DATELINE NBC – 2nd Quarter 2017

All New “Down the Back Staircase” Airs Friday, April 7 at 9 p.m.

In his first network television interview since pleading guilty to manslaughter in the death of his wife Kathleen, Michael Peterson tells “Dateline NBC” correspondent Dennis Murphy that accepting a plea deal was, “the most difficult decision I ever made in my life.”

In 2003, Peterson was originally convicted of first degree murder after Kathleen was found dead at the bottom of their staircase. The trial made national headlines as prosecutors tried to link Peterson to the death of a family friend who was also found dead at the bottom of a staircase. Peterson spent eight years in prison until his conviction was overturned. He was granted a new trial after a judge ruled that he had not received a fair trial. In February, Peterson entered an Alford plea – pleading guilty to manslaughter but maintaining his innocence – before a new trial was set to begin. He was sentenced to time already served.

“Down the Back Staircase ” also features interviews with key players in the case, including: Peterson’s daughters Martha Ratliff and Margaret Ratliff, Peterson’s brother Bill Peterson, Detective Art Holland, former Assistant District Attorney Freda Black, Peterson’s defense attorney David Rudolf and Kathleen’s daughter Caitlin Atwater. Murphy has reported on this case for more than a decade.

All-New “Nightfall” Airs Friday, April 14 at 9 p.m

After a young mom is found dead on the side of a country road, 40 miles from her Knoxville home, investigators scramble to figure out how she ended up there. Andrea Canning reports.

All-New “Good & Evil” Airs Friday, April 14 at 10 p.m

When a woman's body is discovered at an Anaheim trash facility, a dedicated detective makes a promise to her mother to get justice. She doesn't know that search will bring her face to face with a serial killer. Keith Morrison reports.

All New “The Laci Peterson Story: A Dateline Investigation” Airs Friday, April 21 at 9 p.m.

In newly unearthed interrogation video of convicted murdered Scott Peterson, featured in a new two-hour “Dateline NBC” this Friday, Peterson denied knowing where his wife Laci was hours after he first reported her missing. Retired Detective Allen Brocchini of the Modesto Police Department tells Keith Morrison that Peterson’s answers during that interrogation raised suspicions, particularly his story about coming home the day of Laci’s disappearance. Detective Brocchini explains, “he has an answer. And he doesn't elaborate, doesn't get emotional.”

Friday’s special also includes prosecutor Birgit Fladager speaking about the case for the first time on national television. Fladager spoke to Morrison about Peterson’s motive in killing Laci and their unborn child Conner, saying: “he doesn't care about anyone but himself, he can be very smooth. But there's something underneath the surface that is truly evil.” Co-prosecutor Dave Harris added, “Laci and Conner were responsibilities and he didn't want that.” To watch the exchange click here.

The broadcast will feature a comprehensive look at the case, which Dateline has reported on for more than a decade, including interviews with key players such as: Amber Frey, Laci’s mother Sharon Rocha, Laci’s friends Stacey Boyers, Lori Ellsworth and Rene Tomlinson, retired Detective Jon Buehler, retired journalist Richard Cole and attorney Gloria Allred.

Peterson was convicted in 2004 of the murder of his wife Laci and their unborn baby. The story made worldwide headlines after Laci disappeared on Christmas Eve.

All New “The Death of Gianni Versace: A Dateline Investigation” Airs Friday, April 28 at 9 p.m.

In his first network television interview in the United States, Gianni Versace's longtime partner Antonio D'Amico spoke to “Dateline NBC” correspondent Keith Morrison about Versace's murder. “I heard the shot. My heart just stopped to beat ... so I ran out and then I saw Gianni laying down on the stairs in blood,” D'Amico explained.

Lead investigator George Navarro of the Miami Beach police department recalled finding out Versace's murder was connected to a string of homicides, telling Morrison, “I got goosebumps. Because now this was bigger than just Gianni Versace getting murdered.”

The broadcast will also feature new details and an in-depth look at the case, which Morrison has reported on since the murders in 1997. The two-hour special includes interviews with supermodel Beverly Johnson, noted fashion journalist and Versace's friend Hal Rubenstein, author Maureen Orth, Andrew Cunanan's friend Stacey Lopez, Miami Beach police chief Richard Barreto and NBC News correspondent Kerry Sanders.

This year marks 20 years since Versace was murdered by Andrew Cunanan in front of his Miami Beach Mansion on July 15, 1997. Versace's murder came amid a months-long manhunt for Cunanan, who was accused of committing four other murders throughout the country.

All New “The Life and Death of Princess Diana: A Dateline Investigation” Airs Friday, May 5 at 9 p.m.

In a new, two-hour “Dateline NBC” this Friday, Princess Diana's former bodyguard Ken Wharfe opens up about Diana's decision to forgo security after her divorce from Prince Charles. “There's only one person that could – in my view – that could have insisted that she retain her security, and that would have been the Queen,” Wharfe said. “If the Queen had insisted that she retain that security then we wouldn't be having this discussion because Diana, in my view, would have been alive today.”

Diana's close confidant James Colthurst also spoke to Canning about Diana's concerns regarding Charles' relationship with Camilla Parker Bowles. “Her big fear was that this is not a substitute mom for the boys. That they would try to sideline Diana and that Camilla might use her post,” Colthurst said. To watch the preview, click here. The transcripts of the interview excerpts are included below.

“The Life and Death of Princess Diana: A Dateline Investigation” features intriguing details about Diana's troubled marriage, turbulent life in the monarchy, love affairs, tragic death and ensuing investigation. The two-hour special also includes the first U.S. interviews with Paris police chief Martine Monteil, forensic scientist Patrick Tournon and former French diplomat Sami Nair. Additional interviews with key players include: Diana's friend Simone Simmons, lead UK investigator Lord John Stevens, photographer Pierre Suu and reporter Richard Kay.

This year marks 20 years since Princess Diana was killed in a car accident on August 31, 1997.

All-New “A Shot in the Dark” Airs Friday, May 12 at 9 p.m.

When Cara Ryan shoots her ex-husband and accuses him of threatening to kill her, police question her motive. This Friday, Ryan speaks exclusively to Keith Morrison about the twists and turns of this surprising case.

All-new "Secrets of the Desert" Airs Friday, May 19 at 9 p.m.

April 2, 2017

MTP EXCLUSIVE: SENATE LEADERS DISAGREE ON SCOTUS NOMINEE - MCCONNELL: 'GORSUCH WILL BE CONFIRMED THIS WEEK,' SCHUMER: 'HIGHLY, HIGHLY UNLIKELY'

McConnell on knowing anything about Trump's surveillance claim: "The answer is no"
EXCLUSIVE: Schumer calls on Trump and Senate to "come up with a mainstream nominee"
EXCLUSIVE: Former FBI agent Clint Watts: "How many times the [Trump] campaign picked up on lines that were promoted by the Kremlin, or vice versa, ... was ironic"

Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.) told "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd that "in the middle of all these other things that are swirling around, there are two things you can depend on: the Senate Intelligence Committee's bipartisan investigation, and of course, the FBI conducting a criminal investigation" -- notably not listing the House Intelligence Committee's investigation which is currently under scrutiny.

"You asked me if I knew anything about alleged wiretapping by the previous president. The answer is no," he added.

Ahead of this week's Senate confirmation of Supreme Court nominee Neil Gorsuch, McConnell said that "Neil Gorsuch will be confirmed this week. How that happens really depends on our Democratic friends, how many of them are willing to oppose cloture on a partisan basis to kill a Supreme Court nominee, never happened before in history, the whole history of the country."

Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.) exclusively told Todd that "Gorsuch will not reach the 60-vote margin ... Instead of changing the rules, which is up to Mitch McConnell and the Republican majority, why doesn't President Trump, Democrats, and Republicans in the Senate, sit down, and try to come up with a mainstream nominee?"

Former FBI agent Clint Watts, now a Robert A. Fox Fellow at the Foreign Policy Research Institute, also joined the show after testifying on Capitol Hill earlier this week about Russian information operations. Watts expanded on the use of Russian propaganda by the Trump campaign: "The synchronization at times, how many times the campaign picked up on lines that were promoted by the Kremlin, or vice versa, created lines that were then the Kremlin promoted back into the U.S. base, was ironic. It was hard to see that with any other campaign."

On if Trump was targeted by the Russians to help spread fake news, Watts said: "They just knew that he was opportunistic during his campaign. So if you put stuff that helps his campaign, he will likely use it ... But they also pushed for Bernie Sanders at times too. They would go on the left and the right. It's bipartisan."

This morning's roundtable was comprised of Robert Draper of GQ and The New York Times, Eugene Robinson of The Washington Post, MSNBC's Greta Van Susteren and Amy Walter of The Cook Political Report.

MTP EXCLUSIVES: GRAHAM CALLS ON TRUMP TO PUNISH RUSSIA FOR SUPPORTING ASSAD, KAINE SAYS WHITE HOUSE DIDN'T OFFER PLAN ON SYRIA IN SENATE BRIEFING

U.N. Amb. Nikki Haley on Assad as head of Syrian government: "In no way do we look at peace happening in that area with Iranian influence" EXCLUSIVE: Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.): "Here's what I think Assad's telling Trump by flying from this base: 'F you'" EXCLUSIVE: Sen. Tim Kaine (D-Va.) on Friday's Senate briefing: "When we asked about the legal authorization, they [the administration] said they weren't prepared to discuss that" EXCLUSIVE: Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.) on working with Russia: "Make them an offer they can't refuse"

In an exclusive "Meet the Press" interview this morning, Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) called on President Trump for action: "Go after Russia through sanctions not only for interfering in our elections, but aiding and abetting the use of chemical weapons by a war criminal, Assad."

"Here's what I think Assad's telling Trump by flying from this base: 'F you,'" said Graham in reference to Syria jets taking off from the base hit by the U.S. airstrike.

The senator also responded to moderator Chuck Todd's interview with Nikki Haley, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, noting that "regime change is now the policy of the Trump administration." Haley had addressed the administration's "multiple priorities" in Syria: "It's to defeat ISIS. I mean, we've got to do that for peace and stability in the area. It's also to get out the Iranian influence."

"You are going to see is pressure on the political solution. That's really what's going to happen," the ambassador said.

"I agree with Ambassador Haley that I don't think there's any political solution to the civil war in Syria that doesn't mean that Assad moves aside because he's tearing up the country. But instead of regime change, what we should focus on is humanitarian relief," responded Senator Tim Kaine (D-Va.), who exclusively joined the program.

Kaine told Todd that, in the Senate briefing on Friday, the White House "still presented us with no plan. We don't know if it's limited or whether there's more. And when we asked about the legal authorization, they said they weren't prepared to discuss that."

Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.) suggested that you encourage Russia to work together by making "them an offer they can't refuse. And that means tightening the screws on them, dealing with sanctions, telling them that we need their help, they have got to come to the table and not maintain this horrific dictator."

This morning's roundtable was comprised of David Brooks and Helene Cooper of The New York Times, Rich Lowry of National Review and Danielle Pletka of AEI.

MTP EXCLUSIVE: MCCAIN SAYS ‘CHINA IS KEY’ TO NORTH KOREA, ‘WE SHOULD EXPECT THEM TO PREVENT WHAT COULD BE A CATAclySMIC EVENT’

EXCLUSIVE: Sen. John McCain (R-Ariz.) on North Korea: “This may be the first test of this presidency” EXCLUSIVE: Sen. Jack Reed (D-R.I.) says Trump “needs a much stronger State Department” EXCLUSIVE: DHS Sec. John Kelly calls on Congress to fix U.S. immigration laws: “I would hope that the Congress fixes a lot of these problems” PLUS: Kelly on drug trafficking into the U.S.: “Marijuana is not a factor in the drug war”

In an exclusive live interview this morning, Sen. John McCain (R-Ariz.), chair of the Senate Armed Services Committee, told “Meet the Press” moderator Chuck Todd that “China is the key” to working with us on North Korea: “They can stop this if they want to because of their control over the North Korean economy ... Whether they’re currency manipulators or not, we should expect them to act to prevent what could be a cataclysmic event.”

“This may be the first test of this presidency,” the senator added.

“As Senator McCain indicated, China is key to that strategy,” echoed Sen. Jack Reed (D-R.I.), ranking member of the Senate Armed Services Committee. President Trump is “getting good military advice from General Mattis and General McMaster, but he needs a much stronger State Department.”

Also joining the broadcast exclusively was Gen. John Kelly (Ret.), U.S. Secretary of Homeland Security, who told Todd that, in response to a threat from North Korea, “We would raise various threat levels in the event that something happened, and we felt as though that there was a possible threat. You always want to come down on the side of caution.”

Kelly offered an example of someone who wasn’t deported in previous administrations that is being deported now: “Someone, as an example, with multiple DUIs. Even a single DUI, depending on other aspects, would get you into the system.” He also called on Congress to fix the country’s immigration laws: “We have to straighten this out, and I place that squarely on the United States Congress.”

And on this Easter Sunday, Pastor JoAnn Hummel of Bent Tree Bible Fellowship, Bishop T.D. Jakes of The Potter’s House of Dallas and Rabbi David Saperstein of the Union for Reform Judaism joined Todd to discuss the role of religion in a time of heightened political rhetoric.

This morning’s roundtable was comprised of The New York Times Magazine’s Mark Leibovich, Demos’ Heather McGhee, NBC News’ Andrea Mitchell and former Sen. John E. Sununu (R-N.H.) of The Boston Globe. Their conversations included addressing the president’s tweet this morning on his tax returns.

MTP EXCLUSIVE: TRUMP CHIEF OF STAFF BELIEVES GOVERNMENT WILL STAY OPEN, 'WOULD LIKE TO HAVE A VOTE THIS WEEK' ON HEALTHCARE

PLUS: Priebus says government funding bill will be enough “to move forward with either the construction or the planning” of the proposed border wall EXCLUSIVE: House Minority Leader Pelosi on the potential government shutdown: “The burden to keep it open is on the Republicans” ALSO: Sen. Rubio (R-Fla.) denies Miami Herald report of involvement in meeting between President Trump and Colombian presidents NEW: NBC News/Wall Street Journal poll numbers reveal nearly two-thirds of Americans give Trump low marks for first 100 days in office

In the face of a potential government shutdown this week, Reince Priebus, chief of staff to President Trump, exclusively told “Meet the Press” moderator Chuck Todd: “I believe it will” stay open.

On the continuing resolution for government funding, Priebus said that the money for border security will be enough “to move forward with either the construction or the planning, or enough for us to move forward through the end of September, to get going on the border wall and border security in regard to border patrol.”

“We expect money for border security in this bill. And it ought to be,” he added.

Priebus said he “would like to have a vote this week” on healthcare, “ but again, it's not something that has to happen in order to define our success.”

House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) also exclusively joined the network’s broadcast, telling Todd that, when it comes to the potential government shutdown, “the burden to keep it open is on the Republicans.”

On the proposed border wall, Pelosi asserted that it is “expressing a sign of weakness” for the president; she also said that “of course” you can be a Democrat if you’re pro-life.

Sen. Marco Rubio (R-Fla.) addressed recent reporting that he had been involved in arranging a visit between Trump and two former Colombian presidents at Mar-a-Lago, denying any role whatsoever and telling Todd: “I didn’t even know they were in Florida.”

The show debuted new NBC News/Wall Street Journal poll numbers, revealing that nearly two-thirds of Americans give the president poor of middling marks for his first 100 days in office.

Democratic pollster Cornell Belcher, The Washington Post’s Robert Costa, ‘TODAY’ co-anchor Savannah Guthrie and The Wall Street Journal’s Peggy Noonan joined the program’s roundtable for insight and analysis on the latest news, including the exit this week of Fox News’ Bill O’Reilly, which Noonan noted as a “serious setback for sexual harassment in the workplace.”

MEET THE PRESS EXCLUSIVE: VP PENCE SAYS ‘MAYBE IN THE SHORT TERM’ TAX REFORM PLAN WILL INCREASE DEFICIT

EXCLUSIVE: Pence on GOP health care reform: “I hope before the end of the year” PLUS: Pence says repealing and replacing the ACA will be done via “executive action” and “further legislation” EXCLUSIVE: Sen. Angus King (I-Maine) on lack of bipartisanship in the Senate: “There’s not a culture of success”

Vice President Mike Pence exclusively told “Meet the Press” moderator Chuck Todd this morning that the administration’s tax reform proposal put forth this week will increase deficit “maybe in the short term.”

“The only way to meet obligations that we face in deficits today, or long term obligations in our entitlements, Chuck, is through growth,” he said. “If we don’t get this economy growing at three percent, or more as the President believes we can, we’re never gonna meet the obligations that we’ve made today.”

The vice president also addressed his party’s promise to repeal and replace the Affordable Care Act, telling Todd it will be done “through a series of bills -- this first one that we’re hopeful there’ll be action in the House of Representatives soon -- and through executive action and through further legislation.” The timeline? “I hope before the end of the year.”

Maine Senators Susan Collins (R) and Angus King (I) – two senators from across the aisle -- exclusively joined the network broadcast this morning on set to discuss bipartisanship in Congress. Obstacles in finding common ground include “the rise of ideological-driven groups on both the left and the right,” “the divisions in our country,” and “the Senate schedule,” said the senators.

The New York Times’ Helene Cooper, MSNBC’s Chris Matthews, AEI’s Danielle Pletka and Republican strategist and NBC News political analyst Nicolle Wallace discussed the latest in political news on this morning’s roundtable, including the future of the Democratic Party.

MTP: HHS SEC. PRICE: GOP HEALTH CARE BILL IS 'A BETTER WAY TO COVER' PRE-EXISTING CONDITIONS, ADDRESSES LACK OF DIVERSITY IN ROSE GARDEN CELEBRATION

PLUS: Price on removal of W.H. Office of Drug Control: "I don't think the American people care," "What they care about is that we are absolutely addressing this opioid crisis" EXCLUSIVE: Sen. Blunt: House health care bill is "not dead on arrival" EXCLUSIVE: Sen. Feinstein on Yates' testimony tomorrow: She "apparently has some information as to who knew what when that"

In an interview on this morning's "Meet the Press," Health and Human Services Sec. Tom Price defended criticism that the health care bill passed by the House this week does not cover Americans with pre-existing conditions, telling NBC News' Andrea Mitchell that the 22 organizations disputing this are "not recognizing is that this is a different, and we believe, a better way to cover an individual with pre-existing illnesses and injuries because it allows for every single person to get the access to the kind of coverage that they want."

Price also addressed the lack of diversity and women in Thursday's Rose Garden celebration, telling Mitchell that those present were "prominent individuals who are leading in this area of health care."

When asked about the elimination of the White House Office of Drug Control in a time of an opioid epidemic, Price responded: "Now whether it's through an office within the White House or whether it's through a department, an agency of government, I don't think the American people care. What they care about is that we are absolutely addressing this opioid crisis in the most aggressive and effective manner possible."

Sen. Roy Blunt (R-Mo.) exclusively joined the network broadcast, telling Mitchell that the House health care bill is "not dead on arrival," but that the Senate will be "taking what the House was able to do, looking at that carefully and come up with what the Senate thinks the Senate can do."

Blunt also addressed Russian interference in the election ahead of former top Justice official Sally Yates' testimony tomorrow: "What was particularly wrong was General Flynn not being truthful about the substance of what he said and the campaign was apparently, or the transition rather, was apparently concerned about that early on, and it appears they should have been."

Sen. Dianne Feinstein (D-Calif.) exclusively reacted to the House bill coming to the Senate: "I don't know what the leader, McConnell, has in mind. I don't know that the thirteen white men, when you have five Republican women who are excluded from that, that these thirteen men are supposed to sit down and put something together."

Feinstein told Mitchell that Yates "apparently has some information as to who knew what when that she is willing to share. And that would be what she knew about Michael Flynn's connections to Russia and exactly what she knew they were."

'MEET THE PRESS' EXCLUSIVE: SEN. GRAHAM SAYS NEW FBI DIRECTOR SHOULD BE 'OUTSIDE THE POLITICAL LANE,' CALLS ON TRUMP TO 'BACK OFF' RUSSIA PROBE

PLUS: Sen. Schumer: Support for new FBI director is 'very much related' to a special prosecutor on Russia EXCLUSIVE: State Sec. Tillerson: 'Don't think there's any question that the Russians were playing around' in U.S. election New NBC News/WSJ Poll: Just 29 percent of Americans approve of Trump's firing of FBI Director Comey

Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) exclusively told "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd this morning that the president's choice for the next F.B.I. director should not be an elected official: "He has a duty and obligation to pick somebody beyond reproach outside the political lane."

"It's now time to pick someone who comes from within the ranks or has such a reputation that has no political background at all that can go into the job on day one," said Graham when asked about his colleague Sen. John Cornyn's interview yesterday for the role.

Sen. Graham also said "the president needs to back off here and let the investigation go forward" when it comes to looking into Russia's interference in the U.S. election.

Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.) told Todd the support for a new F.B.I. director is "very much related" to a special prosecutor for the Russia probe: "If you have an independent special prosecutor, then you really have the ability to get to the bottom of this, so it matters in terms of who the F.B.I. director is."

"I don't think there's any question that the Russians were playing around in our electoral processes," Secretary of State Rex Tillerson exclusively confirmed to Todd. When asked about this in terms of our relationship with Russia, Tillerson said: "We're not trying to start with a clean slate. I think terms like having a reset are overused. You cannot reset. You cannot erase the past."

New NBC News/Wall Street Journal poll numbers debuted on this morning's broadcast, revealing that just 29 percent of Americans approve of the president's firing of F.B.I. Director James Comey.

Joining this morning's roundtable for insight and analysis were Matthew Continetti of the Washington Free Beacon, Hallie Jackson of NBC News, Katty Kay of BBC News and Eugene Robinson of the Washington Post. Axios' Jim VandeHei also joined the panel for a discussion on a possible staff shake-up within the White House.

MEET THE PRESS: DHS SEC. KELLY: LEAKING CLASSIFIED INTEL IS 'DARN CLOSE TO TREASON, 'DON'T SEE ANY BIG ISSUE HERE' WITH KUSHNER/RUSSIA COMMUNICATIONS

EXCLUSIVE: Former DNI Clapper when asked about communications between Kushner and Russians: "My dashboard warning light was clearly on" PLUS: Sen. Corker on Kushner: "He's more than glad to talk"

Homeland Security Secretary John Kelly told "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd this morning that leaking classified intelligence is "borderline, if not over the line of treason."

"It's darn close to treason," he added. The secretary also addressed recent reporting that President Trump's son-in-law, White House Senior Adviser Jared Kushner, proposed a secret communication channel with the Kremlin so that discussions before the inauguration could not be detected: "His number one interest, really, is the nation, so you know there's a lot of different ways to communicate, backchannel, publicly with other countries. I don't see any big issue here relative to Jared."

James Clapper, former director of national intelligence, exclusively told Todd, that as director, when it came to Trump ties with Russia, his "dashboard warning light was clearly on." "I think that was the case with all of us in the intelligence community, very concerned about the nature of these approaches to the Russians," he said.

Clapper reacted to Kelly characterizing the leaking of information as "borderline treason": "I know Secretary Kelly takes this quite seriously and he should. Legal definition of what's treason? I'll leave that to the lawyers. But just from a practitioner's standpoint in the intelligence business, leaks are bad."

Sen. Bob Corker (R-Tenn.), chair of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, also responded to recent reporting of Kushner, who is under scrutiny related to the Russia investigations, though not a subject of the investigations: "Jared has said that he's more than willing to answer any and all questions. They reached out to us yesterday to make sure that we knew that was the case and I'm sure he's willing to do so."

Charlie Sykes, MSNBC political analyst and former radio talk show host, made his "Meet the Press" debut appearance, joining MSNBC's Joy-Ann Reid, The Wall Street Journal's Kimberley Strassel and The Cook Political Report's Amy Walter to discuss the week in politics, including this week's special election in Montana.

MEET THE PRESS EXCLUSIVE: FMR. STATE SEC. KERRY: TRUMP FINDING A BETTER CLIMATE DEAL IS 'LIKE OJ SIMPSON SAYING HE'S GOING TO FIND THE REAL KILLER'

EXCLUSIVE: John Kerry on London terror attacks: "Travel ban will be cannon fodder to the recruiters" ALSO: EPA Administrator Scott Pruitt: Withdrawing from Paris climate agreement "was not a political decision" PLUS: Preview from NBC News anchor Megyn Kelly of her exclusive, one-on-one interview with Russian President Vladimir Putin, airing tonight on NBC at 7p/6c

Former Secretary of State John Kerry exclusively told "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd that President Trump finding a better deal than the Paris climate accord is "like O.J. Simpson saying he's going to go out and find the real killer."

On the London terror attacks, Kerry said that Britain has "had a longstanding problem with respect to greater levels of alienation, a harder time assimilating into the broader British society, a lack of similar opportunity ... I'm going to leave it to her [Prime Minister Theresa May] and to them to sort that out, particularly five days before an election. "

He added: The "travel ban will be cannon fodder to the recruiters. It's the worst thing we could do. But we do need to do and we do extraordinary screening."

E.P.A. Administrator Scott Pruitt also joined this morning's broadcast, telling Todd that "the rest of the world applauded" the Paris climate accord "because it put us at an economic disadvantage." The decision of the United States to withdraw from the agreement "was not a political decision," he added.

Former Vice President Al Gore addressed the White House's economic defense for withdrawing from the climate deal : "The loss of jobs in the coal industry started with the mechanization of the coal industry. Natural gas started displacing coal and the fossil fuel sector, and promising to re-create the 19th century is not a visionary strategy for a successful 21st century."

NBC News chief foreign correspondent Richard Engel and NBC News national security analyst Michael Leiter shared the latest developments on the London terror attacks in the beginning of this morning's program. Engel reported live from London: "There is a concern that we might not be at the end of this. This is the holy month of Ramadan. ISIS has called for its supporters to carry out attacks during Ramadan."

NBC News anchor Megyn Kelly shared a preview of her exclusive, one-on-one interview with Russian President Vladimir Putin, who said that he "didn't even really talk" to former National Security Adviser Michael Flynn at a dinner both attended in December 2015.

Democratic strategist Stephanie Cutter, The Washington Post's Michael Gerson, radio talk show host Hugh Hewitt and Demos President Heather McGhee addressed the week in news, including the upcoming hearing of former F.B.I. Director James Comey.

'THE PRESIDENT IS NOT UNDER INVESTIGATION FROM THE SPECIAL COUNSEL,' TRUMP LAWYER TELLS 'MEET THE PRESS' MODERATOR CHUCK TODD

PLUS: Trump Lawyer Sekulow: "He's not afraid of the investigation. There is no investigation"

ALSO: Sen. Rubio on the Russia probe: "The president's pretty fired up about this" EXCLUSIVE:

Sen. King says "the collusion, the cooperation aspect of this investigation is not over ... We're 20 percent into it"

"The president is not under investigation from the special counsel," Jay Sekulow, a member of President Trump's legal team, told "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd this morning.

"He's not afraid of the investigation. There is no investigation," he added.

Sen. Marco Rubio (R-Fla.), a member of the Senate Intelligence Committee, noted "one thing we've learned, I think, from the testimony of multiple people now is the president's pretty fired up about this," referring to the Russia probe.

He also addressed legislation passed earlier this week by the Senate that would impose additional sanctions against Russia and limit the president's power to lift them in the future: "I personally believe that at the core of the resistance is not the president, and I don't think the president himself has a problem with additional sanctions on Russia."

"I can say categorically that the collusion, the cooperation aspect of the investigation is not over. And as far as that goes, I'd say we're 20 percent into it," Sen. Angus King (I-Maine), who also serves on the Senate Intelligence Committee, exclusively shared on this morning's broadcast.

The program's roundtable this morning was comprised of David Brooks from The New York Times, Danielle Pletka of the American Enterprise Institute, Eugene Robinson of The Washington Post and Amy Walter of The Cook Political Report; their discussions included the president's tweets and this week's congressional baseball shooting.

“MEET THE PRESS” EXCLUSIVE: JOHNSON ON HEALTHCARE VOTE: ‘DELAY THE THING,’ SANDERS: ‘NO WAY ON GOD’S EARTH THAT THIS BILL SHOULD BE PASSED THIS WEEK’

Wis. Sen. Ron Johnson (R): “These bills aren’t going to fix the problem” Vt. Sen. Bernie Sanders (I): “There has not been one public hearing” on healthcare bill Ohio Rep. Tim Ryan (D) on party’s Pelosi criticism: “This is not about us having a family fight publicly”

In an exclusive interview this morning, Sen. Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) told “Meet the Press” moderator Chuck Todd that, when it comes to the Senate healthcare bill vote slated for this Thursday, he “would like to delay the thing.” “There’s no way we should be voting on this next week. No way,” he said.

“What I find so disappointing is these bills aren’t going to fix the problem. They’re not addressing the root cause. They’re doing the same old Washington thing, throwing more money at the problem,” the senator added.

Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.) exclusively agreed with Johnson on this morning’s broadcast to delay the Senate healthcare vote: “Sen. Johnson is right. There is no way on God’s earth that this bill should be passed this week.”

Sanders, who argued that “we need a serious discussion” and that “there has not been one public hearing” on health care, also addressed the week’s special GA-06 election: “There is a massive amount of demoralization on the part of the American people with the Democratic Party, with the Republican Party.”

Reps. Tim Ryan (D-Ohio) and Debbie Dingell (D-Mich.) exclusively joined “Meet the Press” to discuss the future of the Democratic Party and House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi’s leadership. “This is not about us having a family fight publicly,” said Ryan. In reference to this week’s special GA-06 election: “It would be hard for us to say that after five million being spent tying that candidate to her [Pelosi], that it didn’t have some effect. The Republicans wouldn’t still be using this if it didn’t have some effect. And so it’s still being used for a reason.” Dingell noted: “If you’d get pragmatic, we always attack the leader. I don’t care who it is.”

This morning’s roundtable, which discussed the week in politics, including the Better Care Reconciliation Act and Rep. Pelosi’s leadership, was comprised of The New York Times’ Helene Cooper, NBC News’ Hallie Jackson, The New York Times Magazine’s Mark Leibovich and syndicated columnist George F. Will.

SUNDAY NIGHT WITH MEGYN KELLY – 2nd Quarter 2017

Sunday, June 4 – 7:00pm

In an exclusive, one-on-one interview with NBC News' Megyn Kelly, Russian President Vladimir Putin claims that he had limited personal interaction with former U.S. National Security Adviser Michael Flynn. Kelly asked about the nature of their relationship and a widely circulated December, 2015 photo that shows Putin and Flynn sitting next to each other at dinner during an event to celebrate Russian TV network RT.

"I made my speech. Then we talked about some other stuff. And I got up and left. And then afterwards I was told, 'You know there was an American gentleman, he was involved in some things. He used to be in the security services,'" Putin told Kelly in Russian, translated to English, in a preview that aired on "Meet the Press." "That's it. I didn't even really talk to him. That's the extent of my acquaintance with Mr. Flynn."

Sunday, June 11 – 7:00pm

In her first in-depth TV interview following her cancer diagnosis, Erin Andrews tells NBC News' Megyn Kelly that she doesn't forgive her stalker Michael David Barrett, explaining: "I have to relive it all the time."

Also, Jacob Soboroff looks at how former coal miners are turning into computer programmers, and Keith Morrison examines a breakthrough in gene editing, CRISPR, which gives humans unprecedented access to the source code of life. Jennifer Doudna is a pioneering co-inventor behind the technology that could fix diseases that have no cure and change life as we know it.

Sunday, June 18 – 7:00pm

Megyn Kelly sits down with conservative radio host Alex Jones to discuss his views, conspiracy theories and controversies, and the future of the media. Then Tom Brokaw shares some of his thoughts on the spread of lies and hate speech on the internet in these challenging times.

Plus, Harry Smith reports on California's medical marijuana industry, which has grown to an $800 million dollar business. One company is hoping to take advantage of that by delivery the product directly to the customer. And what's the deal with New Zealand? It's become a thing not only to visit but find work, even immigrate to this South Pacific country at the bottom of the world. Keith Morrison sets off to see if he can uncover the secret.

Sunday, June 25 – 7:00pm

In the first in-depth portrait of best-selling "Hillbilly Elegy" author J.D. Vance and his family, Vance opens up about watching his mother's arrest as a child, telling NBC News' Megyn Kelly: "In that moment I just felt relieved ... and I thought to myself, 'All right, I'm going to live another day.'"

From a troubled childhood in the rust belt to success in Silicon Valley, Vance has bridged both red states and blue with "Hillbilly Elegy." In his "Sunday Night" interview with Megyn Kelly, he opens up about his story like never before. For the first time, Vance's sister Lindsay talks about her relationship with Vance and her emotional reaction to the memoir. Kelly also sits down with Vance's wife, Usha Chilukuri, and his law school teacher Amy Chua, author of "Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother."

Also on "Sunday Night," NBC News correspondent Cynthia McFadden investigates a widespread rehab insurance kick-back scheme making some people rich by encouraging relapse instead of recovery in Palm Beach County. Additionally, NBC News correspondent Harry Smith travels to the end of the earth to find out what penguins might tell us about climate change and why everyone should care. Smith joins Ron Naveen, the "Birdman of Antarctica," and Dr. Heather Lynch to explore.
