Issues of Concern to Austin and Central Texas Addressed In Responsive Programming

First Quarter 2024

- Children/Education Health, safety, education; general support for children
- Community Support Non-profit organizations and state agencies, which help those in need, including environmental organizations.
- Cultural Events Local art events, community entertainment
- Heath/Healthcare Illness/disease prevention, information, warning signs, treatment and alternatives, general health information
- Public Information Helpful information and opportunities for the general public

Responsive Programming Efforts on Audacy's Austin Stations:

1. Station Sponsorships & PSAs Community events sponsored in part or in whole by KAMX, KKMJ and/or KJCE, and Public Service Announcements provided for free in order to increase public awareness on community topics and events.
2. Public Affairs Program "Inside Austin" Locally produced one-hour program featuring discussions with in-studio guests, focusing on various problems and issues of concern to community residents of Austin and Central Texas.

Sponsorships, Community Involvement, and Other initiatives First Quarter, 2024

Prom Rack - Write To Me Foundation

Mix 94.7, Majic 95.5, and HOT 95.9 partnered with Write To Me to provide free prom attire to high school students throughout Central Texas as part of Write To Me's Prom Rack event. Each guest is greeted by a host, who assigns a personal shopper to assist them in selecting their dress, shoes, jewelry, gift bag, and make-up bag.

Puppy Bowl - Austin Humane Society

Mix 94.7 Supported Austin Humane Society's 17th annual Puppy Bown with promotional announcements, and our air personalities appeared on-site during the event! The Puppy Bowl helps raise funds to support AHS's mission of offering comprehensive, humane, life-saving animal services, transforming the lives of animals and those who love them.

Amplify Austin Day Of Giving - I Live Here, I Give Here

Mix 94.7, Majic 95.5, HOT 95.9, and Talk 1370 ran promotional announcements highlighting Amplify Austin Day Of Giving on March 6th, 2024. Donations to the I Live Here I Give Here Amplify Fund support every nonprofit on the AmplifyATX.org platform. To date, the Amplify Fund has given $12 million back to these nonprofits on Amplify Austin Day.

SAFE Austin - Gala & Encore Party

Mix 94.7 and Audacy Austin provided on-air promotional support and attended SAFE Austin's Annual Gala & Encore Party. This event raises funds to support SAFE Austin. The SAFE Alliance supports survivors of child abuse, domestic violence, sexual assault, and sex trafficking in Austin, Texas.

First Quarter 2024

Air Date	Duration	Issue/Topic
1/14/2024	:26min	Austin Angels - Sara Hale joins host Brian Fitzgerald to talk about how Austin Angels is there for both foster parents and the children they care for by offering tools and mentorship programs and the current state of foster care in Texas and beyond.
1/21/2024	:26min	Magdalene House of Austin—Toni McKinley from Magdalene House of Austin joins Inside Austin and host Brian Fitzgerald for a conversation about the work they do with sex trafficking survivors. They also discuss January as Human Trafficking Prevention and Awareness Month and how Magdalene House recently expanded the number of women it can serve.
	:26min	Peak Performers—Peak Performers is a nonprofit staffing agency that helps disabled workers find jobs. Employers often find overlooked but qualified workers. Myles Wallace joins host Brian Fitzgerald on this edition of Inside Austin to discuss how Peak Performers is changing the perception of disability in the workplace.
1/28/2024	:26min	Torch Literary Arts—For this episode of Inside Austin, Host Brian Fitzgerald has a wide-ranging conversation with the 2024 Texas Poet Laureate Amanda Johnston. They talk about her Torch Literary Arts non-profit, which helps Black women writers find their voices and offers a way to access their work to a broader audience. They also discuss the creative process and how the act of doing the work outweighs the need for success or positive feedback.
2/4/2024	:26min	Chorus Austin—In this segment of Inside Austin, host Brian Fitzgerald is joined by Chorus Austin's Director and Conductor. They discuss the upcoming performances with the Austin Symphony Orchestra later this week, and Southwest Voices: CrosSING Home shows later this month. They also discuss Chorus Austin's unique place in the Live Music Capital of the World.
	:26min	Austin Humane Society—Director of Communications Sarah Hammel joins host Brian Fitzgerald to discuss the upcoming Puppy Bowl and the Puppy Bowl Live! Event following it. Audrey Allen from Mix 94.7 will emcee the Puppy Bowl, and DJ 2DQ will mix the music. They also discuss the Austin Humane Society's mission and how we can help.
2/11/2024	:26min	Austin Center For Grief and Loss—For this edition of the show, Rachel Saffer from the Austin Center for Grief and Loss and host Brian Fitzgerald discuss how children experience and process grief and loss differently than adults. They also discuss how being present is the most essential part of helping someone go through emotional pain.
	:26min	Texas Stars—Host Brian Fitzgerald talks with John Peterson from the Texas Stars about their upcoming Pink in the Rink games to support the Breast Cancer Resource Center and how hockey is such an underrated sport.

2/18/2024	:26min	I Live Here, I Give Here - Piper Stege Nelson joined host Brian Fitzgerald on this edition of Inside Austin to talk about the upcoming Amplify Austin and Amplify WilCO Day from 6 pm March 6th to 6 pm March 7th. They also discussed the softer side of Texas and how they help over 700 charities with this local event.
2/25/2024	:26min	Classical Mystery Tour—Musician Jim Owen is a guest on this edition of Inside Austin. Jim joined host Brian Fitzgerald to discuss the return of Classical Mystery Tour to Austin and how The Beatles' music is the soundtrack for several different generations.
	:26min	KLRU Austin's PBS - Laura Barnett from KLRU joins host Brian Fitzgerald on Inside Austin to discuss their pledge drive, their upcoming Made in Austin event, and the role we play in PBS from both a national and local way.
3/4/2024	:26min	Red Cross—On today's show, Richard McAlister from the Red Cross joins host Brian Fitzgerald for what was supposed to be a conversation about March being Red Cross month. That all changed as the panhandle fires worsened, so the topic also changed.
3/10/2024	:26min	Austin Transit Partnership—For this edition of Inside Austin, host Brian Fitzgerald talks with Jennifer Pyne and Greg Canally from the Austin Transit Partnership about their light rail project and the importance of public transportation in a growing city.
	:26min	Brain Injury Awareness Month—On this week's show, host Brian Fitzgerald is joined by Dr. Robert Stern, a Neuroscientist and the Director of CTE research for Boston University. Dr. Stern rejoins Inside Austin to discuss the HITSS.org survey and the progress made with getting enough volunteers. The two of them also talk about the sport of football in different contexts, how amazing the brain is, and how fragile it can be.
3/17/2024	:26min	Launch Pad Job Club—Shannon Mantrom from Launch Pad Job Club joined host Brian Fitzgerald on this week's Inside Austin. She talked about the work they do to give those seeking employment the skills needed to succeed in today's job market and how changes to the way you find a job may be foreign to people who have been at the same job for years but are now looking for a new one.

3/24/2024	:26min	We Are Blood—On this episode of Inside Austin, We Are Blood's Nick Canedo joins host Brian Fitzgerald to discuss the planning and strategy involved in preparing for a big event like the eclipse. They also discuss facts about donating blood that you may not know, like the fact that only 3% of eligible people actually donate.
	:26min	McDonald Observatory - Keely Finkelstein from the University of Texas' Astronomy Department and the McDonald Observatory joins host Brian Fitzgerald to discuss the upcoming total solar eclipse happening right here in Central Texas on April 8th. They also talked about some facts about our solar system and just how clever the scientists who study space have to be.
3/31/2024	:26min	Autism Society of Texas—For this week's show, Jacquie Benestante from the Autism Society of Texas joins host Brian Fitzgerald to discuss the misconceptions surrounding an Autism diagnosis. Additionally, they discuss April 2nd being World Autism Day, how April is Autism Acceptance Month rather than Awareness Month, and their upcoming Texas Autism Walk on April 24th.
	:26min	Austin Symphony Orchestra—On this episode of Inside Austin, host Brian Fitzgerald is joined by Maestro Peter Bay, the Musical Director and Conductor of the Austin Symphony Orchestra. They talk about the Orchestra's upcoming season, its Maestro's Dream and After the Eclipse events, and Peter's love of sports. Additionally, they discuss how we can help the orchestra.
