division...	Wed March 5, 2014	Deer Farming, Division	News	amarra
Committee Approves Constitutional Amendment, Bill to Adjust Crime Victim Compensation Awards	While the House Judiciary Committee was unable to get through all 19 items in the morning session, they were able to approve a constitutional...	Wed March 5, 2014	Government, WV Legis	News	apayne
Alpha Natural Resources Hit with Big Fine in Coal-Tainted Water Deal	One of the nation's largest coal producers will pay a $27.5 million fine and is set to spend $200 million to reduce illegal toxic discharges into	Wed March 5, 2014	Government, Energy &	News	dmistich
Gov. Tomblin Calls House Teacher Pay Plan 'Unrealistic'	Given the tough budget forecast, Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin thinks a proposal to give teachers $6,000 in raises over three years is unrealistic. Tomblin...	Wed March 5, 2014	Government, Education	News	cmason
W.Va. House Panel Limits Cold Medicine Buys for Meth Production	A state bill would no longer change West Virginia law to require prescriptions for cold medicines that are used to make methamphetamine. Instead,	Wed March 5, 2014	Government, Pseudoe	News	dmistich
Storm Breaks Cold Records in Several W.Va. Cities	The winter of 2014 continues to break records in West Virginia. The National Weather Service says a blast of arctic air on Tuesday broke low...	Wed March 5, 2014	Weather, Energy & En	News	dmistich

Legislative Coverage, Kids Dancing in School Hallways, and Chasing Off Old Man Winter	On this West Virginia Morning, abortion and water resources are debated in the legislature; Jessica Lilly let's us in on how grade school kids are...	Wed March 5, 2014	podcast, Radio, Elk River News	gboard
Fasnacht Celebration Urges Old Man Winter to Leave	The little town of Helvetia, W.Va., tried its best to frighten away Old Man Winter at its Fasnacht festival, which takes place every year on the last	Wed March 5, 2014	Festivals, Arts & Culture News	cmason
North Bend Rail Trail to Undergo Repairs	The North Bend Rail Trail soon will undergo repairs to address water damage and other problems. The 72-mile trail runs from Interstate 77 near...	Wed March 5, 2014	Arts & Culture, North Bend News	dmistich
Senate Takes on Late-Term Abortions, Water Protection Bill Heads to House Floor, & WVU President Gee	The Senate Health and Human Resources Committee amends and passes a House bill that would prohibit abortions after 20 weeks. The House Finance...	Tue March 4, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Senate Committee Amends House Abortion Bill	The women's organization West Virginia Free gathered more than 50 supporters outside the state Senate Chambers to protest House Bill 4588, the pain	Tue March 4, 2014	Abortion, Pain capable News	amarra
Some W.Va. Teachers Already "Move to Improve"	The Senate recently passed the "Move to Improve Act" which could change the daily grind in state classrooms. The bill is in response to the Healthy	Tue March 4, 2014	Childhood Obesity, Go News	jlilly
Water Resource Protection Bill Passes Final House Committee Reference	The House Finance Committee removed several of the sections added by the other House committees in the water resource protection bill. One of which...	Tue March 4, 2014	Government, WV Legislature News	apayne
Freedom Industries Hires Firm to Keep Emails, Data	The West Virginia company at the center of a January chemical spill is hiring experts to preserve emails and phone records for ongoing...	Tue March 4, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Cabell County to Develop Incubator School for Expeditionary Learning	Cabell County School officials are excited about a new school they hope will set an example for schools around the state. Cabell will develop the	Tue March 4, 2014	Cabell County Board of News	cdavis
Water Woes in McDowell County Examined, Students Learning in New Ways, Clock Ticking in Legislature	On this West Virginia Morning, state legislative officials are working against the clock and snow to get more bills passed. We explore the water...	Tue March 4, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Ireland's Wild River on Display	The Shannon is Ireland's greatest geographical landmark and longest river. It is both a barrier and highway - a silver ribbon holding back the rugged	Tue March 4, 2014	TV, Nature Program, V TV	CMatlick
Northfork Water Woes: A Failing System	Northfork has been on a boil water advisory since July 2013, even longer than the folks in neighboring Wyoming County in Bud/Alpoca. It's the...	Tue March 4, 2014	Northfork Water, Health News	jlilly
Update on the Governor's Legislative Agenda, Future Fund, Teacher Raises, & WVCBP's Ted Boettner	An update on Governor Tomblin's legislative agenda and members of the Senate Government Organization Committee discuss a House bill that would...	Mon March 3, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Committees Approve Bills to Create Future Fund, Increase Teacher Salaries	The House Judiciary Committee looked over Senate Bill 461 which would create the Future Fund.No substantive changes were suggested by the committee....	Mon March 3, 2014	Government, WV Legislature News	apayne

WVAW Discontinues Bulk Water Distribution	West Virginia American Water announced Monday they would be discontinuing their bulk water distribution service two days early. In a press release, the	Mon March 3, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
Red Cross Prepared for Next Storm	Through the storm today, there have been no requests for emergency shelters, but the Red Cross was ready to provide them in any case. Red Cross...	Mon March 3, 2014	Winter Weather News	bvorhees
Concord Celebrates 142 Years	Concord University marked its 142nd anniversary with a ceremony that honored faculty, staff and students. The event was meant to help explain the...	Mon March 3, 2014	News	jlilly
Two National Parks Boost West Virginia's Economy	The National Parks in West Virginia generated $63.4 million in visitor spending in 2012 with more than 1.5 million recreational visits. West Virginia...	Mon March 3, 2014	News	cmason
Charles Town Casino to Add 1,200-Seat Concert Hall	West Virginia's largest casino has announced plans to add a 1,200-seat concert venue as it seeks to fend off increased competition from casinos in	Mon March 3, 2014	Arts & Culture, EcononNews	dmistich
W.Va. House Education Committee Increases Amount in Teacher Raise Bill	House Education Committee has voted to increase pay for West Virginia teachers and service personnel significantly. The amended bill increases...	Mon March 3, 2014	Government, Teacher News	dmistich
Gee Appointed West Virginia University Permanent President	E. Gordon Gee was named West Virginia University's permanent president Monday. It's the third time he's been asked to lead the state's land-grant,	Mon March 3, 2014	Government, Higher E News	dmistich
A NASA Launch, Water Woes in McDowell Co., & More	On this West Virginia Morning, a special NASA launch has a West Virginia connection. Also, water woes continue in West Virginia, but not where you...	Mon March 3, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Rocket Girls and Astro-nettes Launch on Thursday Night	Rocket Girls and Astro-nettes is the story of women in the ultimate Man's World - the labs and Shuttle crew cabins of NASA. Catch the broadcast...	Mon March 3, 2014	Radio, women's history Radio	ccarter
Harsh Winter Reduces W.Va. DOT's Salt Supplies	A harsh winter has reduced the state's supplies of salt used to treat snow and ice-covered roads. Department of Transportation spokeswoman Carrie...	Mon March 3, 2014	Government, Departm News	dmistich
Living Without Consistent Water Service: A Northfork Way of Life	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin lifted the state of emergency for nine counties on Friday. It's been about seven weeks since 300,000 customers lost access...	Mon March 3, 2014	McDowell County, Nor News	jlilly
Conquering The Snow, Telling Our Story	It's not always easy to tell West Virginia's story. The weather can be harsh, and resources can be scarce. So when an employee takes what could have...	Mon March 3, 2014	Storytellers, Larry Dow About Us	sfinn
'Titan' Storm Closes Schools, Causes Delays in W.Va.	Public schools across West Virginia are closed and some government offices are closing or delaying openings because of a winter storm. The storm...	Mon March 3, 2014	Government, Energy & News	dmistich
WVU Board to Consider Panel's Endorsement of Gee	West Virginia University's Board of Governors is holding an emergency meeting to consider a search committee's endorsement of interim President E....	Mon March 3, 2014	West Virginia Universit News	dmistich

Delegates Advance Water Legislation after Debating 50 Amendments	Members of the House Judiciary Committee spent more than 9 hours debating and discussing 50 amendments to Senate Bill 373 Sunday into Monday. The bill...	Mon March 3, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
Brand New Celtic Woman Concert Celebrates Irish Heritage	Watch Celtic Woman: Emerald Monday, March 3 at 9 p.m. on WV PBS Celebrate the rich musical heritage of the Emerald Isles with Celtic Woman as they...	Sat March 1, 2014	Celtic Woman, WV PB TV	spatterson
Bortnick Coming to WV in May! Watch WV PBS for Ticket Opportunities	Watch Ethan Bortnick Live in Concert: The Power of Music Sunday, March 2 at 7:30 p.m. on WV PBS In this special concert, 12-year-old composer,...	Sat March 1, 2014	Ethan Bortnick, WV PETV	spatterson
Pharmaceutical Industry Fighting W.Va. Prescription-Only Pseudoephedrine Bill	The pharmaceutical industry is mounting a media blitz against a West Virginia bill requiring prescriptions for cold medicines.	Sat March 1, 2014	Government, Meth, Ps News	dmistich
Rockefeller Still Skeptical of W.Va. Water Safety	Sen. Jay Rockefeller is still skeptical about safety of drinking water for 300,000 Charleston-area residents. At an appearance Friday in Charleston...	Sat March 1, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Possible Solar Outages on WV Public Radio March 3-6	West Virginia Public Radio may experience solar outages March 3-6 at around 1:44 p.m. each day. A solar or sun transit outage is an electromagnetic	Sat March 1, 2014	Radio	spatterson
Same Sex Marriage Debate, A Unique Outdoor Classroom in Va., The Tygart Valley Homestead and More	Same sex marriage makes headlines again this week across the country and in Appalachia. An outdoor classroom in Virginia addresses watershed issues.	Sat March 1, 2014	Arts & Culture, Energy News	cmason
Delegates React to Session So Far, Treasury-Backed Retirement Plan, and Phil Kabler & Dave Boucher	Delegates from the House explain their feelings on how the session has gone thus far and Senators debate a bill that would establish a retirement...	Fri February 28, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Governor Tomblin Lifts State of Emergency Seven Weeks After Elk River Spill	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin has lifted a state of emergency for nine counties in West Virginia that were affected by a chemical spill into the Elk...	Fri February 28, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	bvorhees
Three Senate Bills and Where the House Stands	Senate Bill 373: The Water Protection Bill The House has had S.B. 373 for nearly a month and Thursday, a bipartisan group of delegates sent a letter to	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Stream-Restoration Project Breathes New Life Into Buffalo Creek	The site of a 1972 disaster along Logan County's Buffalo Creek is having new life breathed into it. Buffalo Creek is rapidly becoming one of...	Fri February 28, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
WVU Board Wants to Keep Gee As Permanent President	During an emergency meeting of the West Virginia University presidential search committee Friday, a motion was introduced by staff representative...	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Higher Ed News	dmistich
State Treasurer Backs Retirement Program for Private, Small Businesses	The Senate Pensions Committee took up House Bill 4375 creating the West Virginia Voluntary Employee Retirement Accounts Program. The program would be	Fri February 28, 2014	Retirement Systems, V News	amarra
Illinois Police Seize 145 Pounds of Marijuana from West Virginian	Authorities in western Illinois say they've seized around 145 pounds of marijuana from a 68-year-old West Virginia man passing through the area....	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Drugs, M News	dmistich

New Satellite Hopes to Improve Weather Predictions	A new satellite is hoping to get a better handle on how weather patterns change, so that forecasters can warn people of severe weather. With help...	Fri February 28, 2014	NASA, Fairmont, Weat News	badducchio
W.Va. Lottery Revenue Falls in January	West Virginia Lottery officials say revenue continued to drop in January. The Charleston Gazette reports that state lottery revenue fell 12 percent...	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Economy News	dmistich
Feds Recommend One Year Sentence for Ex-Mingo Prosecutor	The government is seeking the maximum punishment of one year in prison for a former Mingo County prosecutor. Michael Sparks is scheduled to be...	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Mingo Co News	dmistich
Mingo Circuit Court Judge Post Remains Unfilled	The seat vacated by convicted former Mingo County Circuit Judge Michael Thornsby remains unfilled more than a month after a deadline under state...	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Mingo Co News	dmistich
Plea Hearing Sought in Drug Case of Gov. Tomblin's Brother	Federal prosecutors are seeking a plea hearing for the brother of West Virginia Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin in a drug distribution case. Assistant U.S.	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Drugs, C News	dmistich
Steve Martin Jams with Edie Brickell	Comedy legend Steve Martin is now in the fifth decade of a varied and accomplished career as a comic, actor, author and playwright. He is also a...	Fri February 28, 2014	TV, Great Performance TV	ccarter
Delegates Want Special Session Focusing On Water, House Speaker & Judiciary Chair Disagree	Delegate Meshea Poore has asked Governor Earl Ray Tomblin to call a special session to focus solely on legislation to protect the state's water...	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Senate B News	dmistich
Mark Dr. Seuss's Birthday with a Week-long Cat-Ebration!	A special week of science-focused The Cat in the Hat Knows A Lot About That! kicks off with a new one-hour special on WV PBS, Monday March 3 at 3 p.m...	Fri February 28, 2014	PBS Kids, Education, \ Education	spatterson
Hear Mary Chapin Carpenter & Shawn Colvin on This Week's Mountain Stage	This week's special encore broadcast of Mountain Stage features a special extended duo performance from longtime friends Mary Chapin Carpenter and...	Fri February 28, 2014	Radio	jsaul
Food Pantry for College Students, House Bills in Senate, Song of the Week	On this West Virginia Morning, college students are using a food pantry in Huntington. Food pantries for college students are becoming more popular...	Fri February 28, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Bulk Water Distribution in Kanawha Co. for February 28 - March 2	Kanawha County and City of Charleston have announced Bulk Water Distribution for Friday, February 28 through Sunday, March 2. West Virginia American...	Fri February 28, 2014	Government, Water Di: News	dmistich
Controversial House Bills Now in The Senate, Pretrial Release Programs, Sen. Brooks McCabe, & More	Bills relating to abortion, drilling waste, and the attorney general's office that were controversial in the House now make their way through the...	Thu February 27, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Abortion, Drilling Waste, Attorney General: Where Does the Senate Stand?	Bills that were hotly debated in the House are expected to receive just as much attention in the Senate as members of the Legislature near their...	Thu February 27, 2014	Marcellus shale, Frack News	amarra
The Law Works - Truancy	Forty years ago, the United States had the highest public school graduation rate in the world. Today we're number twenty-one. In West Virginia we...	Thu February 27, 2014	Dan Ringer, The Law \ TV	bblaker

West Virginia Public Broadcasting's Ashton Marra to Participate in WVU Panel on Elk River Spill	On March 24, West Virginia Public Broadcasting reporter Ashton Marra will be one of five participants in "From Beats to Tweets: Media Coverage of...	Thu February 27, 201·Ashton Marra, P.I. ReeNews	rmazza
Senate Bill to Expand Pretrial Release Programs in W.Va. Approved By House Committee	Among the seven bills discussed by the House Judiciary Committee Thursday was Senate Bill 307, authorizing community corrections programs to operate	Thu February 27, 201·Government, WV LegisNews	apayne
FirstEnergy Plans Infrastructure Upgrades in W.Va.	FirstEnergy Corp. is planning $110 million worth of infrastructure upgrades in West Virginia this year. Ohio-based FirstEnergy said Thursday that the	Thu February 27, 201·Economy, Energy & Er News	dmistich
W.Va. Delegation Urges CDC to Monitor Health Effects of Jan. Spill	West Virginia's Congressional Delegation has penned a letter to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, urging health officials to conduct...	Thu February 27, 201·Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
Marshall Opens Food Pantry for Students	College students are not part of the group that most would think about needing help from a food pantry. Marshall University officials say the need is	Thu February 27, 201·Marshall University, M&News	cdavis
State Public Service Commission Pushing Alpoca Water Deal	The West Virginia Public Service Commission is just days away from issuing a final order that is expected to bring some folks in Wyoming County...	Thu February 27, 201·Wyoming County, Hea News	jlilly
Nearly 200 Citations Issued During January Federal Mine Inspections	Federal impact inspections at U.S. mines in January resulted in 198 citations and 11 orders. The Mine Safety and Health Administration conducted the	Thu February 27, 201·Government, Mine Saf News	dmistich
2014 Primary Election Candidates Certified	West Virginia's May 13 primary slate is official and will have several contested races on the federal level. Secretary of State Natalie Tennant...	Thu February 27, 201·Government, Elections News	dmistich
Growers Sought for W.Va. Hops Production Research	Growers are being sought to participate in a three-year research project to determine the viability of hop production in West Virginia. The project...	Thu February 27, 201·Economy, Craft Beer, I News	dmistich
Jazzy Women Take the Stage	In the 1960s, as the civil-rights movement and other cultural changes gained momentum, a generation of women artists made their way through a jazz...	Thu February 27, 201·music, Jazz, women's Radio	ccarter
WVU Offering New Services to Student Veterans	West Virginia University's veteran population is pretty substantial. More than 1,000 veterans attend the school. But the university hasn't always...	Thu February 27, 201·Veterans, West Virginia: News	badducchio
Mary Chapin Carpenter & Shawn Colvin - "That Don't Worry Me Now" - Live on Mountain Stage	Acclaimed songwriters and longtime friends Mary Chapin Carpenter and Shawn Colvin share the stage on this week's broadcast, with a special extended...	Thu February 27, 201·Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	jsaul
Veterans Getting Help, Homeless Getting Jobs, Legislative News	On this West Virginia Morning, state veterans are getting help at WVU, where more than 1,000 students served in the military. Homeless persons in	Thu February 27, 201·West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio

House Looks at Senate Water Protection Bill, Charleston CVB Hopes to Shake Water Stigma, & More	The House of Delegates went through 60 items on their daily calendar on "Crossover Day," the last day for bills to be out of their house of origin....	Wed February 26, 201	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Downstream Strategies Issues New Water Protection Report to Judiciary Committee	Senate Bill 373 relating to water resources protection was sent to the House nearly one month ago to go through three committee stops. Two weeks ago...	Wed February 26, 201	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Constitutional Amendments Make it One Step Closer to Nov. Ballot	In a rare occurrence at the statehouse, Senators debated three possible Constitutional Amendments on the floor, changes that will ultimately be sent...	Wed February 26, 201	West Virginia Constitut News	amarra
Senators Compromise on Teacher Pay, Union Wants More	In a last minute compromise, the Senate Education and Finance Committee Chairs agreed to an across the board pay raise for teachers that differs from...	Wed February 26, 201	Government, Public Ec News	dmistich
Manchin Looks Into Pay-To-Play-With-FDA Allegations	U.S. Senator Joe Manchin of West Virginia continues to express concern about alleged meetings between pharmaceutical manufacturers and officials at...	Wed February 26, 201	Health & Science, Pair News	gboard
W.Va. House Passes Bill Banning Sale of Bong, Bowls	West Virginia businesses couldn't sell bong, bowls, mini spoons or other items marketed for illegal drug use under a proposal passed by the House of	Wed February 26, 201	Government, Marijuana News	dmistich
Gov. Tomblin's Brother Faces Drug Charge	West Virginia Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin's brother is facing a federal drug distribution charge. A federal information charges 50-year-old Carl Tomblin of	Wed February 26, 201	Governor Earl Ray Tor News	dmistich
Feds to Probe Evidence Handling in Mingo Case	Federal prosecutors are investigating the handling of evidence in a Mingo County drug case linked to a corruption probe. Mingo County Sheriff James...	Wed February 26, 201	Government, Mingo Co News	dmistich
Artist Ian Bode - The Passenger	After music, I love the graphic arts, photography, film and almost any variation thereof. Graphic artists, like Ian Bode, fascinate me. I am not...	Wed February 26, 201	Eclectopia, Classical M Radio	jlange
A Water Hero, Post-Spill Tourism in Charleston, Legislative News	On this West Virginia Morning, we meet a water hero. Also, updates from the legislature on government fraud and a bill on abortions. Visitors are...	Wed February 26, 201	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
PBS KIDS is a Vital Resource in Preparing Children for School	Parents Overwhelmingly Agree No Other Media Brand Meets Their Children's School Readiness Needs Like PBS KIDS West Virginia PBS airs 11 hours of PBS...	Wed February 26, 201	Pressroom, About Us, About Us	spatterson
Public Television Remains #1 as a Trusted Media Source	Nationwide Research Confirms that PBS and Member Stations are America's Most Trusted Institution and an "Excellent" Use of Tax Dollars for 11th...	Wed February 26, 201	Pressroom, About Us, About Us	spatterson
Meet a W.Va. Water Hero	Water donations from across the country have poured into Wyoming County since our original report. The folks in Bud and Alpoca were dealing with...	Wed February 26, 201	Wyoming County, Mari News	jlilly

State and Local Tourism Evaluate Post-Spill Plans, Conference Participants Leave With No Bad Taste	With the state eclipsing the $5 billion mark for tourism revenue in 2012, this week's Travel South Conference in Charleston gave visitors bureaus...	Wed February 26, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Bill to Restrict Abortion Past 20 Weeks Passes House	A motion to discharge House Bill 2364 or the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act from committee and put it up for immediate vote was rejected on	Tue February 25, 201	Government, WV LegisNews	apayne
Government Fraud Prevention Act Downed by House	House Bill 4001 was introduced on the first day of the session as the False Claims Act. However, opponents of the bill referred to it as the "sue-and	Tue February 25, 201	Government, WV LegisNews	apayne
Senate Debates Meth Lab Clean-Up Amendment, Government Fraud Protection, & Philanthropy	A proposed amendment to the Crime Victim's Compensation Fund divided the Senate Tuesday, but not necessarily on party lines. In the House, passionate	Tue February 25, 201	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
W.Va. Senate Approves Bill to Boost Student Activity	The West Virginia Senate has passed legislation requiring physical activity for students. Under the Move to Improve Act, elementary school students...	Tue February 25, 201	Government, Health & News	dmistich
W.Va. Senate OKs Raising Drug Trafficking Penalty	The West Virginia Senate has passed a bill to increase the penalty for transporting narcotics into West Virginia. The bill increases prison time...	Tue February 25, 201	Government, Senate, INews	dmistich
Few Creditors Question W.Va. Spill Company in Court	A few of the hundreds of creditors seeking compensation from the company at the center of West Virginia's chemical spill questioned top company...	Tue February 25, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Good Samaritan Overdose Law Passes State Senate	The West Virginia Senate has unanimously passed a Good Samaritan law for those seeking medical assistance for drug or alcohol overdose. The West...	Tue February 25, 201	Government, Drugs News	cmason
Jobs First Program Helps Huntington's Homeless	Officials at the Cabell-Huntington Coalition for the Homeless are taking a new approach to the problem of homelessness and unemployment. Jobs First...	Tue February 25, 201	Cabell-Huntington CoaNews	cdavis
Rockefeller Named Champion of Public Broadcasting by National Group	A good friend of West Virginia Public Broadcasting, Sen. Jay Rockefeller, has just been honored by the organization that represents public television	Tue February 25, 2014	News	sfinn
Senators Debate State Money for Meth Lab Clean-up	A proposed amendment to the Crime Victim's Compensation Fund divided the Senate Tuesday, but not necessarily on party lines. The fund is used to...	Tue February 25, 201	Crime Victim's ComperNews	amarra
Improving Education in W.Va. "You Get What You Pay For"	The legislative session last year is often referred to as the "year of education reform" as lawmakers looked for ways to improve education quality....	Tue February 25, 201	McDowell County, MerNews	jlilly
New Energy Regulations, Zombies Debts, & Other Legislative News	On this West Virginia Morning, new EPA regulations are on the way, on existing coal-fired power plants. A conference in Morgantown tries to sort out...	Tue February 25, 201	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio

U.S. Attorney Booth Goodwin & State Police Captain Tim Bledsoe Discuss Heroin Use in The State	More than 20 bills pass through the Senate, but a couple bills brought the upper house's leadership to the podium to discuss next steps and,...	Mon February 24, 201	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
W.Va. House Looking to Double-Tap (Debt) Zombies	A rule (#2: Double-Tap) for dispatching zombies in the movie Zombieland is essentially being applied by the House of Delegates in regard to killing â€œ...	Mon February 24, 201	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
W.Va. House Passes Attorney General Conflicts Bill	West Virginia delegates have approved a proposal with stricter conflict of interest requirements when the attorney general oversees cases. The...	Mon February 24, 201	Government, Attorney News	dmistich
The Three Absolutes: Death, Taxes, and...Litigation on EPA Regulations?	Scores of environmental regulators, lawyers, and other interested parties discussed what they will be facing when the Environmental Protection Agency	Mon February 24, 201	Coal, West Virginia, W News	badducchio
Federal Health Officials Now Calling W.Va. Water 'Safe'	A federal health official says it's safe to use water contaminated by a chemical spill in West Virginia last month. The Centers for Disease Control...	Mon February 24, 201	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
What We Can Learn From West Virginia Public Broadcasting's Water Crisis Coverage	While many would argue West Virginians were not lab rats after the Elk River chemical spill and the subsequent water crisis, in some ways, our news...	Mon February 24, 201	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Senate Ramps Up Voting as Session Winds Down	Members of the state Senate had 25 bills on their morning calendar Monday, passing almost all unanimously. Those bills included:Senate Bill 623The...	Mon February 24, 201	WV Senate, WV Legis News	amarra
Aerial America: West Virginia Study: Carbon Benefits Outweigh Costs (If You Don't Count End of Humanity! Maybe Even If You Do)	In this visually-driven documentary, The Smithsonian Channel highlights the natural (and occasionally the man-made) beauty of West Virginia. The hour... The report, titled "The Social Costs of Carbon? No, The Social Benefits Of Carbon," highlights a forecasted decline in oil demand in the world's...	Mon February 24, 201	The Smithsonian Chan News	dmistich
Charges Dismissed Against Figure in Mingo Probe	A judge has dismissed drug charges against a central figure in a federal corruption investigation in Mingo County.	Mon February 24, 201	Government, Mingo Co News	dmistich
WVU Gathers Presidential Candidates for To-Be-Named Search Firm	More than two dozen potential candidates' names have been submitted to West Virginia University's presidential search committee. Board of Governors	Mon February 24, 201	West Virginia Universit News	dmistich
Holocaust Survivor Says Forgive But, Don't Forget	As national Holocaust Day of Remembrance approached, 92 year old Holocaust survivor Daniel Kereth said years on the run and in prison were life-...	Mon February 24, 201	Arts & Culture, Judiasr News	shiggins
The Future Of Fossil Fuels, Teacher Pay Raises, & Road Salt	On this West Virginia Morning, teachers in West Virginia are doing the best they possibly can on low pay, and the state legislature is working to...	Mon February 24, 201	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio

What Does the World's Best Water Smell Like? (Hint: It's Not Black Licorice)	When I signed up to be a judge at the Berkeley Springs International Water Tasting, I thought it would just be a bit of fun -- a relaxing weekend in...	Sun February 23, 2014	Water Crisis, West Virginia News	sfinn
And The Winner Is...International Water Tasting Results Are In	The 24th Annual International Water Tasting took place Saturday in Berkeley Springs, W.Va., and a Canadian town walked away with the trophy for Best	Sun February 23, 2014	Berkeley Springs, Arts News	cmason
Second W.Va. House Panel OKs Late Abortion Ban Bill	A proposal to ban abortions in West Virginia after 20 weeks of pregnancy has passed a second legislative panel with no discussion. The House of...	Sat February 22, 2014	Government, Health & News	dmistich
Growing Grapes on Stripped Land, Putting Frack Waste in Landfills, Finding Lost Poets and More	Some land in Wise Virginia has gone from producing coal, to producing grapes. West Virginians debate whether frack waste should be dumped in local	Sat February 22, 2014	Energy & Environment News	cmason
The Future of Toll Collections, Teacher Pay Raises, & Capitol Reporters Eric Eyre and Erin Timony	The House of Delegates deal with a bill relating to conflicts of interest with the Attorney General's office and hold a public hearing on the future...	Fri February 21, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Montclair String Quartet Rehearsal at West Virginia Public Broadcasting	The Montclair String Quartet recently rehearsed Dr. John Beall's 3rd String Quartet at West Virginia Public Broadcasting this past Thursday (2/20)...	Fri February 21, 2014	Radio	mjackfert
Public Hearing Held on a Bill Relating to the Future of Toll Collection in W. Va.	The House Judiciary Committee held a public hearing on a bill that would affect the way tolls are collected in the state. House Bill 4156 as...	Fri February 21, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Environmental Official: Coal Companies Don't Want Stigma of MCHM	At the statehouse Friday, members of the Joint Legislative Oversight Commission on State Water Resources continued their hearings on the Elk River...	Fri February 21, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	amarra
Committee Moves Bill to Allow County Employee Pay Increases	A Senate committee Friday approved Senate Bill 379 to remove a salary cap for county employees, if the county finds they have the funds. Originally...	Fri February 21, 2014	Pay Raise, County Em News	amarra
W.Va. Senate Passes Future Fund	The West Virginia Senate has unanimously passed a bill to conserve and invest a portion of oil and gas revenues to use for future infrastructure and	Fri February 21, 2014	Government, Future Fund News	dmistich
WV TAP Researchers Say Initial Sample Collection Complete, Need Additional Funds	The two scientists leading the West Virginia Testing Assessment Project, or WV TAP, following the Jan. 9 chemical spill into the Elk River near...	Fri February 21, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Freedom Industries Winding Down Operations	The company at the center of West Virginia's chemical spill is selling the rest of its chemicals, helping employees find new jobs and winding down	Fri February 21, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Senators Remove Across the Board Teacher Pay Raise	Members of the Senate Finance Committee Friday morning voted to remove language from a bill increasing teachers' salaries by $1,000 across the board.	Fri February 21, 2014	Teacher Pay Raise, State News	amarra
Man Charged with Wheeling Federal Building Threat	A Wheeling man is charged with threatening to shoot up a federal building that was previously targeted by a gunman who was killed by police. 43-year...	Fri February 21, 2014	Wheeling, Government News	dmistich

Listen to Billy Bragg, The Flatlanders and More on Mountain Stage	We hope you can tune in to this Sunday's broadcast of Mountain Stage, featuring iconic British folk-rocker Billy Bragg. Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Joe Ely...	Fri February 21, 2014	Radio	Radio	jsaul
Unfair Trade Practices Legislation, The Flatlanders on Mountain Stage, & More	On this West Virginia Morning, tempers flare in the State Senate over a bill that looks at trade practices. Also, the House looks at taxpayer...	Fri February 21, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News		badducchio
Drug Overdose Protection, False Claims Act, & Dr. Rahul Gupta on the Need for Medical Monitoring	The Senate amends a bill that would protect those seeking emergency medical attention for someone else experiencing a drug overdose and also...	Thu February 20, 2014	The Legislature Today News		dmistich
Joanne Jaeger Tomblin - What A Doll!	First Lady Joanne Jaeger Tomblin today unveiled the newest commemorative doll in the First Ladies of West Virginia doll collection. The doll was hand...	Thu February 20, 2014	First Lady Joanne Jaeger News		bvorhees
WVAM Using More Rigorous Water Testing Standard	A news release from West Virginia American Water Thursday said all points of testing throughout the water distribution system show levels of MCHM...	Thu February 20, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News		amarra
False Claims and Taxpayer Protection Act Once Again Approved to House Floor	House Bill 4001 was reported to the floor earlier in the session from the House Judiciary Committee. However, concerns from the business sector lead...	Thu February 20, 2014	Government, WV Legislature News		apayne
Department of Education Says Gov. Tomblin Taking Proactive Steps to Ensure Student Safety	The West Virginia Department of Education said through a news release that they are working with the West Virginia National Guard following a...	Thu February 20, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News		dmistich
W.Va. Company That Spilled Coal Slurry Cited Again	State environmental regulators have cited another violation at the West Virginia plant that spilled coal slurry into a stream last week. The...	Thu February 20, 2014	Government, Energy & News		dmistich
Parents Still Concerned About Water in Schools After Elk River Spill	After smells of licorice, reported symptoms of burning eyes and noses, as well as positive tests of MCHM in recent weeks, tensions remain high over...	Thu February 20, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News		dmistich
Senate Debates Bill on Unfair Trade Practices	Legislators stood Thursday to speak to legislation that has not yet made it to the floor. Senate Bill 368 was introduced by Senator Herb Snyder...	Thu February 20, 2014	Unfair Trade Practices News		amarra
Bill to Protect Overdose Victims Advances in Senate	Senators amended a bill in committee Thursday they felt contained too many loopholes for people seeking emergency assistance during a drug overdose....	Thu February 20, 2014	Drug Overdose, Immunity News		amarra
W.Va. Statehouse at Odds on Budget	The House of Delegates and Senate are at odds on how best to balance West Virginia's budget. Senate propositions to raise sales and cigarette taxes...	Thu February 20, 2014	Government, State Budget News		dmistich
Forgotten Black Poets of WWI Era Featured on New Website	The nation's first and only building memorializing African American veterans of WWI is located in Kimball, W.Va. and Thursday evening a celebration...	Thu February 20, 2014	Black History Month, Black News		cmason
Missing Person in Greene Co. Gas Well Explosion Was a Morgantown Resident	27-year old Ian McKee of Morgantown has been identified as the missing and feared-dead employee from the recent Greene County gas well explosion....	Thu February 20, 2014	Greene County Gas Well News		gboard

State Costs for Chemical Leak Top $3 Million	As Dave Boucher of The Charleston Daily Mail reports, state officials estimate the cost of the response to the January 9 chemical spill by Freedom...	Thu February 20, 201·Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
W.Va. Highways Worker Accused of Lying to Federal Agent	A federal grand jury has indicted a state Division of Highways supervisor on a charge of lying to an FBI agent during an investigation into a DOH	Thu February 20, 201·William J. Ihlenfeld, GcNews	dmistich
The Law Works - Safety of Our Water Supply	One of the things we typically take for granted is that our water is safe. Safe to drink. Safe to give our children. But three hundred thousand West Authorities are investigating a riot that damaged the Lorrie Yeager Jr. Juvenile Center in Parkersburg. Parkersburg Police Chief Joseph Martin tells...	Thu February 20, 201·Water safety, water, D:TV	rmazza
W.Va. Juvenile Center Damaged During Riot		Thu February 20, 201·Government, Lorrie YeNews	dmistich
Sentencing Postponed for Ex-Mingo Prosecutor	A former Mingo County prosecutor's sentencing in a federal corruption investigation has been pushed back a week. Michael Sparks will be sentenced...	Thu February 20, 201·Government, Law & O:News	dmistich
The Law Works - Environmental Bankruptcy	What happens when a company causes an environmental disaster... injures hundreds of thousands of people...closes large and small businesses for days...	Thu February 20, 201·Dan Ringer, The Law \ TV	bblaker
The Flatlanders - "Hopes Up High" - Live on Mountan Stage	Comprised of iconic singer-songwriters Joe Ely, Jimmie Dale Gilmore and Butch Hancock, The Flatlanders are widely regarded as one of country-rock's...	Thu February 20, 201·Radio, Mountain StageRadio	jsaul
Pa. Environmental Officials Hope to Have Well Controlled By End of Week	Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection officials say they hope the gas well that went up in flames last week can be controlled by...	Thu February 20, 201·Gas Drilling, gas well, (News	badducchio
Remembering Poets From Years Past, Gas Well Control, Legislative Coverage	On this West Virginia Morning, a West Virginia University professor is keeping the memory alive of some poets who honored African American civil...	Thu February 20, 201·West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Coal Wastewater Spills Into McDowell Creek	State regulators say snowmelt has sent wastewater at a former coal impoundment site spilling over sediment control ponds and into a McDowell County...	Wed February 19, 201·Government, Departm:News	jlilly
Senate on Corrections and Roads, Schools for the Deaf and Blind, Ag Commissioner Helmick, & More	The Senate tackles issues related to corrections as well as roads. The House Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee takes a look at bills...	Wed February 19, 201·The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Natural Resources Committee Passes Bills to Protect Timber, Regulate Fertilizer	The Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee looked at two bills intended to protect two different resources.The first bill the House Agriculture...	Wed February 19, 201·House Agriculture & N:News	apayne
Freedom Industries Paid $6 Million to Related Parties	The company at the center of West Virginia's chemical spill paid about $6 million to executives and associated companies the year before its...	Wed February 19, 201·Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich

Income Inequality Between Top 1% and Rest of Working West Virginians Among Nation's Highest	A recent study says income inequality between the top 1% of West Virginia's wealthiest and rest of working West Virginians is among the highest in...	Wed February 19, 201	Economy, Income Inec News	gboard
Senator Says Rainy Day Fund Could Be Used to Improve Roads	At the legislature Wednesday, one Senator urged his colleagues to take action on a hotly debated topic, the condition of the state roads. Heâ€™s asking	Wed February 19, 201	State Roads, Paving C News	amarra
WATCH: W.Va. Schools for Deaf and Blind Perform for Lawmakers	Students from around West Virginia who attend the state Schools for the Deaf and Blind visited the Capitol today to perform a medley of songs...	Wed February 19, 201	West Virginia Schools News	amarra
W.Va. Senate Moves to Include Prep Teams in WVSSAC	The Senate has advanced a bill to recognize college preparatory teams as members of the West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission. The...	Wed February 19, 201	Government, Prep Sch News	dmistich
What Is Being Done to Help Folks Without Potable Water in Wyoming Co.?	The folks in a Wyoming County community were dealing with unpotable water months before the chemical spill in Charleston. About 170 customers,...	Wed February 19, 201	Wyoming County, Boil News	jlilly
CDC to Talk with W.Va. About Lab Studies on Spilled Chemicals	Federal health experts say they'll talk with West Virginia officials about what lab studies are needed on little-known chemicals that spilled into a...	Wed February 19, 201	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Sanitation Commission, DEP: Water Quality Unchanged After Slurry Spill	State regulators say tests indicate water quality hasn't changed following a coal slurry spill in a Kanawha River tributary. The Ohio River Valley...	Wed February 19, 201	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Charleston Mayor Considering In-Home, Business Water Testing	Charleston Mayor Danny Jones is exploring the city taking on testing of hotels and homes, to "prove to folks that the water is okay if, in fact, it...	Wed February 19, 201	Government, Charlestc News	dmistich
W.Va. Company Involved in Chemical Spill Wants Consultants	The West Virginia company involved in last month's chemical spill is heading back to bankruptcy court. Freedom Industries will return to the Robert...	Wed February 19, 201	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
W.Va. OKs Controls Tests at Kanawha Slurry Spill Site	West Virginia regulators say a coal operator can begin testing new control measures at the site of a slurry spill. The Department of Environmental	Wed February 19, 201	Government, Energy & News	dmistich
Transmission Issues are Being Addressed	We realize that many viewers continue to have problems with WV PBS. We ARE working on the problem and we thank you for your patience as we implement...	Wed February 19, 201	Reception Issues, WV About Us	spatterson
Wyoming County Water Problems, Rx-Only Pseudoephedrine in Senate, & House's Valued Employees Bill	On this West Virginia Morning, state legislators are striving to find ways to fix some water problems in Wyoming County. Also, the State Senate...	Wed February 19, 201	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Senate Kills Two Budget Proposals Leaving $17 Million Gap	Two bills proposed by the governor to fill general revenue budget holes died in a Senate committee Tuesday. The failure now leaves about a $17...	Wed February 19, 201	Transportation, Budget News	amarra

Senate Passes Rx-Only Pseudoephedrine Bill, House Tries to Prevent Layoffs, & Dr. James Phares	The Senate passes a bill that would make pseudoephedrine available by prescription only. Committees in the state legislature's upper house also took...	Tue February 18, 201·The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Bill Advances Closing Loopholes in Coal Miner Drug Testing	In the Energy, Industry and Mining Committee Tuesday, Senators took up a bill meant to close loopholes in the drug testing system for mine workers in	Tue February 18, 201·Office of Minerâ€™s H News	amarra
Gov. Tomblin, DHHR Secretary Request CDC to Conduct Further Health Studies After Spill	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin and Department of Health and Human Resources Secretary Karen Bowling Tuesday sent a letter to Dr. Tom Frieden, director of the	Tue February 18, 201·Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Bill to Keep West Virginians Working Passes in House Finance Committee	House Bill 4409 creates the Valued Employee Retention Program with the goal of giving employers incentive to reduce workersâ€™ hours rather than laying...	Tue February 18, 201·Government, WV Legis News	apayne
New Jobs Coming to Berkeley County	The Berkeley County Development Authority has announced Rust-Oleum Corp. will open a distribution center in Martinsburg. Development Authority...	Tue February 18, 201·Business, Economy, B News	cmason
Senate Passes Bill Requiring Prescriptions for Pseudoephedrine	Senators put the highly anticipated prescription only pseudoephedrine bill to a vote Tuesday, but only after receiving a last minute amendment on the...	Tue February 18, 201·Pseudoephedrine, Pre: News	amarra
Freedom Paid Millions to Leaders, Related Companies Before Spill, Bankruptcy	The Wall Street Journal, on their blog titled Bankruptcy Beat, breaks down millions of dollars doled out to Freedom Industries executives and those...	Tue February 18, 201·Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
531 Books Collected for Happy Valentine's Day Children's Book Drive	Thanks! We collected 531 books for children K-12 during the 2014 Happy Valentine's Day Children's Book Drive. Employees of West Virginia Public	Tue February 18, 201·Book Drive	About Us spatterson
Tomblin: State of Emergency to End Soon	West Virginia Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin says he's days away from lifting a state of emergency over last month's chemical spill into a public water...	Tue February 18, 201·Government, Governoi News	dmistich
Tomblin Unsure How to Pay for Health Monitoring After Spill	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin says he's not sure about tapping state reserves to monitor people's long-term health after chemicals spilled into their water...	Tue February 18, 201·Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Tips to Protect Against Identity Fraud	The security breaches that led to issues with credit cards used at some major retailers has brought attention to the problem of identity theft....	Tue February 18, 201·Economy, Identity Fra News	cmason
Kanawha Schools to Close Three Daycare Facilities	Kanawha County Schools plans to close three daycare facilities in March. Executive director of elementary education Bob Calhoun attributes the...	Tue February 18, 201·Government, Kanawha News	dmistich
Listen: A West Virginia Superintendent Sings to Announce Closings, Delays	Winter weather has shut down government offices, shopping malls and, of course, public schools. School was in session for Presidentâ€™s Day in some...	Tue February 18, 201·Arts & Culture, Fayette News	dmistich
Lawyer: Putnam Business Owner Didn't Price Gouge After W.Va. Spill	A Putnam County store owner's lawyer says his client didn't illegally raise water prices following a chemical spill. Lawyer Tom Peyton tells the	Tue February 18, 201·Government, Business News	dmistich

Three W.Va.-Based Companies Receive Technology Grants	Three West Virginia-based companies have received grants to help commercialize new technologies. The Chemical Alliance Zone's Chemical and Materials	Tue February 18, 201	Economy, Technology, News	dmistich
Rx-Only Pseudoephedrine Bill in the Senate, Alcohol Sales on Sunday, & Frack Waste Concerns	On this West Virginia Morning, the State Senate goes through a very spirited debate on a prescriptions bill. Also, the House of Delegates looks at	Tue February 18, 201	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Listen: Voices From Frack Waste Hearing Tell A Story	The House Judiciary Committee heard thoughts and concerns during a public hearing over a piece of pending legislation: HB4411 - allowing the...	Mon February 17, 201	Economy, Health & Sc News	gboard
Senator: Data Collection System Keeps Personal Information Confidential	Senators took up Senate Bill 420 Monday to amend the state P-20W Longitudinal Data System. The system collects statistics from K-12, colleges,...	Mon February 17, 201	Privacy, Data Collectio News	amarra
W.Va. House Judiciary Committee Clears Bill About Attorney General Conflicts	A legislative committee has cleared stiffer conflict-of-interest standards for West Virginia's attorney general. The House Judiciary Committee voted...	Mon February 17, 201	Government, Attorney News	dmistich
Rx-Pseudoephedrine Amendments Fail, Brunch Bill Passes House, Sens. Green & Hall on Wyoming Water	Senators vote on seven bills, reject one, and also down amendments to the prescription-only pseudoephedrine bill. The House of Delegates passes a...	Mon February 17, 201	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
'Brunch Bill' for Alcohol Sales Passes W.Va. House	The bill that incited the most debate during Monday's floor session was one that would allow private licensees to begin alcohol sales at 10:30 a.m. on	Mon February 17, 201	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
W.Va. House Health Committee OKs Bill to Limit Abortions	A West Virginia House of Delegates committee has voted to pass a bill to limit abortions after 20 weeks. The proposal passed Monday in the Committee...	Mon February 17, 201	Government, Health & News	dmistich
Bulk Water Distribution Sites in Kanawha Co. for February 18-23	Kanawha County and City of Charleston have announces Bulk Water Sites for Tuesday, February 18th through Sunday, February 23rd. Bring Your Own...	Mon February 17, 201	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Bill Tackles Flood Insurance Problem	A bill that would create a private flood insurance option has been introduced in the West Virginia Senate. The sponsor is Sen. Rocky Fitzsimmons,...	Mon February 17, 201	Government, Senator I News	cmason
Senior Groups Rally at West Virginia Capitol for In-Home Care	A rally took place at the West Virginia State Capitol Today to draw attention to issues with in-home care services. A coalition of groups including...	Mon February 17, 201	Government, AARP, W News	dmistich
W.Va.-Pa. Stream Being Used In Gas Well Restoration Effort	A natural gas well fire in Greene County, Pa., is out after it burned for several days. A stream that meanders along the West Virginia-Pennsylvania...	Mon February 17, 201	Energy & Environment News	badducchio
Grandview Elem. Closes Early Due to Odor in the Water	Concerns over the water in West Virginia persist 39 days after a coal scrubbing chemical spill affected the water supply of some 300,000 residents...	Mon February 17, 201	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich

Fayette Fracking Waste Permit Granted, National Group Reacts	The Natural Resource Defense Council is disappointed with the state Department of Environmental Protection's decision to renew a permit for an...	Mon February 17, 2014	Fayette County, Fracki News	jlilly
Marshall Hosts Small Business Listening Tour	A legislative committee is coming to Huntington to hear from small-business owners and entrepreneurs about doing business in West Virginia. The House	Mon February 17, 2014	Government, House Si News	dmistich
W.Va. House Committee Holds Hearing on Drilling Waste	The public has an opportunity to weigh in on a bill that would allow landfills in West Virginia to increase capacity to accept waste and cuttings...	Mon February 17, 2014	Government, Horizontal News	dmistich
Injection Well Permit Approved For Fayette Co., When Is It Safe To Drink The Water?, & More	On this West Virginia Morning, an underground injection well in Fayette County clears a key regulatory hurdle with the Department of Environmental	Mon February 17, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
W.Va. School Board Seeks Local Spending Flexibility	The West Virginia Board of Education says county school districts should have more control over how their state funding is spent. A decades-old...	Sun February 16, 2014	Government, Board of News	dmistich
Pa. Gubernatorial Hopeful Gives Back Dontations from Freedom Parent Co. Exec.	Democratic gubernatorial candidate Katie McGinty has returned $40,000 in campaign contributions from a western Pennsylvania coal executive, citing...	Sat February 15, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Data Shows Fewer Poor W.Va. Students Take AP Exam	The number of low-income students taking Advanced Placement courses around the nation has more than quadrupled in the last decade, according to the	Sat February 15, 2014	Government, AP Exam News	dmistich
Report Says More Solar Needed in W.Va., Sen. Rockefeller on the Water Crisis, Snow Fun and More	A new report says West Virginia can do more with solar power. Sen. Jay Rockefeller expresses his opinion about the West Virginia water crisis. A...	Sat February 15, 2014	Arts& Culture, Energy News	cmason
House Approves Launch Pad Act, Corrections Honored by Senate, and Jonathan Mattise & Mandi Cardosi	The House of Delegates approves a bill that would provide benefits for businesses working with technologies not currently in West Virginia if they...	Fri February 14, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Q: When Can We Trust the Water? A: When It Doesn't Stink	Frustration and anger continue to mount in the affected counties of last month's chemical spill. West Virginians are getting schooled in chemistry...	Fri February 14, 2014	The Law Works, Health News	badducchio
W.Va. Senator Says Goverment Should Fund Health Monitoring	A top state senator wants West Virginia Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin to use $10 million in reserves for health monitoring after chemicals spilled into 300,...	Fri February 14, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
House Approves W. Va. Launch Pad Act	House Bill 4343 provides economic benefits for businesses working with technologies not currently in West Virginia if they locate or expand in launch...	Fri February 14, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Should the Division of Corrections Become a Separate State Department?	The Division of Corrections was honored in the Senate Friday with a resolution declaring February 14, 2014, Corrections day at the legislature....	Fri February 14, 2014	Prison Overcrowding, I News	amarra
DEP Orders Fayette County Waste Pit Shutdown, Renews Well Permit	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection has renewed a permit for an underground injection well in Fayette County that accepts...	Fri February 14, 2014	Fayette County, Health News	jlilly

Water Distribution for Kanawha Co.: Saturday, Feb. 15- Monday, Feb. 17, 2014	Kanawha County and City of Charleston Bulk Water Sites for Saturday, February 15, 2014 through Monday, February 17, 2014: Bulk Water-Bring Your Own	Fri February 14, 2014	Water Distribution, Elk News	amarra
Senate Alters Governor's Pay Increase for Teachers	The West Virginia Senate Education Committee is proposing a sweeping $1,000 pay raise for teachers. The bill originally proposed a 2 percent raise	Fri February 14, 2014	Teacher Pay, Pay Rais News	amarra
W.Va. Attorney General Targets Two Stores Over Water Price Gouging	West Virginia's attorney general is accusing a convenience store company of illegally raising water prices while running water was unusable after a	Fri February 14, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Mountain Stage Webcast - February 16, 2014	We hope you're able to join us in person at Mountain Stage featuring Lake Street Dive, Willie Sugarcapps, Shonna Tucker, The Steel Wheels, and...	Fri February 14, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	jsaul
Shutdowns, Shoveling, and Sleighriding: A W.Va. Winter Story	Several public school systems across the state remained closed Friday. It was the same story at several universities and colleges. Some West...	Fri February 14, 2014	Mercer County, Conco News	jlilly
Solar Talks Take Place in Wheeling and Morgantown	A recent reportâ€”Using Solar PV to Create Economic Diversity in West Virginia, Five Policy Recommendationsâ€”was written by The Mountain Institute and	Fri February 14, 2014	Solar, Downstream Str News	gboard
Hear Bela Fleck, Abigail Wasburn & More on This Week's Broadcast of Mountain Stage	We hope you can tune in to this weekend's special encore broadcast of Mountain Stage, featuring the First Family of the Banjo, Bela Fleck &...	Fri February 14, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	jsaul
It Was Fifty Years Ago Today	Watching the CBS Beatles' 50th anniversary special, several things came to mind. The first being how much I miss John Lennon. Even when I was 5 years...	Fri February 14, 2014	Radio	jlange
Legislature Debates Pseudoephedrine and E-Cigarettes, Bela Fleck and Abigail Washburn, & More	On this West Virginia Morning, legislators debate details of pseudoephedrine, electric cigarettes, and child welfare. Plus, some radio sleigh riding...	Fri February 14, 2014	podcast, WV Legislatu News	gboard
House Takes on E-Cigarettes and Sexual Abuse, Senate Moves Bills From Interims, & Child Poverty	The House of Delegates passes a bill to make the sale e-cigarettes illegal to minors and addresses the issue of sexual abuse of minors. The Senate...	Thu February 13, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Bill Passes to Prohibit Sale of Electronic Tobacco Products to Minors	In Thursdayâ€™s House session, one bill on third reading and two bills mentioned in a speech dealt with the health and well-being of West Virginiaâ€™s...	Thu February 13, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Senate Moving Forward on Two Major Interim Issues	Senators unanimously passed a bill requiring a prescription for pseudoephedrine through committee and will soon vote as a whole on a bill reforming...	Thu February 13, 2014	Pseudoephedrine, Met News	amarra
Businesses Lose $61 Million Because of Elk River Spill	A local research group has calculated that roughly $61 million was lost by local businesses as a result of the chemical spill into the Elk River. The	Thu February 13, 2014	Economy, Marshall Un News	cdavis

W.Va. Shovels Out of Snowstorm	Some parts of West Virginia are buried by more than a foot of snow as a winter storm barrels across the state. The National Weather Service (NWS) is	Thu February 13, 201·Mercer County, Winter News	News	jlilly
W.Va. State Police Getting Too Many Calls	West Virginia State Police are asking residents to use the Department of Transportation's 511 system to obtain information about road conditions....	Thu February 13, 201·winter, Government	News	cmason
Legislature Deals with Gas Worker Safety and Mental Health of Veterans, Snowtubing, & More	On this West Virginia Morning, we cover several energy stories from the latest on the gas well explosion in Pennsylvania to what the West Virginia	Thu February 13, 201·West Virginia Morning, News	News	gboard
Massive Snow Storm Closes Much of the State	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin is asking West Virginia residents to stay home and off the roads because of a winter storm. Tomblin said Thursday that residents	Thu February 13, 201·winter, Government	News	cmason
Veterans and PTSD, Firefighters and Gas Drilling Sites, & Marshall University Pres. Dr. Stephen Kopp	A 2012 study finds that many of the state's veterans report suffering from symptoms of depression and post-traumatic stress disorder, and 20%...	Wed February 12, 201·The Legislature Today News	News	dmistich
Power Crews Ready for Winter Storm	Power crews are moving into the region along with the latest winter storm. In a release, Appalachian Power said nearly 100 contractors and employees...	Wed February 12, 201·Winter Weather, Mercē	News	jlilly
W.Va. Legislature Study Finds More Focus Needed on Mental Health of Veterans	The 2012 West Virginia Veterans Survey authorized by the Legislature found that between forty and fifty percent of the state's veterans report...	Wed February 12, 2014	News	apayne
House Passes Bill to Increase Minimum Wage in W. Va.	In the governor's State of the State address, Tomblin said that one of his goals for the legislative session is to provide a pay raise for groups...	Wed February 12, 201·Government, WV Legis	News	apayne
Fire Marshal: W.Va. Firefighters Not Required to Train on Well Site Fires	News broke Tuesday of a gas well explosion and fire in Greene County, Pennsylvania, injuring one worker while a second is still missing.The well was...	Wed February 12, 201·Well Site, Fracking Site	News	amarra
Kanawha Co. Schools Pulling Brand of Bottled Water from Circulation	Test results show bottled water provided to Kanawha County Schools do not contain coliform after a health official discontinued its use Wednesday. The	Wed February 12, 201·Chemical Leak, Public	News	amarra
Updated: Get Your Snow Shovels and Blowers Ready!	Concord University closed at 2 p.m. and canceled evening classes Wednesday in Athens and Beckley, W.Va., as a snow storm worked its way north putting...	Wed February 12, 2014	News	cmason
K-3 Writers, Send Us Your Best Work!	Entries are now being accepted for the annual PBS KIDS Writers Contest, designed to promote the advancement of children's literacy skills through...	Wed February 12, 201·Writers Contest, Ready	Education	spatterson
Japan Honors Sen. Rockefeller	W.Va. Sen. Jay Rockefeller (D-W.Va.) was the guest of honor at a luncheon Wednesday in Washington, D.C. During a ceremony later in the day,...	Wed February 12, 2014	News	cmason
Investigation, Cleanup Continues in Coal Slurry Spill	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection is continuing its investigation and overseeing the cleanup of a coal slurry spill that...	Wed February 12, 201·Coal Slurry	News	bvorhees

Governor to Appeal FEMA Denial	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin announced Wednesday that he's appealing a decision by the Federal Emergency Management Agency to deny West Virginia's request...	Wed February 12, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	shiggins
Listen to Bela Fleck & Abigail Washburn on Mountain Stage	Partners in life and music, world-renowned banjo players Bela Fleck and Abigail Washburn began playing their first series of shows together just last...	Wed February 12, 201	Mountain Stage, RadicRadio	jsaul
Gov. Tomblin Announces TAP Water Testing, Sochi Native Resides at Marshall, & More	On this West Virginia Morning, Governor Tomblin has a plan to test residential tap water for chemical contamination. Also, an athlete from Sochi...	Wed February 12, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	gboard
Gov. Tomblin Announces In-Home Water Testing, Abortion Bill Gets Rejected, Sin Taxes, & More	Gov. Tomblin announces plans for in-home water testing, an abortion-restricting bill is rejected with a tie vote, the Senate looks to increase the...	Tue February 11, 201	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
In-Home Testing After Elk River Chemical Spill Launches Today	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin announced Tuesday the West Virginia Testing Assessment Project for residents in the nine counties affected by the Jan. 9...	Tue February 11, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Herd Tennis Player Grew Up in Sochi	One Marshall University athlete has a unique perspective on the home of the 2014 Winter Olympics. When Anna Pomyatinskaya talks about Sochi, Russia...	Tue February 11, 201	Marshall University, ScNews	cdavis
Here We Go Again, Another Winter Storm Forecast	West Virginians are bracing for yet another winter storm. The National Weather Service says up to 10 inches of heavy, wet snow are possible in...	Tue February 11, 2014	News	cmason
Abortion-Restricting Bill Rejected With Tie Vote	A vote resulting in a tie is a rarity in the legislature but one occurred Tuesday in the House of Delegates. There were no bills up for passage but,...	Tue February 11, 201	Government, WV Legis:News	apayne
UC-Beckley to Start Associate Nursing Program	The University of Charleston has announced plans to start a 2-year associate degree in nursing program at its Beckley campus. At a news conference	Tue February 11, 201	Government, Higher E:News	shiggins
Senator: Increased Sin Tax Could Help in Budget Crunch	Senate Bill 534 was introduced in the Senate Tuesday to increase the excise tax on cigarettes and other tobacco products.The proposal would mean a $1	Tue February 11, 201	Tobacco tax, Cigarette News	amarra
More Kanawha County Schools Tested for MCHM	A Message from Kanawha County Superintendent, Ron Duerring Update on Water Testing at Malden Elementary The Rapid Response Team is working with...	Tue February 11, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	bvorhees
Gas Well Fire in Greene County, P.A.	DILLINER, Pa. (AP) - One worker has been injured and another is missing after a natural gas well explosion and fire in southwestern Pennsylvania,...	Tue February 11, 2014	News	bvorhees
W.Va. Coal Prep Plant Spills Slurry Into Creek	State regulators are investigating the spill of 108,000 gallons of coal slurry at a preparation plant into a Kanawha River tributary in eastern...	Tue February 11, 201	Coal Slurry, Energy & I:News	bvorhees
Dumping Frack Waste in Landfills Worries Some Officials	A bill recently introduced in the West Virginia legislature would place into state code a rule allowing Marcellus Shale drilling frack waste...	Tue February 11, 201	Energy & Environment News	cmason

A Congressional Hearing in Charleston, House Takes On Min. Wage, & DHHR Sec. Talks Chemical Spill	On this West Virginia Morning, DHHR Secretary Karen Bowling talks to Beth Vorhees about the chemical leak in Charleston. Meanwhile, a Congressional	Tue February 11, 201	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
The Congressional Field Hearing on the Chemical Spill, Minimum Wage, & DHHR Sec. Karen Bowling	The U.S. House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee holds a field hearing on the Jan. 9 chemical spill into the Elk River, the House of... The two hour field hearing by the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure began Monday with opening remarks where witnesses, recounted...	Mon February 10, 201	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Congressional Committee Chair: 'Nobody Is Willing to Say the Water Is Safe'	Currently, the minimum wage is $7.25 per hour. The House Finance Committee amended H.B. 4283 to increase minimum wage by 75 cents to $8.00 per hour by	Mon February 10, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
House Close to Voting on Bill to Increase Minimum Wage in W. Va.	Appalachian Power is planning an $80 million upgrade to its service in southern West Virginia. The company plans to remove 35 miles of existing 88...	Mon February 10, 201	Government, WV LegisNews	apayne
Appalachian Power Plans Upgrade in McDowell	A legislative audit of the West Virginia Department of Agriculture under Commissioner Gus Douglass has revealed erroneous and fraudulent...	Mon February 10, 201	Energy & Environment News	cmason
Problems Found in W.Va. Agriculture Department	Federal prosecutors say 15 people have been charged with distributing tens of thousands of prescription painkillers in the Ohio Valley area of West	Mon February 10, 201	State Government, DeNews	cmason
Fifteen Indicted in W.Va. on Painkiller Charges	Kanawha County and City of Charleston Bulk Water Sites for Monday, February 10, 2014. Bulk Water-Bring Your Own Containers Crossing Mall	Mon February 10, 201	Water Distribution, KarNews	amarra
Water Distribution for Kanawha Co.: Monday, Feb. 10- Friday, Feb. 14,, 2014	State Senator Mike Green (D., 9th District) has introduced a bill to designate funds for the construction of a veterans skilled nursing facility in	Mon February 10, 201	State Government, LeçNews	shiggins
Senate Considers New Nursing Home for Veterans	Tanks at the facility that spilled chemicals into 300,000 West Virginians' water supply were deemed out of federal compliance three months before...	Mon February 10, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Freedom Industries Tanks Deemed 'Out of Compliance' Three Months Before Leak	The Allegheny Front speaks with news director Beth Vorhees about the latest on the Elk River chemical spill and where we are one month later.	Mon February 10, 201	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
W.Va. Chemical Spill, One Month Later	Super Skyscrapers is a four-part series airing Tuesdays in February on WV PBS Instructional Television Service at 1 p.m. As urban space shrinks, we...	Mon February 10, 201	Super Skyscrapers, EcEducation	spatterson
Building Up is the Only Way to Go in Crowded Cities	We begin again, constantly.~ Robert Fripp Pain is a powerful motivation. The pain I am experiencing is causing me to re-evaluate many things. Pain...	Mon February 10, 201	mind-body connection, Radio	jlange
Mind-Body Connection, Pt. 1: To Begin Again	On this West Virginia Morning, the mayor of Huntington visits with some Marshall University students. Also, an update from the Schools for the Deaf...	Mon February 10, 201	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Huntington's Mayor Visits Marshall, Schools for the Deaf and Blind, & More

The Law Works - Safe Water in West Virginia	One of the things we typically take for granted is that our water is safe. Safe to drink. Safe to give our children. But three hundred thousand West	Sat February 8, 2014	Dan Ringer, The Law \ TV	bblaker
Appalachian Power Customers Warned of Scam	Appalachian Power says small business owners are the target of a scam seeking to extort cash. The power company says reports of the scam are coming...	Sat February 8, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
W.Va. Senate Hopes to Invest Portion of Oil Tax	A state Senate committee has approved a proposal to invest some of West Virginia's oil and natural gas revenues for future infrastructure and...	Sat February 8, 2014	Government, Oil & Gas News	dmistich
Creation v. Evolution, Water Testing 101, It's a Good Year for Snowshoeing, and More	It was evolution versus creationism during a high profile debate in Kentucky. Contaminated water is still a hot topic in West Virginia and we have a...	Sat February 8, 2014	Arts & Culture, Energy News	cmason
Reporters Shine During Water Crisis	This month's Storyteller Award goes to a team who've worked together so much their names have become joined together: Dave and Ashton. Dave Mistich...	Sat February 8, 2014	Storytellers, About Us, About Us	sfinn
Statehouse Reporters Dave Boucher & Pam Pritt Talk Water Crisis, Medical Marijuana	Members of the West Virginia Senate and Jimmy Gianato of the Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Management respond to Wednesday's news	Fri February 7, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Petition Targets Two W.Va. Agencies on Chemical Spill	Two West Virginia government agencies have been accused of ignoring steps that could have taken to prevent the Jan. 9 chemical spill which tainted the	Fri February 7, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Lawmakers, State Official React to Latest Press Conference	Director of the Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management Jimmy Gianato testified before the Joint Legislative Oversight Commission on...	Fri February 7, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	amarra
Firm Involved in Tower Collapse Was Fined in '09	The company that employed two workers killed in the collapse of two cellphone towers in Clarksburg was fined after a fatal accident in 2009 in...	Fri February 7, 2014	Tower Collapse, Nutter News	dmistich
Huntington Mayor Speaks with Students	Huntington Mayor Steve Williams took some time out of his schedule last week to pay a visit to Marshall University students and professors. Since his	Fri February 7, 2014	Marshall University, St News	cdavis
Traces of MCHM Linger in One W.Va. School	Four weeks after the spill from Freedom Industries, test results from one school in West Virginia shows traces of MCHM. A sink at George Washington...	Fri February 7, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
W.Va. to Get Funding for Low-Performing Schools	West Virginia will receive $3.2 million in federal funding for continued efforts to help low-performing schools. The U.S. Department of Education	Fri February 7, 2014	Government, U.S. Dep News	dmistich
Huntington Mayor Enacts Hiring Freeze	Huntington Mayor Steve Williams has enacted a hiring freeze and stopped unnecessary spending for the remaining five months of the fiscal year....	Fri February 7, 2014	Government, Huntingt News	dmistich
State, Federal Reps. Respond to Wyoming Co. Water Woes	Congressman Nick Joe Rahall is looking into the water situation in Alpoca/Bud in Wyoming County. The long-term fix, known as the Covel project, will...	Fri February 7, 2014	Wyoming County, Boil News	jlilly

House Passes Bills to Make Land Records Electronic, Adds Requirement to Consumer Transactions	After a brief delay, the House convened for its final floor session of the week. House Bill 4010 creates the Uniform Real Property Electronic...	Fri February 7, 2014	Government, WV Legis	News	apayne
Audio: Congressional Hearing on Elk River Chemical Spill	The U.S. House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee held a hearing Monday morning in Charleston to learn more about the Jan. 9 chemical spill...	Fri February 7, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	dmistich
Hear Loudon Wainwright III, Paula Cole and More on Mountain Stage	Mountain Stage returns to your dial this weekend with an episode featuring one of America's finest, funniest, and poignant songwriters, Loudon...	Fri February 7, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage	Radio	jsaul
W.Va. Group to Start 'Rosie The Riveter' Movement	A West Virginia group dedicated to honoring the working women of World War II wants to start a national movement. "Thanks! Plain and Simple"...	Fri February 7, 2014	Arts & Culture, Rosie tl	News	dmistich
West Virginia University Continues Testing for MCHM Contamination	West Virginia University researchers say, in an effort to fulfill their land-grant institution mission of serving communities in the state, they...	Fri February 7, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	gboard
Experts Will Take Questions Concerning Water Safety in This One-Hour Special	Download the Word version. Watch this program Thursday, Feb. 13 at 8 p.m. LIVE on WV PBS Listen to the simulcast on West Virginia Public Radio The Law	Fri February 7, 2014	Pressroom, Press Rel	About Us	spatterson
See Angelique Kidjo, Valerie June & More LIVE on Mountain Stage This Sunday in Morgantown	Mountain Stage returns to West Virginia University's Creative Arts Center in Morgantown this Sunday with world music superstar Angelique Kidjo,...	Fri February 7, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage	Radio	jsaul
SNAP Benefits, Soliciting Public Employees, WVU Examines Water Quality, & The Sea, The Sea	On this episode of West Virginia Morning, a Sen. Ron Stollings wants Congress to change SNAP benefits and restrict the purchase of junk food. The...	Fri February 7, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News		badducchio
SNAP Benefits, Soliciting Public Employees Via Email, & The West Virginia Community Development Hub	The House Finance Committee considers a bill that would prohibit candidates from using email to solicit public employees, Sen. Ron Stollings wants	Thu February 6, 2014	The Legislature Today	News	dmistich
Senator Calls on Congress to Change SNAP Benefits	Senator Ron Stollings decided against continuing his legislation relating to the U.S. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program and is opting for a	Thu February 6, 2014	Food Stamps, SNAP b	News	amarra
Bulk Water Distribution Sites in Kanawha Co. for February 7-9	The Kanawha County Commission and the City of Charleston have announced bulk water distribution sites for Friday, February 7th through Sunday,...	Thu February 6, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	dmistich
House Looking to Prohibit Candidates From Using Email to Solicit Public Employees	With the primary election coming in May and the general election in November, the House Judiciary Committee took a look at current code that prohibits	Thu February 6, 2014	Government, WV Legis	News	apayne
Winter Puts a Freeze on Spring Semester	More snow and ice storms than usual have hit West Virginia causing cancellation and school closures. Several colleges, including Shepherd University...	Thu February 6, 2014		News	cmason
Washington to Come to Charleston for Chemical Hearing	The U.S. House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee has announced a field hearing in Charleston on West Virginia's chemical spill. The...	Thu February 6, 2014	Energy & Environment	News	shiggins

Teaching Channel Tackles Middle School Math and Science this Month	Teaching Channel Presents -- Teaching Channel is a video showcase -- on the Internet and TV -- of innovative and effective teaching practices in...	Thu February 6, 2014	Instructional TV, Educ& Education	spatterson
More Kanawha Co. School Closures Due to Water Concerns	Even more Kanawha County schools have canceled classes because of an odor resembling the chemical that spilled into a regional water system last...	Thu February 6, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
New Music Concert - Kanawha Forum 2.0	Flutist Lindsey Goodman is full of energy. When I called her a dynamo, at first she looked puzzled, but I explained that I meant that she was full of	Thu February 6, 2014	contemporary music, fl Radio	jlange
A Wacky and Wild Winter in West Virginia	West Virginia's going through a tough winter. Not just because several places have endured record low temperatures, but also because it's on pace to...	Thu February 6, 2014	winter, Hazardous We& News	badducchio
Is In-Home Water Testing Going to Happen?, Legislation to Help Pregnant Women, & More	State government officials say they are open to further water testing in the nine-county area affected by last month's chemical leak. It's truly...	Thu February 6, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
The Sea The Sea - "Watertreader" - Live on Mountain Stage	The Sea The Sea are Mira Stanley and Chuck E. Costa. Now based out of New York, the duo have serious West Virginia roots - Mira spent much of her...	Thu February 6, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	jsaul
Chocolate Challenge Raises $109,135	Thanks to your generosity, West Virginia Public Broadcasting raised $109,135 during the 2014 Chocolate Challenge. Congratulations also, to the drawing	Thu February 6, 2014	Chocolate Challenge, \ Radio	spatterson
Gov. Tomblin Considers In-Home Water Testing	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin is evaluating options to test tap water in people's homes after last month's chemical spill. After the Jan. 9 chemical spill,	Thu February 6, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Gov. Tomblin Gives Briefing with CDC and EPA, Water Commission Hears from Health Officials, & More	The House passes a bill known as the Pregnant Workers' Fairness Act--but not without fierce debate over an amendment that sought to include "fetus"...	Wed February 5, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
W. Va. House Passes Bill to Prevent Discrimination Against Pregnant Women In The Workforce	On Wednesday the House passed bill 4284, also known as the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act.The bill's purpose would be to prevent discrimination against	Wed February 5, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
Two W.Va. Schools Cancel Class After Chemical Odor	Two West Virginia schools closed early because of an odor resembling the chemical that spilled into a regional water system last month. Riverside...	Wed February 5, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Five Things West Virginia Heard Wednesday from CDC, EPA, & Gov. Tomblin	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin was joined Wednesday by state officials as well as officials from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and	Wed February 5, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Get Some Free Help Filling Out Your College Financial Aid Form	Students planning to pursue post-secondary education within the next year can get some help filling out the federal financial aid paperwork on Sunday...	Wed February 5, 2014	News	cmason
Listen to Dave Van Ronk "The Inspiration for 'Llewelyn Davis' " On Mountain Stage	Larry Groce remembers Dave Van Ronk, who appeared on Mountain Stage in 1995: "In the early sixties, pretty much every serious aspiring folkie with a...	Wed February 5, 2014	Radio, Dave Van Ronk Radio	jsaul

Manypenny: Water Crisis is the Result of a Systemic Problem	Co-Chair of the Joint Legislative Oversight Commission on State Water Resources, Mike Manypenny, is no stranger to water concerns throughout the...	Wed February 5, 2014	Health & Science, Elk I News	gboard
Morgantown City Council Backs Same-Sex Civil Marriage	Morgantown's City Council is asking the Legislature to legalize same-sex civil marriages in West Virginia. The Dominion Post reports that council...	Wed February 5, 2014	Government, Gay Mar News	dmistich
AUDIO: Gov. Tomblin, CDC, EPA, & State Officials Provide Update on Chemical Spill and Water Crisis	Gov. Tomblin Wednesday afternoon joined members of the state and federal team involved in efforts following the January 9 chemical spill into the Elk	Wed February 5, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Freedom Industries Moving Spilled Materials to Pennsylvania	Thousands of gallons of the chemical that spilled into 300,000 people's water supply are leaving West Virginia and heading to Pennsylvania. Freedom	Wed February 5, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Senate Moves on Rx-Only Psuedoepehedrine, House Reacts to Public Hearing, Del. Manypenny on Water	The Senate moves a bill that would make pseudoephedrine prescription-only as a Schedule IV controlled substance, the House of Delegates reacts to...	Wed February 5, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Riverside, Midland Trail Students Dismissing Early Over Water Concerns	The Charleston Gazette reports that two schools have dismissed early Wednesday morning over concerns regarding the safety of the water after a...	Wed February 5, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
CDC Provides Info on MCHM/PPH, Drinking Water Advisory, & More	The CDC has published information regarding chemicals involved in the Elk River chemical spill, how they've determined thresholds for safe drinking...	Tue February 4, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Attorney General Patrick Morrisey Talks Chemical Spill Investigation, Legislative Audits, & More	The Senate moves a bill to make pseudoephedrine prescription-only, the House of Delegates weighs public comments in regards to the Senate's water	Tue February 4, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
CDC, EPA Officials Coming to Visit W.Va. After Chemical Spill	Officials from the federal agency that helped determine when people could use their water again will be visiting Charleston. Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin on	Tue February 4, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Grand Jury Heard W.Va. DEP Workers on Chemical Spill	An official says two state air quality employees have appeared in front of a federal grand jury about the West Virginia chemical spill. State...	Tue February 4, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
House Takes Suggestions From Public Hearing, Moves Forward With Senate's Water Bill	The day after the House of Delegates' public hearing on last month's chemical leak and the safety of the water supply, lawmakers began the process of	Tue February 4, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
Death In Paradise, Season 2	Season 2 begins Thursday, February 6 at 9 p.m. on West Virginia PBS Death In Paradise Season 2 brings more sun and sand to the West Virginia PBS...	Tue February 4, 2014	British Mystery TV	rmazza
Senate Furthers Bill to Decrease Meth Labs in W.Va.	The Senate Committee on Health and Human Resources was the first to take action on Senate Bill 6 Tuesday, regulating the sale of drug products used...	Tue February 4, 2014	Pseudoephedrine, Pre: News	amarra
See a New Generation of "Super Skyscrapers" in Four-Part Series	Follow the creation of four buildings that will change how we live, work and protect ourselves. Wednesdays, February 5-26 at 10 p.m. on West Virginia...	Tue February 4, 2014	TV, archictecture, Worl TV	rmazza

New British Drama, "The Making of a Lady"	Premieres Sunday, February 9 at 10 p.m. on West Virginia PBS Based on the novel by celebrated writer Frances Hodgson Burnett (The Secret Garden, A...	Tue February 4, 2014	British Drama, The Ma TV	rmazza
After W. Va. Water Contamination, Senators Examine Tougher Regulations	News director Beth Vorhees speaks with Here...	Tue February 4, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
W.Va. Tax Collections Up in January	For the first time this fiscal year, state tax collections in West Virginia have exceeded monthly projections. Deputy Revenue Secretary Mark Muchow...	Tue February 4, 2014	Government, EconomyNews	dmistich
Video: U.S. Senate Hearing on W.Va. Chemical Spill	Watch video of the U.S. Senate subcommittee hearing testimony on the West Virginia chemical spill held February 4. The Committee on Environment and...	Tue February 4, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
A Rural Community's Water System: An Emergent Emergency	Water donations from across the country are finding their way to West Virginia – still. But the Charleston area is not the only place where residents...	Tue February 4, 2014	Wyoming County, Hea News	jlilly
Figure in W.Va. Corruption Probe Wants Trial Moved	A central figure in the federal corruption investigation in Mingo County wants his trial moved out of the county. Lawyers for 65-year-old George...	Tue February 4, 2014	Mingo Corruption, Gov News	dmistich
W.Va. Utility Giving Credits After Chemical Spill	West Virginia residents and small businesses affected by a water-use ban will receive credits for clearing out their water systems. West Virginia...	Tue February 4, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Concord Charlie Agrees with Punxsutawney Phil for Groundhog Day Prediction	The last few weeks, most of West Virginia has endured bitter cold and snowy weather. Many residents were hoping the famed furry friends would bring	Tue February 4, 2014	Mercer County, Conco News	jlilly
Citizens Express Water Concerns at Public Hearing, Snap Judgment Host Set to Speak at MU, & More	On this West Virginia Morning, a public hearing in the House of Delegates draws scores of people angry over the chemical leak. A NPR show host is...	Tue February 4, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Citizens Voice Concern With S.B. 373 During House Public Hearing, Want Tougher Water Protection	Before sending Senate Bill 373 through its Health and Human Resources, Judiciary and Finance Committees, the House of Delegates allowed citizens...	Mon February 3, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
Special Extended Broadcast: Public Hearing on Water Crisis, SB 373	The House of Delegates' Health, Judiciary, and Finance Committees held a joint public hearing Monday evening about the Elk River chemical spill. On...	Mon February 3, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
WVU Will Study Effectiveness of Appalachian Programs	The Appalachian Regional Commission turns 50 this year and has awarded a grant to West Virginia University and two other agencies to analyze whether...	Mon February 3, 2014	Economy, Appalachiars News	cmason
Senate Passes Bill Requiring CPR Training for High School Students	The upper chamber passed four bills Monday. They include: Senate Bill 267The bill ensure that state courts have jurisdiction over prosecuting... Host of National Public Radio's "Snap Judgment" Glynn Washington will speak at Marshall University Tuesday evening. Glynn Washington is not your	Mon February 3, 2014	WV Senate, WV LegislNews	amarra
NPR Host to Speak at Marshall		Mon February 3, 2014	Marshall University, N News	cdavis

Cabell Judgeship Vacancy Temporarily Filled	Two senior status judges will temporarily fill a judgeship in Cabell County until the governor appoints a permanent replacement. West Virginia...	Mon February 3, 2014	Government, Cabell Co	News	dmistich
Tape of Freedom Industries Call to the DEP Spill Hotline, How Water Testing Works	On this West Virginia Morning, we hear to the call placed by Freedom Industries to the Department of Environmental Protection when the chemical spill	Mon February 3, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News		badducchio
Water Distribution Information for Kanawha Co.: Tuesday, February 4, 2014	Bulk Water Tankers "Bring Your Own Container Locations Crossings Mall" ElkviewWalmart Parking Lot "QuincyOld Big Sandy Parking Lot" Cross...	Mon February 3, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	dmistich
Is There Something In The Water?	Water: It flows through our very blood, carrying oxygen and nutrients to cells. It flushes waste from our bodies, cushions our joints and allows us...	Mon February 3, 2014	water, water quality, Er	News	gboard
Cell Phone Tower Collapse Kills Three Including Firefighter	West Virginia State Police have released the names of two workers and a firefighter who were killed when two cellphone towers collapsed. Lt. Michael	Sun February 2, 2014	Tower Collapse, Firefig	News	amarra
How We Chose the Eight West Virginia Contestants For "Turn This Town Around"	"Turn This Town Around" is a unique and groundbreaking project to select two West Virginia communities to receive training, coaching, and technical	Sun February 2, 2014	Turn This Town Around	About Us	sfinn
American Masters Presents First Biography of Prize-Winning Author of "The Color Purple"	American Masters--Alice Walker: Beauty in Truth premieres Friday, February 7 at 9 p.m. on West Virginia PBS in honor of Alice Walker's 70th birthday...	Sat February 1, 2014	Alice Walker, American	TV	rmazza
LISTEN: State Releases Freedom Industries' Spill Hotline Audio	The state Division of Homeland Security released audio Friday of Freedom Industries' employee Bob Reynolds notifying the state spill hotline that a	Sat February 1, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	amarra
Charles Town Casino Copes with Md. Competition	As competition increases from Ohio, Pennsylvania and Maryland, West Virginia casinos are losing customers. And the lost revenue is poking a hole in...	Sat February 1, 2014	Arts & Culture, Gamblii	News	dmistich
From Under-achiever to Ph.D. Genius -- The Story of Stephen Hawking	Watch Hawking on WV PBS on Tuesday, Feb. 4 at 1 p.m. as part of our Instructional Television Service This is the intimate and revealing story of...	Sat February 1, 2014	Stephen Hawking, Edu	Education	spatterson
Disposing of Frack Waste, Clean Water Education in Virginia, The Pink Teepee, and More	The natural gas boom begs the question: what do you do with the waste? A Virginia learning center focuses on good water stewardship. 3-D printers...	Sat February 1, 2014	Energy & Environment	News	cmason
George Hohmann Talks 'Move to Improve' & Minimum Wage, Eric Eyre Discusses Rx-Only Pseudoephedrine	The House of Delegates responds to accusations that the triple committee reference of the Senate's chemical spill bill means certain demise. The...	Fri January 31, 2014	The Legislature Today	News	dmistich
Kessler's Future Fund Takes New Shape	Senate President Jeff Kessler introduced his Future Fund legislation into the Senate Friday. The proposal this year, however, is slightly different...	Fri January 31, 2014	Future Fund, Senate P	News	amarra
Tests Show Presence of MCHM at Five W.Va. Schools	Tests conducted more than two weeks after a chemical spill tainted the water supply for 300,000 West Virginians show the presence of the chemical...	Fri January 31, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	dmistich

Radio & TV Programs in Honor of Black History Month	In celebration of Black History Month, West Virginia Public Broadcasting presents a wide selection of television and radio program premieres and...	Fri January 31, 2014	Black History Month	TV	rmazza
Video: Water Crisis Public Hearing from House of Delegates	Watch the public forum the WV House of Delegates held Monday evening about the Elk River chemical spill.	Fri January 31, 2014	The Legislature Today News		sfinn
Crews at W.Va. Chemical Spill Site Sever Pipe	A spokesman for a West Virginia environmental agency says cleanup crews at the site of a previous chemical spill severed an underground pipe, but...	Fri January 31, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	dmistich
House Defends Triple Committee Reference of Senate's Water Bill	It took 12 days from its introduction for the Senate to pass Bill 373.It has been several days since its introduction to the House and the bill has...	Fri January 31, 2014	Government, WV Legis	News	apayne
VOTE: Which Two West Virginia Towns Should Get "Turned Around"?	Itâ€™s been a rough month in West Virginia, with the water crisis and all the negative, stereotypical coverage of Appalachia around the 50th... Original story posted Friday, Jan. 31 at 2:46 p.m.	Fri January 31, 2014	Turn This Town Around	About Us	sfinn
Fire, Leak Reported at Martinsburg Chemical Site	Emergency units in Berkeley County are responding to a reported fire at Ecolab Inc. in Martinsburg	Fri January 31, 2014	Hazardous Materials, (News	amarra
Public Officials Donâ€™t Yet Know Potential Health Effects of W.Va. Chemical Spill	Ashton Marra makes her third appearance on PBS NewsHour reporting on the Elk River chemical spill, discussing the discovery of formaldehyde in a...	Fri January 31, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi	News	dmistich
Two W.Va. Agencies Join Lawsuit Against Drug Company	Two West Virginia agencies are joining a lawsuit against an Ohio drug company, alleging its negligent practices have helped fuel the state's pain...	Fri January 31, 2014	Government, Attorney	News	dmistich
Teachers Support Senate Bill to Get Students Moving	With the Success of the Feed to Achieve Act last year, Senate Majority Leader John Unger is now looking to take on childhood obesity with new...	Fri January 31, 2014	Childhood Obesity, W\	News	amarra
Wild Ramp Continues to Succeed in Huntington	Since opening in July 2012 the farmers market in downtown Huntington has injected nearly $350,000 back into the Huntington community. Charles Barton...	Fri January 31, 2014	Local Foods, Huntingtc	News	cdavis
Father Brown Joins British Detectives on WV PBS	Set in the 1950s in the heart of the beautiful English countryside, Father Brown stars Mark Williams as the Catholic priest who also has a talent for	Fri January 31, 2014	British, British Mystery,	TV	rmazza
The Law Works - Control of Chemicals	One chemical company used to proclaim "better living through chemistry." But at what cost? That chemistry, those chemicals may be helpful, but they...	Fri January 31, 2014	Dan Ringer, Patrick Mc	TV	bblaker
Teaching Human Evolution with 3-D Printing & Robben Ford's "Everything I Do Gonna Be Funky"	How a Marshall Professor teaches anthropology and human evolution with a high tech 3-D printer and Robben Ford performs "Everything I Do Gonna BE...	Fri January 31, 2014	West Virginia Morning,	News	dmistich
NOVA Investigates Bronze Age Murders Believed to Assure Fertility	Ghosts of Murdered Kings from NOVA Watch Monday, Feb. 3 at 1 p.m. on WV PBS as part of our Instructional Television Service In the hills of Irelandâ€™s	Fri January 31, 2014	NOVA, Education, PB	Education	spatterson

West Virginia Needs More Solar Jobs, Report Says	A new report by two independent organizations says West Virginia is lagging behind in bolstering solar energy programs and providing solar energy...	Fri January 31, 2014	Energy & Environment News	badducchio
See Justin Townes Earle, Nellie McKay, John Gorka & More on Mountain Stage this Sunday	Mountain Stage has had some spectacular live shows on Super Bowl Sunday over the years, and dare we say that 2014 is no exception. Rising Americana...	Fri January 31, 2014	Mountain Stage, RadicRadio	jsaul
Gear Up for the Winter Olympics with Sesame Street	New episodes Feb. 3-7 on WV PBS, daily at 10 a.m. In advance of the Winter Olympics, Sesame Street has partnered with Team USA and PBS Kids to...	Fri January 31, 2014	Sesame Street, Winter Education	spatterson
Utility Offers More Water After W.Va. Chemical Spill	The water company involved in West Virginia's chemical spill is providing 20 more tractor-trailer loads of bottled water for the nine counties...	Thu January 30, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Senator Unger Talks Child Poverty and Education, Chemical Spill Bill	The Senate focuses on the health of children around West Virginia, Senator John Unger talks issues regarding children and poverty, improving...	Thu January 30, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Organization Sends Needed Water to Wyoming County Town	A community going on five months without clean water received another donation Thursday. This time, from a group based in New Jersey. Earlier this...	Thu January 30, 2014	Health & Science, Boil News	jlilly
Poor W. Va. Road Conditions Explained During DOT Budget Hearing	Committee members heard from various offices that make up the department of transportation - the Division of Motor Vehicles, the Division of...	Thu January 30, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
Video: Dr. Simonton's Testimony to W.Va. Legislature on Discovery of Formaldehyde	Marshall University Professor and Vice-Chair of the West Virginia Environmental Quality Board Dr. Scott Simonton presented testimony to the Joint	Thu January 30, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Longer Road for Chemical Spill Bill in W.Va. House	The West Virginia House of Delegates is paving a long legislative road for new regulations on above-ground storage tanks. But Speaker Tim Miley says...	Thu January 30, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
WV PBS Brings British Drama Fans the Original "House of Cards"	House of Cards, Sundays beginning February 2 at 7 p.m. on West Virginia PBS House of Cards is a delicious tale of greed, corruption and burning...	Thu January 30, 2014	BBC, British, House of TV	rmazza
Former Members of Amish Community Reflect on Decision to Leave in "The Amish: Shunned"	American Experience: The Amish, Tuesday February 4 at 8 p.m., followed by the premiere of The Amish: Shunned, 9 p.m. on West Virginia PBS A poignant...	Thu January 30, 2014	Amish, American Expe TV	rmazza
Could a Checklist Save Your Child-Athlete's Life?	Last year, state legislators passed a bill requiring the Secondary School Activities Commission to draft rules aimed at preventing youth concussions...	Thu January 30, 2014	Mercer County, Health News	jlilly
Shepherdstown on Boil Water Notice	Updated Jan. 31, 2014: As of 8:45 a.m. today the Shepherdstown, W.Va., boil water advisory has been lifted. Shepherdstown has joined the ranks of West	Thu January 30, 2014	Health & Science, Boil News	cmason
W.Va. PSC Orders Water Company to Continue Quality Reports	State utility regulators have ordered West Virginia American Water to continue providing quarterly reports on the quality of its service. The Public	Thu January 30, 2014	Government, Energy & News	dmistich

Harrison Board Names Mark Manchin as Schools Chief	West Virginia School Building Authority executive director Mark Manchin has been named schools superintendent in Harrison County. The Harrison County	Thu January 30, 2014	Public Education, Govt News	dmistich
Students Getting Less Classroom Time This Year	Several days this past month all 55 counties have had to close their schools because of weather and water problems, and in some cases that means...	Thu January 30, 2014	Education, Government News	cmason
Is Formaldehyde in Charleston's Water?, Snow Days Pile Up, & More	Reactions to reports of formaldehyde in Charleston's water come after Dr. Scott Simonton of Marshall University and the Environmental Quality Board...	Thu January 30, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Hear Robben Ford, Vintage Trouble & More on This Week's Mountain Stage Broadcast	We hope you can listen to this week's special encore broadcast of Mountain Stage, featuring guitar master Robben Ford. Incendiary retro-rockers...	Thu January 30, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	jsaul
West Virginia Public Broadcasting receives grant to upgrade its Charleston television operation	FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Charleston, W.Va. â€“ January 30, 2014 â€“ West Virginia Public Broadcasting has been awarded a $750,000 competitive grant to...	Thu January 30, 2014	Studio upgrade, USDA About Us	spatterson
West Virginia Public Broadcasting Awarded $750,000 Grant	West Virginia Public Broadcasting has been awarded a $750,000 competitive grant to replace all equipment in its main Charleston studio and record and	Thu January 30, 2014	About Us, USDA grant About Us	sfinn
Found Formaldehyde Begs Basic Questions, Expert Says	Marc Glass is a principal researcher in charge of evaluation and remediation of environmental contamination in soil and water for the environmental	Wed January 29, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	gboard
Reports of Formaldehyde, House Rejects a Legislative Absentee Resolution, & Innovation Day	Legislators, state public health officials, and West Virginia American Water react to reports of formaldehyde found in the water of a Charleston...	Wed January 29, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Delegates Reject H.R. 6, Allowing Absent Members on Active Duty to Vote	The House currently has one member that cannot participate in voting or House activities due to military service. Delegate Joshua Nelson has been...	Wed January 29, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
State Health Officials, Water Company Say Reports of Formaldehyde Are 'Misleading', 'Unfounded'	Officials from the Bureau for Public Health and West Virginia American Water released separate statements regarding Dr. Scott Simonton's testimony	Wed January 29, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Senate Calls for Loan Program to Aid Small Businesses	The Houseâ€™s bill to aide small businesses during states of emergency saw significant changes in the Senate Wednesday, giving lawmakers more control...	Wed January 29, 2014	Small Business, State News	amarra
Trial Begins for Man Accused of War Mayor's Murder	The trial of a Virginia man charged with killing the mayor of War is underway in McDowell County Circuit Court. The defendant is 28-year-old Earl...	Wed January 29, 2014	City Government, Govt News	shiggins
Ken Ward on NPR's Fresh Air: Overregulation Is 'Wildly Exaggerated'	Fresh Air recently interviewed Charleston Gazette investigative reporter Ken Ward about the Freedom Industries chemical spill. Here are the...	Wed January 29, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	sfinn
Two Men Plead Guilty in Meth Trafficking Case	A West Virginia resident and a Florida man have admitted their roles in a methamphetamine trafficking case. Forty-nine-year-old Howard Leon Lykins...	Wed January 29, 2014	Drugs, Methamphetamine News	dmistich

West Virginia Official: People Are Inhaling Formaldehyde	By now, you've probably heard of crude MCHM, the chemical that spilled into the Elk River in early January contaminating the drinking water of 300...	Wed January 29, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Marshall Scientist Found Formaldehyde in Charleston Water	We'll have our own story up soon but, in the meantime, we wanted to provide you this piece that just went up from The Charleston Gazette.	Wed January 29, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Flu Activity Widespread in W.Va.	Flu activity is widespread in West Virginia and a state epidemiologist says this year's season could be severe. Widespread activity means increases...	Wed January 29, 2014	Health & Science, Flu News	dmistich
Ex-Mingo Commissioner Sentenced to 20 Months	A former Mingo County commissioner has been sentenced to more than a year in prison on a federal extortion charge. David Baisden received a 20-month	Wed January 29, 2014	Mingo Corruption, Dav News	dmistich
Senate Passes Chemical Spill Bill, House Debates Constitutionality, & Medical Timeouts	The Senate passes a bill to regulate storage facilities like the one involved in this month's chemical leak at Freedom Industries in hopes to prevent	Wed January 29, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Robben Ford - "Every Thing I Do Gonna Be Funky" - Live From Mountain Stage	Widely regarded as one of America's finest blues and rock guitarists, Robben Ford has collaborated with everyone from Joni Mitchell and Miles Davis...	Wed January 29, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	jsaul
Senate Passes Water Protection Bill, House Debates Constitutionality, & AARP Outlines Agenda	After well over an hour of discussion the Senate passes SB 373, which seeks to protect water resources from chemical spills by establishing...	Tue January 28, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Lecture Series Explores Coal History and Legacy	Since the recent chemical spill in Charleston, the issue of clean water in West Virginia is a topic that many Southern West Virginians are discussing...	Tue January 28, 2014	Energy & Environment News	jilly
House Members Debate Constitutionality, Pass Three Bills	Three bills were voted on and passed by the House of Delegates Tuesday.H.B. 2387 The bill relates to reasonable accommodations under the West...	Tue January 28, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
Marshall University Anthropologist Uses 3-D Printer to Teach Human Evolution	Biological Anthropologist Paul Constantino has decided that a 3-Dimensional printer is the next step in teaching his students about human evolution.	Tue January 28, 2014	Marshall University, sc News	cdavis
Teachers: New Video & Lesson Plan on Water Crisis Available	On our website, West Virginia LearningMedia, you can find new resources for helping students grades 7 - 12 make sense of the chemical spill and water	Tue January 28, 2014	Education, PBS Learning Media	sfinn
Study: 48% of W.Va. Graduates Work in State	A new study says 48 percent of West Virginia's public college graduates over the past decade are working in the state. The study by the West Virginia	Tue January 28, 2014	Higher Education, West News	dmistich
Horizontal Gas Drilling Waste: What Is It & What Do We Do About It	The natural gas boom continues to sound in what have become the northern gas fields of West Virginia. State lawmakers are working on ways to take...	Tue January 28, 2014	Energy & Environment News	gboard
Bill Regulating Tanks, Protecting Water Passes Senate	Weeks of questioning, debates and discussions culminated in the Senate Tuesday with a vote on the most watched bill of the session. Senate Bill 373...	Tue January 28, 2014	Government, Energy & News	dmistich

Subzero Temps Make For Slow Snow Removal	It looks like winter won't let up this month and that's making snow removal more difficult than usual. A dangerous and frustrating combination of...	Tue January 28, 2014	Snow Removal, Weath	gboard
Rockefeller, Manchin Team with Calif. Senator to Introduce Federal Chemical Spill Prevention Bill	Tuesday morning U.S. Senators Jay Rockefeller and Joe Manchin teamed up with Sen. Barbara Boxer of California (Chairman of the Environment and Public	Tue January 28, 2014	Government, Elk River News	dmistich
Garbage-to-Fuel Plant Coming to W.Va.	A European method for converting garbage to fuel is coming to West Virginia. The Berkeley County Solid Waste Authority has signed an agreement to...	Tue January 28, 2014	Energy & Environment News	cmason
Harrison Co. Expected to Name Mark Manchin as Superintendent	West Virginia School Building Authority executive director Mark Manchin says he plans to step down to become Harrison County's school superintendent...	Tue January 28, 2014	Government, Harrison News	dmistich
Senate Prepares to Vote on Protecting Water, Eastern Panhandle Turns Garbage Into Fuel, & More	The Senate prepares to vote on a bill to protect water resources and the House of Delegates passes a bill increase penalties for child pornography....	Tue January 28, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Gov. Tomblin Makes Requests to FEMA, Small Business Administration Following Chemical Leak	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin Monday urged the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to modify the current federal Emergency Declaration to provide for...	Mon January 27, 2014	Government, Emergen News	dmistich
Health Chairs Sen. Stollings & Del. Perdue on Chemical Leak Effects, Rx-Only Pseudoephedrine, & More	The Senate amends the most widely discussed bill of the session thus far, Senate Bill 373--that seeks to protect water resources, the House passes a...	Mon January 27, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Freedom Industries Revises Estimates of Materials Involved in Chemical Spill	Freedom Industries has once again revised their estimate of the amount of materials involved in the January 9 chemical spill into the Elk River. In a...	Mon January 27, 2014	Government, Energy & News	dmistich
House Passes Bill to Enhance Penalties on Child Pornography Possession	H.B. 4006 adds those who access with intent to view as those who can be convicted of possession of child pornography. The bill would also add enhanced	Mon January 27, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
Senate Amends Water Protection Bill	Senators offered amendments Monday to Senate Bill 373, relating to water resources protection.Senate Judiciary Chair Corey Palumbo offered new...	Mon January 27, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	amarra
Charleston (The Town for Extreme Tourists)	Like many others, I'm distressed and angry about the chemical leak that fouled my city's water supply and turned off the taps for three hundred...	Mon January 27, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi Radio	dmistich
Task Force in Northern West Virginia Targets Drug Trafficking	Law enforcement agencies in Northern West Virginia are working together to combat drug trafficking. Local, state and federal authorities announced...	Mon January 27, 2014	Government, Drugs, D News	dmistich
Fracking Waste and Other Byproducts, Dunkard Creek Recovers, & Differences in Storage Tank Laws	West Virginia University experts recently reported to the legislature on fracking waste and byproducts after lawmakers called for the study in 2011,	Mon January 27, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
West Virginia Meth Lab Busts Up 85% in 2013	Methamphetamine lab seizures jumped 85 percent in West Virginia in 2013. A West Virginia State Police report says authorities seized 533 meth labs,	Mon January 27, 2014	Meth Labs, Methamph News	dmistich

Dunkard Creek Restoring Itself Faster Than Expected	A fisheries biologist with the Division of Natural Resources, says the water body Dunkard Creek is doing an excellent job of restoring itself with...	Mon January 27, 2014	Energy & Environment News	badducchio
WVSU President's Expenses Include NFL Tickets, Alcohol	The State Auditor's Office recently flagged as suspicious charges on a state travel card that included Chicago Bears football tickets, alcohol and...	Sun January 26, 2014	Government, Higher Education News	dmistich
Start-Ups, Organizations Take on America's Food Waste Challenge	According to the USDA, 30 to 40 percent of the food produced in America goes uneaten. Barbara Hartman is a registered dietician and works as the...	Sun January 26, 2014	Food Waste, Health & News	dmistich
Governor Tomblin Orders Freedom Industries to Dismantle All Above-Ground Storage Tanks	West Virginia's governor has ordered the company at the center of a chemical spill that tainted the water supply for the state capital to begin the	Sat January 25, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Bumbling, Blame and Bankruptcy in Wake of West Virginia Chemical Spill	The web of Freedom Industries' ownership is complicated and their recent bankruptcy filing is likely to be as well. This article from BillMoyers.com...	Sat January 25, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Some Water Customers Complain of High Bills	Some customers of West Virginia American Water are questioning why their bills went up even though they didn't use their tap water for several days...	Sat January 25, 2014	West Virginia American Water News	dmistich
Pa. Chemical Tank Laws Tougher Than W.Va., Ky. Community Promised Better Housing, and more	Pennsylvania is comparing regulations for above ground storage tanks after the spill in West Virginia. While some residents in a Kentucky community...	Fri January 24, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	jlilly
Capitol Reporters Dave Boucher & Jonathan Mattise on Chemical Leak Remediation, Freedom Bankruptcy	The Joint Legislative Oversight Commission on State Water Resources continues to hear testimony about the ongoing investigation into the January 9...	Fri January 24, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
House Finance Committee Asks Questions About Chemical Leak During DEP Budget Hearing	Cabinet Secretary of the West Virginia DEP Randy Huffman presented the proposed budget to the committee, relating how the organization would deal...	Fri January 24, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
U.S. Chemical Safety Board Details Investigation for Lawmakers	The Joint Legislative Oversight Commission on State Water Resources held its third hearing related to the Kanawha Valley chemical leak Friday,...	Fri January 24, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	amarra
West Virginia DEP: Freedom Industries Knew of Second Chemical	An environmental official says the company in the West Virginia water crisis immediately knew a second chemical leaked from its plant into the river,	Fri January 24, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Senator Defends Swift Movement on Water Bill	Senate Bill 373, the bill regulating above ground storage tanks, advanced through the committee process quickly this week causing concern for some...	Fri January 24, 2014	WV Legislature, Elk River News	amarra
A Much Worse Water Crisis Is Happening In This Tiny West Virginia Mountain Town	After Jessica Lilly reported on parts of Wyoming County that have lacked safe water for months, Business Insider picked up on the story and provided...	Fri January 24, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
Tennant Files for Senate	West Virginia Secretary of State Natalie Tennant filed her candidacy papers for U.S. Senate today. Tennant filed to run for the seat being vacated by	Fri January 24, 2014	2014 Elections, Secret News	shiggins

Utility Union Worried About Water Company's Leaky Pipes	The head of the Utility Workers Union of America is raising concerns that West Virginia American Water Co.'s leaky pipes may have allowed...	Fri January 24, 2014	Utility Workers Union cNews	dmistich
Appalshop's 'Chemical Valley'	With the January 9 chemical leak from Freedom Industries leading to the water supply being compromised for 300,000 residents who rely on West...	Fri January 24, 2014	Documentary, Energy TV	dmistich
Hear Asleep at the Wheel, Larry Keel and More on Mountain Stage This Weekend	We hope you can tune in this weekend to the special encore broadcast of Mountain Stage featuring western swing standard-bearers Asleep at the Wheel,...	Fri January 24, 2014	Asleep at the Wheel, L Radio	jsaul
Tomblin Proposes Increased Funding for Corrections, Felicity's Law, Huntington's Emergency App	The Governor's proposed budget includes an increase in funds for the Division of Corrections, "Felicity's Law" passes the House and would provide a...	Fri January 24, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
National Guard Continues to Test Water After Chemical Spill	National Guard teams from West Virginia and neighboring states are carrying out a massive water testing campaign following the chemical spill that	Fri January 24, 2014	Government, Energy & News	dmistich
Secretary of State Natalie Tennant on Candidate Filing, Freedom Industries, & Small Businesses	The House of Delegates passes a bill known as "Felicity's Law", which would allow for the euthanization of an animal that causes harm to a person....	Thu January 23, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
W.Va. Jobless Rate Down Slightly to 5.9%	West Virginia's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate fell slightly to 5.9 percent in December. WorkForce West Virginia says the number of unemployed	Thu January 23, 2014	Economy, Unemploym News	dmistich
Governor's Budget Allows for Private Prison Payments	During the Division of Corrections budget hearing, Commissioner Jim Rubenstein said the governor's proposed budget for the division includes...	Thu January 23, 2014	Division of Corrections News	amarra
House Passes "Felicity's Law" Hoping to Protect Children from Vicious Dog Attacks	Felicity was a two-year-old-girl from Grant County who wandered away alone from a birthday party and was viciously attacked by two dogs. It took...	Thu January 23, 2014	Government, House of News	apayne
Senator Calls Gasoline Discount Unconstitutional	A bill introduced in the Senate is meant to repeal a section of code giving discounts to gasoline wholesalers.Senator Herb Snyder is the lead sponsor...	Thu January 23, 2014	Gasoline prices, WV L News	amarra
Christopher Plummer Reprises His Role as John Barrymore for Great Performances	Fans of Broadway and theater history will enjoy Great Performances' presentation of Barrymore, premiering January 31 at 9 p.m on West Virginia PBS....	Thu January 23, 2014	Great Performances, ETV	rmazza
Asleep at the Wheel - "Hesitation Blues"- Live from Mountain Stage	Legendary Texas swing band Asleep at the Wheel have been performing for more than 40 years. Here's a live staple, most recently recorded by the band...	Thu January 23, 2014	Mountain Stage Song Radio	aharris
Former West Virginia Miner: We've Been Dumping Those Chemicals In The Water For Decades	Former coal miner Joe Stanley says he lost his job after a conflict with management, when he, as union president, demanded to know more about the...	Thu January 23, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Capito Among Latest to File For 2014 Races	U.S. Rep. Shelley Moore Capito is officially in the race for the U.S. Senate. Capito filed her candidacy papers this morning. The seven-term...	Thu January 23, 2014	Government, Congress News	shiggins

Public Service Commission Wants Water Company to Extend Quality Reports	The Public Service Commission's Consumer Advocate Division wants the agency to continue requiring West Virginia American Water to submit quarterly...	Thu January 23, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Senate Sees Gaps In The Small Business Emergency Bill, How to Improve Digital Learning, & More	The Senate raises questions about gaps in the small business emergency funding bill passed last week by the House, the House of Delegates addresses...	Thu January 23, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
W.Va. Faces Loss of Leftover Broadband Funds	Federal officials have rejected West Virginia's proposal to spend about $2.5 million in funds leftover from a broadband stimulus grant. State chief	Thu January 23, 2014	National Telecommuni News	dmistich
Utility Bills up 1.2% in 2013 for West Virginia Residents	A new report says West Virginians paid 1.2 percent more for utilities in 2013 than in the previous year, primarily because of increases in natural...	Wed January 22, 2014	Economy, Energy & Er News	dmistich
Gov. Tomblin Unaware of Freedom Industries Donations	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin says he was unaware he received campaign checks from top executives at the company at the center of West Virginia's chemical...	Wed January 22, 2014	Freedom Industries, Gi News	dmistich
Angela Rosser, West Virginia Rivers Coalition: Need to Look at 'Bigger, Systemic' Issues	The Senate proposes many questions to the House Bill that would allow for funding for small businesses following an emergency, the House of Delegates	Wed January 22, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
W. Va. House Focuses on Future Disasters With Proposed Legislation	As the legislature continues to work on how to deal with the effects of the chemical spill, the House of Delegates looked at proposed legislation...	Wed January 22, 2014	Government, Departm News	apayne
Senators Question Vagueness of Emergency Small Business Act	House Bill 4175, The West Virginia Emergency Small Business Act, has two basic provisions.The first gives the governor authority to direct the state...	Wed January 22, 2014	WV Legislature, Elk Ri News	amarra
What Can W.Va. Do to Improve Classroom Technology?	West Virginia has made progress incorporating digital learning into its schools, but a recently released report by the Alliance for Excellent...	Wed January 22, 2014	News	cmason
Rockefeller Wants More Answers from Water Company	U.S. Sen. Jay Rockefeller has written to West Virginia American Water for a second time since the chemical leak at Freedom Industries January 9. In a	Wed January 22, 2014	Government, Energy & News	shiggins
Downstream Strategies Pres. Critical of Governor's Proposed Source Water Protection Act	The President of Downstream Strategies is in Charleston presenting his organization's report on the Elk River chemical spill to lawmakers. Meanwhile,	Wed January 22, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	badducchio
Candle Light Vigil Held in Response to Elk River Chemical Spill	Hundreds braved bad weather to gather at the state's capitol to rally in response to the Elk River chemical spill. The solidarity stretched across...	Wed January 22, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	gboard
Claudio Abbado - A Tribute	Conductor Claudio Abbado passed this week (January 20, 2014) and today on Classical Music we pay tribute to the maestro. President Giorgio Napolitano...	Wed January 22, 2014	Claudio Abbado, cond Radio	jlange
State Senate Majority Leader: Governor's Bill Shields Chemical Industry	A West Virginia Senate leader thinks the governor's proposal to prevent chemical spills caters to industry interests. Senate Majority Leader John...	Wed January 22, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich

Department of Environmental Protection Orders Freedom Industries to Provide Spill Material Info	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection issued a new order to Freedom Industries Wednesday, less than a day after it was discovered	Wed January 22, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	badducchio
Gov. Tomblin's Bills Continue to Advance, House Passes State Day of Prayer, Citizens Rally for Water	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin's proposed legislation-- including pay raises for teachers and state workers, issues related to transportation, and more--	Wed January 22, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Freedom Industries Approved for $4 Million in Credit Following Spill	Attorneys for the company behind West Virginia's chemical spill said in federal bankruptcy court Tuesday that they've secured a deal for up to $4...	Tue January 21, 2014	Freedom Industries, B: News	dmistich
Judiciary Chairs Sen. Palumbo & Del. Manchin React to Picture of W.Va. as 'Anti-Regulation'	The House Judiciary Committee holds an informational meeting to hear more about the chemical spill and hears recommendations from Downstream...	Tue January 21, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
It Wasn't Just Crude MCHM: Elk River Spill Included Another Chemical	As Ken Ward of The Charleston Gazette reports, officials with the U.S. Chemical Safety Board say a product known as "PPH" was included in the the...	Tue January 21, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
House Passes Bill to Establish West Virginia Day of Prayer	House Bill 4135 would establish the first Thursday in May as the West Virginia Day of Prayer. Under West Virginia law, currently, there are six...	Tue January 21, 2014	Government, Day of Pi News	apayne
Governor's Agenda Pushing through the Senate	Five of Governor Tomblin's bills were introduced in the Senate Tuesday, many of which were highlighted in his State of the State Address earlier this...	Tue January 21, 2014	WV Legislature, Gover News	amarra
Morgantown Learning Lessons from Elk River Spill	The City of Morgantown's water utility says it's using the unfortunate chemical spill in Charleston as a learning opportunity. It is taking action to	Tue January 21, 2014	Energy & Environment News	badducchio
Child Abuse Alleged at Private Center in Romney	State police are investigating abuse allegations at a nonprofit Romney center that serves children with developmental disabilities. The state...	Tue January 21, 2014	Government, Child Ab: News	dmistich
Realistic Tug Boat Simulator Puts W.Va. on The Map	A new tool to train riverboat workers allows trainees to smack into bridges and barges without risking millions of dollars in damages. The tri-state...	Tue January 21, 2014	John Whiteley, Inland \ News	gboard
Deaf, Blind Schools Offer Program to Students Across the State	A new program at the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and Blind in Romney, W.Va., is making it possible for students from across the state to take	Tue January 21, 2014	News	cmason
Gov. Tomblin Outlines Bill to Strengthen DEP, Consultants Critique Chemical Safety Bill, & More	Governor Tomblin explains proposed legislation to protect water supplies from potential chemical leaks, the House of Delegates passes a bill that	Tue January 21, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Finance Chairs Sen. Roman Prezioso & Del. Brent Boggs Agree: 'It's Not All Doom & Gloom'	U.S. Senator Joe Manchin joins Governor Earl Ray Tomblin and other state legislative leaders to discuss proposed state and federal legislation...	Mon January 20, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Worldwide Candle Light Vigil Planned in Response to Elk River Chemical Spill	Many residents affected by the Elk River chemical spill contend that their water is still not safe to drink. Groups across the world are organizing	Mon January 20, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	gboard

Wyoming County Town Receives Needed Water Donation	A truckload of water was delivered to a school in Wyoming County Monday morning. The school and several communities served by Alpoca Water Works have...	Mon January 20, 2014	Wyoming County, Hea News	jlilly
House Passes Bill to Increase Penalties for Littering In West Virginia	House Bill 4014 will increase the criminal penalties for littering in West Virginia.Part of the bill divides the level of offense by the quantity of...	Mon January 20, 2014	Government, Littering, News	apayne
Tomblin Calls for New Regulatory Powers for DEP	After more than a week since a chemical spill on the Elk River, some West Virginia American Water customers are still questioning the quality of the...	Mon January 20, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
Downstream Strategies: New Regulations Are Only First Step to Prevent Future Spills	Downstream Strategies President Evan Hansen has worked on a report called "The Freedom Industries Spill: Lessons Learned and Needed Reforms." Hansen...	Mon January 20, 2014	Downstream Strategie:News	badducchio
Water, Water Everywhere	â€œI learned to take a bath in a tea cup!â€ I often chortled to anyone who would listen. A slight exaggeration, of course, but one time when I had been	Mon January 20, 2014	Essays, Radio	Radio dmistich
Marshall Football Pushing Ahead, A Bill to Prevent Gas Price Hikes	On this West Virginia Morning, a special program in Huntington is looking at the concept of steam. Also, Marshall Football is looking ahead to its...	Mon January 20, 2014	West Virginia, Marshal News	badducchio
Officials Answer Questions About W.Va. Water Crisis	Gov. Early Ray Tomblinâ€™s office released questions and answers Saturday afternoon from a community conference call he hosted in which Dr. Letitia...	Sat January 18, 2014	News	cmason
Sherlockâ€™Back from the Dead!	Sherlock Season 3 from Masterpiece Mystery! Sundays, Jan. 19 & 26, and Feb. 2 at 10 p.m. on WV PBS You canâ€™t keep a dead detective down. The...	Sat January 18, 2014	TV	spatterson
'To Hell With You' - A West Virginian's Raw Response to Water Crisis Goes Viral	I knew Eric Waggoner's essay about the chemical spill went viral when a vice president at NPR sent it to me and said I should read this. In fact, it'...	Sat January 18, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	sfinn
Current: 'Transformed' West Virginia Public Broadcasting Rises to Chemical Spill Challenge	A new story in Current.org says "a transformed West Virginia Public Broadcasting stepped up Jan. 9 with extensive multiplatform coverage of the toxic...	Sat January 18, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiAbout Us	sfinn
W.Va. Lawmakers Tackle Chemical Spills, One Pa. Town Faces a Rain Tax, and more	West Virginia lawmakers are looking into ways to prevent another chemical spill.Some Pennsylvania resident face paying a â€™rain tax'.A telescope in...	Sat January 18, 2014	Radio, Elk River ChemNews	jlilly
Statehouse Reporters Ann Ali & Dave Boucher Discuss The Chemical Leak and Related Legislation	Ashton Marra makes her debut as the Friday host of The Legislature Today and brings us more on the Joint Commission of State Water Resources holds...	Fri January 17, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Freedom Industries Files for Bankruptcy in Southern District	The company blamed for a chemical spill that left 300,000 West Virginians without safe drinking water has filed for bankruptcy. Freedom Industries...	Fri January 17, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Last 'Do Not Use' Water Restrictions Lifted	The â€™do not useâ€™ order has been lifted for the last customer area in West Virginia American Waterâ€™s Kanawha Valley district. Customers in the...	Fri January 17, 2014	Energy & Environment News	CMatlick

New Documentary Features Work of WVU Professor	A new documentary takes viewers around the globe to show how economic freedom empowers entrepreneurs to improve their lives and their communities....	Fri January 17, 2014	WVU, WVU College of TV	rmazza
Rockefeller's Bills Would Make Polluters Pay	A week after Freedom Industries spilled chemical into the Elk River and tainted the water supply for more than 300,000 West Virginians, Sen. Jay	Fri January 17, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	shiggins
Senate Commission Begins Leak Investigation	The Joint Commission on State Water Resources held its first hearing Friday morning as itâ€™s investigates last weekâ€™s chemical spill into the Kanawha...	Fri January 17, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
Focus on W. Va. Senior Citizens in Committee Budget Hearing	The Commissioner of the West Virginia Bureau of Senior Services Robert Roswell told the House Finance Committee how the governorâ€™s state budget cuts...	Fri January 17, 2014	News	apayne
Can Marshall be a Top 25 Team in 2014?	A 31-20 victory over the University of Maryland in the Military Bowl has many around the Marshall Football program excited about next season. With...	Fri January 17, 2014	Marshall Football, Mar:News	cdavis
Tchaikovskyâ€™s Most Popular Opera: Eugene Onegin	Watch this special Metropolitan Opera performance Friday, Jan. 17 beginning at 9 p.m. on WV PBS Acclaimed English director Deborah Warnerâ€™s new...	Fri January 17, 2014	Tchaikovsky, Eugene (TV	spatterson
Treasurer Puts Treasure Up For Bid	A trio of coins is stirring some interest in the West Virginia treasurer's office online auction of unclaimed property.The U.S. Liberty coin set has	Fri January 17, 2014	Unclaimed Property, TiNews	gboard
Some Background on Freedom Industries' Owner	The company that runs the facility that caused the chemical leak into the Elk River in Charleston, W.Va., has a new owner.	Fri January 17, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	cmason
Young Miner Dies in W.Va.	The West Virginia Office of Minersâ€™ Health, Safety and Training confirms that a miner died at Mettiki Coalâ€™s Mountain View Mine in Tucker County. In...	Fri January 17, 2014	miner safety, coal mineNews	jlilly
Gandhi's Life as a Lawyer Revealed	Mahatma Gandhi is widely recognized as a leader of Indian nationalism in British-ruled India who employed nonviolent civil disobedience, inspiring	Fri January 17, 2014	Mahatma Gandhi, ChaNews	gboard
Dinosaur Train Presents Nature Trackers Adventure Camp	Watch WV PBS Monday, Jan. 20 at 9 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. More adventures on Tuesday and Wednesday at 9 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on WV PBS An all-new, one-hour	Fri January 17, 2014	Dinosaur Train, NatureEducation	spatterson
Chemical Spill Aftermath in The Legislature, Relief for Small Businesses, A New Book on Gandhi	On this West Virginia Morning, the Senate and House look to keep business going in the aftermath of the chemical spill. The House tackles a bill that	Fri January 17, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	CMatlick
Lawmaker Questions Abortion Investigation	During his budget hearing before the Senate Finance Committee, Attorney General Patrick Morrisey was questioned about the intent of an investigation...	Thu January 16, 2014	News	amarra
Minority Leaders Sen. Mike Hall & Del. Tim Armstead Discuss GOP Plans in 2014	The House of Delegates passes HB 4175, which would provide funding to small businesses in the wake an emergency, Senate Majority Leader John Unger	Thu January 16, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich

So, How Did The CDC Come Up With MCHM Being 'Safe' Under 1 PPM, Anyway?	It's now been a week since the chemical spill at Freedom Industries in Charleston leaked roughly 7,500 gallons of crude MCHM into the Elk River and	Thu January 16, 2014	Centers for Disease Control News	dmistich
Senate Bill Requires Storage Facilities Inspected	Friday marks eight days since a chemical leaked from a storage tank on the Elk River contaminating the water supply of 300,000 West Virginians, and...	Thu January 16, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	amarra
W. Va. House Passes Bill to Help Small Businesses Recover From Chemical Leak	House Bill 4175 was introduced yesterday and sent to the new Committee on Small Business, Entrepreneurship and Economic Development. The committee	Thu January 16, 2014	Government, WV Legislature News	apayne
Text Your Way Into College	West Virginia's Text Messaging Support Project, launched this month by the state's Higher Education Policy Commission, provides a pilot group of high	Thu January 16, 2014	College, College Prep News	shiggins
Mountain Stage Offers FREE Admission to Thank Community After Water Crisis	So many West Virginians have responded to the water crisis by helping their community. We've checked on elderly neighbors, we've delivered bottled...	Thu January 16, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	aharris
Sunday's Mountain Stage Live Performance is Free	Performance date: Sunday, Jan. 19 at 7 p.m., Culture Center Theater, Charleston It has been a long week for many West Virginians due to the water...	Thu January 16, 2014	Mountain Stage About Us	spatterson
W.Va. Ethics Panel to Redo Meeting After Violation	The West Virginia Ethics Commission is redoing its December meeting because of a mistake that resulted in an open meetings violation. The commission...	Thu January 16, 2014	Government, Ethics Center News	dmistich
W.Va. AG Filing Subpoenas for Water Price Gouging	West Virginia Attorney General Patrick Morrisey is filing subpoenas over reported price hikes on water amid a ban on running water. Morrisey said his	Thu January 16, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	dmistich
(Another) Decorated International Shooter Joins WVU Rifle Team	Junior Ziva Dvorsak who hails from Slovenia just enrolled at West Virginia University and will join the No. 3-ranked rifle team this spring. As a...	Thu January 16, 2014	WVU Rifle Team, Rifle News	gboard
A Puzzling Astronomical Discovery, Legislative Coverage & More	On this West Virginia Morning, a new astronomical discovery is puzzling researchers around the state. Also legislative coverage from the Senate and...	Thu January 16, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	CMatlick
Buddy Miller & Jim Lauderdale - "The Train that Carried My Gal from Town" - Live from Mountain Stage	Two of roots music's very finest, Buddy Miller and Jim Lauderdale, team up on this week's broadcast of Mountain Stage. Here they perform a vamped-up	Thu January 16, 2014	Radio, Mountain Stage Radio	CMatlick
Listen to Buddy & Jim, Corb Lund, Sturgill Simpson and More on Mountain Stage.	This week's episode of Mountain Stage features country-music sounds of various sources, headlined by hit-makers Buddy Miller & Jim Lauderdale. The	Thu January 16, 2014	Mountain Stage, Radio Radio	aharris
W.Va. Health Department Advises Pregnant Women Drink Bottled Water	The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources, based on a letter sent to Secretary Karen Bowling from the CDC, is advising pregnant...	Wed January 15, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spill News	cmason
House Speaker Tim Miley on the New Small Business Committee, Prescription-Only Pseudoephedrine	Senator Ron Stollings discusses potential health and environmental regulations that could come as a result of last week's chemical spill by Freedom	Wed January 15, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich

"The Real Mary Poppins" Brings Author's Story to Light	The Real Mary Poppins will be broadcast Friday, January 24 at 9 p.m. on West Virginia PBS. Author Pamela Travers, creator of the much-loved character...	Wed January 15, 2014	TV	rmazza
House Committee on Banking and Insurance Holds First Meeting	The House Committee on Banking and Insurance met to hear presentations from state agency heads. Commissioner of Insurance Michael Riley and...	Wed January 15, 2014	News	apayne
Senator Wants Health and Environmental Regulations after Chemical Leak	Lawmakers are already asking themselves what they can do to prevent a chemical leak like the one on the Elk River from happening again in the future....	Wed January 15, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
Physicist Stephen Hawking Featured in New Documentary	Hawking, the first-ever autobiographical documentary about physicist Stephen Hawking, premieres Wednesday, January 29 at 10 p.m. on West Virginia PBS...	Wed January 15, 2014	TV	rmazza
WVU astronomer calls new discovery 'a puzzle'	There's an ongoing debate over whether funding will be able to continue for the Green Bank telescope in Pocahontas County. But the telescope is still	Wed January 15, 2014	West Virginia Universit News	badducchio
Storage Facility Cited for Violations at Nitro Site Where Leaked Chemicals Were Moved	The company whose spill contaminated the water supply for 300,000 West Virginians has been cited for violations at a second facility where it's...	Wed January 15, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Charleston Businesses Take a Hit from The Chemical Leak, Wyoming Co.'s Own Water Woes, & More	Transportation Secretary Paul Mattox talks funding and construction for roads to the Senate Committee on Transportation, the Office of Legislative	Wed January 15, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Wyoming Co. School Deals with Unusable Water	While hundreds of thousands of West Virginians are going on five days without water, a school in Wyoming County has not had usable water since... if it's good enough to wash coal, it's good enough to wash me. That's a tweet that supposedly went out from the West Virginia Coal Association in	Wed January 15, 2014	Health & Science, WycNews	jlilly
If It's Good Enough to Wash Coal, Is It Good Enough to Wash Me?	ood enough to wash me. That's a tweet that supposedly went out from the West Virginia Coal Association in	Wed January 15, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	gboard
Senate President Jeff Kessler Talks Chemical Leak, Future Fund	Transportation Secretary Paul Mattox talks funding and construction for roads to the Senate Committee on Transportation, the Office of Legislative	Tue January 14, 2014	The Legislature Today News	dmistich
Capitol Office Keeps W. Va. Citizens Informed About Legislature	While the legislature's process has been slowed due to the chemical leak, one office down in the basement of the Capitol continues its function of...	Tue January 14, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Legislation Could Give Some Local Control Over Roads	The state portion of road funding comes from three sources- the gasoline tax, registration fees and a tax on newly purchased vehicles. Secretary of...	Tue January 14, 2014	WV Legislature, Depar News	amarra
Small Businesses Struggle With Water Ban	As the water ban was lifted throughout the Charleston area yesterday restaurants and bars started to open their doors for the first time since...	Tue January 14, 2014	Small Business, Adelp News	cdavis
Poison Control Not Seeing Increase in Calls Since Flushing	The West Virginia Poison Center says calls have not increased since the ban on water use in nine counties affected by Thursday's chemical leak was...	Tue January 14, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	jlilly

Oh, the Hipsters Lie!	Music snobbery comes in many forms, but it operates under two basic principles. The first is that a hipster assumes that they know about bands you...	Tue January 14, 2014	Coachella, Coachella \ Radio	jlange
Calling K-3rd Grade Authors	All children in grades kindergarten through third are invited to enter the annual PBS KIDS Writers Contest, designed to promote the advancement of...	Tue January 14, 2014	Writers Contest, PBS K Education	spatterson
Mine Commission Upholds MSHA Citations after Sago	A federal commission found that a mine operator's failure to notify MSHA and mine rescue teams immediately after an explosion in 2006 was inexcusable...	Tue January 14, 2014	Upshur County, Health News	jlilly
Water Resources Commission Launches Investigation Into Chemical Spill	Senate Majority Leader John Unger (D-Berkeley) announced today that the Joint Legislative Oversight Commission on State Water Resources, which he co	Tue January 14, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Give a Book to a Child in the Happy Valentine's Day Children's Book Drive	Friday is the last day to bring new or gently used books to West Virginia Public Broadcasting's three sites as part of the 2014 Happy Valentine's Day	Tue January 14, 2014	Book Drive, Education, Education	spatterson
Water Flushing Begins After Thursday's Chemical Leak, The Legislature & The Public Pitch In	West Virginia American Water begins to the flushing process after Thursday's chemical spill at Freedom Industries, the West Virginia Legislature...	Tue January 14, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Which Candidates Filed First for the 2014 Election?	The first day that candidates could file for elective office in West Virginia drew one candidate for the U.S. Senate and four for the U.S. House.	Tue January 14, 2014	2014 Elections, WV Le News	shiggins
What Might Help Prevent a Chemical Spill From Happening Again?	Department of Environmental Protection Secretary Randy Huffman says he and Gov. Tomblin are already having conversations about what possible...	Tue January 14, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	badducchio
Explore the Life of the Mysterious J.D. Salinger	Filmmaker Shane Salerno's 10-year investigation culminates in the first work to get beyond The Catcher in the Rye author's impenetrable wall of...	Tue January 14, 2014	PBS, American Master TV	rmazza
Neighbor Helping Neighbor; West Virginians Setup Donation Stations	Residents are pitching in across the state to help out their fellow West Virginians. Churches, schools and even businesses have been collecting items...	Mon January 13, 2014	Wyoming County, Elk I News	jlilly
Hollywood Film Subject and Activist Urges Those Affected by Chemical Leak to Ask Questions	Legal clerk and environmental activist Erin Brockovich is attempting to rally the public in West Virginia's capital city after a coal scrubbing...	Mon January 13, 2014	Elk River Chemical Spi News	dmistich
Chemical Leak Impedes W. Va. Legislature	Entering the first full week of the second session of the 81st West Virginia Legislature, the normal process has been slowed by a coal cleaning...	Mon January 13, 2014	Government, WV Legis News	apayne
Interview with Governor Tomblin kicks off The Legislature Today	The recent chemical spill and water crisis were the focus of The Legislature Today. Governor Earl Ray Tomblin and General James Hoyer discuss the...	Mon January 13, 2014	The Legislature Today News	CMatlick
MSHA Says 100 Things Have Changed Since Upper Big Branch	The federal mine safety agency says it has finished implementing the 100 regulatory and administrative changes it recommended after West Virginia's...	Mon January 13, 2014	Raleigh County, Mine I News	jlilly

What Does West Virginia Have to Do to Get Your Attention?	Former West Virginia Public Broadcasting reporter Anna Sale compares the Chris Christie bridge scandal coverage in New York to our water crisis in...	Mon January 13, 2014	News	sfinn
W.Va. Chemical Spill? A World Perspective	The chemical that spilled into a major West Virginia river last week forced about 300,000 people in Charleston and surrounding areas not to use...	Mon January 13, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	gboard
West Virginia American Water Lifts Ban Zone-by-Zone	West Virginia American Water began the long-awaited flushing process yesterday afternoon for residents who have been without water since Thursday.	Mon January 13, 2014	Energy & Environment News	cdavis
Governor Tomblin to Discuss Chemical Leak & Water Emergency on The Legislature Today	West Virginia Governor Earl Ray Tomblin will be the first guest on this season of The Legislature Today. He will discuss the recent chemical leak. The	Mon January 13, 2014	The Legislature Today News	CMatlick
West Virginia American Water: 'Zones' Become 'Areas', More Cleared	Updated: January 14, 2014 at 10:30 a.m. From West Virginia American Water's Facebook page: As West Virginia American Water proceeds with the lifting...	Mon January 13, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Raleigh County Man Killed By Train	Police are investigating the death of a Raleigh County man who was hit by a Norfolk Southern Railroad train. The Raleigh County Sheriff's Department	Mon January 13, 2014	railroad, Norfolk SouthNews	shiggins
Aftermath of Chemical Leak, EPA Inspections, Gordon Gee & More	The aftermath of last week's chemical spill continues. On this West Virginia Morning, we learn why the Department of Environmental Protection wasn't	Mon January 13, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	CMatlick
7 Things We Know About the Chemical Spill in West Virginia	For four days, more than 300,000 West Virginia American Water customers in West Virginia have been told not to ingest, cook, bathe, wash or boil...	Mon January 13, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	sfinn
End of Outage May Be in Sight for Water Customers, Businesses	John Kaiser of Dunbar has been without water since Thursday. No dishes, no laundry, no shower just like 300,000 other West Virginians. But Sunday, you	Sun January 12, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
West Virginians Angry About Spill; Still Want Chemical, Coal Jobs	For Bonnie Wireman, the white plastic bag covering her kitchen faucet is a reminder that she can't drink the water. The 81-year-old woman placed it...	Sun January 12, 2014	West Virginia American News	sfinn
AUDIO: Tomblin's Sunday Briefing / Water Company to Establish Website for Clearing 'Zones'	West Virginia Gov. Earl Tomblin says water tests are encouraging after a chemical spill tainted the supply, but people are still being told not to...	Sun January 12, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich
Testing Results Show Downward Trend in Water Contamination	It's been nearly three days since a "do not use" water advisory was issued for more than 300,000 people in the Kanawha Valley, but now officials are...	Sun January 12, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
Eastern Panhandle Residents Can Donate Supplies to Help Charleston	Collection points have been set up in Martinsburg, W.Va., and Shepherdstown, W.Va., for donations to help residents in Charleston and the surrounding	Sat January 11, 2014	News	cmason
Chemical Safety Board to Investigate Freedom Industries Spill	The U.S. Chemical Safety Board says it will investigate a chemical spill in the Elk River that has contaminated the public water supply in nine...	Sat January 11, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	dmistich

WVAW President: Days Before Water is Returned	Businesses in Charleston may soon be allowed to reopen, but West Virginia American Water customers will still have to wait- maybe as long as days-...	Sat January 11, 2014 Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
The Latest Conversation on #wvchemleak from Twitter	Here are the latests tweets about the chemical leak using the hashtag #wvchemleak Be sure to follow @wvpublicnews for continuing coverage. Tweets by	Sat January 11, 2014 Elk River Chemical SpiNews	CMatlick
Some Facilities Affected by W.Va. Spill May Reopen	Health officials in Kanawha and Putnam counties are working to reopen restaurants, daycare centers and other facilities that have closed because of a	Sat January 11, 2014 News	dmistich
Nearly 800 call W.Va. Poison Center After Spill	The West Virginia Poison Control Center has received nearly 800 calls from concerned residents since a chemical spilled in the Elk River.	Sat January 11, 2014 Government, Health & News	dmistich
Ky. and W.Va. State of the States, The War on Poverty 50 years later, and more	Kentuckians and West Virginians learn the state of their states. 50 years ago President Lyndon Johnson declared a war on poverty. We travel 219 to...	Sat January 11, 2014 Radio, podcast, Teach Radio	jlilly
Phone Numbers for Local Emergency Management Offices	As Gov. Tomblin's state of emergency remains in effect, the West Virginia Department of Homeland Security & Emergency Management is ask asking	Fri January 10, 2014 Department of Homela News	dmistich
Remediation Process Underway at Chemical Leak Site	It was more than 24 hours after a chemical leak contaminated the drinking water of nine counties in West Virginia before the public heard from the...	Fri January 10, 2014 Elk River Chemical SpiNews	amarra
What is Crude MCHM?	For the latest in understanding the chemical compound Crude MCHM that was leaked into the Elk River, we reached out to the West Virginia Water...	Fri January 10, 2014 Elk River Chemical SpiNews	gboard
Huntington Creates App to Alert Area in an Emergency	The recent chemical leak into the Elk River affecting a 9-county water supply has underlined the importance of the ability for officials to get an	Fri January 10, 2014 Smart Phone, Apps, AI News	cdavis
W.Va. Spill That Contaminated Water Draws Lawsuits	At least half a dozen lawsuits have been filed over a chemical spill in West Virginia that contaminated water supplies. The Kanawha County Circuit...	Fri January 10, 2014 Elk River Chemical SpiNews	bvorhees
Freedom Industries Makes Statement on Leak	The following is a statement by Gary Southern, President of Freedom Industries, issued approximately at 1pm Friday. "Since the discovery of the leak,	Fri January 10, 2014	shiggins
Noon Newscast on West Virginia Water Emergency: Beth Vorhees, Ashton Marra, & Dave Mistich Report	Major questions remain in the chemical spill from Freedom Industries, Inc. in the contamination of West Virginia American Water supplies across nine	Fri January 10, 2014 Government, Health & News	dmistich
Listen to Kathy Mattea, Shovels & Rope, Kathleen Edwards and More on Mountain Stage	Don't miss this weekend's special encore broadcast of Mountain Stage with our sweetheart, Kathy Mattea. The wonderful Kathleen Edwards will also be...	Fri January 10, 2014 Radio	jsaul

5 Things We Don't Know About Drinking Water Emergency in West Virginia	UPDATE: Monday, January 13, 2014 5:30 a.m. As of this morning. more than 300,000 people who are customers of West Virginia American Water are being...	Fri January 10, 2014	Elk River Chemical SpiNews	sfinn
Chemical Spill Leads to State of Emergency and Water Advisory, A WVU Grad's Energy Hopes, & More	A chemical spill at Freedom Industries in Charleston leads to a water advisory and state of emergency in Kanawha County and eight surrounding...	Fri January 10, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Where to Find Water: A List of Distribution Centers	As the National Guard joins Governor Tomblin as well as various county, state, and federal authorities in helping those affected by the state of...	Fri January 10, 2014	Energy & Environment News	dmistich
Can Gold, Sunlight, and Water Make Hydrogen Fuel?	Charleston native and West Virginia University graduate student Scott Cushing is in pursuit of one of the holy grails of energy sourcing: instead of...	Thu January 9, 2014	Health & Science, TechNews	gboard
State of Emergency, Water Advisory Issued for 9 West Virginia Counties	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin has issued a state of emergency and West Virginia American Water is telling more than 100,000 customers (about 300,000...	Thu January 9, 2014	Government, West VirgNews	dmistich
House Finance Gets Initial Look at Governor's Budget Proposal	With the challenges of a tight budget year ahead, the first goal was immediately understood because balancing the state budget is mandated by the	Thu January 9, 2014	Government, EconomyNews	apayne
W.Va. High School Concussion Rule Approved	The state Board of Education has given final approval to a rule dealing with how high schools handle sports concussions. The board approved the rule...	Thu January 9, 2014	Concussion, Board of INews	jilly
Take a Look Behind the Scenes of Hit Series "Sherlock"	As the January 19 premiere of Masterpiece: Sherlock draws near, a new one-hour special takes fans behind the scenes to explore how writers Steven...	Thu January 9, 2014	TV	rmazza
W.Va. Democrats Oppose Attorney General's Call for More Audits	Democratic legislative leaders won't back Attorney General Patrick Morrisey's call for more audits of the West Virginia Legislature, state office...	Thu January 9, 2014	Government, Audits, A News	dmistich
The State of the State Address, Pay Raises for Teachers, Food Bank Still Needing Donations	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin delivers his state of the state address. Its highlights include: a pay raise for teachers and state employees, among many other	Thu January 9, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	badducchio
Kathy Mattea - "Coal Tattoo" - Live from Mountain Stage	Kathy Mattea returns to Mountain Stage on this week's broadcast with 'Coal Tattoo,' written by fellow West Virginian Billy Edd Wheeler. Mattea has...	Thu January 9, 2014	Radio, Mountain StageRadio	jsaul
20th Season of The Legislature Today to be Simulcast on WV PBS and WV Public Radio	Contact: Shawn Patterson (304) 556-4908 Download the Word document. The Legislature Today begins Monday, January 13 Broadcast date(s): Live Monday...	Thu January 9, 2014	Pressroom, The Legisl About Us	spatterson
Three New Sesame Street Episodes to Kick Off 2014	Watch Sesame Street Monday-Friday at 10 a.m. on WV PBS as Season 44 continues. Thursday, Jan . 9: "Grandparents Celebration" -- Hooper's Store is...	Thu January 9, 2014	Sesame Street, Educa Education	spatterson

Union Leader Says 2 Percent a Start in Teacher Pay Raise	Governor Tomblin announced a 2 percent pay raise for teachers during his State of the State Address, but union representatives say the state needs...	Wed January 8, 2014	Public Education, West Virginia Ec	amarra
Tomblin Focused on Fiscal Responsibility, Education	In his fourth State of the State address, Governor Earl Ray Tomblin touted his administration's accomplishments over the past year, including...	Wed January 8, 2014	Governor Earl Ray Tor News	amarra
Gov. Tomblin's State of the State Address: Full Text & Audio	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin delivered the 2014 State of the State Address Wednesday night in the House Chamber at the State Capitol. Gov. Tomblin's...	Wed January 8, 2014	Government, Governo	News dmistich
W.Va. House of Delegates Opens 2014 Session	The 81st House of Delegates began its 60-day session Wednesday at the Capitol. After most of the general housekeeping was taken care of, the delegates	Wed January 8, 2014	WV Legislature, Gover	News apayne
How do Food Banks Survive Slow Donation Periods?	The first few months of the new year always prove to be tough when it comes to gathering donations for non-profits like the Huntington Area Food...	Wed January 8, 2014	Huntington Area Food News	cdavis
Ex-Fairmont State VP Pleads Guilty to Embezzlement	A former Fairmont State University official faces up to 13 years in prison after pleading guilty to embezzlement and tax charges. Forty-five-year-old	Wed January 8, 2014	Government, Higher E	News dmistich
Taylor Co. Drill Site Blast Leads to Pollution Violation	State regulators have issued a pollution violation notice to an oil and gas drilling company following a tank explosion at a Tyler County well site...	Wed January 8, 2014	Government, Gas Drilli	News dmistich
Report: 3,000 Jobs Created in 2013	The West Virginia University College of Business and Economics presented their state economic outlook to lawmakers Wednesday. The report says West...	Wed January 8, 2014	Employment Growth, F	News amarra
Frackwater Pit at Risk of Leaking	A waste pit in Fayette County does not meet the minimum pit and impoundment standards. The pit is filled with fracking water and other waste from oil...	Wed January 8, 2014	Fayette County, Health	News jlilly
Cold Eases, Yet Nearly 6,200 Remain Without Power in West Virginia	West Virginia is beginning to warm up a bit following an arctic blast that broke cold temperature records across the state. Temperatures on Wednesday	Wed January 8, 2014	Energy & Environment, Weather, I	dmistich
An 11-Point Plan For Healthy Kids & Families, House GOP Members Outline Their Wants, & More	A statewide organization focused on issues related to child poverty presented their 11-point platform to legislators before the 60-day session opens	Wed January 8, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
The State of the State 2014	Governor Tomblin delivered the State of the State address Wednesday, January 8 at 7 p.m. You can watch the archived video of the address right here.	Wed January 8, 2014	Governor Earl Ray Tor News	CMatlick
Statewide Group Offers Legislature 11 Priorities to Benefit Children	The Healthy Kids and Families Coalition presented 11 issues known as the Our Children, Our Future Campaign to End Child Poverty and then hand...	Tue January 7, 2014	WV Legislature, Childr	News apayne
Miley Annouces Creation of House Committee	House Speaker Tim Miley announced his intention to create a new committee in his chamber. The House Committee on Energy is the second committee the...	Tue January 7, 2014	House Speaker Tim Mi	News amarra

Sen. Manchin Wants America (Mostly) Out of Afghanistan By Year's End	In a press conference call with reporters Tuesday, Sen. Joe Manchin (D-WV) made a passionate case to bring most American forces back from...	Tue January 7, 2014	Joe Manchin, AfghanisNews	badducchio
W.Va. House GOP Wants Lower Taxes, Less Regulation	Forty-eighth in job creation, 50th in median household income, 49th in K-12 achievement--all statistics House Minority Leader Tim Armstead said his...	Tue January 7, 2014	Government, Legislatu News	dmistich
Audit Finds Mismangement of Agriculture Department's Loan Program	The results of a preliminary legislative audit have found evidence of mismanagement of a $5 million revolving loan program administered by the West	Tue January 7, 2014	Government, Legislativ News	dmistich
How to Stay Warm in Brutal Cold, Could Fracking Solve Abandoned Mine Water Problems? & More	Lawrence Messina of the West Virginia Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety joins Beth Vorhees by phone to discuss the extreme cold and...	Tue January 7, 2014	West Virginia Morning, News	dmistich
Get to Know West Virginia's Teacher of the Year	Schools across West Virginia are back in session after the holiday break and some students in one Berkeley County school will pick up where they left...	Mon January 6, 2014	News	cmason
WVU Basketball Hoping for Big Things in Second Big 12 Season	West Virginia's men's team is coming off of a season last year where they only won 13 games. It was the worst season in a decade for the program,...	Mon January 6, 2014	Arts & Culture, Sports, News	badducchio
Antiques Roadshow 2014 Tour Includes Charleston, W.Va.	Antiques Roadshow, West Virginia PBS's most-watched primetime series, has announced its Summer 2014 Tour destinations, including its first stop in...	Mon January 6, 2014	Pressroom, Antiques FAbout Us	spatterson
Kentucky Company Says Can House W.Va. Inmates for Less	A private prison company in Kentucky said Monday it can house West Virginia inmates for less than the state Division of Corrections.Kentucky's...	Mon January 6, 2014	Prison Overcrowding, I News	amarra
Fake Mine Foreman Sentenced	A Mercer County man who falsified mandatory mine safety reports while employed at several West Virginia mining operations was sentenced to 21 months...	Mon January 6, 2014	Mine Safety, Mercer CNews	jlilly
W.Va. Lost Most Miners in U.S. Last Year	Forty-two miners died in the U.S. in work-related accidents in 2013 according to preliminary data. That's up from the 36 miners who died in 2012. The...	Mon January 6, 2014	coal miners, Mine Safe News	jlilly
Antiques Roadshow Coming to Charleston in August	Antiques Roadshow has just announced their 2014 tour dates, and Charleston, W.Va. will be their last stop! The live event is scheduled for August 16...	Mon January 6, 2014	Antiques Roadshow, PAbout Us	sfinn
WVU Board Names 20 Person Presidential Search Panel	West Virginia University's Board of Governors has approved a 20-member committee to search for the university's next president.	Mon January 6, 2014	Government, WVU, E. News	dmistich
Kessler Wants Part of Natural Gas Tax for Education	WV Senate President Jeff Kessler says he thinks he has the support of Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin and WV House Speaker Tim Miley to create a future fund...	Mon January 6, 2014	Public Education, natuNews	shiggins
West Virginians Urged to Stay Safe, Warm During Extreme Cold	From the W.Va. Dept. of Military Affairs and Public Safety: Temperatures are forecasted to plunge well below zero degrees Fahrenheit throughout the...	Mon January 6, 2014	Health & Science, Nati News	gboard

West Virginia Prepares for Frigid Temperatures	West Virginia is about to experience the coldest temperatures the state has seen in about 20 years. The National Weather Service issued the following	Mon January 6, 2014	Winter Weather, Energ	News	cmason
W.Va. House Leaders Plan to Target Government Accountability, Attorney General	The House of Delegates leadership plans to focus on government accountability and integrity during the 2014 legislative session. House leaders...	Mon January 6, 2014	Government, Legislatu	News	dmistich
West Virginia's Teacher of the Year & County Courthouses Are 'Living Monuments'	Berkeley County 5th grade teacher Erin Sponaugle is West Virginia's Teacher of the Year and a new book highlights the history of the state's county	Mon January 6, 2014	West Virginia Morning,	News	dmistich
Run For the Cover(s)!	To cover a song is not to copy it note for note or sound for sound. This is just mimicry, not artistry. An artist has to find their own voice within...	Sun January 5, 2014			jlange
Parts of W.Va. Could See Minus 50 Wind Chills	Temperatures across West Virginia could fall to their lowest levels in 18 years Monday night. Below-zero temperatures are forecast around the state...	Sun January 5, 2014	National Weather Serv	News	dmistich
Former U.S. Representative from Maryland Goes 'Off the Grid' in West Virginia	Roscoe Bartlett, U.S. Representative for Maryland's 6th congressional district from 1993 to 2013, is going "off the grid" in the mountains of West...	Sat January 4, 2014	Roscoe Bartlett, West '	News	dmistich
West Virginia Ranks Fourth in Out-of-State Moves for United Van Lines	A national moving company says West Virginia ranks high when it comes to people moving out of state. The ranking is contained in the annual "Migration	Sat January 4, 2014	Moving, Population, Ec	News	dmistich
Mountain Stage at 30: Songs From the Doc (Part Six)	I'm sad to report that this sixth 'Songs From the Doc' post marks the penultimate in the series that documents the music used in 'Mountain Stage at...	Sat January 4, 2014	Mountain Stage, music	News	dmistich
Your Favorite West Virginia Stories of 2013	A study of land ownership, a documentary about a long-running music show, and positive stories about West Virginians --- these are your favorite...	Sat January 4, 2014		News	sfinn
Ky. Budget Looks Bleak, Changing W.Va. Politics, Acid Mine Drainage In Art, Annual Bird Count & More	Kentucky lawmakers face tough money decisions this year. Is West Virginia moving from blue to red? Some Pennsylvania artists find a good use for acid...	Sat January 4, 2014	nature, Arts & Culture,	News	cmason
Telling West Virginia's Story with Positive Energy	Every month, we recognize an employee or volunteer who goes out of their way to help â€œtell West Virginiaâ€™s story.â€ This month, our Storyteller Award...	Fri January 3, 2014	Storytellers, Storyteller	About Us	sfinn
10 Ideas for Healthier Kids in 2014	Sometimes, living a healthy life in West Virginia takes a little creativity. That's why I love this new website from our contributor and friend Kate...	Fri January 3, 2014		News	sfinn
The "Dissonant" Mozart Listen to Calexico, Camper Van Beethoven, Bonnie Prince Billy & More on Mountain Stage	Salieri: I was staring through the cage of those meticulous ink strokes - at an absolute beauty. I can't say I've been on a Mozart kick, but some	Fri January 3, 2014	Mozart, Dissonance Q1	Radio	jlange
	This week's special encore episode of Mountain Stage features desert rockers Calexico, along with alternative trailblazers Camper Van Beethoven,...	Fri January 3, 2014	Mountain Stage, Radic	Radio	jsaul

Senators Remember Sago Mining Disaster	WASHINGTON, D.C. – Senator Jay Rockefeller today issued the following statement in remembrance of the January 2, 2006 mine disaster at Sago that...	Thu January 2, 2014	Coal	News	shiggins
W.Va. Dept. of Agriculture Audit Given to U.S. Attorney	The results of a legislative audit of the state department of Agriculture is being turned over to federal authorities. After learning of findings of	Thu January 2, 2014	Agriculture, U.S. Attorr	News	bvorhees
Health Care Glitch Affects 18,000 W.Va. Residents	A state official says a glitch in the federal health insurance marketplace has affected about 18,000 West Virginians trying to sign up for coverage...	Thu January 2, 2014	Healthcare.gov, Afford:	News	dmistich
James "Buck" Harless Dead at 94	Ninety four-year-old James "Buck" Harless has passed away. Harless was born in Gilbert, W.Va. in Mingo County and worked as a miner for the Red...	Thu January 2, 2014	Coal, Arts & Culture, J:	News	shiggins
Calexico - "Splitter" - Live from Mountain Stage	Tuscon, Arizona-based band Calexico blend everything from surf guitar to spaghetti western themes into their own brand of desert rock. Their song	Thu January 2, 2014	Calexico, Mountain St:	Radio	jsaul
Mountain Stage at 30: Songs From the Doc (Part Five)	In case you haven't been tuning in (or, "logging on", rather) to the 'Songs From the Doc' series, the music presented in these posts is pulled from...	Thu January 2, 2014	Mountain Stage, Song:	News	dmistich