ADDICTION/RECOVERY SERVICES	AROUND THE TRIANGLE	On this week's Around the Triangle, we talk about opioids, addiction and recovery. A new, statewide, public awareness campaign kicked off last week called 'More Powerful NC.' Opioid-related overdose deaths in North Carolina have doubled in the past ten years. We'll speak with an addiction specialist to talk about the road to recovery. Learn more about the campaign at http://www.MorePowerfulNC.com/.	TROY MANNS	04/07/2019 07:00 AM	03:00
FUNDRAISER	AROUND THE TRIANGLE	On this week's Around the Triangle, we'll check in with 'Angels Among Us' as they prepare for their annual 5k Run & Walk of Hope. The event, now in its 26th year, raises money to benefit the Preston Robert Tisch Brain Tumor Center at Duke. Get details at http://www.angelsamongus.org/. In our second segment, we'll speak with the assistant general manager of the Carolina Mudcats as their 2019 season gets underway at Five County Stadium.	ANGELS AMONG US	04/14/2019 07:00 AM	03:00
RECYCLING	AROUND THE TRIANGLE	On this week's Around the Triangle, we'll learn about changes at Marbles Kids Museum. Thanks to a grant from Capital Bank, they've renovated a portion of the museum's 'Moneypalooza' section. Museum CEO Sally Edwards and Capital Bank President Laura Bunn join us in-studio. We'll also get details about next weekend's 'Secure Your ID Day' event in Raleigh. Put on by the Better Business Bureau, the event offers an opportunity to safely and properly dispose of paperwork and unwanted electronics.	MARBLES KIDS MUSEUM	04/21/2019 07:00 AM	03:00
CYBERSECURITY	AROUND THE TRIANGLE	On this week's Around the Triangle, we'll speak with Hannah Thompson-Welch with the North Carolina Forest Service. Wildfire Prevention Day is coming up May 4th; Hannah will share a number of ways you can keep yourself, your family and your home safe. In our second segment, we'll learn about the rise in cyber threats. Hackers are targeting business and government systems -- like last month in Orange County. We'll talk with an expert who has tips businesses can use to keep their networks and data secure. Finally, Earth Day	NC FOREST SERVICE	04/28/2019 07:00 AM	03:00

Section II
NETWORK (and/or SYNDICATED) PROGRAMMING

Section II lists the network-provided (and/or syndicated) programming that the station broadcast during the preceding calendar quarter that addresses community issues.

GARDENING
	VIEWPOINTS	Gardeners always seek to get the most out of their plants, but some are finding that their plot of land doesn't produce the way it used to because of wildly changing, extreme conditions—torrential rain, then drought, heat, then cold. We talk to two experts who explain ways to increase your garden's productivity, and how it can help combat climate change.	04/07/19 07:30 AM	030:00
CONFEDERATE STATUES	VIEWPOINTS	Statues commemorating the Confederacy remain in some towns in the US South, though its principles promoting slavery and oppression of blacks are in disrepute. Some towns have removed these statues in the face of heavy opposition. A former	04/14/19 07:30 AM	030:00

		Mayor of New Orleans describes how his thinking evolved toward a decision to remove the statues in his city, and the issues it brought forth.
CULTURE	VIEWPOINTS	Horror movies are major box office. Some experts see the film “The Creature from the Black Lagoon” as a turning point. One reason is the Gill Man character, created by an often overlooked female trailblazer in monster design, Millicent Patrick. An author who has researched Patrick discusses her significance in American culture and the horror film genre.	04/21/19 07:30 AM	03:00
SEX ABUSE	VIEWPOINTS	In the 20 years since writing the young adult novel Speak, based on her own rape, author Laurie Halse Anderson has met with numerous audiences of adolescents. She has found a huge gap in the ways girls and boys perceive what constitutes sexual consent, abuse, and the consequences of assault.	04/28/19 07:30 AM	03:00
NATURE	VIEWPOINTS	In Meredith May’s new book, she examines the parallels between the inner workings of beehives and our society, and how beekeeping taught her numerous life lessons as a child. She also discusses the threat to bees with commercialized beekeeping and what we can do to protect these insects vital to our ecosystem.	05/05/19 07:30 AM	03:00
PSYCHOLOGY	VIEWPOINTS	We all get gut instincts when we walk into a room of strangers. Do we fit in here? Do these people seem friendly? Snap judgments are simply a part of how we function. But Princeton University psychology professor Alexander Todorov says that while these first impressions are natural, we should try to resist them.	05/12/19 07:30 AM	03:00
CULTURE	VIEWPOINTS	We examine how television series have grown to be more diverse and inclusive in the Peak TV era. One such show is Ramy, a new Hulu original, which candidly follows the life of a young, first-generation Muslim man and the challenges that arise with the melting pot of cultures.	05/19/19 07:30 AM	03:00
RACISM	VIEWPOINTS	Racial segregation still persists throughout the U.S. One factor contributing to this inequality is the structure of our towns and cities. Richard Rothstein and Tonika Johnson talk about how past laws and our government created a divided demographic and the impact this has on certain populations.	05/26/19 07:30 AM	03:00
EDUCATION	VIEWPOINTS	School lunches in the U.S. have long been overlooked. Dan Giusti, the former head chef of Noma and founder of Brigaid, is gaining ground in his efforts to overhaul the school lunch system and bring scratch cooking back into cafeterias. We speak	06/02/19 07:30 AM	03:00 with Giusti about his journey from fine dining to lunch reform and some of the barriers facing Brigaid.

AGRICULTURE	VIEWPOINTS	How we buy our food has drastically changed throughout the decades. We discuss the evolution of the grocery marketplace from local grocers to big-box retailers and how this has affected the production chain. More so, how food co-ops operate and aim to help support local farmers and communities.	06/09/19 07:30 AM	03:00
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE	VIEWPOINTS	In the U.S., one in four women are victims of domestic violence. Between 2014 and 2017, the number of victims killed by their partners rose by 20 percent. Two survivors share their firsthand stories and struggles. We also speak with author, Rachel Louise Snyder, about why domestic violence persists and what can be done.	06/16/19 07:30 AM	03:00
HEALTH	VIEWPOINTS	The first U.S. case of the plague presented in the early 1900's in San Francisco. We speak with author, David Randall about the outbreak and how it changed sanitation practices and government response. Fast forward to today where the plague is still present in certain parts of the U.S. We speak with professor, Michael Antolin who studies modern day cases of the disease and its context within climate change.	06/23/19 07:30 AM	03:00
ARTS	VIEWPOINTS	Phoebe Waller Bridge has produced and starred in several hits ranging from "Killing Eve" to "Solo: A Star Wars Story". Now, she's working on the script for the fourth James Bond movie and has created a new season of the show "Fleabag". We discuss her success in Hollywood and the allure of shorter TV shows.	06/30/19 07:30 AM	03:00
