

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Title	Content	Date	Reporter
All Systems Go in Huntington & Charleston	2:56 p.m. -- We should be back to full service for WV PBS in Huntington and Charleston as well as WVWV radio in Huntington -- INCLUDING Suddenlink	Sat June 28, 2014	Scott Finn
A Former Coal Miner Promotes Green Energy	One Virginia man spreads the gospel of green. There are Synchronizing Fireflies, fireflies in Pennsylvania that blink together. More women are Memories of Frog Hunting taking on the role of farmer. A and More	Sat June 28, 2014	Cecelia Mason
W.Va. Author Tells Stories that Come 'Out of Peel Tree'	There's a new novel out from a West Virginia native about a place that's very special to her. The book is a collection of family stories about life...	Fri June 27, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Bureau of Public Health Releases Chemical Spill Data	The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources Bureau for Public Health released Friday information from physicians who reported seeing	Fri June 27, 2014	Suzanne Higgins
Bus Service Between Charleston and Morgantown Debuts July 1.	There will be bus service from Charleston to Morgantown beginning next week. The I-RIDE 79 service will make five stops at cities along the way. The...	Fri June 27, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Numbers Show W.Va. has Increased Spending on Disabled	West Virginia has increased the amount it spends to allow the disabled to live outside institutions in the years since a landmark Supreme Court...	Fri June 27, 2014	Associated Press
WVU President Gee Continues Statewide Tour	West Virginia University President E. Gordon Gee is on the road, part of his statewide 55-county tour. Thursday, Gee made stops in Raleigh, Mercer and	Fri June 27, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Schools Chief-Elect Outlines Goals	The State Board of Education's choice to oversee West Virginia's public schools is offering a glimpse at his educational priorities. The board will...	Fri June 27, 2014	Associated Press
Federal Inmate in W.Va. Guilty in Guard's Assault	An inmate at Hazelton Federal Correctional Institute has been convicted of assaulting a correctional officer. Edward C. Crow was convicted Wednesday...	Fri June 27, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Student Chosen as White House Intern	A West Virginian is among more than 140 people selected from across the country to participate in the summer White House internship program.	Fri June 27, 2014	Associated Press
More on the History of Wheeling's Name, High School Students Learn Conservation & Jason Isbell	We hear what author Alan Fitzpatrick was able to uncover in his search in the mystery of how Wheeling got its name. The Student Climate and...	Fri June 27, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

High School Students Encouraged to Take Action	110 high school students from around the world are taking part in a week-long event in Shepherdstown, West Virginia, that encourages them to develop	Fri June 27, 2014	Cecelia Mason
CDC Denies West Virginia's Request for More Animal Tests on MCHM	Federal officials aren't granting a state request for more animal tests for a chemical that spilled into West Virginia's largest drinking water...	Thu June 26, 2014	Associated Press
WV TAP Recommends More Research, Precautions After Research	An independent research team hired by Gov. Tomblin to further study the chemical that contaminated the water supply of 300,00 West Virginians in...	Thu June 26, 2014	Ashton Marra
DHHR Suspects Case of Mosquito-Borne Virus	State health officials say they're investigating West Virginia's first suspected case of a nasty mosquito-borne virus. The West Virginia Department...	Thu June 26, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Increases Spending on Home Care for Disabled	West Virginia has increased the amount it spends to allow the disabled to live outside institutions in the years since a landmark Supreme Court...	Thu June 26, 2014	Associated Press
Deal Offers New Certification and College Credit to High School Students	New River Community and Technical College and the state Board of Education are partnering to offer students a pathway to careers in automotive...	Thu June 26, 2014	Associated Press
Exiting WVU Parkersburg President Honored with Emeritus Designation	The West Virginia University at Parkersburg Board of Governors has named Dr. Marie Foster Gnage president emeritus. Gnage is the sixth president of...	Thu June 26, 2014	Dave Mistich
Tomblin Fills Three Military, Public Affairs Posts	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has made three appointments at the Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety, including naming Stephanie Bond the...	Thu June 26, 2014	Associated Press
WorkForce West Virginia Gets Federal Funds	WorkForce West Virginia is receiving more than $191,000 in federal funding to help West Virginians who are out of work find employment opportunities...	Thu June 26, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Gets $6 Milion in Federal Funds for Job Training	West Virginia is receiving more than $6 million in federal funds for job training programs for laid-off workers. The U.S. Department of Labor is...	Thu June 26, 2014	Associated Press
Wheeling's Dark History (and Name), Arts and Bots, & A Scavenger Hunt for Charleston Culture	In Wheeling writer Alan Fitzpatrick's new book, A Place of Skulls, he says the city has a dark history. Kids from the surrounding areas were in...	Thu June 26, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

New Book Discovers Where Wheeling (Place of the Skull) Got Its Name	The name Wheeling is a very old word. While there's some dispute, it's most commonly translated from the indigenous Delaware language to mean "Place..."	Thu June 26, 2014	Glynis Board
W.Va. BOE Will Name Superintendent	The West Virginia Department of Education will soon have a new leader in Dr. Michael Martirano. State Board President Gayle Manchin made the...	Wed June 25, 2014	Ashton Marra
Patriot Coal Lays Off 75 at West Virginia Mines	Patriot Coal has laid off 75 workers at two southern West Virginia mining complexes. Patriot spokeswoman Janine Orf confirmed Wednesday that 60...	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press
Elementary Students Take Part in Arts and Bots at Marshall	Kids from the surrounding areas were in Huntington this week taking part in Arts and Bots: Exploring Robotics and the Arts. Students from grades 2...	Wed June 25, 2014	Clark Davis
Coalfield Town Recognized for Improvement Work	A West Virginia town is being recognized for its efforts and accomplishments to improve health. Williamson has implemented several programs over the...	Wed June 25, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Gov. Tomblin's Brother Sentenced for Drug Charges	The brother of West Virginia's governor has been sentenced to eight months of home confinement and three years of probation for federal drug charges.	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press
Eighth Graders Participate in a Scavenger Hunt at Charleston	The best eighth graders in social studies and arts from various counties spent a week learning about West Virginia's history. One of the events was a	Wed June 25, 2014	Liz McCormick
Almost 400 Miners Could Be Laid Off in Wyoming County	Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. plans to temporarily idle its Pinnacle underground mine in southern West Virginia. In a regulatory filing, Cleveland...	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press
Hear Jason Isbell Play "Traveling Alone" on Mountain Stage	Accompanied by his wife Amanda Shires on fiddle, Alabama-born singer-songwriter Jason Isbell performs "Traveling Alone," as heard on his acclaimed...	Wed June 25, 2014	Josh Saul
New Deal in Charges Against Kanawha Prosecutor	Kanawha County's prosecutor has agreed to a new deal to resolve misdemeanor domestic charges against him. The agreement requires Mark Plants to...	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press
State Official's Stolen Vehicle Recovered in Boone	Police have recovered a stolen state vehicle that was issued to West Virginia School Building Authority executive director Mark Manchin. The Boone...	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Clothing Voucher Applications Start July 1	West Virginia residents can begin applying for school clothing vouchers for eligible children on July 1. The vouchers can be used toward the...	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

West Virginia DEP Names New Air Quality Director	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection is tapping William "Fred" Durham as its director for the Division of Air Quality. The...	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press
State BOE Picks Interim Superintendent, Infusing Technology, Morgantown's Industrial Traffic & More	West Virginia Board of Education members unanimously approved a new schools chief who will take the post starting next week. A three-day conference...	Wed June 25, 2014	Dave Mistich
Unemployment Up in 45 W. Va. Counties	Unemployment rates rose in 45 of West Virginia's 55 counties in May. WorkForce West Virginia says the jobless rate in Pocahontas County rose to 12.3	Wed June 25, 2014	Associated Press
State BOE Names Temporary Superintendent	West Virginia Board of Education members unanimously approved a new schools chief who will take the post starting next week. On June 30, current	Tue June 24, 2014	Ashton Marra
The Infusing Technology Conference Leads Teachers On a Road Toward the Future	Encouraging educators from across the state to take hold of new teaching and new learning opportunities is the focus of a three-day conference hosted...	Tue June 24, 2014	Liz McCormick
Game Show Features West Virginia Music and History	As part of FestivALL, the West Virginia Music Hall of Fame is hosting a game show called "West Virginia Squares." Based on the popular "Hollywood	Tue June 24, 2014	Chad Matlick
Morgantown Group Wants to Restrict Downtown Truck Traffic	There's a growing number of people in Morgantown that want the city to do something about the industrial truck traffic moving through downtown. They...	Tue June 24, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Mercer County Celebration Hopes to Take Visitors Back to the Future	A freelance journalist is looking for folks to share stories about the heydays of downtown Princeton in Mercer County. The project launches during an	Tue June 24, 2014	Jessica Lilly
California Man Pleads No Contest in WVU Hazing Trial	A California man will spend 10 days in jail after pleading no contest to hazing and battery at a West Virginia University fraternity. Andrew Nemes of	Tue June 24, 2014	Associated Press
Audit: W.Va. Casinos in Good Shape Despite Losses	An audit of West Virginia's casinos says each facility's financial condition is sound, despite revenue losses. The audit by Charleston accounting firm	Tue June 24, 2014	Associated Press
Fond Memories of a Mountain Childhood in Appalachia	I want to invite you to walk with me through the woods and around the rugged hills of my home. Our house was situated beside the community water...	Tue June 24, 2014	Phylenia French

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Federal Lawsuit Targets Charleston Airport, Blames Runway Extension for January Spill	A federal lawsuit blames a Charleston airport runway project for the January chemical spill that left 300,000 residents without clean water for days...	Tue June 24, 2014	Associated Press
Average W.Va. Worker Earned $478 More in 2013	State officials say the average worker in West Virginia earned $40,199 in 2013, up more than a percent from the year before. WorkForce West Virginia...	Tue June 24, 2014	Associated Press
Studying Morgantown's Air Pollution, The Future of Higher Ed & An Experiment with W.Va. Hops	For the first time, an inventory of how much greenhouse gas is entering the air in Morgantown has been compiled. Recently, the West Virginia Higher	Tue June 24, 2014	Dave Mistich
How Well Will Hops Grow In West Virginia?	One day you might be able to buy even more styles of 100 percent West Virginia-made beer. That is, if a current study shows the state is a good...	Mon June 23, 2014	Cecelia Mason
New Report Examines Morgantown's Greenhouse Gas Emissions	There are a lot of things that contribute to carbon dioxide emissions that drift into the air. For the first time an inventory of how much...	Mon June 23, 2014	Ben Adducchio
WV Man Arrested in VA After Firing Handgun	Glen Lyn, VA Police Chief S.D. Buckland says 59-year-old Randall Showalter of Princeton, WV was arrested Monday on three weapons charges. Buckland...	Mon June 23, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Homeless Housing Programs Awarded Federal Grants	Seven housing programs in West Virginia have been awarded federal grants totaling more than $842,000. The grants from the U.S. Department of Housing...	Mon June 23, 2014	Associated Press
Don Knotts Statue Fundraising Campaign Tops Goal	A campaign to erect a statue in Morgantown honoring the late Don Knotts has topped its goal to raise private funds for the project. Beth Fuller tells...	Mon June 23, 2014	Associated Press
Seven W.Va. Aging Resource Centers Closing Due to Cuts	The state is closing seven Aging and Disability Resource Centers because of budget cuts. The centers help seniors and residents with disabilities...	Mon June 23, 2014	Associated Press
A (Not-so) Brief Misery of the Eagles	VH1's Behind the Music is always fun to watch. You can revel in the personal struggles of the band and cheer on the comebacks, but the real reason we...	Mon June 23, 2014	Jim Lange
W.Va. School Board Seat Vacant for More Than Year	The West Virginia Board of Education is waiting for the governor to fill a seat that's been vacant for more than a year.	Mon June 23, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Disaster Drill Set in Huntington	First responders will participate in a disaster drill in Huntington. Officials say the Monday morning exercise will involve a scenario of a riverboat	Mon June 23, 2014	Associated Press
New W.Va. Law Could Let Some Criminals Buy Guns	A new law that makes it easier for West Virginians to buy a handgun also makes it easier for some people who have recently committed a crime to buy a...	Mon June 23, 2014	Associated Press
Education Association Meets, Boys State Ponders What's Next, West Virginia? & Tandanus Tropicanus	West Virginia Education Association President Dale Lee will be one of the educators at a national meeting discussing education issues such as Common...	Mon June 23, 2014	Dave Mistich
National Education Association Meets to Discuss Common Core, Standardized Tests	Educators from across the country are meeting over the next two weeks for the National Education Association's 152nd annual meeting. West Virginia	Sun June 22, 2014	Glynis Board
W.Va. Attorney General Warns Consumers About Fake Currency	West Virginia Attorney General Patrick Morrisey is warning residents about a flood of counterfeit $10 bills. Morrisey says a Charleston bank recently	Sat June 21, 2014	Associated Press
Freedom Industries Slipups Persist After January Spill	Slip-ups such as not reading emails and leaving chemical headquarters unattended keep producing problems for a company months after it sullied 300,...	Sat June 21, 2014	Associated Press
Former Mingo Judge Appeals 50-Month Sentence	A former Mingo County judge who pleaded guilty to a corruption charge is appealing his 50-month prison sentence. The Williamson Daily News reports...	Sat June 21, 2014	Associated Press
Moving Around, But Keeping Those Appalachian Connections	When people ask me where I'm from I tell them "West Virginia." When they ask, "where in West Virginia exactly?... Where's home?" Well, that's a...	Sat June 21, 2014	Sarah Lowther Hensley
Heroin Problems, African American History, Growing Hops and More	Heroin could be replacing prescription pills as Appalachia's biggest drug problem. West Virginia is 151 years old and we look at the African American	Sat June 21, 2014	Cecelia Mason
What The Heck is the Tandanus Tropicanus?	It's called the Tandanus Tropicanus. It's a fish, a very interesting type of catfish-, discovered in a northeastern part of Australia that's largely...	Fri June 20, 2014	Ben Adducchio
What is the Future for Higher Ed in West Virginia?	College tuition is going up across the country - and across West Virginia. Recently, the West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission (WVHEPC)...	Fri June 20, 2014	Jared Kline

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Protesters Arrested at Alpha Natural Resources in Bristol	Police have arrested eight mountaintop removal mining protesters for trespassing at Alpha Natural Resources headquarters in Bristol, Virginia....	Fri June 20, 2014	Associated Press
UC-Beckley Gets Approval to Create Nursing Program	The University of Charleston has received approval for an associate degree nursing program at its Beckley campus. The West Virginia Board of...	Fri June 20, 2014	Associated Press
How to Celebrate West Virginia's 151st Birthday	I crawled out of bed this morning at 4:30. I'm not bragging, I had to come in to host the morning newscasts and West Virginia Morning. But I woke up	Fri June 20, 2014	Dave Mistich
State Takes Over Troubled Nicholas County Solid Waste Authority	A seven-member state board has taken control of Nicholas County's troubled solid waste authority. The state Solid Waste Management Board says in a...	Fri June 20, 2014	Associated Press
Peter Marshall to Host 'West Virginia Squares'	Longtime "Hollywood Squares" host Peter Marshall is returning to his home state for a West Virginia version of the TV game show. The Huntington...	Fri June 20, 2014	Associated Press
Marshall's Health Care Pipeline, Celebrating West Virginia Day & Lucius on Mountain Stage	High School students focused on the fields of science, technology, engineering and math this week as part of Marshall University's Health Care...	Fri June 20, 2014	Dave Mistich
Events Set to Celebrate West Virginia Day	The West Virginia Division of Culture and History is commemorating West Virginia Day with festivities in Charleston and Wheeling. Officials say the...	Fri June 20, 2014	Associated Press
Traveling Sports Exhibit on W.Va. Tour	A traveling exhibit on the role of sports in American culture is making its way across West Virginia. The West Virginia Humanities Council is...	Fri June 20, 2014	Associated Press
Mural, Documentary Remember Buffalo Creek Disaster	West Virginia's 1972 Buffalo Creek disaster is being remembered in a mural. Canadian artist Kevin Ledo began work on the mural Tuesday. His canvas...	Fri June 20, 2014	Associated Press
Why Does Music Move Us?	The Really Big Questions--Why Does Music Move us Thursday night at 9 p.m. on West Virginia Public Radio Edit RemoveMusic exists in every culture....	Thu June 19, 2014	Teresa Wills
What's Next, West Virginia? Mountaineer Boys State Says It's Time for Change	Almost every year since 1936, a select group of high schools boys have attended Mountaineer Boys State, and since 1941 girls have attended...	Thu June 19, 2014	Liz McCormick
High School Students Experience STEM Fields at Marshall	High school students from all over the region were on Marshall University's campus this week taking classes in the science, technology, engineering...	Thu June 19, 2014	Clark Davis

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

West Virginia Whistleblower Lawsuit Dismissed	A lawsuit filed by two former Department of Health and Human Resources employees for raising concerns about an advertising contract has been...	Thu June 19, 2014	Dave Mistich
West Virginia Trooper Injured Along Interstate 77	West Virginia state police say a trooper has been injured in a hit-and-run accident along the West Virginia Turnpike. State police spokesman Lt...	Thu June 19, 2014	Associated Press
Federal Health Officials Oppose Planned Sale of Fairmont General	Federal health officials are opposing the planned sale of Fairmont General Hospital to Alecto Healthcare Services. U.S. Attorney William Ihlenfeld...	Thu June 19, 2014	Associated Press
Marshall University Honors Rockefeller in Nation's Capital	Marshall University has honored U.S. Sen. Jay Rockefeller during its annual State of the University event. More than 200 people attended the event	Thu June 19, 2014	Associated Press
Studying Juvenile Justice, Matewan Looks for Grant Funding & Morgantown Presents Children's Theatre	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin and other state officials announce a partnership with The Pew Charitable Trusts to study and improve the state's juvenile	Thu June 19, 2014	Dave Mistich
W.Va. Supreme Court Reduces Penalties in Lawsuit Against Charleston Nursing Home	The West Virginia Supreme Court has reduced a $91 million verdict to about $37 million against a Charleston nursing home in a former resident's...	Thu June 19, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Hunting & Fishing Licenses Going Electronic	The Division of Natural Resources is shedding paper and moving to an electronic licensing system for hunters and anglers. The change will be ushered...	Thu June 19, 2014	Associated Press
Deadline Set for Claims in Freedom Bankruptcy Case	A federal bankruptcy judge has set an Aug. 1 deadline for financial claims by West Virginia residents and businesses affected by a January chemical...	Thu June 19, 2014	Associated Press
New Children's Theater Work Premieres at WVU	An original children's theater show debuts this weekend in Morgantown. The production comes from the Mountain State Rep, the professional summer...	Wed June 18, 2014	Glynis Board
Matewan Hoping to Use Grant Funding to Make Change	This morning we take a look at the Turn this Town Around Project in Matewan, where they too found out about possible grant funding for the community...	Wed June 18, 2014	Clark Davis
W.Va. Attorney General Asks High Court About Helping Prosecutors	Attorney General Patrick Morrisey is asking the West Virginia Supreme Court if his office can help county prosecutors with their criminal cases. In a	Wed June 18, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

State Treasurer Returns Unclaimed Property to City Mayor	West Virginia State Treasurer, John Perdue returned tangible, unclaimed property items to Nitro City Mayor David Casebolt today during a...	Wed June 18, 2014	Liz McCormick
Web Videos from Connect Education for Middle-Schoolers	WVCPB Current, a trade publication for public media, has featured West Virginia Public Broadcasting's work on a series of web videos and other digital...	Wed June 18, 2014	Dave Mistich
West Virginia Partners with Pew for Study of Justice System	Recently, Governor Earl Ray Tomblin has been touting the successes of last year's Justice Reinvestment Act in reducing prison and jail populations,...	Wed June 18, 2014	Dave Mistich
DHHR: Water Plans Might Need More Funds	A Department of Health and Human Resources official says the agency might need additional funding to implement new drinking water safety legislation...	Wed June 18, 2014	Associated Press
Audit: W.Va. at Risk of Losing Medicaid Funds	Legislative auditors say West Virginia is at risk of losing millions of dollars in federal Medicaid funding because state hasn't complied with a 2011	Wed June 18, 2014	Associated Press
Parties Agree to Resolve W.Va. Mine Runoff Lawsuit	Environmentalists and a landowner have agreed to resolve a lawsuit over runoff from a reclaimed mountaintop removal mine in Mingo County. Under a...	Wed June 18, 2014	Associated Press
Mountain Stage Staff Picks: Lucius Plays "Turn Around"	Earlier in the year, Mountain Stage staffers each picked a single performance to be featured as bonus content on the "best of" USB drives that are...	Wed June 18, 2014	Josh Saul
Freedom Industries to Remove Contractor Responsible for Stormwater Overflows	Freedom Industries is ousting the contractor responsible for spills last week at the site of a January leak into the state's biggest drinking water...	Wed June 18, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Legislature to Take to the Road in August	The West Virginia Legislature is taking a road trip this summer. House Speaker Tim Miley announced Tuesday lawmakers will convene a three-day interim	Wed June 18, 2014	Dave Mistich
State Police Children's Unit Expansion Halted, Concerns Over Fayette Waste Disposal & More	The West Virginia State Police hoped to expand their Crimes Against Children Unity but a line item veto from Gov. Tomblin has halted that expansion...	Wed June 18, 2014	Dave Mistich
Environmental Quality Board Hears Complaints Against DEP Revocation Order in Fayette County	The West Virginia Environmental Quality Board is reviewing an order issued by the West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection that revokes a...	Wed June 18, 2014	Glynis Board

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Gubernatorial Cuts Halt State Police Unit Expansion	In the weeks following the 2014 legislative session, a group of activists proved that standing up for what you believe in can sometimes make a...	Tue June 17, 2014	Ashton Marra
Grant Funding Coming to 'Turn this Town Around' Communities	The Claude Worthington Benedum Foundation has announced it will give $150,000 to two West Virginia towns participating in the Turn This Town Around	Tue June 17, 2014	Ben Adducchio
WV DEP to Freedom Industries: Replace Contractor Responsible for Stormwater Overflows	Regulators are pushing Freedom Industries to oust the contractor responsible for spills last week at the site of a January leak into the state's...	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Owed More Than $715 Million in Unpaid Taxes	An audit of the West Virginia Tax Department has found that the state is owed more than $715 million in taxes. The legislative audit released Tuesday...	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Provost to Step Down at End of June	West Virginia University Provost Michele G. Wheatly plans to step down at the end of June. Wheatly has served as the university's chief academic...	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press
Immunization Summit Brings Awareness of Measles Outbreak to W.Va.	The hot topic at this year's Immunization Summit in Charleston was measles. An outbreak of the disease in Ohio has health care officials in West...	Tue June 17, 2014	Liz McCormick
Two Charged in Plot to Burn W.Va. Lawmaker's House	A Berkeley County man and his son face charges of plotting to burn a state lawmaker's house. The Herald Mail of Hagerstown, Maryland, reports that 49...	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press
Health Conference Aims at Students, Families	A school health professional development seminar is being held this week in Charleston. The 2014 Kidstrong Conference is set for Tuesday and...	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press
Huntington Food Bank Director Stepping Down	The leader of a Huntington-based food bank is stepping down. The Herald-Dispatch reports Facing Hunger Foodbank executive director Tiffany Tatum has...	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Continues Belt-Tightening With $20 Million Target	West Virginia University continues to tighten its belt to achieve approximately $20 million in budget cuts.	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press
Two West Virginia Universities Sign Educational Agreement	West Virginia State University and Marshall University are collaborating to help students interested in earning a doctorate in pharmacy.	Tue June 17, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Corrections Trying to Implement Inmate Programs, The Export-Import Bank & Acid Mine Drainage Pottery	A legislative interim committee overseeing the state's jails and prisons was updated on a bill passed this year intended to help reduce the state's	Tue June 17, 2014	Dave Mistich
The Export-Import Bank Seeks to Empower Small Businesses in W.Va.	Those attending an event at the Culture Center in Charleston learned more about how the Export-Import Bank might help them succeed. Senator Joe...	Mon June 16, 2014	Liz McCormick
Sen. Joe Manchin Says Our Troops Need to Come Home	West Virginia Senator Joe Manchin continues to speak out against keeping US troops in Afghanistan after this year, and he is questioning continued US	Mon June 16, 2014	Liz McCormick
Fracking Documentarians Tour West Virginia, U.S. Without Using Gasoline	A cross-country tour dedicated to spreading awareness about fracking is making its way to West Virginia with an interesting bonus.	Mon June 16, 2014	Jared Kline
W.Va. Higher Ed Panel Considers Tuition Increases	The West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission is considering tuition and fee increases proposed by public universities and colleges across the	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
Division of Corrections Still Working to Provide Programs to Overflow Inmates	Over the past two years, lawmakers have implemented two pieces of legislation intended to drastically decrease the population in state prisons in...	Mon June 16, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. Inmate Convicted of Killing Fellow Prisoner	A federal inmate has been convicted on charges of killing another prisoner. The Exponent Telegram reports that a federal jury in Clarksburg found...	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
Freedom Industries to Staff Spill Site Around the Clock	The company that spilled chemicals into West Virginia's largest water supply in January will staff the site around the clock to prevent further spills	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
Don't Meet Your Heroes	"Expectation is a prison." ~ Robert Fripp Literary giant T.S. Eliot was a fan of comedic genius Groucho Marx and vice versa. It is thought that	Mon June 16, 2014	Jim Lange
Transformation Model Turns Around West Virginia High School	Over the past few years, Richwood High School has turned itself around from one of the poorest performing schools to being named one of US News and...	Mon June 16, 2014	Dave Mistich
Innerviews: Velvety Voice Fated for Broadcasting	News Director Beth Vorhees is the subject of The Charleston Gazette's 'Innerviews' series. In this piece from Sandy Wells, Beth explains how she got...	Mon June 16, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

New Trial Sought on Damages in Suit Against Massey	The owner of three defunct coal companies is seeking a new trial in his long-running legal battle with Massey Energy. A jury in Buchanan County,...	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Panel Identifies Potential 'Doctor Shoppers'	176 A West Virginia Board of Pharmacy committee has identified 176 patients who could be "doctor shopping" for prescription drugs. These patients have	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Ethics Commission Names Interim Director	The West Virginia Ethics Commission has named a Charleston attorney as its interim executive director. Commission chairman Kemp Morton tells the	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Addresses Budget Cuts, Eliminates Positions	West Virginia University has eliminated more than 100 positions as it addresses budget cuts. The Dominion Post reports that 68 vacant positions have...	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
Trust to Preserve 665 Acres Along Gauley River	More than 600 acres in the Gauley River National Recreation Area will be protected from development. The West Virginia Land Trust said Monday that...	Mon June 16, 2014	Associated Press
Registration Opens for Above Ground Storage Tanks, Retiring Superintendent Gives Final Report & More	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection opens up registration for above ground storage tanks. State Superintendent of Schools Dr....	Mon June 16, 2014	Dave Mistich
Four Recommendations to Improve Education from Retiring State Superintendent	West Virginia's Superintendent of Schools Dr. James Phares announced his retirement in April, but last week, presented his final report to the state...	Sun June 15, 2014	Ashton Marra
Panel to Discuss West Virginia Explosion, Spill	The federal Chemical Safety Board is coming to Charleston to release findings about a New Cumberland metal recycling plant explosion that killed three	Sun June 15, 2014	Associated Press
Citizen Lawsuits in Question in West Virginia Tank Law	Industry groups are jittery that if state regulators require the wrong type of permit, companies could be subject to citizen lawsuits under a new	Sun June 15, 2014	Associated Press
Ex-W.Va. Judge Agrees to Have Law License Annulled	A retired Social Security administrative law judge accused of participating in a scheme to improperly award disability benefits has voluntarily...	Sun June 15, 2014	Associated Press
Violations Found in Huntington Student Housing Sweep	The city of Huntington has found 32 violations in 61 structures since the start of inspections at off-campus student housing near Marshall University...	Sun June 15, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Listen to Mountain Stage with Guest Host Tim O'Brien Sunday	We hope you can tune in this Sunday at 2 pm to hear the first ever episode of Mountain Stage to feature a guest host - our oldest and dearest friend,	Sat June 14, 2014	Josh Saul
Battling for Black Lung Benefits, Creative Paths to Fresh Food & More	A coal miner fighting for black lung benefits, Creatively bringing fresh food to a city in West Virginia, And, finding good use of an environmental	Sat June 14, 2014	Jessica Lilly
DEP Tank Registration Program Opens	Recently, an overflow of water from a trench at the Freedom Industries tank site in Kanawha County reached the Elk River. West Virginia's Department...	Fri June 13, 2014	Ben Adducchio
W.Va. DNR to Conduct Special Deer Hunt at Green Bank	Hunters can apply for a controlled deer hunt at the National Radio Astronomy Observatory site in Green Bank. The Division of Natural Resources says a	Fri June 13, 2014	Associated Press
Patriot Coal Moving Charleston Office to Putnam County	Patriot Coal is relocating its West Virginia office in Charleston to Scott Depot in Putnam County. Patriot spokeswoman Janine Orf says the St. Louis...	Fri June 13, 2014	Associated Press
WVU to Launch Center on Research and Violence	West Virginia University is launching the Center on Research and Violence. The Morgantown school says the center will aim to learn more about...	Fri June 13, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Governor's Brother Seeks Lesser Sentence for Drug Charges	The brother of West Virginia's governor is seeking a lesser or alternative sentence after pleading guilty to a federal drug charge. Fifty-year-old...	Fri June 13, 2014	Associated Press
Huntington to Tap Broadcast Frequencies for Free WiFi	Huntington hopes an old technology proves to be the key in a new technological world. Using new technology, Huntington will tap into an old form of	Fri June 13, 2014	Clark Davis
Florida Man Found Not Guilty of Murdering Wheeling Student	The trial of a Florida man charged with killing a Wheeling Jesuit University student came to its final verdict today.	Fri June 13, 2014	Associated Press
Concord Professor Uses Acid Mine Drainage for Pottery	If you see a body of water with an orange hue, it's likely the result of acid mine drainage. This pollutant is left behind from abandoned mine shafts	Fri June 13, 2014	Jared Kline
W.Va. Center Gets Federal Disease Prevention Grant	The West Virginia Prevention Research Center is getting $750,000 to conduct disease prevention research. Officials say the funding from the Centers...	Fri June 13, 2014	Associated Press
Online Search Tool Launched for Manchin Papers	The West Virginia Division of Culture and History is introducing a new online tool to search U.S. Sen. Joe Manchin's gubernatorial papers. Officials...	Fri June 13, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Gov. Tomblin Outlines Success in Reducing Prison Populations, Wilderness Medicine, 'The Blob' & More	It's only been a little over a year since Governor Tomblin signed the Justice Reinvestment Act into law, but the state is already seeing tremendous	Fri June 13, 2014	Dave Mistich
Updated: WV DEP Reports Second Overflow at Freedom, Violations Issued for Both Incidents	Updated on Friday, June 13 at 11:12 p.m. The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection says Freedom Industries failed for a second...	Thu June 12, 2014	Dave Mistich
Hawaii: The Legacy of Sugar	For many Americans, Hawaii is a tropical playground, the place of surf, sun and dream vacations. Behind the tourist façade, though, is one of the most	Thu June 12, 2014	Teresa Wills
West Virginia American Water: Filter Replacement Complete, No Trace of MCHM	West Virginia American Water has replaced its filters and no longer detects chemicals that spilled into its water distribution system in January. A...	Thu June 12, 2014	Associated Press
State Making Progress in Reducing Prison Population	It's only been a little over a year since Governor Tomblin signed the Justice Reinvestment Act into law, but the state is already seeing results in...	Thu June 12, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. High Court to Reconsider Jail Rape Case	The West Virginia Supreme Court is reconsidering its ruling over a lawsuit alleging a male correctional officer repeatedly raped a female inmate.	Thu June 12, 2014	Associated Press
GlaxoSmithKline, W.Va. Settle Lawsuit	GlaxoSmithKline LLC has agreed to pay West Virginia $22 million to settle a lawsuit alleging it illegally marketed three diabetic drugs. The drug...	Thu June 12, 2014	Associated Press
Coal Co. Pays Owed Property Taxes to McDowell County	A Russian-owned coal company has agreed to pay $800,000 in back taxes to McDowell County. The money comes after the Sheriff's Department filed a suit...	Thu June 12, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Duck and Cover, Because "The Blob" is Coming to FestivALL	In September 1958, The Blob, an independent horror, science-fiction film was released by Paramount Pictures and Umbrella Entertainment. Starring Steve	Thu June 12, 2014	Liz McCormick
Reclaiming the Abandoned: Ohio Valley Grows Local Food Economy	Like many towns across much of the state, Wheeling is home to a lot of abandoned, depressed, impoverished areas susceptible to crime and drug...	Thu June 12, 2014	Glynis Board
12 Young Authors Selected as Local Winners in PBS KIDS Writers Contest	12 Young Authors Selected as Local Winners of the PBS Kids Writers Contest Twelve young authors from West Virginia have been selected as local winners...	Thu June 12, 2014	Shawn Patterson

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Tennis Great Tracy Austin Returns to West Virginia	Tennis Pro Tracy Austin returned to Charleston this week. It was her first visit since winning a tournament in West Virginia's capital city in 1978...	Thu June 12, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Freedom Industries Tank Demolition to Begin Before End of June	Demolition of the steel tanks at the Freedom Industries tank farm along the Elk River is expected to begin before the end of the month. Gov. Tomblin	Thu June 12, 2014	Beth Vorhees
College Students Visit C. Edwards School of Medicine at Marshall	Joan College students from all over the region visited Marshall of this week to find out if the field of medicine was meant for them. That's Chuck Clements...	Thu June 12, 2014	Clark Davis
The Law Works - War on Coal	For the past few years the United States has been involved in war with a rock. The rock in question is coal. And just like any civil war the...	Thu June 12, 2014	Dan Ringer
Marshall University Offering Science Camps This Summer	Faculty members from Marshall University are offering hands-on science exploration experiences for middle and high school students this summer. The...	Thu June 12, 2014	Associated Press
Two Enter Pleas in Connection with W.Va. Pain Clinic Overprescribing Case	A West Virginia mother and son have pleaded guilty in connection with a north-central West Virginia doctor accused of overprescribing painkillers....	Thu June 12, 2014	Associated Press
Mountaineer Seeks Approval to Reduce Horse Races	Mountaineer Casino, Racetrack & Resort is seeking state approval to reduce its horse racing schedule. The West Virginia Racing Commission will...	Thu June 12, 2014	Associated Press
New System Centralizes W.Va. Abuse, Neglect Cases	West Virginia officials have established a centralized system for reports of abuse and neglect. The state Department of Health and Human Resources	Thu June 12, 2014	Associated Press
State BOE Buys New Land at High Dollar, Fighting for Black Lung Benefits & More on Grow Ohio Valley	The West Virginia board of Education approves the purchase of land in Gilmer Co. to consolidate schools there but, it comes at a cost four times its	Thu June 12, 2014	Dave Mistich
Black Lung Patient Races Against Clock for Transplant, Company Stalls	Robert Bailey was a coal miner for 36 years. He began in McDowell County and after it became too hard to breathe, he retired from a mine owned by...	Thu June 12, 2014	Jessica Lilly
State BOE Approves Purchase of Land at Four Times Appraisal Value	The way a county handles the actual maintenance of existing and building of new schools is one of the major areas the state considers before taking...	Wed June 11, 2014	Ashton Marra
Mingo, Fayette Counties Get New Superintendents	When the state takes over a county, they appoint a new superintendent, but, like many in the education field, those superintendents are drawing...	Wed June 11, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Feds Seek Plea Hearings in Arch Coal Kickback Case	Federal prosecutors are seeking plea hearings for 10 men accused of participating in a kickback scheme at an Arch Coal mine in West Virginia...	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
Judge Nixes W.Va. Plans for Fixing Psychiatric Hospitals	A Kanawha County judge has rejected a state agency's plan to address issues at West Virginia's two psychiatric hospitals. The judge on Wednesday...	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
Hear Rodney Crowell Perform "Moving Work of Art" This Week's Mountain Stage	One of roots music's most respected singer-songwriters, Rodney Crowell returns to this week's premiere broadcast of Mountain Stage, with special...	Wed June 11, 2014	Josh Saul
Summer Program Brings Free, Nutritious Meals to Children	During the fall and spring school sessions, thousands of West Virginia schoolchildren are fed both breakfast and lunch as part of the School...	Wed June 11, 2014	Liz McCormick
W.Va. BOE Approves Calhoun Co. Teacher Personnel Pay Cut	Cuts to salaries for teachers and school service personnel were approved by the state Board of Education Wednesday for one county whose bottom line...	Wed June 11, 2014	Ashton Marra
DEP Environmental Quality Board to Hear Concerns About Lochghelly Waste Permit/Site	On Thursday the DEP Environmental Quality Board is expected to hear arguments from Tom Rist and the Rist Law Office is representing the Natural...	Wed June 11, 2014	Jessica Lilly
West Virginia Coal Prep Plant Fined $72K for Slurry Spill	A West Virginia coal prep plant faces more than $72,200 in fines for spilling slurry into an eastern Kanawha County creek in February. The state	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
Was This Fayette County Waste Pit Leaking?	Danny Webb Construction began shutting down above ground pits last month in Fayette County that held oil and gas waste. The waste likely came from	Wed June 11, 2014	Jessica Lilly
AEP Subsidiary Seeks Approval to Build Line in Southern W.Va.	An American Electric Power subsidiary is asking state regulators to approve a transmission line that the company wants to build in Boone and Raleigh	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
Manchin to Obama: Withdraw Troops from Afghanistan	U.S. Sen. Joe Manchin is opposing President Barack Obama's plan to keep 9,800 American troops in Afghanistan after 2014. In a letter Monday, the	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
More Than 50,000 Without Power in West Virginia	More than 50,000 customers remain without electricity after severe thunderstorms rolled through West Virginia. Appalachian Power says on its website...	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

West Virginia Online Tank Registration Now Open	Above-ground storage tanks can now be registered online to comply with a West Virginia law inspired by a January chemical spill. Owners have to...	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
Veterans Affairs Investigates Air Concerns at Greenbrier Clinic	A Veterans Affairs outpatient clinic in Greenbrier County is temporarily closed after several employees became ill. Dr. Wayne McBride with the...	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
Pseudoephedrine Sales Decline in W.Va.	Pseudoephedrine sales in West Virginia are down 30 percent this year compared to the same five-month period in 2013. Data from the NPLeX tracking...	Wed June 11, 2014	Associated Press
Is a Fayette Co. Waste Pit Dangerous?, The Future of New Power Plants in W.Va. & More	An update on a Fayette County waste pit, as DEP data suggests that before the pit was shut down, it had been leaking. Thereâ€™s been much deliberation...	Wed June 11, 2014	Dave Mistich
Will West Virginia Ever See A New Coal-Fired Power Plant?	Thereâ€™s been much deliberation over the last week regarding new Environmental Protection Agency proposals for regulating coal fired power plant...	Tue June 10, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Benwood Councilman Left Off Ballot Declared Winner	A Benwood councilman whose name was left off the ballot has won his re-election bid. The City Council unanimously voted Monday to declare Curtis...	Tue June 10, 2014	Associated Press
Federal Judge Puts W.Va. Gay Marriage Suit on Hold	A federal judge has put a lawsuit challenging West Virginia's ban on same-sex marriage on hold until a federal appeals court decides a similar...	Tue June 10, 2014	Associated Press
Court OKs Sanctions Against Kanawha Co. Magistrate	The West Virginia Supreme Court has approved sanctions against a Kanawha County magistrate who admitted he mishandled a domestic violence petition....	Tue June 10, 2014	Associated Press
Ex-Mingo Prosecutor's Sentencing Rescheduled Again	Former Mingo County prosecutor Michael Sparks' sentencing on corruption charges has been rescheduled again. Sparks was slated to be sentenced June 16...	Tue June 10, 2014	Associated Press
Wyoming County Launching New Drug Court Program	Wyoming County is instituting an adult drug court program aimed at stemming abuse. The Register-Herald reports that the new program is expected to be	Tue June 10, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Legislative Study Topics Released	West Virginia lawmakers will study 76 wide-ranging topics in committee meetings that lead up to their annual legislative session in January. This...	Tue June 10, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Grow Ohio Valley Expands in Wheeling, Beckley LGBT Center Tackles Big Issues & More	Grow Ohio Valley is a new non-profit looking to help revitalize Wheeling. A new gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender center on North Eisenhower...	Tue June 10, 2014	Dave Mistich
TV Special Showcases 30 Years of Mountain Stage	Three decades of weekly musical performances adds up to a lot of memories. Join West Virginia Public Broadcasting as it celebrates some of those...	Tue June 10, 2014	Shawn Patterson
West Virginia Public Theatre Enters Its 30th Year	West Virginia Public Theatre is getting ready to open in Morgantown, for its 30th season. This non-profit theatre has had quite a story. It began...	Mon June 9, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Group Weighs in on APCo's Bid for W.Va. Power Plant	West Virginia Citizen Action Group is asking state regulators to postpone a ruling on Appalachian Power's request to acquire the remaining portion...	Mon June 9, 2014	Associated Press
The Rock of Our Development Department	In each of our lives, we have a rock, someone we can depend on when times get tough. You know what I'm talking about: the eye of the hurricane, the...	Mon June 9, 2014	Scott Finn
Wait Time at Clarksburg VA Averages 54 Days	The wait time for new patients seeking a primary care doctor at the VA Center in Clarksburg, West Virginia, is 54 days - nearly four times what the	Mon June 9, 2014	Associated Press
McDowell Still Recovering from Flood	Although all roads are passable, emergency services in McDowell County are still working to clean up the mess after recent flooding. Heavy rains...	Mon June 9, 2014	Jared Kline
Former Mingo Judge Sentenced to 50 Months in Prison	A former Mingo County judge has been sentenced to 50 months in prison for federal corruption charges. Michael Thornsby was sentenced Monday in U.S.	Mon June 9, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia: The Road To Statehood Nominated For Emmy	West Virginia: The Road to Statehood, which premiered on West Virginia PBS last June, has been nominated for a regional Emmy Award in the Ohio Valley	Mon June 9, 2014	Shawn Patterson
W.Va. to Launch Summer Food Program Wednesday	A federal program that provides free meals to lower-income children during the summer will kick off in West Virginia this week.	Mon June 9, 2014	Associated Press
Three W.Va. Airports Received Grants for Improvements	Three airports in Southern West Virginia have been awarded federal grants to improve airfield infrastructure.	Mon June 9, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Broadband Council to Disband at End of Year	West Virginia's Broadband Deployment Council plans to disband at the end of year.	Mon June 9, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Huntington to Participate in WiFi Pilot Program	Huntington is participating in a pilot program that will give the city free WiFi access for one year.	Mon June 9, 2014	Associated Press
Harvard and Syracuse Map Air Benefits, WVU and Downstream Strategies Evaluate EPA Rules, & More	Together, Harvard and Syracuse Universities have released a study that maps potential air quality benefits based on the Environmental Protection...	Mon June 9, 2014	Dave Mistich
One Professor is Asking: Should WVU Spend Millions to Fix Up its Football Stadium?	Close your eyes for a moment and imagine what you would do with seventy-five million dollars. Better yet, close your eyes again and imagine how much	Mon June 9, 2014	Michael Blumenthal
New Raleigh Group Hopes to Unite West Virginia Gay Population	There are several organizations in West Virginia that advocate on behalf of the lesbian, gay, bi-sexual and transgender community. Now, a new center...	Mon June 9, 2014	Jared Kline
Harvard/Syracuse Study: West Virginia Among Those to Benefit Most from Proposed Carbon Regulations	The Harvard School of Public Health together with Syracuse University released a study of potential air quality benefits based on the first-of-their-...	Sun June 8, 2014	Glynis Board
Reaction to Proposed EPA Regs, Making Lawns Healthier for Waterways, Growing Hemp in Ky. and More	Pennsylvania coal miners mull over the proposed new EPA carbon rules. Solar Power is too expensive for many non-profits but a West Virginia...	Fri June 6, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Downstream Strategies, WVU Center to Work on EPA Regulation Report	West Virginia University's Center for Energy and Sustainable Development is working with Downstream Strategies on a new report, analyzing how West	Fri June 6, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Morrisey: Federal Regulators Have No Authority for Emissions Rule	West Virginia Attorney General Patrick Morrisey says for federal regulators don't have authority to implement a wide-reaching scale-back on carbon...	Fri June 6, 2014	Associated Press
WV PBS Documentary Earns Regional Emmy Nomination	West Virginia: The Road to Statehood, which premiered on West Virginia PBS last June, has been nominated for a regional Emmy Award in the Ohio Valley	Fri June 6, 2014	Robin Mazza
W.Va. State Police Graduates 64th Cadet Class	The West Virginia State Police officially gained 27 new troopers Friday after graduation ceremonies at West Virginia State University.Members of the...	Fri June 6, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Hinton Power Boat Race Brings Participants One Step Closer to National Championship	For the third year in a row, the American Power Boat Association (APBA) hosted its annual Junior North American Championship and Pro Eastern...	Fri June 6, 2014	Jared Kline
Spring Turkey Kills Down in W.Va.	The Division of Natural Resources says West Virginia hunters bagged 9,017 bearded turkeys this spring, down 19 percent from the previous year. DNR...	Fri June 6, 2014	Associated Press
Court: Mountaintop Removal Mines Polluted Streams	A federal judge has ruled that two Alpha Natural Resources mountaintop removal mines in southern West Virginia illegally polluted streams. U.S....	Fri June 6, 2014	Associated Press
Girl Scouts Campaign Pushes for Change	Having more women as leaders in our community is what Girls Scouts of the USA strive for, and yesterday afternoon, the Black Diamond Council, who...	Fri June 6, 2014	Liz McCormick
Grants Available for Storm-Damaged Historical Sites in W.Va.	Grants are available for West Virginia historic and archeological sites in counties affected by Hurricane Sandy. The West Virginia Division of...	Fri June 6, 2014	Associated Press
The Law Works - FOIA	Freedom of information acts, were enacted for the purpose of providing information about the workings of government and the acts of public officials...	Fri June 6, 2014	Dan Ringer
Health Insurance Coverage Increases in W.Va.	The number of West Virginians getting health insurance through two programs has increased more than in almost any other state since Medicaid was...	Fri June 6, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Regulators OK Release of Frontier Broadband Funds	West Virginia regulators have approved the release of $8.21 million from an account Frontier Communications established in 2010 to expand broadband	Fri June 6, 2014	Associated Press
Worry Over EPA Rules, Danny Boyd's 'Carbon', Girl Scouts Talk Future & 'Keb Mo' on Mountain Stage	Coal miners in the state's southern coalfields worry about their jobs in light of the EPA's Clean Power Plan. Filmmaker, writer, and graphic novelist	Fri June 6, 2014	Dave Mistich
EPA Proposal Worries Those in W.Va. Coalfields	Corey Meadows has been working as a coal miner for eight years. In coalfield counties like Logan, Wyoming and McDowell Workforce data shows coal is...	Fri June 6, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Graphic Novel Mythologizes Southern West Virginia, Criticizes Impact of Coal Industry	West Virginia writer and filmmaker Danny Boyd's™s latest graphic novel Carbon tells the story of an ancient race of people and their effect on the coal	Fri June 6, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Are You Happily Confused?	Do you feel happy today? How about happily disgusted? Maybe sadly surprised, or sadly disgusted? Human emotions are complex. But at least theyâ€™re the	Thu June 5, 2014	Teresa Wills
State BOE One Step Closer to Hiring New Superintendent	After nearly a year since beginning the process of a nationwide search, members of the West Virginia State Board of Education say theyâ€™re getting...	Thu June 5, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. Ethics Commission Votes to Fire Executive Director	The West Virginia Ethics Commission voted to fire its executive director and gave no reason for her termination. The commission's 5-4 vote Thursday...	Thu June 5, 2014	Associated Press
Marshall Receives Grant for Cancer Research	Marshall University has received a $432,369 federal grant for cancer research. The three-year grant from the National Cancer Institute will be used...	Thu June 5, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Concealed Permit Holders Exempt from Background Checks	West Virginians who obtain concealed handgun permits won't have to undergo additional background checks when they buy firearms from licensed dealers.	Thu June 5, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Board Expected to Vote on Tuition Increases	West Virginia University's Board of Governors is considering a proposed 8 percent tuition increase for in-state students. Tuition for out-of-state	Thu June 5, 2014	Associated Press
Researchers Recommend Testing of 720 Homes Affected by Elk River Spill	An independent research group suggests sampling water in 720 West Virginia homes for a chemical that spilled into the water supply in January....	Thu June 5, 2014	Associated Press
Diversifying with Solar, Monongahela National Forest Gets Help to Combat Threats, & More	A Shepherdstown-based company looks to diversify West Virginia's economy by focusing on solar energy. The Monongahela National Forest gets a new...	Thu June 5, 2014	Dave Mistich
New Organization Wants to Put Solar Panels on Non-Profit Buildings Across West Virginia	The Shepherdstown Presbyterians meet in a circa-1836 brick building that sits just across the street from the townâ€™s post office- about two blocks...	Wed June 4, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Hear Keb' Mo' perform "Worst is Yet to Come" Live on Mountain Stage	The Singer-songwriter Kevin Moore first visited Mountain Stage nearly 20 years ago, around the same time he adopted the stage name of "Keb' Mo.'" In the...	Wed June 4, 2014	Josh Saul
Water Crisis Brings Theater Event to Charleston	Theater has often been a means to convey a particular message. Since ancient times, it has been used to teach lessons, understand important events,...	Wed June 4, 2014	Liz McCormick

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Six Charged in Riot at Wood County Juvenile Facility	Six residents of a Parkersburg juvenile facility are facing charges after State Police say they assaulted correctional officers and other residents...	Wed June 4, 2014	Ashton Marra
Roger Morillo: "My work is my passion."	Walking into Roger Morillo's shop in St. Albans, you cannot help but feel a tinge of excitement. Here is a place where not only valuable instrument...	Wed June 4, 2014	Jim Lange
Monongahela National Forest Gets New Federal Designation	The West Virginia Division of Forestry just got a major tool to help combat forest disease and invasive species. Through an act of congress, the	Wed June 4, 2014	Glynis Board
Judge Denies Some Reimbursements in Bankruptcy Case	A judge won't let the West Virginia company at the center of a January chemical spill reimburse its legal team for sending multiple lawyers to...	Wed June 4, 2014	Associated Press
Feds Seek Lengthy Sentence for Ex-Mingo Judge	Federal prosecutors say a former Mingo County judge should receive a lengthy sentence because he abused his power and damaged the county's judicial...	Wed June 4, 2014	Associated Press
Marshall, WVU to Work Together on Higher Education Issues	The presidents of West Virginia's two largest public universities say the only rivalry between the schools will be in athletics. Marshall University	Wed June 4, 2014	Associated Press
Prosecutor Named for W.Va. Family Judge's Case	A special prosecutor has been appointed to handle the battery case against a Kanawha County family court judge. The West Virginia Prosecuting...	Wed June 4, 2014	Associated Press
PSC Conducting Inspections of Commercial Vehicles	The Public Service Commission is conducting a three-day safety check of commercial vehicles on West Virginia highways. The PSC's Transportation...	Wed June 4, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Man Charged with Scamming Veterans Administration for Drugs	A Bridgeport man has been charged with falsifying documents to inflate his Veterans Administration disability benefits and with fraudulently...	Wed June 4, 2014	Associated Press
More Perspective on the EPA's Proposed Rules & Kate Long Wants West Virginia to 'Try This'	The Union of Concerned Scientists supports the EPA's proposed rules on carbon emissions, while officials with The American Coalition for Clean Coal	Wed June 4, 2014	Dave Mistich
Try This: Building Healthier Communities	For years now, we've reported on the state's many health issues. We've done stories about childhood obesity, the prevalence of heart disease and...	Wed June 4, 2014	Beth Vorhees

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

JPMorgan Chase Settles Antitrust Case in W.Va.	West Virginia's attorney general has reached a $400,000 settlement with JPMorgan Chase over allegations of antitrust law violations. Attorney General	Tue June 3, 2014	Associated Press
Scientist Calls Proposed EPA Standards 'Modest' and Good First Step	Since this week's announcement from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency proposing new regulations that will require states to cut carbon dioxide	Tue June 3, 2014	Ashton Marra
Coal Official: EPA Proposals are Overstepping Its Authority	Mike Duncan is the President and CEO of the American Coalition for Clean Coal and Electricity. He's disappointed in these proposals on carbon...	Tue June 3, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Judge OKs Demolition of West Virginia Spill Site	A bankruptcy judge has initially approved plans for the company at the center of a January chemical spill to demolish its storage tanks.	Tue June 3, 2014	Associated Press
Bridgeport Mayor Indicted on Federal Drug Charges	Bridgeport Mayor Mario Blount has been indicted on federal drug charges. U.S. Attorney William J. Ihlenfeld II says the 51-year-old Blount was...	Tue June 3, 2014	Associated Press
23 W.Va. Cities Apply for 16 Home Rule Slots	More than 20 West Virginia cities are seeking to participate in a program that would give them a larger say in how they govern.	Tue June 3, 2014	Associated Press
US Army Moving Recruiting Center from W.Va. to Va.	The U.S. Army is moving its recruiting center in Beckley to Virginia. The U.S. Army Recruiting Command's relocation to Richmond, Virginia, is...	Tue June 3, 2014	Associated Press
DMV Says New Laws Will Affect W.Va. Motorists	The West Virginia Division of Motor Vehicles says some changes in laws will affect motorists starting this week.	Tue June 3, 2014	Associated Press
EPA's Clean Power Plan: Reactions from Lawmakers, The Coal Industry, Unions, and Environmentalists	After the EPA announced its Clean Power Plan Monday--aiming to reduce carbon emissions by 30 percent by 2030 based on figures from 2005--we bring...	Tue June 3, 2014	Dave Mistich
WVU, Marshall Presidents Meeting in Huntington	The presidents of Marshall and West Virginia universities are getting together to discuss the state's higher education issues.	Tue June 3, 2014	Associated Press
UMWA Joins Coal Industry to Oppose EPA Regs	The United Mine Workers of America is joining the coal industry in a rare occasion to oppose proposed regulations meant to curb carbon emissions. The	Mon June 2, 2014	Jessica Lilly
New EPA Rules Still Unclear to W.Va. Officials	The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency proposed new carbon-emission rules Monday that aim to cut carbon dioxide releases from coal fired power...	Mon June 2, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Five Facts About West Virginia's Coal, Energy, and Carbon Emissions	With the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency unveiling proposed rules aimed to reduce carbon emissions by 2030, many questions remain about the... Downstream Strategies	Mon June 2, 2014	Dave Mistich
President on Proposed EPA Rules: 'This is A Watershed Moment'	After months of speculation, the Environmental Protection Agency finally released its new proposals on existing coal fire power plants today. The EPA	Mon June 2, 2014	Ben Adducchio
The Trust for America's Health Says Yes to EPA's Proposal	The Trust for America's Health, a non-profit, non-partisan organization in Washington D.C. working to make disease prevention a national priority,...	Mon June 2, 2014	Liz McCormick
Coal Industry, Miners Concerned Over EPA Rules	The coal industry is worried that the Environmental Protection Agency's newly proposed regulations on carbon emissions will cripple the nation's coal	Mon June 2, 2014	Jessica Lilly
W.Va. Schools for Deaf and Blind Students Protest Worker Policy	Some students at the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and Blind are protesting a new policy that requires child care workers at the school to have...	Mon June 2, 2014	Associated Press
McDowell Workers Shortfall	Eight McDowell County employees have been laid off as the county struggles to plug a budget hole. The layoffs include Delegate Clif Moore, who is an	Mon June 2, 2014	Associated Press
Two W.Va. Medical Centers Receive Federal Grants	Two medical centers in West Virginia have been awarded federal grants to improve services and continue operations. Minnie Hamilton Health Care...	Mon June 2, 2014	Associated Press
Brody Mine Deaths Ignite Old Safety Concerns	It's been more than two weeks since 48-year-old Eric Legg, of Twilight and 46-year-old Gary Hensley, of Chapmanville, died in a Boone County mine....	Mon June 2, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Infographic: House's Plan to Fight Climate Change	The White On Monday, the Environmental Protection Agency released a plan to cut carbon pollution by 30 percent from coal-fired power plants by the year 2030....	Mon June 2, 2014	Dave Mistich
Safety Concerns Over Mining, A Honeybee Heaven & Handbells Ring in Spring	The method of mining that recently killed two men in a Boone County mine isn't the only safety concern. While Honeybee Colony Collapse Disorder is	Mon June 2, 2014	Dave Mistich
Want to Help West Virginia Gardening Tips	While Honeybee Colony Collapse Disorder (CCD) is relatively uncommon in West Virginia, bees and pollinators are still threatened in the region and...	Sun June 1, 2014	Glynis Board

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

The Head and the Heart Appearing on Mountain Stage Today	This just in - fresh off their appearance at Nelsonville, the "special unannounced band" that will be performing at today's Mountain Stage event in	Sun June 1, 2014	Josh Saul
Opposition to New Black Lung Regs, A Kentucky Banjo Legend, Helping the Birds & Bees, and More	Efforts to combat black lung disease draw criticism. Meet Kentucky banjo player Lee Sexton. A look at efforts in Kentucky and Pennsylvania to save the	Sat May 31, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Rafters Report New River, WVDEP Searching Area	A Department of Environmental Protection inspector is searching for an oily substance reported on the New River. Update at 3:51 p.m. ET June 6, 2014...	Fri May 30, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Manchin: Israel and Palastine Need to Find "Pathway to Peace"	Senator Joe Manchin is wrapping up a six day tour of Israel and the West Bank, meeting with political and spiritual leaders along the way.	Fri May 30, 2014	Ashton Marra
Ten Charged in Logan County Extortion Scheme	Federal charges have been filed against ten southern West Virginia men in connection with a pay-to-play scheme at a Logan County mine. U.S....	Fri May 30, 2014	Ashton Marra
Mine Operator Proposes Alternate Shaft Location	A coal mine operator has proposed an alternate location for a ventilation shaft near Grafton's Tygart Lake State Park after residents and park...	Fri May 30, 2014	Associated Press
The Law Works - State Budget	Do you have a budget? How do you create it? Is it easy to follow? The State of West Virginia has a budget. It is not easy to create, and it is not...	Fri May 30, 2014	Dan Ringer
The War On Coal Miners: How Companies Hide The Threat Of Black Lung From Watchdogs And Workers	Cheating on dust samples has been something of an open secret in the coal industry for years, a fact acknowledged by MSHA. Miners themselves play...	Fri May 30, 2014	Jessica Lilly
W.Va. Bicyclist Charged With Operating Backpack Lab	McDowell County Sheriff's Office says a 31-year-old bicyclist has been charged with operating a meth lab that deputies say was contained in his...	Fri May 30, 2014	Associated Press
MSHA Nationwide Result in Violations	Federal impact inspections at U.S. mine operations in April resulted in 147 citations and 15 orders. The Mine Safety and Health Administration...	Fri May 30, 2014	Associated Press
Report: State Lottery Revenues Down $94 Million from 2013	West Virginia lottery revenues are on pace to finish behind last fiscal year. A report given to the state Lottery Commission on Thursday shows gross	Fri May 30, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

A Mission Against Heroin, WV's Young Entrepreneur of the Year and an Amy Ray Performance	In the final part of our series on heroin abuse in the state, a Northern Panhandle woman tries to combat the drug in her community. West Virginia's...	Fri May 30, 2014	Ashton Marra
$1 Million W.Va. Arson Scheme Sees Three More Sentenced	Three more defendants in a $1 million arson insurance scheme in Logan have been sentenced to prison.	Fri May 30, 2014	Associated Press
US Agency Rejects Funding for W.Va. Water Projects	Proposals to fund drinking water projects in four West Virginia counties have been rejected by federal regulators.	Fri May 30, 2014	Associated Press
Shake it - a modern Polaroid love story	Can you hear it? Click, whir, wait, shake - ahhhh! Listen Thursday night at 9 p.m. on West Virginia Public Radio, Shake it- a modern Polaroid love...	Thu May 29, 2014	Teresa Wills
One Woman's Mission Against Heroin Addiction	Editor's Note: This week we have been airing a series of stories concerning heroin, and the problems itâ€™s creating in the state. Today we conclude...	Thu May 29, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Senator Rockefeller, Honored in Fight Against Alzheimer's	Alzheimerâ€™s disease takes its toll on thousands of American families every year. It is something that many of us face and one particular person was...	Thu May 29, 2014	Liz McCormick
Huntington Entrepreneur Follows Steps to Successful Business	Bridget Rowsey, owner of Bridgetâ€™s Dance Academy in Huntington, was named the stateâ€™s Young Entrepreneur of the Year by the West Virginia Small...	Thu May 29, 2014	Clark Davis
Hear Amy Ray Play "Duane Allman" on Mountain Stage	Indigo Girl Amy Ray visits Mountain Stage this week, with songs from her latest solo release. Growing up in Georgia, The Allman Brothers were one of...	Thu May 29, 2014	Josh Saul
Control of W.Va. Courtesy Patrol Will Remain in Same Hands	The West Virginia Courtesy Patrol's longtime operator has been awarded a new one-year contract. Citizens Conservation Corps of West Virginia was one...	Thu May 29, 2014	Associated Press
DEP Halts Drilling Waste Disposal in Bridgeport	West Virginia regulators want to know how drilling sludge rejected by a landfill in Pennsylvania wound up in a landfill in Bridgeport. Department of	Thu May 29, 2014	Associated Press
DEP Creating Tank Rules, Solutions for Heroin Abuse in W.Va. and a Video Focused on Local Artists	The state Department of Environmental Protection has released a website that will soon house new regulations for above ground storage tanks. For now...	Thu May 29, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

PSC Orders to Stop Estimating Bills	PowerThe state Public Service Commission has ordered Mon Power and Potomac Edison to implement monthly meter readings and billings following customer...	Thu May 29, 2014	Associated Press
Mingo Co. School Administrators Removed After Students Charged with Sexual Assault	West Virginia's attorney general says some school administrators have been reassigned after a lawsuit claimed they brushed aside allegations that two...	Thu May 29, 2014	Associated Press
What Are The Solutions To Solving The State's Heroin Problem?	There were few heroin deaths in West Virginia in 2001. Thatâ€™s about the time William Ihlenfeld started working as a prosecutor in the stateâ€™s legal...	Wed May 28, 2014	Ben Adducchio
USDA Funds Sent to Logan PSD	Residents served by the Logan County Public Service District are expected to see improvements to water systems. Funds announced Wednesday are...	Wed May 28, 2014	Jared Kline
MSHA to Conduct Safety Talks at U.S. Mines	In the wake of 20 U.S. mining fatalities since October, federal regulators are stepping up safety discussions with the nation's mines. The Mine...	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Supreme Court Denies Request to Suspend Prosecutor's License	The West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals has denied a request to temporarily suspend the law license of Kanawha County Prosecutor Mark Plants and...	Wed May 28, 2014	Ashton Marra
EPA Selects W.Va. for $1M in Brownfields Grants	Federal environmental regulators have picked five West Virginia projects to receive $1 million in brownfields grants.	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Turnpike Memorial Day Traffic Increases	The West Virginia Turnpike saw an increase in Memorial Day weekend traffic compared to the 2013 holiday period. West Virginia Parkways Authority...	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Inmate Dies After Altercation at Jail	West Virginia State Police are investigating the death of a Southern Regional Jail inmate following an altercation with another prisoner. Department...	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Storage Tank Website Up and Running	Members of the public now have full access to comments collected by the state Department of Environmental Protection on a newly passed law. That law	Wed May 28, 2014	Ashton Marra
The Law Works - Stream Mitigation	There is much discussion in West Virginia, and elsewhere, about damage to streams and other wetlands as a result of coal mining and other mineral	Wed May 28, 2014

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

State Spring Turkey Hunting Season Has Zero Incidents	Division of Natural Resources officials say no fatalities or injuries were reported during the spring turkey hunting season in West Virginia for the...	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
Manchin Visits Israel, Meets With Officials	Senator Joe Manchin is visiting Israel this week to meet with senior government officials and business and energy leaders.	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
College Savings Event Planned in Charleston	School may be out or winding down in West Virginia, but state Treasurer John Perdue wants parents to think about investing in their children's future	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
NJ Man Pleads No Contest in WVU Frat Hazing	A Thursday sentencing is set for a New Jersey man who pleaded no contest to hazing at a West Virginia University fraternity. Michael Sousa entered...	Wed May 28, 2014	Associated Press
The Realities of Heroin Addiction and Recovery, Concord Athlete Finishes Decorated Career & More	Addiction to heroin is a difficult cross to bear for many seeking treatment, but they also have hope. Although Concord University senior Shawnee...	Wed May 28, 2014	Dave Mistich
Morgantown Restaurant Agrees to "Show More Skin"	Over the Memorial Day weekend in north-central West Virginia, a lot of skin was on display in one restaurant. But it might not be the skin youâ€™re...	Wed May 28, 2014	Glynis Board
Concord Student Claims Sixth All-American Honor at National Championships	Concord University senior runner Shawnee Carnett claimed her sixth All American honor this past weekend. Although Carnettâ€™s last steps in outdoor 800...	Tue May 27, 2014	Jessica Lilly
'It's Like Playing Russian Roulette With Your Life'---The Struggle With Heroin Addiction	Editor's Note: West Virginia Public Radio is airing a four part series on heroin addiction in West Virginia. The number of deaths attributed to...	Tue May 27, 2014	Ben Adducchio
2014 Vandalia Award Goes to Logan Native	The Vandalia Award, West Virginiaâ€™s highest folklife honor, was presented to singer, songwriter and performer Roger Bryant last week at the 38th...	Tue May 27, 2014	Liz McCormick
Virginia Jury Awards $5A Million in Massey Contract Dispute	A Southwest Virginia jury has awarded $5 million to a defunct coal company and its owner in their long-running legal battle with Massey Energy over a	Tue May 27, 2014	Associated Press
New Playground Just a Step in Revitalization of Huntington Riverfront	A new playground at Harris Riverfront Park in Huntington could serve as the beginning of a revitalized riverfront. Huntington Mayor Steve Williams...	Tue May 27, 2014	Clark Davis

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Police Arrest 49 During Ohio County Patrol Blitz	Law enforcement officers made 49 felony and misdemeanor arrests and issued 82 citations during a patrol blitz in Ohio County. The Mountaineer Highway	Tue May 27, 2014	Associated Press
Esa's Apple	Conductor/composer Esa-Pekka Salonen has a new series of short videos for Apple's iPad Air. When I saw one of them on TV, I about jumped out of my...	Tue May 27, 2014
W.Va. Capitol Appeals Firing Facebook Post	Officer A Capitol police officer is appealing his firing over a post he made on Facebook. The Public Employees Grievance Board has scheduled a grievance...	Tue May 27, 2014	Associated Press
CTCs Helping Students Get Out of 'Quicksand'	Community and technical colleges have started noticing a developmental trend that's consistent not just here in West Virginia, but across the country. That trend:	Tue May 27, 2014	Ashton Marra
Number of W.Va. Cities Seeking Home Rule Grows	The number of cities seeking to participate in West Virginia's Municipal Home Rule Program is growing. WDTV reports that Shinnston City Council voted	Tue May 27, 2014	Associated Press
Campus Improvements Underway at West Virginia Wesleyan	Construction of a new welcome center and several renovation projects are underway at West Virginia Wesleyan College. The projects are scheduled to be	Tue May 27, 2014	Associated Press
Two Bids Submitted to Run W.Va. Courtesy Patrol	State highways officials are evaluating two bids for a contract to operate the West Virginia Courtesy Patrol. The bidders are the patrol's longtime	Tue May 27, 2014	Associated Press
Food Stamp Use Increases in West Virginia	A new report says West Virginia is one of seven states to see an increase in the number of residents receiving benefits through the Supplemental...	Tue May 27, 2014	Associated Press
Heroin Continues Its Grip on West Virginia & CTC System Helps Students in Developmental Courses	A recent Associated Press news story revealed heroin deaths in West Virginia have nearly doubled since 2010. Also, West Virginia's Community and...	Tue May 27, 2014	Dave Mistich
West Virginia Fighting a War Against Heroin Addiction, Overdose Deaths	Editor's Note: We are airing a four part series on West Virginia Public Radio, about the drug heroin and how it is affecting West Virginia. A recent	Mon May 26, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Morgan County Couple Wants You to Meet Local Artists	Many artists, crafts people and musicians have made Appalachia their home, contributing to the culture and economy. A Morgan County couple is...	Sun May 25, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Essayist Misses the Old Ways Of Communicating	Athena! I just found out that if I were a Greek goddess, I'd be Athena! A proud and insightful warrior. Or if I'm not Athena, maybe I was a royal...	Sun May 25, 2014	Cat Pleska

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

A Futuristic Library, Re-enacting the Matewan Massacres, Documenting W.Va. Art and More	A new school library in Wheeling, West Virginia, looks to the future. Also in West Virginia town of Matewan revisits its violent history. And an...	Sat May 24, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Leak Found at Fayette Frack Waste Site	Updated June 6, 2014 The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection says the leak occurred in a tank carrying oil and gas waste from the...	Fri May 23, 2014	Jessica Lilly
The Roots/Red Hot Chili Peppers: Blazing!	Special moments-performances which transcend the medium in which they are presented. Perhaps this is what we seek: those consummate performances that...	Fri May 23, 2014	Jim Lange
West Virginia's Congressional Delegation Split on Shinseki	While Senator Jay Rockefeller is standing by Veterans Affairs Secretary Eric Shinseki, Congressman Nick Rahall and Congresswoman Shelly Capito are...	Fri May 23, 2014	Suzanne Higgins
WVU Studies Probability of Mine Explosions, Fires	West Virginia University is creating a model to determine the probability of coal mine fires and explosions. The university's Statler College of	Fri May 23, 2014	Associated Press
Queen to Serve as Intergovernmental Affairs Director	Robby Queen will serve as the director of intergovernmental affairs for West Virginia Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin. Queen worked for Tomblin when he served as	Fri May 23, 2014	Associated Press
Regulators Seek Fines Against Morgantown Developer	West Virginia regulators are seeking daily fines of $25,000 against a Morgantown industrial park developer for alleged environmental violations. The	Fri May 23, 2014	Associated Press
A Look At The Magistrate Court System, The Wild Ramp Grows Into a New Home, & Robert Cray	Lawmakers heard a report this week on the state's magistrates system from a national group. In Huntington the Wild Ramp food market is moving to a...	Fri May 23, 2014	Dave Mistich
Rockefeller Says People Don't Like the President Because He's the Wrong Color	At a hearing about health care reform earlier this week, Sen. Jay Rockefeller said that legislation is stalled and progress is not being made in...	Fri May 23, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Lawmakers Receive Update on Magistrate Court Study	In between debating special session bills this week, lawmakers managed to have a few of their regularly scheduled interim meetings. During one of...	Fri May 23, 2014	Ashton Marra
BackStory: Memorials in America	BackStory with the American History Guys Monumental Disagreements: Memorials in America Thursday night at 9 p.m. on West Virginia Public Radio Edit	Thu May 22, 2014	Teresa Wills

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Tomblin: "I Will Veto Abortion Bill Again"	Governor Tomblin released a statement Thursday discouraging lawmakers from calling themselves into a special session to take up previously vetoed...	Thu May 22, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. Community Health System Awarded Grant	A Huntington-based community health system has received more than $5 million in federal funding to increase access to health care in underserved...	Thu May 22, 2014	Associated Press
Gov. Tomblin Announces $1.3 Million in Justice Grants	Gov. Tomblin is announcing more than one million dollars in grants for community-based substance abuse treatment and recovery service across West...	Thu May 22, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Gets A Golf Coach	Sean Covich will be the head coach of the men's golf program. The golf team will start competing in July 2015, according to a news release. Covich...	Thu May 22, 2014	Ben Adducchio
CDC Explains Rationale for MCHM Drinking Water Standard	In a letter to Congresswoman Shelley Moore Capito, federal health officials say they thought their drinking water standard established after the Elk...	Thu May 22, 2014	Associated Press
Photo: Meet The Bison Calf from the West Virginia Wildlife Center	The West Virginia Wildlife Center in French Creek has announced its newest resident: a female bison calf. The calf, born Friday, May 2, joins the...	Thu May 22, 2014	Dave Mistich
Deal Puts Kanawha Prosecutor Charges on Hold	Domestic charges against Kanawha County prosecutor Mark Plants will be dismissed if he completes a pre-trial diversion program. Plants' lawyer and	Thu May 22, 2014	Associated Press
Unopposed Benwood Councilman Left Off Ballot	A Benwood City Council member didn't have any opponents in this month's election. But his re-election is in doubt after his name was mistakenly left...	Thu May 22, 2014	Associated Press
Senator Raises Questions Over Funding Amendment, Wheeling School Builds Learning Lab & Matewan	The legislature passed seven bills in their special session that ended yesterday but, one senator questions whether one of those bills they passed is	Thu May 22, 2014	Dave Mistich
Robert Cray - "You Move Me" - Live from Mountain Stage	In addition to being one of America's foremost electric blues guitarists, Robert Cray's nimble vocals allow him to venture into R&B and rock...	Thu May 22, 2014	Josh Saul
Will Heritage Help Turn Matewan Around?	As part of the West Virginia Focus Magazine project called Turn This Town Around, experts with the West Virginia Community Development HUB are helping	Thu May 22, 2014	Jessica Lilly
In These Golden Years (wah wah wah)	"Run for the shadows, in these golden years." ~Bowie "And I have seen the eternal Footman hold my coat, and snicker, And in short, I was afraid." ~...	Thu May 22, 2014

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

MIT-Inspired Technology Enhanced Active Learning (TEAL) Lab Comes to High School in West Virginia	Wheeling Catholic High School has decided to take a page from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), and is renovating the school's library...	Wed May 21, 2014	Glynis Board
Senator Questions Reappropriation of Funds Legal	if Senator Herb Snyder of Jefferson County raised concerns with fellow members of the Senate Wednesday about funding cut from racetracks and moved to...	Wed May 21, 2014	Ashton Marra
Another Step Forward in Burwell Nomination	West Virginia native Sylvia Matthews Burwell's nomination to head the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services took one more step forward...	Wed May 21, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Elkins Couple Working to Preserve Appalachian Culture	Appalachia has a rich culture and history with music and stories passed down from generation to generation. But sometimes it's non-natives who are...	Wed May 21, 2014	Cecelia Mason
West Virginia Regulators to Investigate Water Company's Post-Spill Actions	The state Public Service Commission has ordered an investigation into West Virginia American Water's response to the Jan. 9 chemical spill in...	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia 22nd House District Primary Election Deadlocked	After last week's primary, two Democrats are locked in a tie to advance to a November election for the state House of Delegates. If recounts don't...	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
Camden Clark St. Joseph's Campus to Close in Nov.	Camden Clark Medical Center's St. Joseph's Campus will close in November due to declining inpatient demand. Sixty workers will be laid off and 163	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
Coming July 1 - Our Improved Weekend Radio Lineup	Our listeners have spoken, and we're listening at West Virginia Public Radio! Starting in July, we're making improvements to our weekend schedule,...	Wed May 21, 2014	Scott Finn
Mass. Lab Settles W.Va. Health Care Fraud Case	A Massachusetts clinical testing lab will pay the federal government more than $4 million to settle a health care fraud case in West Virginia. U.S.	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
Legislature Restores More Than $1 Million in Funding to Child & Family Programs	Updated on Wednesday: May 21, 2014 at 1:05 p.m.: The State Senate has concurred with the amendment and from the House and has passed the bill. The...	Wed May 21, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. Loses Appeal for Spill Disaster Declaration	Federal officials have denied Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin's appeal seeking a major disaster declaration for a January chemical spill that contaminated the...	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Eight W. Va. Museums Offering Free Admission to Military	WASHINGTON (AP) - More than 2,000 museums nationwide including eight in West Virginia are offering free admission to military personnel and their...	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Plant Faces Fines in Slurry Spill	West Virginia environmental regulators have proposed more than $21,000 in fines for a Kanawha County plant that spilled coal slurry into a creek. The	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
Officials of Former Mountain State Sue Commission	The former Mountain State University is suing an accrediting body over the loss of its accreditation. The lawsuit says the Higher Learning...	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
Martinsburg, Nitro To Try Home Rule	An Eastern Panhandle city and another city in the Kanawha Valley will seek to participate in the state's Municipal Home Rule Pilot Program. The...	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
Kentucky Cooperative to Offer Health Insurance in W. Va.	A Kentucky-based cooperative is preparing to enter West Virginia's health insurance marketplace. Kentucky Health Cooperative, Inc. says it has...	Wed May 21, 2014	Associated Press
Vigil for Funding of Child-Family Programs, 'What's Next, WV?', & Enriching Schools Through the Arts	Child and family advocates are continuing their push at the statehouse for the restoration of 800 thousand dollars in state funds. West Virginia...	Wed May 21, 2014	Dave Mistich
What's Next, West Virginia?	What's next for West Virginia? That's a question that will be posed to community members at meetings across the state in the coming months. The West	Wed May 21, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Charleston Targets Gun Group Over New Firearms Law	The city of Charleston is targeting a gun rights group to get court clarification on allowing firearms in some city recreational facilities. The city	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
Audit: Former Attorney General Spent $54K on Employee Tuition	An audit says former Attorney General Darrell McGraw's office reimbursed more than $54,000 for employee education without paying appropriate federal...	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
Wild Ramp Makes Move to Central City	The Wild Ramp Food Market will hold a grand opening ceremony Saturday at 9 a.m. as they celebrate a move to a new larger location. Since opening its...	Tue May 20, 2014	Clark Davis
House GOP: One More Day of Special Session	Lawmakers will spend one more day in a special session in part because of Republican members of the House. Delegates returned for morning floor...	Tue May 20, 2014	Ashton Marra
Child, Family Advocates Continue Fight Over State Budget	Child and family advocates are not giving up their fight to restore more than $800,000 in funding cut from service programs across the state. A...	Tue May 20, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Man Who Crashed Employer's Network Gets Four Years	A former network engineer for an oil and gas firm's Charleston office has been sentenced to four years in federal prison for intentionally causing...	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
Dept. of Agriculture Targets Rural Poverty in W.Va. and Va.	The U.S. Department of Agriculture is targeting rural poverty in West Virginia, Virginia and more than a dozen other states. Agriculture Secretary Tom	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Hospitals Names New President and CEO	A University of Pittsburgh Medical Center administrator has been named president and CEO of West Virginia University Hospitals. Dr. Albert L. Wright...	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Listing Animals Too Dangerous to Own	State officials want to ensure West Virginians aren't making pets out of animals better suited for Africa than Appalachia. State regulators are...	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
Kanawha Commission OKs Patriot Mine Runoff Study	The Kanawha County Commission has approved an engineering study of Patriot Coal's plan to treat runoff from two mines. Runoff from the mines near...	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
University Plans Charles Town Business Incubator	American Public University System plans to open a business incubator in Charles Town. The incubator will focus on information technology,...	Tue May 20, 2014	Associated Press
Burwell Vote Scheduled Wednesday	The Senate Finance Committee will vote Wednesday on whether to approve West Virginia Native Sylvia Matthews Burwell as the next Secretary of Health...	Tue May 20, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Lawmakers Review Bills from Previous Session, Impact of EPA's New Regulations, Documenting Fracking	Lawmakers decide to take more time to review bills, as they get called in for a special session. The Environmental Protection Agency's new...	Tue May 20, 2014	Dave Mistich
W.Va. Senate Confirms Gubernatorial Nominations	The state Senate Monday confirmed Gov. Tomblin's nominees for various position within the administration. There were nine in total including:...	Mon May 19, 2014	Ashton Marra
Lawmakers Take More Time to Complete Special Session Work	Lawmakers will return for a second day in an extraordinary session after some called for more time to consider last minute legislation. Senators...	Mon May 19, 2014	Ashton Marra
With New Regulations Coming, What's the Future for Coal?	The Environmental Protection Agency is going to be releasing new rules on carbon emissions from coal-fired power plants in the next few weeks. Itâ€™s...	Mon May 19, 2014	Ben Adducchio

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

W.Va. Regional Jail Authority is Looking for Feedback	The West Virginia Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority is taking a road trip so Authority members can get feedback from officials across...	Mon May 19, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Gov. Tomblin Calls Legislature Into Special Session	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has called the Legislature back into special session to deal with funding and other measures. The special session begins Monday....	Mon May 19, 2014	Associated Press
Burwell Progressing Through Senate	Nomination The Senate Finance Committee is expected to vote this week on whether to approve West Virginia native and current Office of Management and Budget...	Mon May 19, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Musical Tribute and Remembrance	America's finest military bands provide the musical continuity to this one-hour Memorial Day special presented by Bill Burkhardt, of WTIP North Shore	Mon May 19, 2014	Teresa Wills
MCHM Detected at Three Coal Preparation Plants	As Dave Boucher of The Charleston Daily Mail reports, MCHM--the same chemical involved in a January spill that tainted the water supply of some 300,...	Mon May 19, 2014	Dave Mistich
West Virginia Spent Extra $13.5 Million De-Icing Roads	West Virginia's top transportation official says the state spent $13.5 million more than it expected to clear snowy, icy roads this winter. But	Mon May 19, 2014	Associated Press
Cases Heard by Student Conduct Board Decline	WVU Student conduct cases at West Virginia University have declined. The Student Conduct Board heard 39 cases during the 2013-2014 academic year, and...	Mon May 19, 2014	Associated Press
Petition Seeks Removal of Nicholas Commissioners	A three-judge panel has been appointed to hear a petition seeking the removal of all three Nicholas County commissioners. State Supreme Court Chief	Mon May 19, 2014	Associated Press
Final Vote Set on Martinsburg Home Rule Proposal	Martinsburg's City Council plans to vote this week on whether the city will apply for the state's home rule program. A final vote is scheduled...	Mon May 19, 2014	Associated Press
Three Huntington Schools Join Child Obesity Awareness Campaign	Three schools in Huntington are participating in a national childhood obesity awareness campaign. The campaign kicks off Monday at Highlawn...	Mon May 19, 2014	Associated Press
Logan Schools in Jeopardy of Being Taken Over, Oil and Gas Waste in Raleigh Co. & Why I Stay	After two audits just this year and despite showing some signs of improvement, Logan County Schools are in jeopardy of being taken over by the state...	Mon May 19, 2014	Dave Mistich
Work Underway to Close Fayette Fracking Waste Pit	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection says materials from a pit holding waste of the oil and gas industry, including fracking...	Mon May 19, 2014	Jessica Lilly

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

W.Va. BOE: Logan Co. The West Virginia Board of Education has put Logan County Schools in Jeopardy of Schools on alert. The county is in jeopardy of state takeover Takeover if they can't turn things...	Sun May 18, 2014	Ashton Marra
When a Gift Keeps on Giving: Antiques Roadshow: Greatest Gifts, Monday May 19 at 9 p.m. on West Virginia PBS Have you ever received a special gift, an item handed down in the...	Sun May 18, 2014	Robin Mazza
Five Counties Approve Voters in five West Virginia counties have restored the right Sunday Hunting on Private to hunt on private land on Sundays. Unofficial returns show Land the measure was approved...	Sat May 17, 2014	Associated Press
Board Wants Lawsuit Tossed The state Board of Education is seeking the dismissal of a by Fired W.Va. Education lawsuit filed by former West Virginia Superintendent of Chief Schools Jorea Marple. Marple was...	Sat May 17, 2014	Associated Press
Carbon Capture, Drugs in Carbon Capture Technology could be the key to using coal Drinking Water, Feeding cleanly. What impact do drugs in drinking water have? A Senior Citizens and More national organization tackles senior	Sat May 17, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Two County Sweep in W.Va. Law enforcement authorities say more than 50 sex offenders Targets Sex Offender in Wirt and Wood counties are out of compliance with a Compliance federal registration and...	Fri May 16, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Bishop Calls for Restoration of Program Cuts The spiritual leader of West Virginia's Roman Catholic Church is urging state officials to restore funding the governor cut from some social services	Fri May 16, 2014	Associated Press
Mountain Stage This Weekend: ALL ACCESS, UPDATE: ALL ACCESS tickets have sold out. If you haven't Rodney Crowell, Infamous purchased a ticket or reserved a seat but would like to Stringdusters & More participate in cocktail hour and the	Fri May 16, 2014	Josh Saul
Eleanor Daley: Choirs of Angels This Sunday, May 18th, you are in for a treat. Do you sing in a choir? Like choral music? Do you like heavenly music set to exquisite poetry? Eleanor...	Fri May 16, 2014	Jim Lange
McDowell Residents Learn Healthy Cooking Much attention has been paid over the years to child hunger, but hunger and poor nutrition are also problems among the country's senior population....	Fri May 16, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Fighting Senior Hunger, MU Launches Psychiatry Residency, Pink Martini feat. The Von Trapps & More The National Foundation to End Senior Hunger is hoping to bring to light the issue of senior hunger and nutrition by creating a pilot program in...	Fri May 16, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

CU Student Photos 'Urban' Side of W.Va.	When pictures of West Virginia land in the national spotlight, itâ€™s often the rural poverty stricken hollows and hills. Concord University art student	Fri May 16, 2014	Jared Kline
Former Williamson Mayor Pleads Guilty	Former Williamson Mayor Darrin McCormick has pleaded guilty to lying to federal authorities. The U.S. attorney's office says McCormick entered his...	Thu May 15, 2014	Associated Press
Folktale of Patriotism & Remembrance	As American founding father, and second U.S. President, John Adams noted: "Our obligations to our country never cease but with our lives". In honor...	Thu May 15, 2014	Teresa Wills
Marshall School of Medicine Approved for Psychiatry Residency Program	The Marshall University Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine announced Thursday they have been approved to start a psychiatry residency program....	Thu May 15, 2014	Clark Davis
Is Shepherdstown America's Best Place to Live?	Shepherdstown is among the 64 towns vying for the title of Best Place to Live in America in Outside Magazine. The competition is broken down into...	Thu May 15, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Va. Woman Sentenced for Embezzling From W.Va. DMV	A Virginia woman convicted of embezzling from the West Virginia Division of Motor Vehicles has received a suspended sentence and probation. Forty...	Thu May 15, 2014	Associated Press
Child Advocates Still Seek Funding Restoration	Child advocates throughout the state are stepping up their campaign to convince Governor Tomblin to restore the budget cuts he made to social...	Thu May 15, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Violinist Tim Fain	Violinist Tim Fain has all the musicianship necessary to play the major works in the classical repertoire, but there is not even a hint of self...	Thu May 15, 2014	Jim Lange
Three Reasons to Get ALL ACCESS from Mountain Stage tonight	UPDATE: ALL ACCESS tickets have sold out. If you haven't purchased a ticket or reserved a seat but would like to participate in cocktail hour and the	Thu May 15, 2014	Adam Harris
Proposed Gas Compressor in Doddridge Questioned	Some residents in Doddridge County are concerned about a proposed natural gas compressor station's impact on their health and property. The Canton...	Thu May 15, 2014	Associated Press
Company Considering Plant in W.Va. Seeks Permits	A company studying the feasibility of building an ethane cracker plant in Wood County has applied for two state permits. The Appalachian Shale...	Thu May 15, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Primary Turnout Less Than 20 Percent	West Virginia's secretary of state says voter turnout for this week's election was 19.7 percent, a 4-percent drop from a similar 2010 midterm...	Thu May 15, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Commission Approves Fence Around W.Va. Governor's Mansion	State officials plan to install an ornamental fence and low wall around the Governor's Mansion to improve security. The project is the first phase...	Thu May 15, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Jobless Rate Inches Down in April	West Virginia's unemployment rate inched down in April to 6 percent. The seasonally adjusted rate is down one-tenth of a percentage point from March.	Thu May 15, 2014	Associated Press
Burwell Faces Second Hearing, Schools Getting Their Own Grades & National Geography Bee	Sylvia Mathew Burwell faces her second confirmation hearing with the Senate Finance Committee and receives an endorsement from a key republican. The...	Thu May 15, 2014	Dave Mistich
New Policy Requires Through F Grade for West Virginia Schools	A Parents across the state may soon have a better understanding of how their child's school is fairing thanks to a new grading system adopted Monday...	Wed May 14, 2014	Ashton Marra
He's a One Man Crew of Geography Knowledge	There's a very important competition taking place in Washington D.C. next week. It's the National Geographic Bee and West Virginia has a competitor...	Wed May 14, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Updated: Leaks at Silica Plant Stopped, Injuries	W.Va. Crews are cleaning up a leak of hazardous materials at a sand plant in West Virginia's Eastern Panhandle. U.S. Silica spokesman Michael Lawson said	Wed May 14, 2014	Associated Press
Pink Martini featuring The Von Trapps - "Hushabye Mountain" - Live from Mountain Stage	The song "Hushabye Mountain" originally appeared in the musical film Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, and has since been covered by everyone from Tony...	Wed May 14, 2014	Josh Saul
Ex-Fairmont State Official Sentenced for Embezzling	A former Fairmont State University official will spend more than three years in prison for embezzling from the school. David A. Tamm pleaded guilty...	Wed May 14, 2014	Associated Press
Recreational Boating Deaths Decline in W.Va.	Statistics released Wednesday by the U.S. Coast Guard show three people were killed in boating accidents in 2013. That's down from four in 2012,...	Wed May 14, 2014	Associated Press
Layoffs Expected at Mine Where Two Died	W.Va. Employees at the West Virginia mine where two men were killed during a severe coal burst were notified weeks earlier that they may lose their jobs...	Wed May 14, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Regulators Won't Revisit Felman Power Rate	State regulators aren't going to revisit a special electricity rate for an idled manufacturer in Mason County. The Public Service Commission on...	Wed May 14, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Brody No. 1 Mine's Poor Safety Record, Primary Highlights & Dr. Robert Rupp With Election Analysis	Monday night's fatal Boone Co. mine incident occurred at a mine with a poor safety record. Highlights from Tuesday's primary election. Also, West...	Wed May 14, 2014	Dave Mistich
Freedom Industries Can Sell Its Other Facility in Kanawha Valley	A bankruptcy judge is expected to approve Freedom Industries' request to sell its Poca Blending facility unless a better bid is submitted by Friday	Wed May 14, 2014	Associated Press
American Masters Explores the Life of George Plimpton	Famed participatory journalist George Plimpton (1927-2003) was a writer, editor, amateur sportsman, actor, and friend to many. Now, the American...	Tue May 13, 2014	Robin Mazza
Boone Co. Mine Where Two Killed Had Bad Safety Reputation, Practiced Dangerous Type of Mining	The Patriot Coal-owned Boone Co. mine where two men died Monday night had a historically bad record of safety violations and practiced a dangerous...	Tue May 13, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Memorial Day Programs on WV Public Radio	Our spotlight is on the service and sacrifice of our nation's veterans with these special programs on the radio: Folktales of Patriotism &...	Tue May 13, 2014	Robin Mazza
Freedom Industries in Bankruptcy Court Tuesday	The company at the center of a January chemical spill in West Virginia is returning to bankruptcy court. Several motions by Freedom Industries will...	Tue May 13, 2014	Associated Press
Atlas Resource Buys Gas Assets in W.Va., Va.	A Pittsburgh company has completed its acquisition of natural gas assets in West Virginia and Virginia. Atlas Resource Partners says it bought the...	Tue May 13, 2014	Associated Press
Watch the "What's Next, West Virginia" Panel Discussion	Watch former First Lady Gayle Manchin and others debate the future of West Virginia in this video. Other participants include Perry Bryant of West	Tue May 13, 2014	Scott Finn
West Virginia Primary: Five Things to Know	West Virginia voters will cast primary election ballots today to set the November slate for a U.S. Senate seat, three congressional districts, the...	Tue May 13, 2014	Associated Press
McDowell Property Bought For Teacher Village	A long-abandoned property in downtown Welch has been purchased for the construction of apartment-style housing for teachers and other professionals.	Tue May 13, 2014	Suzanne Higgins

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Kanawha Health Dept. Releases Chemical Spill Survey Results, Walking at Concord, & Saving Hemlocks	Kanawha County residents last night got a better understanding of how the January 9th chemical spill affected the community as results from a...	Tue May 13, 2014	Dave Mistich
Two Miners Die in Boone County Mine	Officials from the federal Mine Safety and Health Administration say two workers were trapped and killed in an accident at a West Virginia coal mine...	Tue May 13, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Concord Initiative Walks for Wellness	A competition on Concord University's campus sprang folks into walking more than 42-million steps - the equivalent of going across the United States	Tue May 13, 2014	Jessica Lilly
2014 Primary Election Live Blog	Polls are now closed around the state. Keep refreshing this page to see the latest.	Tue May 13, 2014	Dave Mistich
Scientists Try to Save Endangered Hemlock Trees in West Virginia Swamp	For the past several decades Hemlock trees across the east coast have become home to an invasive insect that is leaving their host-trees dead in the...	Mon May 12, 2014	Glynis Board
Survey Findings Try to Give Clearer Picture of Chemical Spill Impact	Kanawha County residents got a better understanding of the impacts of the January 9 chemical spill on their community Monday evening as results from...	Mon May 12, 2014	Ashton Marra
Senator Manchin Mourns Loss of His Mother	West Virginia Sen. Joe Manchin (D-W.Va.) and his family are mourning the loss of his 91 year-old mother, Mary, who died Monday, May 12, 2014. Mary...	Mon May 12, 2014	Cecelia Mason
City Hopes Redesigned Website Beters Image	Huntington officials announced yesterday morning a major redesign of the website for the city. Mayor Steve Williams and Huntington officials felt it...	Mon May 12, 2014	Clark Davis
Same Sex Marriage Ruling Could Affect West Virginia	Gay-rights groups in three states have a special interest in a federal appeals court hearing on Virginia's same-sex marriage ban. A three-judge panel...	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
UMWA Expresses Support for Coal Dust Rules	The United Mine Workers of America is giving "qualified support" to the Obama administration's new rule aimed at cutting the amount of coal dust in...	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Wheeling Jesuit Receives Grant for Teacher Program	Wheeling Jesuit University has received a $172,000 grant to show teachers how to integrate technology into their lessons. The grant will be used to...	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Grafton Community Cleans Up To Turn The Town Around	This morning we bring you another story in our series on how the towns of Grafton and Matewan are turning themselves around as part of a special	Mon May 12, 2014	Ben Adducchio

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Cherese Weaver: Modern Antiquity	The sculptures of West Virginia artist, Cherese Weaver, are quite stunning. You don't just look at them as much as you feel that they are looking at...	Mon May 12, 2014	Jim Lange
Outfitters Test Rafting Below Hawks Nest Dam	A section of the New River between Hawks Nest Dam and Gauley Bridge is being studied for potential whitewater rafting. The study of the 6-mile section	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Panel Recommends Five to Replace Pocahontas Greenbrier Judge	An advisory panel has recommended five candidates to fill a judicial position serving Greenbrier and Pocahontas counties. The Judicial Vacancy...	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Companies Beginning to Explore W.Va. Utica Shale	Oil and natural gas companies with Marcellus Shale operations in the Northern Panhandle are turning their attention more and more to the underlying...	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Online Courses Help High School Students Get Ahead	Marshall University is reducing tuition rates for some high school students taking online college courses this summer. Marshall says up to 30...	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Buckhannon Considers Meth Abatement Ordinance	Buckhannon officials are considering an ordinance dealing with the cleanup of properties where methamphetamine is used or manufactured. The ordinance...	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Martinsburg Passes New Firearm Regulations	Martinsburg's gun ordinances are now in compliance with a new state law.. The law prohibits municipalities from enacting firearms regulations that are	Mon May 12, 2014	Associated Press
Possible Airline Fee Changes, Grafton Cleans Up, and English is More than a Language	A bill in the House of Representatives says it will make airline taxes and fees clearer, but lobbyists say it'll prevent consumers from finding	Mon May 12, 2014	Ashton Marra
House Bill Co-Sponsored by Rahall, Capito Could Completely Change the Way You Travel	Booking tickets with airlines rarely ever seems to be an enjoyable process. A bill in the House of Representatives would change that, but whether it...	Mon May 12, 2014	Ashton Marra
Mountain Stage Archive Project: Sharing 30 Years of Great Performances	Bill Lynch has a big story in the Charleston Gazette about the Mountain Stage Archive, and the fundraiser for it coming up on May 17. Here's how he	Sun May 11, 2014	Scott Finn
In Search of the Elusive Orange Crowned Warbler	Most people associate a cemetery with grief and loss. But for bird lovers in Charleston, West Virginia, joy and discovery await at the city's...	Sun May 11, 2014	Sheila McEntee

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Preserving Appalachia's Heritage, Saving an Old Theater, Looking For A Special Bird and More	Two West Virginians by choice work to preserve Appalachian culture and foster dialogue. An historic Virginia theater gets ready for a new season....	Sat May 10, 2014	Cecelia Mason
WVAM Says Halfway through Carbon Filter Replacement	The process to change out 16 activated carbon filters is now half complete at West Virginia American Water's Charleston filtration plant. That change...	Fri May 9, 2014	Ashton Marra
This Employee Never Asks Anything in Return	The winner of this month's Storyteller Award is usually one of the first employees to arrive at our Charleston facility, and often one of the last to...	Fri May 9, 2014	Scott Finn
International Students Learn the Intricacies of the English Language	International students at Marshall are taking advantage of a new partnership that helps them better learn the English language. Akira Uchida is an	Fri May 9, 2014	Clark Davis
EPA Seeks Comment on Fracking Chemicals Disclosure	The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is seeking public comment on ways to disclose information about the chemicals used in the oil and gas...	Fri May 9, 2014	Associated Press
34,000 Vote Early in West Virginia Primary	About 34,000 West Virginians have voted early ahead of Tuesday's primary. The figure released by the Secretary of State's office Friday reflects in-...	Fri May 9, 2014	Associated Press
Nature on Instructional Television	Three special re-broadcasts of Nature will air on Mondays in May at 1 p.m. as part of West Virginia Public Broadcasting's instructional television...	Fri May 9, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Health Dept. Plans Survey Results Release, Burwell Faces Confirmation Hearing, Anna Sale, & More	The Kanawha-Charleston Health Department plans the release of the results of their survey that attempts to gauge the impact of the Elk River chemical	Fri May 9, 2014	Dave Mistich
Former WVPB Reporter Anna Sale's 'Death, Sex & Money'	“Talking about death, sex, and money is not news. It's not news to say: ‘sometimes long term relationships are hard’ or ‘sometimes it's embarrassing...”	Thu May 8, 2014	Dave Mistich
Do Millennials Stand A Chance? On Intelligence Squared	Intelligence Squared U.S. brings Oxford-style debating to America -- one motion, one moderator, two informed and provocative panelists for the motion...	Thu May 8, 2014	Teresa Wills
Kanawha Health Dept. Plans Release of Survey Results	About a third of Kanawha County residents surveyed say a member of their household experienced an illness they believe was connected to the January 9	Thu May 8, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

W.Va. Supreme Court: Pa. The West Virginia Supreme Court has reversed a lower Commission Can Sue Over court's decision and will now allow a Pennsylvania Dunkard Creek Fish Kill agency to sue a mining company after the...	Thu May 8, 2014	Ashton Marra
Lawmakers Joining Fight to Restore Child, Family Funding the governor to restore funding to what they call critical childhood and domestic violence	Thu May 8, 2014	Ashton Marra
Sylvia Matthews Burwell West Virginia native Sylvia Matthews Burwell faced Faces Her First Confirmation questions from Senators Thursday during her first hearing to Hearing For HHS Secretary become Secretary of the U.S....	Thu May 8, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Hear Solas, Michael Martin Murphey & More on This Week's Broadcast of Mountain Stage This week's all new broadcast of Mountain Stage features a performance by Irish-American supergroup Solas, along with cosmic cowboy Michael Martin...	Thu May 8, 2014	Josh Saul
W. Va. Attorney General Files Lawsuit Against School Officials in Mingo County The West Virginia attorney general has filed a lawsuit against Mingo County school officials claiming they brushed aside allegations that two male	Thu May 8, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Concord Students Work to Inspire Young Entrepreneurs Concord University students are reaching out into the community to inspire young entrepreneurs. Earlier this week students from Melrose Elementary in	Thu May 8, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Why Do You Stay in West Virginia? Updated: Friday, May 23, 2014 at 8:35 a.m. Our interactive story map and project recap is now available. Access the map to see some of our favorites...	Thu May 8, 2014	Dave Mistich
Meetings Underway to Discuss New Coal Dust Rules Federal mine safety officials are holding the first of several meetings on the Obama administration's new coal dust rule in Beaver, West Virginia. The	Thu May 8, 2014	Associated Press
Judge Has Concerns Over Chemical Spill Company Sale A bankruptcy judge is concerned that a company responsible for a West Virginia chemical spill wants to sell remaining property to a company tied to...	Thu May 8, 2014	Associated Press
Commission Approves WVSU President's Contract West Virginia State University President Brian Hemphill will get a pay raise under a new five-year contract. The university announced Thursday that...	Thu May 8, 2014	Associated Press
New Gas Processing Facilities Slated for Construction MarkWest Energy Partners says it will expand two cryogenic gas processing complexes in West Virginia. Denver-based MarkWest says in a news release...	Thu May 8, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

New App Helps Parents Balance Screen Time, Summer Time and Learning Time	Free app gives parents the "super power" to engage with what their kids are learning and playing on pbskids.org using their own iPhone or iPod touch	Thu May 8, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Officials Move to Protect Historic Battleground Coal Mining	State mining regulators have ordered a coal company to add a buffer zone at a surface mine near Blair Mountain. The 1,000-foot buffer zone ordered...	Thu May 8, 2014	Associated Press
The Daily Show Features Kanawha-Charleston Health Department Chief, West Virginia Delegate	Dr. Rahul Gupta and Del. Cindy Frich appeared on Wednesday, May 7's episode of The Daily Show with Jon Stewart. Based simply on the titles of the...	Thu May 8, 2014	Dave Mistich
Matewan Turns Itself Around, Finding a New Life in Morgantown, & Professor's Award Winning Videos	As one of two winners of the Turn This Town Around project, Matewan hopes revitalize itself. Teewendee Sandwidi and his family have found a new life...	Thu May 8, 2014	Dave Mistich
Solas - "Am I Born to Die?" Live from Mountain Stage	Irish-American supergroup Solas have visited Mountain Stage 8 times through the years. Here the band's newest member Noriana Kennedy takes the lead,	Thu May 8, 2014	Josh Saul
Meet Matewan: A Town Worth Fighting For	The small town with a population of less than 500 people already has a big history. During the 1920s coal miners were fighting for equal pay and...	Thu May 8, 2014	Jessica Lilly
For One Man And His Family, West Virginia Is A New Life	It's difficult to imagine a society where everywhere you go, you have to fear for your life, simply because of what you believe in. But for one man...	Wed May 7, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Marshall Professor Keeps Winning Awards for His Storytelling	One professor at Marshall University has a story to tell and an award winning story at that. Dan Hollis- a professor in the W. Page Pitt School...	Wed May 7, 2014	Clark Davis
Gov. Tomblin Restores Some Social Services Funding Cuts	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has announced he's restoring funding to some West Virginia social services programs that he previously cut. Tomblin wrote to...	Wed May 7, 2014	Associated Press
Stadelman Tapped as New W.Va. Governor Spokesman	Communications professional Chris Stadelman will become Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin's top spokesman. Stadelman has more than 20 years of experience in the	Wed May 7, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. High School Seniors Rank Worst in Reading, Math in 13 States	A new report shows West Virginia high school seniors had the worst reading scores of students sampled in 13 states last year - and were tied for...	Wed May 7, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Weirton Police Investigate Explosive Devices	Police are investigating explosive devices that were found outside the Weirton Municipal Building. Police Chief Bruce Marshall says a city police...	Wed May 7, 2014	Associated Press
Wyoming, McDowell Water Projects Get Federal Dollars	Federal dollars are expected to speed water and wastewater projects in communities in Wyoming and McDowell Counties. Congressman Nick Rahall made the	Wed May 7, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Pennsylvanians Rally for Shale, Morel Mushrooms, Wildflowers Spring Up	Thousands of supporters of natural gas development marched to the steps of the state Capitol in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania yesterday to show support...	Wed May 7, 2014	Dave Mistich
South Charleston Students Test Launch Their Satellite	Students in teacher Joe Oliver's computer science class at South Charleston High School have successfully conducted a test launch of the CubeSat....	Wed May 7, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Alzheimer's Caregiver Conference in Huntington	A training conference has been scheduled in Huntington for relatives and caregivers of Alzheimer's patients and individuals with dementia. The...	Wed May 7, 2014	Associated Press
Morels Galore Displayed on 'WV Wild Pickers' Facebook Page	It's peak season for morel mushrooms throughout Appalachia. One online site, "WV Wild Pickers" Facebook page is getting a lot of traffic of people...	Tue May 6, 2014	Glynis Board
Freedom Industries Wants to Sell to Related Business	The now-bankrupt company at the center of West Virginia's chemical spill wants to sell what's left at its other site to a company tied to former...	Tue May 6, 2014	Associated Press
Memorial Day Programs Honor Veterans, Look Back 70 Years to D-Day	Download a list of these programs. West Virginia PBS presents a lineup of programming for Memorial Day 2014, as well as the 70-year anniversary of D-...	Tue May 6, 2014	Robin Mazza
Whip-Poor-Wills On Decline, West Virginia Asks For Help	The West Virginia Division of Natural Resources is looking for whip-poor-wills. DNR officials are worried that the bird is declining in population...	Tue May 6, 2014	Glynis Board
Volunteer Youth From Milton, D.C. Honored in Washington, D.C.	Two youth volunteers from West Virginia were honored in Washington, D.C. They were among 100 kids from across the country recognized for their...	Tue May 6, 2014	Glynis Board
Ex-Huntington Food Bank Head Admits Embezzlement	The former head of a Huntington-based regional food bank has pleaded guilty to embezzling from the charity. Fifty-seven-year-old Leigh Anne Zappin of	Tue May 6, 2014	Associated Press
Parkersburg Hotel Celebrates 125th Anniversary	A historic hotel in Parkersburg is kicking off a celebration of its 125th anniversary. The Blennerhassett Hotel will hold a customer appreciation...	Tue May 6, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Grafton Continues to 'Turn', Clarksburg's Rose Garden Theater, & Carbon Capture Technology	A recent town meeting in Grafton allowed residents to discuss ideas on what projects they would like to work on as part of the Turn This Town Around	Tue May 6, 2014	Dave Mistich
Clarksburg Hopes the Robinson Can Be Grand Once Again	The City of Clarksburg is looking to other municipalities across the state and around the country to aide in their endeavor to restore and...	Mon May 5, 2014	Ashton Marra
Grafton Residents Mull Ideas to Turn The Town Around	Editor's Note: We bring you a story in our continuing series on how the towns of Grafton and Matewan are turning themselves around through a special	Mon May 5, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Gov. Tomblin Announces Review of Elk River Spill Response	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has announced an "After Action Review" of the state's response to the January 9 Elk River chemical spill. The Review hopes to	Mon May 5, 2014	Dave Mistich
Supreme Court to Decide if Prosecutor Should Keep Law License	The West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals heard arguments Monday over whether to temporarily revoke the law license of a county prosecutor charged...	Mon May 5, 2014	Ashton Marra
Mountain Stage is Having a Party, and You're Invited	UPDATE: ALL ACCESS tickets have sold out. If you haven't purchased a ticket or reserved a seat but would like to participate in cocktail hour and the	Mon May 5, 2014	Josh Saul
Three Powerball Tickets in W.Va. Win Match-5 Prizes	Three Powerball tickets sold in West Virginia for the same drawing are match-5 winners. The West Virginia Lottery says it's the first time that the...	Mon May 5, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Students Chronicle ADHD Prescription Drug Abuse Among Peers	West Virginia University students recently finished up their final examinations for the school year. During this time period, of course, many stay...	Mon May 5, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Judge Allows Hurricane Landfill Probe to Proceed	A Putnam County judge has ordered a Hurricane landfill where wastewater from a Charleston chemical spill was dumped to produce documents sought by...	Mon May 5, 2014	Associated Press
Mingo County Set for 'Most Important' Election	Mingo County voters head to the polls May 13 with a slate of positions up for grabs after a federal corruption investigation cost four office holders...	Mon May 5, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Small Businesses Face Disaster Loan Deadline	Time is running out for small businesses and nonprofits in six counties to apply for federal disaster loans. The U.S. Small Business Administration...	Mon May 5, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Adderall Use By College Students, MU Physical Therapy Students Get White Coats, & More	A recent study by West Virginia University Journalism students looked into the use of the amphetamine Adderall to cram for finals or other...	Mon May 5, 2014	Dave Mistich
Cinderella Meets Prince Charming	The story of Cinderella has been passed down from generation to generation in many versions and languages. In the opera "La Cenerentola" by composer	Mon May 5, 2014	Carole Carter
Essay: Pothole Season Has Arrived With a Vengeance	You know the drill. Eyes trained straight ahead "glued to the patch of pavement directly in front of you" picking and weaving and bobbing your way...	Mon May 5, 2014	Sarah Lowther Hensley
Problems With Lawn Fertilizer, Pondering Potholes, Spring Wildflower, Quilting and More	There's a push to decrease the use of lawn chemicals. An inside look at the struggle for political power at West Virginia's Capitol. This is the time...	Sat May 3, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Physical Therapy Students Presented with White Coats	The two-year-old Marshall University School of Physical Therapy held their second white coat ceremony Friday. Year-one as part of the Marshall...	Fri May 2, 2014	Clark Davis
W.Va. AG Asks Feds to Delay Power Plant Rules	West Virginia Attorney General Patrick Morrisey is asking federal officials to delay regulations for existing power plants. Morrisey says he sent a...	Fri May 2, 2014	Associated Press
State Record Blue Catfish Caught in West Virginia	Austin Hoffman recently caught a 47.75-inch, 52.95-pound blue catfish "beating the previous state record of 43.9 inches and 44.5 pounds.	Fri May 2, 2014	Dave Mistich
Judge Who Admitted Affair Removed from Cases	A Randolph County judge who acknowledged having an affair with a community corrections official has been removed from hearing cases involving the...	Fri May 2, 2014	Associated Press
What is Synthetic Marijuana?	Two businesses in Morgantown are accused of illegally selling a drug known as synthetic marijuana. Law enforcement leaders are working with United...	Fri May 2, 2014	Glynis Board
The Ice Hunters	Follow two of the world's leading paleoclimatologists to the top of the world and both poles! Using ice cores they drill themselves, Marshall...	Fri May 2, 2014	Jean Snedegar
In Search of Meaningful Work	Travel to Amish country to hear about one of the most unusual medical clinics in the United States -- the Clinic for Special Children in Strasburg,	Fri May 2, 2014	Jean Snedegar

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

West Virginia Golden Horseshoe Winners Honored	Nearly 230 eighth graders have been honored as winners of the Golden Horseshoe Award for their knowledge of West Virginia history and culture. A...	Fri May 2, 2014	Associated Press
Synthetic Marijuana, The Scottish Rite Gives to Marshall Speech-Hearing Center, & Lake Street Dive	After two Morgantown businesses were busted for selling illegal synthetic marijuana, we examine what the product is and it's potential effects and...	Fri May 2, 2014	Dave Mistich
Former West Virginia Supreme Court Justice Dies	Former West Virginia Supreme Court Justice Elliot 'Spike' Maynard died Thursday May 1, 2014 at Charleston Area Medical Center. He was 71. Maynard was...	Thu May 1, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Latin American Storytelling on Radio Ambulante	In this one-hour special, Radio Ambulante presents the best English-language stories from its first season with reporting from North Carolina, Chile...	Thu May 1, 2014	Teresa Wills
Few Young People Among W.Va's New Health Care Law Enrollees	Almost 20,000 West Virginians have enrolled in health coverage through the federal marketplace. As of March 31, U.S. Department of Health and Human	Thu May 1, 2014	Associated Press
Surface Mine to Be Near Kanawha State Forest	West Virginia officials have issued a permit for a surface mining operation located near Kanawha State Forest. The state Department of Environmental	Thu May 1, 2014	Associated Press
Report Says West Virginia is Behind in Higher Education Funding	A new report says West Virginia's lagging way behind nationally in funding for higher education. While West Virginia continues to cut in that...	Thu May 1, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Gov. Tomblin Appoints Communications Director to Commerce, Tourism Posts	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin announced Thursday he will appoint Amy Shuler Goodwin as Deputy Secretary of Commerce and the Commissioner of Tourism for the...	Thu May 1, 2014	Dave Mistich
Scottish Rite Helps Marshall Speech and Hearing Center	Each year the Huntington Scottish Rite of Freemasonry Foundation raises money for the Speech and Hearing Center at Marshall University. Dillard...	Thu May 1, 2014	Clark Davis
How Can West Virginia Keep Young People From Moving Away?	West Virginia's population is expected to drop by 20,000 through the year 2030, however, a recent Gallup poll shows a majority of West Virginians...	Thu May 1, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Two West Virginia Colleges Are on U.S. Education Department Investigation List	Two West Virginia colleges are on a list the U.S. Department of Education released Thursday that includes 55 schools under investigation for possibly	Thu May 1, 2014	Cecelia Mason

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Transparency is Key in Aboveground Rulemaking, Expert Says	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection Tank announced last week that they are seeking public input on what should be included in the...	Thu May 1, 2014	Glynis Board
Judge Says Mingo Mine Violated Selenium Limit	A federal judge has found another West Virginia mining operation in violation of the state's water quality standard for selenium. U.S. District Judge	Thu May 1, 2014	Associated Press
Sylvia Mathews Burwell	Meet Hinton-native Sylvia Mathews Burwell, the new Director of the Office of Management and Budget in Washington. Burwell is the past President of...	Thu May 1, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Brad Smith â€œ Using a Moral Compass	Hear why co-workers of Brad Smith, President & CEO of the global financial software giant, Intuit, say he's the best ambassador West Virginia...	Thu May 1, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Freedom Execs Tied to New Chemical Company	David Gutman of The Charleston Gazette reports that executives of soon-to-be-bankrupt Freedom Industries haven't abandoned the chemical industry. In...	Thu May 1, 2014	Dave Mistich
Young West Virginians Say They Want to Make the State a Better Place	Editor's Note: Today we continue our series about keeping the stateâ€™s youngest citizens in West Virginia. Weâ€™ve previously looked at the reasons why...	Thu May 1, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Watch Lake Street Dive Perform on Mountain Stage	Lake Street Dive's second appearance on Mountain Stage debuts on West Virginia Public Radio this Sunday at 2pm. Visit the Mountain Stage YouTube...	Thu May 1, 2014	Josh Saul
Appalachian Healthcare, Nurses' Union Agree on Tentative Deal	Regional Appalachian Regional Healthcare says it has agreed on a tentative contract with a union representing more than 700 registered nurses. Appalachian...	Thu May 1, 2014	Associated Press
Solutions for Ending Population Decline, Public Comment Process, & Richwood's Ramp Revival	With an expected population decline and negative stereotypes surrounding young people who choose to stay in the state, we hear a few proposed...	Thu May 1, 2014	Dave Mistich
Peg + Cat Releases First Album	Available on iTunes, Amazon and Google Play, the album features songs from the math and problem-solving preschool series. Watch Peg + Cat on WV PBS	Thu May 1, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Richwood, W.Va.: A Town with Rich Roots (A Story)	The small town of Richwood, West Virginia once had a booming lumber and coal economy, but since the 1980s most of the jobs in town have left the area...	Thu May 1, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

EPA to Gauge Safety of Inhaling MCHM	Months after a chemical spilled into 300,000 West Virginians' water source, federal officials want to determine at what level people can safely...	Thu May 1, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Woman Accused of Stealing U.S. Benefits	A St. Albans woman has been accused of stealing more than $80,000 in Social Security benefits. Prosecutors say a federal grand jury in Charleston...	Thu May 1, 2014	Associated Press
152 Citations Issued During MSHA March Mine Inspections	Federal impact inspections at U.S. mines in March resulted in 152 citations and 14 orders. The Mine Safety and Health Administration conducted the	Thu May 1, 2014	Associated Press
Mon Power, Potomac Edison Seek Rate Hike in W.Va.	Mon Power and Potomac Edison are asking West Virginia regulators to increase the rates it charges its customers. The FirstEnergy Corp. subsidiaries...	Wed April 30, 2014	Associated Press
Handmade Quilts Blanket Berkeley Springs	Berkeley Springs is generally known as a spa and arts town, and right now quilts are the primary form of art on display. Quilt squares are hanging at...	Wed April 30, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Synthetic Marijuana Bust in Morgantown	United States Attorney William J. Ihlenfeld, II, was joined by other law enforcement leaders on Wednesday to announce actions taken against...	Wed April 30, 2014	Glynis Board
Lake Street Dive - "Clear a Space" - Live from Mountain Stage	The four virtuoso musicians that make up Lake Street Dive met as students at the prestigious New England Conservatory of Music, and after performing	Wed April 30, 2014	Josh Saul
Learn More About Buttermilk, Bible Burgers and Other Appalachian Food	Food often provides a universal connection across cultures. Think: President Obama taking part in a meal at a famous sushi restaurant on his recent...	Wed April 30, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Air Pollution Improving in West Virginia But, There's More Ozone	A report just released by American Lung Association, "State of the Air 2014," shows air pollution in West Virginia's metropolitan areas has generally	Wed April 30, 2014	Glynis Board
W.Va. Court Orders New Sentence in Truancy Case	The West Virginia Supreme Court says a Kanawha County woman convicted in a truancy case can't be both fined and ordered to perform community service...	Wed April 30, 2014	Associated Press
Young West Virginians Say There's a Negative Perception of Those Who Stay In the State	Editor's Note: Today we continue our series on how to keep young people in West Virginia. Yesterday, we looked at the struggle many people go...	Wed April 30, 2014	Ben Adducchio

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Plan Ordered for W.Va. Psychiatric Hospital Issues	The Department of Health and Human Resources is facing a June 11 deadline to come up with a plan to address issues at the state's two psychiatric...	Wed April 30, 2014	Associated Press
How's Our Air?, Stereotyping Young West Virginians That Stay, & A Berkeley Springs Quilt Auction	The American Lung Association says air pollution in the state's metropolitan areas has generally improved but there's more ozone, or smog, in every...	Wed April 30, 2014	Dave Mistich
Feds Set Record in Latest Drug Take-Back Day in W.Va.	Federal officials in southern West Virginia say they collected more than three tons of unwanted and expired drugs during last weekend's Prescription...	Wed April 30, 2014	Associated Press
Debate Over ATV Safety In West Virginia	NPR fellow Leah Binkovitz reports on the increase of ATV tourism in West Virginia and concerns over safety and regulation in this report for WBUR's...	Tue April 29, 2014	Dave Mistich
And the West Virginia History Bowl Winner Is.....	Middle School teams from across West Virginia were in Charleston at the Culture Center Tuesday to participate in the annual West Virginia History...	Tue April 29, 2014	Cecelia Mason
New Documentary Tells Personal Stories Of Veterans As They Reintegrate Into Society	Coming Back With Wes Moore begins Tuesday, May 13 at 8 p.m. on West Virginia PBS. This new three-episode series executive produced by best-selling...	Tue April 29, 2014	Robin Mazza
Gov. Tomblin, DHHR Urge Threat Preparedness	Governor Earl Ray Tomblin is asking all West Virginians to prepare for a possible national disaster by participating in Prepareathon Day on Wednesday.	Tue April 29, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Potomac Center Receives Provisional License	The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources has issued a six month provisional license to the Potomac Center in Hampshire County. A...	Tue April 29, 2014	Clark Davis
Pennsylvania Ballet At 50	This special showcases one of Philadelphia's cultural treasures, Pennsylvania Ballet, and honors the company's golden anniversary. Pennsylvania...	Tue April 29, 2014	Robin Mazza
It's Early Voting Season in West Virginia	Early voting in West Virginia's primary election begins Wednesday April 30, 2014 and runs through Saturday May 10. According to the Secretary of...	Tue April 29, 2014	Cecelia Mason
John Ochsendorf â€“ The Accidental Professor	Elkins-native John Ochsendorf, 36, is a professor of structural engineering and architecture at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in...	Tue April 29, 2014	Jean Snedegar

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Federal Agency Cites Coal Mine Fatality	Federal investigators say the operator of a Marshall County W.Va. coal mine where a worker was killed didn't ensure that safe work procedures and policies...	Tue April 29, 2014	Associated Press
Geoffrey Cousins â€“ Heart Pioneer	Dr. Geoffrey Cousins, 42, is one of West Virginiaâ€™s most innovative heart surgeons and a pioneer of robotic-assisted heart surgery in the United...	Tue April 29, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Three-part Series Explores "Your Inner Fish"	How did the human body become the complicated, quirky and amazing machine it is today? Your Inner Fish, this three-part series will air as part of...	Tue April 29, 2014	Robin Mazza
Lack of Funds Hinder Black Fly Spraying	Black flies could be abundant in southern West Virginia this year due to a lack of funding for a state spraying program. The state generally sprays a	Tue April 29, 2014	Associated Press
How Can West Virginia Keep Its Young People Here?	Editor's Note: We begin a series of stories looking into the issue of how to keep young people in West Virginia. This came about as part of a special	Tue April 29, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Man Charged in Plot to Kill Charleston Police Officer	West Virginia police are investigating a murder-for-hire plot against a police lieutenant in Charleston. Darrell Carter was charged Monday with	Tue April 29, 2014	Associated Press
New Anthology of Appalachian Writers Released	of Fans of Appalachian literature will have another reason to celebrate as volume six of Shepherd Universityâ€™s Anthology of Appalachian Writers is set...	Tue April 29, 2014	Chelsea DeMello
Huntington Spurs Small Business, Keeping Young People in the State, & Appalachian Food	The City of Huntington looks to spur small business opportunities with their Be Small, Live Large initiative. We begin a series on what it takes to...	Tue April 29, 2014	Dave Mistich
W.Va. Authority Awards $43 Million for School Projects	The West Virginia School Building Authority has awarded more than $43 million for construction projects in seven counties. The grants approved Monday	Tue April 29, 2014	Associated Press
R.E.M - "Losing My Religion" - Live from Mountain Stage	23 years ago today, iconic alt-rock band R.E.M. appeared on Mountain Stage. It was one of only three shows the band would play that year.	Mon April 28, 2014	Josh Saul
Watch the 2014 West Virginia History Bowl	Teams of 8th grade students from around West Virginia faced off Tuesday in an academic bowl competition that focused on West Virginia history,...	Mon April 28, 2014	Chad Matlick
Huntington Announces Small Business Initiative	The city of Huntington hopes to encourage more entrepreneurial spirit through a newly launched small business initiative. Officials gathered Monday	Mon April 28, 2014	Clark Davis

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Private Citizens Spring Spring Paddling Season Access Road	Private citizens are stepping up to repair a Preston County road important to the whitewater industry there. The state doesn't have the means to get...	Mon April 28, 2014	Glynis Board
W.Va. Spill Company: Fees 'Appear to be Large'	The company at the center of West Virginia's chemical spill says costs of $1.9 million accumulated since the January leak "appear to be large," but...	Mon April 28, 2014	Associated Press
Sharon Lynn Stackpole: Follow the Flow	I am always doing what I cannot yet do, in order to learn how to do it. • van Gogh Soft, watery, Impressionistic, veiled, implied, nuanced: these...	Mon April 28, 2014	Jim Lange
Verna Gibson "She Broke the Glass Ceiling"	Verna LeMasters Gibson, a native of Elkview in Kanawha County, broke the ultimate corporate "glass ceiling" in 1985 when she became the first woman...	Mon April 28, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Mark Williams "Mr. Fuel Cell"	Randolph County native Mark Williams is a visionary engineer and scientist who was the first person to see the commercial potential of fuel cells to...	Mon April 28, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Martinsburg to Hold Public Hearing on Home Rule	Martinsburg officials plan to gather input from residents and property owners on the city's home rule application. A public hearing is set for...	Mon April 28, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Faces Fine for Waste Violations	State regulators have proposed a $33,380 fine for West Virginia University for violating hazardous waste storage practices. The fine stems from an	Mon April 28, 2014	Associated Press
WVU Students Remember The Holocaust	Each year for the past 17 years in Morgantown, WVU Hillel together with faculty and community remember the Holocaust by reading names of victims for...	Mon April 28, 2014	Glynis Board
Want to Bake Gluten-Free? America's Test Kitchen Has The Answers	In this episode, America's Test Kitchen speak with editorial director Jack Bishop about the science of gluten-free cooking, including new tricks we	Mon April 28, 2014	Chad Matlick
A New Anthology of Appalachian Literature, MU Basketball's New Coach, & Remebering the Holocaust	Volume Six of Shepherd University's Anthology of Appalachian Writers is set to be released in April. Former NBA assistant coach and former Herd...	Mon April 28, 2014	Dave Mistich
Judge: W.Va. Impoundment Violated Selenium Limit	A federal judge says a coal slurry impoundment in Raleigh County has violated the state's water quality standard for selenium. U.S. District Judge...	Mon April 28, 2014	Associated Press
Stricter Black Lung Regs, Buttermilk & Bible Burgers, Ramps and More	Pittsburgh makes progress in its battle against climate change. New rules to prevent Black Lung Disease are announced. Buttermilk and Bible Burgers...	Sat April 26, 2014	Cecelia Mason

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

WVHEPC Approves Concord University's First Female President	It's official. Dr. Kendra Boggess will be Concord's next president. The West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission approved Boggess during a...	Fri April 25, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Dan D'Antoni Announced as Marshall Head Basketball Coach	Marshall University's Athletic Director Mike Hamrick introduced Dan D'Antoni as the new basketball coach at a press conference Friday on Marshall's...	Fri April 25, 2014	Clark Davis
"To Play The King": House of Cards Returns April 27	Season 2 of House of Cards begins Sunday, April 27 at 7 p.m. on West Virginia PBS. Who would be a leader in this wicked world? Award-winning political	Fri April 25, 2014	Robin Mazza
Sleeping Beauty, A Romance For All Ages	Great Performances: Matthew Bourne's Sleeping Beauty airs Friday, April 25 at 9 p.m., repeats Saturday, April 26 at 2 a.m. on West Virginia PBS. This	Fri April 25, 2014	Robin Mazza
Higher Ed. Transfers Soon to be Easier in W.Va.	Two higher education groups announced the adoption of a new policy Friday intended to make transferring credits between schools easier for West...	Fri April 25, 2014	Ashton Marra
WV DEP Seeking Public Comments on Storage Tank Regulation Rules	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection wants public input on what should be included in the rules to regulate aboveground storage...	Fri April 25, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Judy Sheppard Entrepreneur	"Judy Sheppard is currently West Virginia's most and honored businesswoman and entrepreneur. In 2011 she was named the state's Small Business Person of...	Fri April 25, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Berkeley Co. Committee Chooses New Candidate for House Race	A Berkeley County Democrat's wife is taking his place to run for the West Virginia House of Delegates. Donn Marshall withdrew his candidacy in House	Fri April 25, 2014	Associated Press
Lew Cantley Harvard Biochemist and Cell Biologist	"Harvard Back in 1985 Dr. Lewis Cantley, a native of Big Chimney in Kanawha County, discovered an enzyme called PI3-Kinase. At the time his scientific...	Fri April 25, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Kim Weaver Astrophysicist and Pioneer in X-ray Astronomy	"When Kim Weaver looked up at the stars from her father's campground in Monongalia County, she was inspired to find out what was out there. By her...	Fri April 25, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Homer Hickam Jr. Rock et Boy	"Rock McDowell County native Homer Hickam, Jr. is best known for his book Rocket Boys, the story of how six teenagers in a 1950s West Virginia coal company...	Fri April 25, 2014	Jean Snedegar
Workers' Contracts Extended for Fifth Time	Frontier Communications and a union have extended their contract for another month while negotiations continue for workers in West Virginia. Frontier...	Fri April 25, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Council to Improve STEM Education in W.Va.	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin is assembling a council of education and industry leaders to improve science, technology, engineering and mathematics...	Fri April 25, 2014	Associated Press
Former Schools Chief Lawsuit Dismissed	A federal lawsuit filed by West Virginia's former state school superintendent has been dismissed at her attorneys' request. A U.S. District Court...	Fri April 25, 2014	Associated Press
More Available to Help W.Va. Miners	Federal dollars are expected to help miners who have recently lost their jobs. Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin announced WorkForce West Virginia will receive	Fri April 25, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Pulitzer-Winner Chris Hamby, Landslides, and "For Critter"	On this WV Morning, a conversation with Chris Hamby who just won a Pulitzer Prize for his investigation into coal dust and the resurgence of black...	Fri April 25, 2014	Glynis Board
Getting a Grip on Landslides in W.Va.	Land in West Virginia is prone to sliding. We see it throughout the state along many steep slopes: retaining walls, rock falls, and road slips, and...	Fri April 25, 2014	Glynis Board
Gluten Free? Why bother?	America's Test Kitchen has been the number one cooking show on public television for 14 years. (The January 2014 Nielsen rating was a heavyweight 1....	Fri April 25, 2014	Carole Carter
America's Test Kitchen Talks to Author of "In Memory's Kitchen"	On America's Test Kitchen, we speak to Cara De Silva, the editor of In Memory's Kitchen: A Legacy from the Women of Terezin, a cookbook written by	Thu April 24, 2014	Teresa Wills
Year-Long Series Looks at Black Lung in Appalachia	This week the federal Mine Safety and Health Administration released updated regulations designed to drastically reduce the amount of coal dust...	Thu April 24, 2014	Ashton Marra
Dan D'Antoni the Right D'Antoni for Herd?	Marshall Athletic Director Mike Hamrick announced this afternoon a Dan D'Antoni will be the new head coach for Herd Men's Basketball. Marshall...	Thu April 24, 2014	Clark Davis
The Julian Lage Trio - "For Critter" - Live From Mountain Stage	This week's broadcast of Mountain Stage features a performance by guitar virtuoso Julian Lage. He was playing with Bela Fleck at age 11, was the...	Thu April 24, 2014	Josh Saul
First-Degree Conviction Reinstated	The West Virginia Supreme Court has reinstated a man's first-degree murder convictions for the 1982 slayings of two people in Marion County. The court	Thu April 24, 2014	Associated Press
Special Prosecutor Installed for Plants	Special prosecutors have been installed to handle child abuse cases in Kanawha County. The action comes after Circuit Judge Duke Bloom disqualified	Thu April 24, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

No Citations Issued in Marshall Co. Explosion	Williams Energy won't be cited by state environmental regulators for a natural gas pipeline explosion in Marshall County. The April 5 explosion and...	Thu April 24, 2014	Associated Press
Two Men Indicted for Museum Break-in	A Cabell County grand jury has indicted two Beckley men on charges stemming from a 2012 break-in at the Huntington Museum of Art. 25-year-old...	Thu April 24, 2014	Associated Press
New Coal Dust Regulations Revealed	Rulemakers are moving to make good on a 40-year-old promise to end black lung with the announcement of new coal dust regulations. Officials from the	Thu April 24, 2014	Glynis Board
New Black Lung Rules, Retiring Senator Rockefeller Reflects, and Evolving Digital Evidence	On this West Virginia Morning you can hear about the new rules that aim to drastically reduce the prevalence of Black Lung disease; also, retiring...	Thu April 24, 2014	Glynis Board
Child Advocates Seek Funding Restoration	Child advocates are beginning a campaign to convince Governor Tomblin to restore the cuts he made in his line-item veto of the state budget. When he...	Thu April 24, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Supreme Court Upholds PSC Approved Power Plant Sale	The West Virginia Supreme Court has sided with the state Public Service Commission on a decision to allow the sale of a Harrison County power plant....	Wed April 23, 2014	Ashton Marra
Sen. Rockefeller Shares Legacy with Students at WVWC	In a packed auditorium on the campus of West Virginia Wesleyan College in Buckhannon, Senator Jay Rockefeller took a seat on the stage, joined by...	Wed April 23, 2014	Ashton Marra
After Months Without Wyoming County Community Gets Safe Water	After months without access to safe water, representatives with the Department of Health and Human Resources say the boil water advisory has been...	Wed April 23, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Hospital Records Examined to Find Health Effects of MCHM	A study of hospital records in the nine counties affected by the Elk River Chemical Spill show that 369 people sought treatment at emergency rooms for	Wed April 23, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Can Social Media be the Key to an Investigation?	The Appalachian Institute of Digital Evidence is holding its 5th annual conference this week in Huntington and Charleston. John Sammons is an...	Wed April 23, 2014	Clark Davis
Donation Creates Mentor Program for McDowell Co. Students	A telecommunications firm announced a hefty donation Wednesday to a program designed to improve the educational opportunities for students in one of...	Wed April 23, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Judge Orders Extradition	A man wanted for questioning in relation to three unsolved slayings in Alexandria, Va., over the last decade has been ordered extradited to Virginia...	Wed April 23, 2014	Associated Press
Capito Asking Questions About Spill	U.S. Rep. Shelley Moore Capito is asking federal health officials for more information about skin contact and inhaling a chemical that spilled in...	Wed April 23, 2014	Associated Press
Mason County Manufacturer Close to Resuming Production	Felman Production CEO Mordechai Korf says the idled Mason County manufacturer is one step closer to resuming operations.Members of United Steelworkers	Wed April 23, 2014	Associated Press
Kanawha County Magistrate Faces Ethics Charges	A Kanawha County magistrate faces ethics charges stemming from his denial of a domestic violence petition against the county's prosecutor.The Judicial	Wed April 23, 2014	Associated Press
New Rule to Help Black Lung Disease	The Obama administration is cutting the amount of coal dust allowed in coal mines in an effort to help reduce black lung disease.Black lung is an	Wed April 23, 2014	Associated Press
Patriot Coal to Cut Production at Two Mines	Patriot Coal plans to cut production at two mining complexes in southern West Virginia and potentially lay off workers.Patriot announced today that...	Wed April 23, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. School Removes Bible Verse from Gym, Shirts	Wood County school officials have removed a Bible verse from Parkersburg South High School's gymnasium and the school wrestling team's website. The...	Wed April 23, 2014	Associated Press
EU Ambassador to U.S. Visits Morgantown	A native of Portugal, Joao Vale De Almeida is a fan of soccer and port wines. He's the European Union's ambassador to the United States and this was...	Wed April 23, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Boggess Selected for Concord's Next President	The Concord University Board of Governors has selected Dr. Kendra Boggess as the University's 12th president. According to a release, the board made...	Wed April 23, 2014	Jessica Lilly
What is Climate Change Doing to the Allegheny Highlands?	How is climate change affecting the Allegheny Highlands of West Virginia? That's a question that will be posed at a conference at Blackwater Falls...	Wed April 23, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Public Health Officials Outline Efforts Following Elk River Spill	With little known about the chemical compound MCHM, public health was "and remains" the focus of January's spill of MCHM by Freedom Industries into...	Wed April 23, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

New Deputies Named at W.Va. DHHR	The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources will have three new deputy secretaries starting next month. DHHR Cabinet Secretary Karen...	Tue April 22, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Gupta Says Exposure Standard Needs Revised	When federal officials decided what chemical levels West Virginians could safely consume in water tainted by the January 9 spill at Freedom...	Tue April 22, 2014	Associated Press
Go to These Concerts	Feeling cabin fever? Post winter blues? Then get out of the house to see these concerts: Be a cross-cultural traveler when you go hear Ashwini Bhide	Tue April 22, 2014	Jim Lange
West Virginia Public Broadcasting News Takes Home Three Regional Murrow Awards	West Virginia Public Broadcasting has received the regional Edward R. Murrow award for Overall Excellence in News in the small market radio category...	Tue April 22, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Happy Birthday Congress, The Underappreciated Branch	I have a confession to make. I love the United States Congress. I don't recall hearing that from anyone else lately; although I do know there are...	Tue April 22, 2014	Ray Smock
Sentencing Reset for Ex-Mingo County Prosecutor	Former Mingo County prosecutor Michael Sparks' sentencing in a federal corruption case has been rescheduled a third time. Court records show Sparks	Tue April 22, 2014	Associated Press
Rahall Convenes Meeting on W.Va. Drug Problems	U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall says he has arranged a roundtable discussion with federal and West Virginia officials on the state's prescription drug abuse...	Tue April 22, 2014	Dave Mistich
Long-Awaited U.S. Rule on Coal Dust to be Announced	Top federal labor and mine safety officials are heading to West Virginia to release a long-awaited final rule on coal dust. The announcement will be...	Tue April 22, 2014	Associated Press
Rural Healthcare and Technology, Homesteaders, and Ramps	West Virginia Morning on this Earth Day includes a report on Hippie healthcare in the state, considering some new technologies; also: Hippie Homesteaders...	Tue April 22, 2014	Glynis Board
Forum: 'The State of Rural Healthcare'	West Virginia faces a multitude of challenges when it comes to providing healthcare to its citizens. Because of its rural nature, many citizens face...	Mon April 21, 2014	Ashton Marra
National Park Service Battling New River Gorge Fire	Updated: Friday, April 25, 2014 at 10:27 a.m. New River Gorge National River's Fern Creek Fire that has been burning since Sunday April 20th remains...	Mon April 21, 2014	Suzanne Higgins
The Law Works - Police Corruption	If you're accused of a crime, you are entitled to a few things. An attorney. To see the evidence. To confront witnesses. Your day in court. And an...	Mon April 21, 2014	Dan Ringer

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

New Book Examines the Impact of 'Hippie Homesteaders'	They're known as the hippie homesteaders. People who moved to West Virginia in the late 1960s and 1970s to live off of the land. Some considered	Mon April 21, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Happy and (For the Most Part) Healthy in Unhealthy West Virginia	For those of us who like to make up our own minds about who, what, and how we are, this is a strange country, where U.S. News and World Report, TIME	Mon April 21, 2014	Michael Blumenthal
Cease Orders for Two Antero Sites in W.Va. Lifted	Antero Resources can resume operations at two drilling sites where water storage tanks ruptured recently. The West Virginia Department of...	Mon April 21, 2014	Associated Press
Spring Brings Flowers, Sunshine and Fond Memories for This Mom	It's spring and along with bunches of daffodils, robins, and ramp festivals, there is a feeling in the air of fresh starts and new beginnings. After...	Mon April 21, 2014	Sarah Lowther Hensley
In God We Trust: Finding The 'We'	What does the national motto, "In God We Trust," mean to Americans today? Dr. Daniel L. Anderson, Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball, James Hauht, Imam	Mon April 21, 2014	Carole Carter
Demolitions Could Affect Beckley Historic District	State historians say a proposed demolition project could threaten uptown Beckley's historic district. Dan Bickey has proposed demolishing three...	Mon April 21, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia's Only State Veterans Nursing Home Wait List	West Virginia's only state-run nursing home for veterans has slashed its admission wait list by more than half. Department of Veterans Assistance...	Mon April 21, 2014	Associated Press
The Catholic Committee of Appalachia Develops Its Third Pastoral Letter	A Wheeling native who is a doctoral student studying Liberation theology will be the lead author of a new Pastoral letter in the works.	Mon April 21, 2014	Glynis Board
The Judiciary's Take on State Government Powers, Wheeling Native Authors a Pastoral Letter, & More	Supreme Court Justices Benjamin and Loughry speak about the balance of power in state government, the public campaign finance program, and partisan	Mon April 21, 2014	Dave Mistich
A School for Lovers?	The setting is Naples, Italy, late 18th century. Two young officers, Ferrando and Guaglielmo, boast about the beauty and virtue of their girlfriends...	Mon April 21, 2014	Larry Stickler
High School Wrestling Team T-shirts Questioned	Wood County school officials have asked their lawyers to review a wrestling team's T-shirts that bear a Bible verse on the back. Superintendent Pat...	Sun April 20, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Drilling Company Cited for Two Tank Explosions	State regulators have ordered Antero Resources to suspend operations at two drilling pads where water tanks ruptured recently. Two water tanks...	Sun April 20, 2014	Associated Press
Hear Justin Townes Earle, Nellie McKay, John Gorka & More on Mountain Stage	On this week's premiere broadcast of Mountain Stage with Larry Groce, you'll hear sets from John Gorka, Justin Townes Earle, Nellie McKay, Elizabeth...	Sat April 19, 2014	Josh Saul
DNR Officials Continue to Study Fatal Fish Disease	Columnaris Disease. It's an illness affecting aquatic life in West Virginia. While it can be fatal, Division of Natural Resources officials are...	Fri April 18, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Energy Corporation of America Won't Pursue UIC Project In Preston Co.	Energy Corporation of America says they won't be planning to put an underground injection well in Preston County, following months of investigation...	Fri April 18, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Does W.Va.'s Governor Have Too Much Power?	The question of gubernatorial power in West Virginia was forced into the spotlight after two decisions by Governor Tomblin following the 2014...	Fri April 18, 2014	Ashton Marra
Spring Kindergarten Roundup, Seed Sharing, Young W.Va. Poet	On Inside Appalachia this week, a small program in Appalachia is trying to help childcare providers save for retirement. We go to the West Virginia...	Fri April 18, 2014	Beth Vorhees
Documents Strengthen Legislative Veto Override, W.Va.'s Professor of the Year, Mountain Stage Music	Historical documents seem to strengthen some Republican lawmakers' case that the Legislature has the ultimate power to override a gubernatorial veto...	Fri April 18, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. Tourism Budget Doubling After Chemical Leak	West Virginia is expanding its tourism funding in hopes of offsetting negative publicity from the January chemical spill in the Elk River that...	Fri April 18, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Expands Women and Children Nutrition Program	The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources says a program intended to keep mothers and their young children healthy has raised its...	Fri April 18, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Ghost Story Archive Calls For Submissions	WVGhosts.com is an archive of WV ghost stories, and they're looking for more submissions. Jonathan Moore of Pax, W.Va. started collecting WV ghost...	Fri April 18, 2014	Glynis Board
Poetry on State of the Re:Union	Hear the latest radio special in honor of National Poetry Month Thursday, April 24 at 9 p.m. In addition to being a public radio host, Al Letson is...	Thu April 17, 2014	Teresa Wills

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Morrisey Files Motion to Dismiss Charleston Gun Lawsuit	to Attorney General Patrick Morrisey has filed motions to intervene in and dismiss a Kanawha County Circuit Court case challenging a new state gun...	Thu April 17, 2014	Ashton Marra
Flying High!	Milwaukee Public Television's production of the Milwaukee Ballet's wildly popular production of Peter Pan will play to a national primetime television	Thu April 17, 2014	Carole Carter
New River Bald Eagle Hit by Train and Vehicle Dies	A female bald eagle that nested in the New River Gorge has died from injuries suffered last month when she was hit by a train and later by a vehicle...	Thu April 17, 2014	Associated Press
The Law Works - Fair Housing	If you are selling or renting a house, apartment, or other residence, can you decide to whom you wish to sell, or have as a tenant?. What can you...	Thu April 17, 2014	Dan Ringer
Follow An Amazing Troop of Snow Monkeys With Nature	#pbsTHINKday includes Nature, NOVA, and Your Inner Fish, all beginning at 8 p.m. on West Virginia PBS! In the frigid valleys of Japanâ€™s Shiga...	Thu April 17, 2014	Robin Mazza
Who's That Guy?	"Though this be madness, yet there is method in't." ~Hamlet "Who's that guy with the wild eyes? I want to meet him." That's a quote from a friend of...	Thu April 17, 2014	Jim Lange
Author Neil Schubin's Series Concludes With "Your Inner Monkey"	Our primate progenitors had bodies a lot like those of modern monkeys and spent tens of millions of years living in trees. From them we inherited our	Thu April 17, 2014	Robin Mazza
Thanks for a Successful Listen, Support, Sustain Radio Campaign	Thank you for your support in our Listen, Support, Sustain drive that ended on West Virginia Public Radio on April 12. Below are the winners from our	Thu April 17, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Marshall Professor Named 2013 Professor of the Year	A Marshall University English Professor has been named the 2013 Professor of the Year in the state. Kateryna Schray is an English Professor in the	Thu April 17, 2014	Clark Davis
Iconic Recording Studio "Muscle Shoals" Independent Lens	Located alongside the Tennessee River, Muscle Shoals, on Alabama, is the unlikely breeding ground for some of Americaâ€™s most creative and defiant music.	Thu April 17, 2014	Robin Mazza
John Gorka - "Give Us Back Our Water" - Live from Mountain Stage	Iconic Midwestern folk singer John Gorka returned to Mountain Stage in early February, with a brand new song that he introduced as his "love letter to	Thu April 17, 2014	Josh Saul
Peter Pan and Tinkerbell Brought to Life By Milwaukee Ballet	It was the toast of Milwaukeeâ€™s performing arts community and now Peter Pan From the Milwaukee Ballet, recorded and produced for television by...	Thu April 17, 2014	Robin Mazza

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Wild Kratts Has a New App for Children 4-8 Who Love Animals	Check out the all-new Wild Kratts World Adventure App for iPhone, iPad and iPod touch, a science-focused app based on the popular animal-themed...	Thu April 17, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Handel's Messiah Classical Music with Matt Jackfert	On Friday during Classical Music with Matt Jackfert, Matt will be airing the Calvin Oratorio Society's 2013 performance of Handel's Messiah, the...	Thu April 17, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Theatre W.Va. Will Return for 54th Season	Theatre West Virginia is preparing to return for its 54th season following a shutdown caused by financial problems. The Register-Herald reports...	Thu April 17, 2014	Associated Press
Lawmaker: Legislators are Ceding Power to Governor, The Mysterious Tradition of Salt Rising Bread	One state lawmaker says the balance of power in the state has been shifting toward the office of governor for decades as legislators slowly cede their	Thu April 17, 2014	Ashton Marra
Research Center Working to Create Food Hubs in W.Va.	An Upshur County research center is examining the idea of creating "food hubs" in West Virginia. The concept is being floated by the New Appalachian...	Thu April 17, 2014	Associated Press
Heroin's Path on Reveal	This week on our new investigative journalism show, "Reveal," we learn about the abuse of heroin, immigrant farmworkers, and teen prisoners and...	Thu April 17, 2014	Teresa Wills
Salt Rising Bread: Appalachian Tradition of Longing and Wild Microbes	An Salt Rising Bread is an Appalachian traditional bread made without yeast. It's a baking custom that can be traced back to the 1800s. But not much...	Wed April 16, 2014	Glynis Board
Cars on Coal Train En Route to Va. Derail in W.Va.	Crews are cleaning up after a dozen cars of a coal train destined for export from Virginia derailed in southern West Virginia. A spokesman for...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press
Are New Regulations Tough Enough to Prevent Another West Virginia Chemical Spill?	West Virginia Public Broadcasting's Ashton Marra and The New Yorker's Evan Osnos spoke with Judy Woodruff of the PBS NewsHour about January's Elk...	Wed April 16, 2014	Dave Mistich
Harrison Co. Residents Busted for Possession of Too Many Trout	Two Harrison County residents have been fined for exceeding the state's trout possession limit following the discovery of more than 300 trout in...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Official: $2 Million in Chemical Spill Reimbursable	A West Virginia homeland security official thinks responders for a Jan. 9 chemical spill into the water supply could receive $2 million in federal...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Two W.Va.-based Boy Scouts Councils Plan Merger	Two West Virginia-based Boy Scouts of America councils are planning to merge. Members of the Huntington-based Tri-State Area Council and the...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press
Rahall Raises $324K in Democrat U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall raised almost $324,000 last W.Va.'s 3rd District; Jenkins, $194K	quarter for his contested re-election bid, while GOP challenger Evan Jenkins banked about...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press
Fairmont State University Student Wins National Poetry Award	April is Celebrating Poetry Month across the nation. West Virginia's had a great many poets find success, including Irene McKinney, Linda Goodman,...	Wed April 16, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Racial Slur Found in Theater Owned by West Virginia State University	A racial slur spray-painted inside the West Virginia State University Capital Center Theater is being investigated by federal authorities. The...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press
Martinsburg OKs Preliminary Firearm Regulations	Martinsburg City Council has given preliminary approval to four proposed firearms ordinances designed to bring the city into compliance with a new...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press
No Touching Ban Placed on Inmates to Curb Drug Problem	Concerns about drug contraband have prompted a ban on regional jail inmates touching loved ones during supervised contact visits. A directive issued...	Wed April 16, 2014	Associated Press
Constitutional Powers Questioned in W.Va., Young Fairmont Poet Wins National Award	After some controversial vetoes from Gov. Tomblin, lawmakers, academics and citizens alike are questioning the balance of power in West Virginia's	Wed April 16, 2014	Ashton Marra
West Virginia Public Broadcasting Receives National Endowment for the Arts Grant	National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) acting chairman Joan Shigekawa announced today that West Virginia Public Broadcasting is one of 886 nonprofit	Wed April 16, 2014	Shawn Patterson
W.Va. Man Accused of Threatening U.S. Senator	Federal prosecutors say a 49-year-old Barboursville man has been indicted on charges he threatened to kill U.S. Sen. Joe Manchin. U.S. Attorney Booth	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Live With Mule Deer, Inside Animal Minds #pbsThinkday	Go Learn what it's like to live among wild mule deer, dig into the remarkable senses of dogs, sharks, and birds, and then uncover what we've inherited...	Tue April 15, 2014	Robin Mazza
New Film From Ken Burns, "The Address"	The Address, a new film from award-winning filmmaker Ken Burns, premieres April 15 at 9 p.m. on West Virginia PBS. The film tells the story of a tiny	Tue April 15, 2014	Robin Mazza

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Ex-Superintendent of W.Va. Schools Files Second Suit	West Virginia's former state school superintendent has filed a second lawsuit contending she was unfairly fired. Jorea Marple's latest legal claim...	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. DMV Announces Online Services Now Available	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin and Division of Motor Vehicles Acting Commissioner Steve Dale announced Tuesday that many DMVs throughout the state may see...	Tue April 15, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. GOP Says Former U.S. Rep. Staton Has Died	The West Virginia Republican Party says former U.S. Rep. Mick Staton has died. He was 74. W.Va. GOP chairman Conrad Lucas says Staton died Monday....	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Figure in Mingo Probe Sues Ex-Officials, Others	A figure in the federal Mingo County corruption probe is suing several former county officials and others. George White's lawsuit claims the...	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Cheat Canyon Property Bought by Conservation Groups	A segment of the Cheat Canyon will become a state wildlife management area and a nature preserve. The 3,800-acre property stretches about 7 miles...	Tue April 15, 2014	Glynis Board
Groups Work to Restore Wheeling's Oldest Cemetery	Work is underway to reset the headstones at Wheeling's oldest cemetery. Most of the headstones at the city-owned Mount Wood Cemetery have fallen,...	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Williamson Mayor Resigns, Charged with Making False Statements	The soon-to-be former Mayor of Williamson is charged with making false statements to the Federal Bureau of Investigations and the Internal Revenue...	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Preserving Cheat Canyon, Celebrating Shakespeare's 450th Birthday & A Man's Roots in W.Va. Slavery	Two national conservancy groups have announced plans to turn the Cheat Canyon into a nature preserve and wildlife management area. West Virginia...	Tue April 15, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. Universities Receive STEM Grants for Minority Students	West Virginia University and two other institutions of higher learning in the state will share in a $2.5 million grant to attract, retain and graduate	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Higher Ed Panel to Set WVU President's Salary	The Higher Education Policy Commission will meet April 25 at Fairmont State University to vote on a new contract for West Virginia University...	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Utility Plans Aim to Reduce Outages During Storms	West Virginia utility regulators have approved utility vegetation-management plans aimed at reducing power failures during destructive storms. The...	Tue April 15, 2014	Associated Press
Celebrating Shakespeare, 450 Years After His Birth	It was this month, 450 years ago, that the famous playwright William Shakespeare was born in Stratford Upon Avon. "We have made Shakespeare our..."	Mon April 14, 2014	Ben Adducchio

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

WVAM Says MCHM Not Detected After Carbon Filters Changed	West Virginia American Water said new tests show no signs of MCHM from water filtered through two newly replaced carbon filters. The company began...	Mon April 14, 2014	Ashton Marra
Freedom Industries Submits Site Remediation Plan	Freedom Industries has submitted its remediation plan to the state Department of Environmental Protection to address environmental conditions at the	Mon April 14, 2014	Ashton Marra
Ex-Homeland Official Accused of Fraud in W.Va.	A Virginia man who is a former director of a Homeland Security division has been indicted on charges he used his government-issued credit card to...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
GOP Targets Women in Two W.Va. Counties, 9 States	Other nationwide that Republicans are targeting to sway women's votes. The Republican National Committee's...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
Maurice Sanders: A Proud Descendent of Slave sâ€œ	A Michigan man paid a visit to Cabell County last week to see where his ancestors were once slaves. Maurice Sanders is from Michigan, where most of...	Mon April 14, 2014	Clark Davis
Gun, Brass Knuckles Found in Bag at W.Va. Airport	The Transportation Security Administration says a loaded handgun and brass knuckles were discovered in a carry-on bag at Huntington Tri-State...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
Kanawha Prosecutor Says He Won't Resign	Kanawha County prosecutor Mark Plants says his office doesn't have a conflict investigating domestic violence cases involving children. Plants is...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
WV DEP Investigating Tank Rupture in Doddridge County	The West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection is still investigating the cause of a tank rupture at a gas well site in Doddridge County...	Mon April 14, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Morrisey Received 10,000 Pages of Abortion Comments	As Lori Kersey of The Charleston Gazette reports, a spokesperson for Morrisey said it appears that far more comments came from outside of West...	Mon April 14, 2014	Dave Mistich
W.Va. Issues New Fish Consumption Advisories	West Virginia has updated its advisories for eating fish caught in lakes and rivers. The 2014 West Virginia Sport Fish Consumption Advisory removes...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
Survey: W.Va. Home, Long-Term Care Costs Rise	An annual survey shows long-term and home health care costs in West Virginians are outpacing such costs nationally. The Cost of Care Survey released	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Pipe Trades Apprentices Compete	The annual W.Va. Pipe Trades Apprentice Contest took place last week in Wheeling. Awards: Top Pipe fitter apprentice: Morgan Morgan â€œ Local 83,...	Mon April 14, 2014	Glynis Board

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

W.Va. Barn Demolition Uncovered	A barn demolition project in Mercer County has uncovered a 19th century log school. Brian Pigg discovered the hand-hewn logs at his barn's core while	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Schools to Get Free Computer System Upgrades	West Virginia's public schools will get free computer operating system upgrades for five years under a new agreement with Microsoft. The Charleston...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
Travis Morton: The Art of Symmetry	Artist Travis Morton's work is very distinctive. Look at several of his works and a pattern emerges. Actually, several patterns emerge and permutate...	Mon April 14, 2014
Apprentices Compete to be Best in W.Va., A Historic Mill Gets a Second Chance	The West Virginia Pipe Trades Apprentice Contest in Wheeling pits plumbers, pipefitters and HVAC workers against one another competing to be the...	Mon April 14, 2014	Ashton Marra
W.Va. Campgrounds Opening for Season	The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is preparing to open campgrounds at five West Virginia lakes. The corps says the Bakers Run and G.R. Freeman...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
Lawsuit Against Massey Energy Will Continue in Court	A long-running legal battle between two coal companies is headed for trial in Virginia. The Charleston Gazette reports an April 21 trial is set in...	Mon April 14, 2014	Associated Press
Water Tanks Explode at Doddridge County Well Site	State regulators are investigating the rupture of two water tanks at an Antero Resources well pad in Doddridge County. The Department of Environmental	Sun April 13, 2014	Associated Press
Jefferson County Mill Listed as One of Most Endangered Buildings in W.Va.	Feagans Mill in Jefferson County W.Va. was recently added to the state's Endangered Historic Structures list. The structures on the list are at risk...	Sun April 13, 2014	Rebecca Glover
Federal Funds Coming to W.Va. to Fight Homelessness	Several housing facilities across West Virginia are sharing nearly $1.4 million in federal funding. Sens. Joe Manchin and Jay Rockefeller and Rep....	Sat April 12, 2014	Associated Press
Shepherd to Host Annual County Tree Planting Event	This spring Shepherd University will host its fourth annual Arbor Day tree planting event on Saturday, April 26, 2014 continuing the effort to...	Sat April 12, 2014	Chelsea DeMello
High Tech Deer Tracking, Tennessee Moonshine, Thoughts From Kentucky's Poet Laureate and More	Tracking deer through infrared technology. Bluegrass Musicians, an Ricky Scaggs talks about his book "Kentucky Traveler : My Life in Music." Kentucky Poet	Sat April 12, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Two Killed in Kanawha Co. Plane Crash	Two fatalities have been confirmed in a small plane crash that occurred around 4 p.m. Friday near Route 60 in Eastern Kanawha County. Investigators...	Fri April 11, 2014	Dave Mistich

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Wastewater from Freedom Spill Sent to Ohio, North Carolina	Wastewater containing a chemical that spilled into the water supply for 300,000 West Virginians is heading to Ohio and North Carolina. State...	Fri April 11, 2014	Associated Press
Watch the Webcast of Sunday's Mountain Stage	We're thrilled to announce that this Sunday's Mountain Stage with Keb' Mo,' Joan Osborne, Tommy Malone and the Dirty Dozen Brass Band will be...	Fri April 11, 2014	Josh Saul
Jury Awards $1 Million to Fired W.Va. Nurse	A former hospital nurse has been awarded more than $1 million in a lawsuit that claimed she was fired for expressing concerns of possible violations...	Fri April 11, 2014	Associated Press
Mountain Stage Remembers Jesse Winchester	Jesse Winchester was an unforgettable personality and his songs were instantly identifiable. He visited Mountain Stage ten times from 1986 through...	Fri April 11, 2014	Josh Saul
Mr. Energy Independent: John Prusa and Betty LaVette on Mountain Stage	John Prusa hasn't been to a gas station in more than eight years but he's also been able to be energy independent. Betty LaVette performs "...	Fri April 11, 2014	Dave Mistich
W.Va. Court Allows Fee for FOIA Records Searches	The state Supreme Court has ruled that government agencies can charge an hourly fee for locating public documents requested under the West Virginia	Fri April 11, 2014	Associated Press
FEMA OKs W.Va. Chemical Spill Request, Denies Another	Federal officials have approved a funding request by Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin related to the January chemical spill in Charleston. But Federal Emergency	Fri April 11, 2014	Associated Press
Tori Amos Covers Nirvana on 1992 Mountain Stage Performance	On Thursday April 10 the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inducted seminal grunge rockers Nirvana into its 2014 class. The next morning the internet was...	Fri April 11, 2014	Adam Harris
W.Va. Native Sylvia Mathews Burwell May Replace Sebelius as HHS Secretary	Kathleen Sebelius, Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), is resigning and President Obama is expected to replace her...	Thu April 10, 2014	Cecelia Mason
W.Va. Schools Chief Looks Forward to Retirement	Retiring state schools Superintendent James Phares says he viewed his brief stint as an opportunity to help make a difference in West Virginia's...	Thu April 10, 2014	Associated Press
Senator Calls on PSC to End Electric Bill Estimates	Senate Majority Leader John Unger called for a change Thursday in the way a First Energy subsidiary is billing its customers. Unger requested the...	Thu April 10, 2014	Ashton Marra
Chemical Safety Board Begin Analysis of Freedom Industries' Tanks	Federal investigators will start cutting up tanks for evidence at the site of the chemical spill that tainted the drinking water supply in nine West	Thu April 10, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

W.Va. Mine Board Proximity Detector Rule	OKs	A new state mine safety rule will require coal operators to install detection systems that automatically shut down continuous mining machines when...	Thu April 10, 2014	Associated Press
Many West Virginians Last-Minute Tax Returns	File	About 30 percent of West Virginia taxpayers wait until the final week to file their state returns. Department of Revenue Deputy Secretary John Doyle...	Thu April 10, 2014	Associated Press
Awards Recap: Investigating 'Oxyana', A Plan to End Poverty, & The Demon Beat		A special edition of West Virginia Morning in which we have another listen to stories that recently won awards at the Associated Press Broadcasters	Thu April 10, 2014	Dave Mistich
Betty LaVette - "Everything is Broken" - Live from Mountain Stage		R&B singer Bettye LaVette is comfortable covering material ranging from Tom Waits to Bob Seeger. Here she lends her soulful voice to Bob Dylan's	Thu April 10, 2014	Josh Saul
WVU-Parkersburg Board Approves 8 Percent Tuition Hike		West Virginia University-Parkersburg's Board of Governors has approved an 8 percent tuition increase. In-state students in bachelor degree programs...	Thu April 10, 2014	Dave Mistich
The Ladies of The Bletchley Circle Return		Turn to West Virginia PBS for a new season of mystery and intrigue with the code breakers of The Bletchley Circle, beginning April 13 at 10 p.m.! The	Wed April 9, 2014	Robin Mazza
Federal Cuts to Black Lung Programs Expected to Hit W.Va. Hardest		A McDowell County clinic is worried that federal cuts could compromise care for coal miners and their families. The concern comes after grants for the	Wed April 9, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Martinsburg to Take Up New State Firearms Law		Martinsburg is scheduled to grapple with a new state law that prohibits municipalities from enacting ordinances regulating firearms. The City County...	Wed April 9, 2014	Associated Press
Black Lung Clinics Brace for Federal Cuts & The Award-Winning 'West Virginia at 150'		A McDowell County clinic is worried that federal cuts could compromise care for coal miners with Black Lung Disease. Also, a segment from West...	Wed April 9, 2014	Dave Mistich
"Reveal" Prescription Opiates from the VA	Investigates	"Reveal" is a first-of-its-kind radio show that brings listeners deep into current investigations and captures the drama and high stakes of the...	Wed April 9, 2014	Carole Carter
Wednesday is #pbsTHINKday		Join West Virginia PBS every week for "Think Wednesdays," a primetime line-up of nature, science and technology programs. "Think Wednesday" launches...	Tue April 8, 2014	Robin Mazza

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Local Health Department Joining W.Va. Chemical Spill Lawsuit	The Kanawha-Charleston Health Department plans to join the city of Charleston in suing over a Jan. 9 chemical spill that contaminated 300,000 West	Tue April 8, 2014	Associated Press
Boy Scouts and Others Plant Chestnut Trees Reserve	To Boy Scouts at the Summit Bechtel Family National Scout Reserve in Mount Hope will conduct a chestnut tree planting April 19. The American Chestnut	Tue April 8, 2014	Suzanne Higgins
Kanawha Prosecutor Seeks Dismissal of Charge	Kanawha County prosecutor Mark Plants is seeking the dismissal of a domestic battery charge against him. Plants is accused of hitting one of his sons...	Tue April 8, 2014	Associated Press
Two West Virginia Teachers Named Digital Innovators PBS LearningMedia	Two teachers in West Virginia have been selected as part of the 100 educators in the 2014 PBS LearningMedia Digital Innovators program. The program...	Tue April 8, 2014	Shawn Patterson
Parent Sues Center in Romney, Alleges Son Abused	A center for developmentally disabled people is being sued by a parent who alleges employees abused a 17-year-old former resident. The lawsuit...	Tue April 8, 2014	Associated Press
U.S. Justices Will Not Hear Appeal of Monsanto Settlement	The U.S. Supreme Court will not hear an appeal of Monsanto Co.'s massive settlement with thousands of West Virginia residents. In an order Monday,	Tue April 8, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Supreme Court Denies Appeal on $25 Parking Fine	A Charleston attorney went to the West Virginia Supreme Court to contest a $25 parking ticket. He lost. Timothy N. Barber argued he was improperly	Tue April 8, 2014	Associated Press
W.Va. Struggles in Election Performance, Specialized Bikes for Kids, and a W.Va. Farmer's Story	The Pew Charitable Trusts' Election Initiative releases their state rankings for election performance in 2008, 2010 and 2012, showing West Virginia...	Tue April 8, 2014	Ashton Marra
Study: West Virginia Ranks Low in Election Performance, Shows Signs of Improvement	Data gathered by The Pew Charitable Trusts' Election Initiative is making waves Tuesday as the organization released four years of collected...	Tue April 8, 2014	Ashton Marra
"My Bike" Program Comes to West Virginia	For young children with certain disabilities, it's just about impossible to ride a conventional bicycle. So a children's charity known as Variety,...	Mon April 7, 2014	Ben Adducchio
The Law Works - Active American Courts	What should a court do when presented with an issue that has never been considered before, or one in which the law is not clear, or maybe the times...	Mon April 7, 2014	Dan Ringer

WV Public Radio News Issues

4/1/14 - 6/30/14

The Dave Clark Five, Fifty Years After the British Invasion	Rare footage and star-studded interviews highlight this two-hour Great Performances special, Tuesday, April 8 at 8 p.m. on West Virginia PBS. The Dave...	Mon April 7, 2014
West Virginia American Water Ordered to Remain in State Projects	State regulators have ordered West Virginia American Water Company to continue participating in a series of local water extension projects. Monday's	Mon April 7, 2014	Associated Press
Escaped Beckley Inmate Captured	An inmate who escaped from the Beckley Correctional Center is back behind bars. The Division of Corrections tells media outlets that 31-year-old...	Mon April 7, 2014	Associated Press
Event Service Organization Aims For Zero-Waste Future	Zero-waste events--that's the goal of one start-up organization in Morgantown. Green Earth Event Services was founded by Morgantown resident Garth...	Mon April 7, 2014	Glynis Board
Zero-Waste Event Services, Improving Basements for Energy Efficiency, & A Food Bank Faces Hunger	Morgantown resident Garth Lindley is the founder of Green Earth Event Services--an organization that provides recycling and composting services at...	Mon April 7, 2014	Dave Mistich
Mind-Body Connection, pt. 3, with Sandra Bain Cushman	To "refreshify" those weary minds out there, over the past few years, I have developed some rather intense back issues. My lower back is an animal I...	Mon April 7, 2014
W.Va. Courtesy Patrol Contract Extension Sought	The operator of West Virginia's Courtesy Patrol is seeking a two-month extension of its state contract. The Courtesy Patrol is one of nine nonprofit	Sun April 6, 2014	Associated Press
Judge Won't Reinstate Ex-W.Va. DHHR Administrator	A former Department of Health and Human Resources administrator has lost a bid to be reinstated before her lawsuit against the agency is completed....	Sun April 6, 2014	Associated Press
Teacher Planning, Abortion Ban Among W.Va. Vetoes	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin signed about 200 bills and vetoed eight this year, leaving teachers and abortion opponents unsatisfied. Tomblin vetoed a bill...	Sun April 6, 2014	Associated Press
West Virginia Public Broadcasting Named Top Radio News Operation in the Virginias	West Virginia Public Broadcasting was named Outstanding Radio News Operation among metropolitan stations in Virginia and West Virginia at The...	Sun April 6, 2014	Scott Finn
Hear the "Best of" Mountain Stage 2013	Join us on WV Public Radio Saturday, April 5 at 8p.m. for a special edition of "Mountain Stage w/ Larry Groce." You'll hear a "Best of 2013" review...	Sat April 5, 2014	Adam Harris

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

How Steven Grindstaff Made His Former Employer Cry	You usually don't want to be the employee who makes your supervisor break down in tears. But when Steven Grindstaff's old boss realized he would be...	Sat April 5, 2014	Scott Finn
Remembering the Devastation of Monongah, UBB, and a Tornado So History Doesn't Repeat	Let's look back at the Upper Big Branch Disaster to see what does it take to change coal culture? Remembering the worst coal mining disaster in...	Sat April 5, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Report: Freedom Industries President 'Bears No Fault' in January Spill	An attorney says the president of a company that spilled chemicals into 300,000 West Virginians' water supply "bears no fault" for the incident. Gary	Fri April 4, 2014	Associated Press
Huntington Area Food Bank Changes Name	Officials at the Food Bank in Huntington hope a new name will make all the difference in helping those in need. Leaders at the Huntington Area Food...	Fri April 4, 2014	Clark Davis
W.Va. Delegation Joins Gov. Tomblin in Opposition of Cuts to Black Lung Clinics	Members of West Virginia's congressional delegation have joined Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin in questioning a sharp drop in federal funding for the state's...	Fri April 4, 2014	Associated Press
March Madness Public Media Style - And the Winner Is...	We're ready to announce the winner in our March Madness...Public Media Style tournament. Beth Vorhees, News Director for West Virginia Public...	Fri April 4, 2014	Chad Matlick
Four Years After UBB: Families of Victims Say It Is Still 'Us' vs. 'Them' in West Virginia Mines	Four years after an explosion at the Upper Big Branch killed 29 miners and injured two others, an investigation by U.S. Attorney Booth Goodwin...	Fri April 4, 2014	Jessica Lilly
They Are Trying To Change The World--One Basement System At A Time	It's dark. It's damp. It's your basement, or crawl space. And for some people in Clarksburg, it's a labor of love to go down there and find ways to	Fri April 4, 2014	Ben Adducchio
Watch a Live Webcast of Arts Alive 2014	West Virginia Public Broadcasting will be partnering with the West Virginia Department of Education to live stream Arts Alive. A guiding goal of Arts...	Fri April 4, 2014	Chad Matlick
Upgrades Possible for Puskar Stadium, PRT	The West Virginia University Board of Governor is set to vote on athletic facilities upgrades and improvements to the university's Personal Rapid...	Fri April 4, 2014	Associated Press
U.S. Chemical Safety Bill Passes Senate Committee	Although itâ€™s only the first step in a long road on Capitol Hill, Senator Joe Manchinâ€™s Chemical Safety and Drinking Water Protection Act was passed	Fri April 4, 2014	Ashton Marra

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Remembering UBB, Protecting the Country's Waterways and the Song of the Week	Four years after 29 miners were killed in an explosion at a Raleigh County mine, Upper Big Branch miners' family members and friends discuss what it...	Fri April 4, 2014	Ashton Marra
Over-Prescription of Opiates to Veterans on Reveal	Reveal is a new investigative program from the The Center for Investigative Reporting and PRX. In this pilot: an exclusive story about the volume and	Thu April 3, 2014	Teresa Wills
Freedom Makes Profit in February	As Andrea Lannom of the The Charleston Daily Mail reports, Freedom Industries--the company embroiled in bankruptcy proceedings following January's...	Thu April 3, 2014	Dave Mistich
Surveys to Collect Data on Impact of Elk River Spill	Surveys soon to be conducted by local, state, and federal officials will gather data on public health and concerns following the January 9 spill by...	Thu April 3, 2014	Dave Mistich
James Naughton, Patina Miller Bring Broadway to the Small Screen	This Live From Lincoln Center back-to-back presentation begins at 9 p.m. on Friday, April 4 on West Virginia PBS. Tune in to West Virginia PBS for...	Thu April 3, 2014	rmazza
Some Employees are Upset About Job Change at Deaf School	The West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and Blind is changing the job description and requiring more education for the house parents who watch...	Thu April 3, 2014	Cecelia Mason
Wheeling Jesuit University Invites Public "Celebration of Appalachia"	Wheeling Jesuit University in Wheeling just kicked off what will be a month-long celebration of all-things Appalachia. â€œCelebrate Appalachiaâ€ is the...	Thu April 3, 2014	Glynis Board
Work Could Close Historic Wheeling Bridge for Up to Two Years	A Wheeling official says the city's historic suspension bridge could be closed for up to two years for a lighting and wiring project. City Manager...	Thu April 3, 2014	Associated Press
Deaf & Blind Schools Job Changes, Tracking Deer Populations, & Wheeling Jesuit Celebrates Appalachia	The West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and Blind is controversially changing the job description and requiring more education for the house parents...	Thu April 3, 2014	Dave Mistich
W.Va. Officials Say Budget Gap will be Filled	A gap in the state budget is growing, but West Virginia revenue officials say it will be filled by the end of the fiscal year in June. Tax...	Thu April 3, 2014	Associated Press
Eight Injured in Accident at Greenbrier Co. Mine	State and federal mine safety officials are investigating an accident that injured eight workers at a Greenbrier County mine. The state Office of...	Thu April 3, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Tomblin Hopes Feds	Federal funds for black lung benefits in West Virginia were Reconsider Black Lung	cut about 44 percent. The United States Department of
Benefits Funding Cuts	Health and Human Services Black...	Wed April 2, 2014	Jessica Lilly
Minimum Wage Bus Rolls into Charleston	An organization working to lobby law makers to raise the minimum wage made a stop in Charleston today. The group called, Americans United for Change...	Wed April 2, 2014	Glynis Board
Morgantown Changing the Way Deer Are Discovered	West Virginia's got a lot of deer within its borders, and they can be a burden. For instance, the state's vehicle collision rate with deer is one of...	Wed April 2, 2014	Ben Adducchio
UBB Families: "We Want Answers"	Family and friends of the 29 miners killed in the Upper Big Branch Mine explosion in 2010 gathered in front of the federal courthouse in Charleston	Wed April 2, 2014	Ashton Marra
Listen to Todd Snider perform "Stomp and Holler" Live on Mountain Stage	Mountain Stage celebrates its 30th anniversary during this weekend's premiere broadcast, featuring our old friend Todd Snider. He kicks off his set...	Wed April 2, 2014	Josh Saul
Tomblin Vetoes Teacher Planning Bill	Gov. Earl Ray Tomblin has vetoed a bill that would have given teachers more freedom in using daily planning periods. The proposal would have...	Wed April 2, 2014	Associated Press
Audit: Mine Injury Underreporting Data Lacking	An audit says the Mine Safety and Health Administration needs to improve its data on underreporting of mining injuries and illnesses so that it can...	Wed April 2, 2014	Associated Press
Subjects in UBB Film Work Separate from Don Blankenship	Families of the victims are bracing for another anniversary of the Upper Big Branch Disaster; an explosion that ripped so violently through an...	Wed April 2, 2014	Jessica Lilly
W.Va. Agriculture Department Seeking to Honor Women	The state Department of Agriculture is seeking nominations for a program honoring contributions by women to the agriculture, forestry and specialty...	Wed April 2, 2014	Dave Mistich
Event to Honor Upper Big Branch Victims	Friends and families of victims of a West Virginia mine explosion four years ago are meeting to remember their lost loved ones. A gathering for those	Wed April 2, 2014	Associated Press
Marshall Co. Student Wins $10,000 Scholarship with Mushroom Business Plan	West Virginia University hosted the state's inaugural high school business plan competition. Sierra Cook, a Glen Dale resident and a senior from John	Wed April 2, 2014	Glynis Board
Smartphone App Texting While Driving	Stops Texting while driving is illegal in West Virginia, but technology is being used to guarantee that you can't text from behind the wheel. Mobile Life	Wed April 2, 2014	Beth Vorhees

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

WV TAP Says The Water Is 'Safe', Reactions to Taking into consideration dermal and inhalation exposures, Blankenship's UBB Film, as well as ingestion, WV TAP researchers offer a screening Marshall Co. Mushrooms, & level for MCHM eight times as More	Wed April 2, 2014	Dave Mistich
Panel Deems CDC Screening Level for MCHM 'Safe', Independent researchers working together on the taxpayer-funded WV TAP project have already released an expert Establishes Own 8 Times As Strict odor analysis for Crude MCHM, and have	Tue April 1, 2014	Dave Mistich
Minimum Wage Bill Will Force Lawmakers will be called into a special session slated for Lawmakers into Special May to deal with a newly signed bill to increase the minimum Session wage, according to a press...	Tue April 1, 2014	Ashton Marra
Governor Signs Bill to Protect W.Va.'s Water On the same day West Virginia American Water workers began changing carbon filters at their Charleston filtration plant, Gov. Tomblin signed a bill	Tue April 1, 2014	Ashton Marra
Spring Practice Begins at Marshall Before Season of Expectations With expectations at levels not seen in over a decade of Marshall Football is into the second week of spring football practice, working to improve the	Tue April 1, 2014	Clark Davis
W.Va. Superintendent Announces Retirement as more pressure to complete their nationwide search for a new National Search Continues state superintendent of schools after...	Tue April 1, 2014	Ashton Marra
The Law Works - Challenges facing the Courts We live in a complex world. We deal with new challenges every day. New technologies. New relationships. New ideas. And so do our courts. Dan Ringer...	Tue April 1, 2014	Dan Ringer
Interview with John Mackey and Premiere of his Symphony for Band: Wine-Dark Sea	Tue April 1, 2014	Matt Jackfert
WVAW Changing Carbon Filters at Charleston Plant West Virginia American Water is beginning the long process of changing water filters that were in place during the Jan. 9 chemical spill that...	Tue April 1, 2014	Associated Press
Study Finds W.Va. Kids Fare Poorly Compared to Nation A private foundation says the well-being of West Virginia's white children is the worst in the country, while black children in the state fare...	Tue April 1, 2014	Associated Press

WV Public Radio News Issues
4/1/14 - 6/30/14

Kanawha Co. Maps Chemical Sites, West Virginia's Population Decline to Continue, & Snowy Owl	Kanawha County Emergency Management officials begin to log and map chemicals in response to January's Elk River chemical spill. A new report from West	Tue April 1, 2014	Dave Mistich
Our 5 Favorite Mountain Stage Moments at West Virginia Wesleyan College	This Sunday, Mountain Stage returns to West Virginia Wesleyan College in Buckhannon. In honor of the occasion, weâ€™re taking a look back at some of our	Tue April 1, 2014	Josh Saul