This is what happens when you invest in organizations like @aaja_pdx: They fund internships for amazing young journalists of color like @notdonald, who in turn report on your community. GO DONALD!!!!

It's my third week at @OPB as a News Production Assistant and I got to hear my voice on public radio today. Thankful to @aaja_pdx + @SPJOregon for having this amazing internship, and forever grateful to the folks who helped me find my path to get here.

Today was my last day at OPB! Making radio's a rodeo, and I'm excited to get back in the saddle the next chance I get. Big thanks to everyone there who's helped me grow, to @aaja_pdx and @SPJOregon, and of course @OPB . Thanks to everyone who listened to/read my stories 🎙️
