Topic:

- Today on Insight, Josh Rosenstern discusses the political news, which is making headlines as we approach mid-term elections in just a few short days. The main talking points for Democrats has shifted recently as inflation and the cost of living is leading the way as a top concern. Brother Josh says after this election, whichever party takes the majority; we must see some legitimate steps to help the American people get back on a surer ground.
- Both parties, Democrats and Republicans, need to come together to help our country. Besides inflation, one crisis that must be addressed is our Southern border and the influx of the deadly amounts of fentanyl coming into the United States and the increasing demand for humans being trafficked as slaves for sex as they are working to pay back the cartel for their assistance to get into America illegally.
