

Issues & Programs List

for the Quarter Ending

March 31, 2023

KJPZ – East Helena, Montana

The following list identifies the issues deemed to be of greatest relevance to station listeners during the quarter.

1. Family Issues
2. Personal Relationships
3. Christian Living / Personal Growth

This radio station airs a unique niche format which is primarily Christian music, interspersed with numerous short-form programs throughout the week that provide insight on a variety of life issues. The stations audience is made up, primarily, of people of religious faith who desire to hear the type of music played by the station and to learn biblical principles which they can apply to their everyday lives.

There are many broadcast media outlets within the service area of this Station, along with countless online sources of information, which address contemporary issues of all types. This Station, on an ongoing basis, focuses on addressing a short list of those issues which are among the most significant to its listenership.

The station airs 3 minutes per hour, every hour, 24/7, of short-form content addressing a broad range of everyday life issues and presents listeners with two hours per week of long-form programming addressing the specific issues noted above.

The listing of programs on the following pages identifies a small sampling of programs aired during the quarter which gave significant treatment to one or more of those issues.

1) Family

01/21 10:26am 25:00 Focus on the Family Weekend
Dr. Miles Mettler recommends parents “ask for permission” to talk to their kids – rather than barging in and interrupting what they’re doing. That models respect and how parents want their kids to approach them. Overall, Miles’ objective is to help parents build trust their children.

01/28 10:26am 25:00 Focus on the Family Weekend

This weekend, we revisit our recent Daily Broadcast "Fun Ways to Instill Virtues in Your Children." Blogger and speaker Courtney DeFeo offers practical suggestions and fun ideas on how parents can make biblically-based values, love and laughter a part of everyday life in the home.

2) Relationships

01/14 10:00am 26:00 Boundless with Lisa Anderson

How to Increase Your Productivity: When you consider your habits and goals from 2022, what went well? What areas still need improvement? As we settle into a rhythm for 2023, our guests share small changes they're making to accomplish their goals in the new year. Cutting the clutter, managing your time, and being more productive; then implement strategies for taking your own personal growth to the next level. And, What's Changed Since the Roe v. Wade Reversal? Despite the Supreme Court's landmark Dobbs decision last June, tension has remained high around the topic of abortion in America. Some states have instituted more restrictive abortion measures while others have sought to expand abortion rights. Protests continue, but what's the real story? Months after the ruling, what has actually changed, and what are the implications for women, babies, the courts and the future of life in our nation? Focus on the Family's Robyn Chambers sets the record straight and offers guidance for how to champion life where it matters most.

January 26, 2008, the first episode of "The Boundless Show" went live. To celebrate what God has done, we're recapping some amazing memories and moments from the show. And, "The Boundless Show's" Origin Story: Steve and Candice Watters started Boundless.org in 1998 as a "webzine" to help Christian young adults live out their faith. In this special interview, Steve joins Lisa to share how Boundless went from being an online magazine to also becoming a weekly radio show. He tells us how it got started, why Lisa was chosen as the host, and gives advice to listeners on following Jesus today.

02/11 10:00am 26:00 Boundless with Lisa Anderson

Valentine's Day when you're single can feel lonely and "less than," but it doesn't need to be a day wasted. With a little creativity, the day can still be meaningful and fun, even if you don't have a date lined up. Our guests (all single!) discuss ways to avoid mental ruts and self-pity on Valentine's Day, how to make the most of the holiday, and their idea of an ideal Valentine's Day date. And, Need a Life Tune-Up? We're more than a month into the new year, so maybe you've strayed a bit from your well-intentioned goals and resolutions. Fear not: To get back on track, we brought in our counselor and friend Debra Fileta to discuss how to press the "reset" button and establish healthy habits in multiple life spheres. She'll discuss wanting to change, starting with a pause, owning your faults, and why life is not a one-man show.

02/25 10:00am 26:00 Boundless with Lisa Anderson

What are some things you should know when dating someone from a different cultural background? To help answer this question and address some dos and don'ts for the process, our panelists are ready to speak the truth. With personal experience in making cross-cultural relationships work, they'll share their own stories of meeting and falling in love, the most common barriers they had to overcome, and why an open mind and an appreciation for healthy differences makes marriage even richer. And, Josh Zeichik's job is to support, equip and encourage pastors. In this role, he rubs shoulders with seasoned pastors, new pastors, visionary pastors, and pastors just trying to stay afloat in a world of increasingly challenging ministry. Josh tells us the signs of a healthy pastor, plus the red flags you'll find flying around those who probably shouldn't be leading a church. He'll also share how to best get to know and support your pastor, and what you should expect from a shepherd leader.

03/11 10:00am 26:00 Boundless with Lisa Anderson

Spring is one of the most beautiful times of the year. Fresh starts, new life, longer days. To help us anticipate it, we talk about what we're most looking forward to in this colorful season. We also discuss the changing seasons of life including job changes, big moves, and when friendships come and go. And, many have a cynical view of where things are in America. But one of the best ways to engage the culture may be as simple as learning where we came from. Tim Goeglein is passionate about American history, working in Washington, DC as a policy liaison and government operative. Tim talks us through the lessons from history we'd do well to learn, plus insight on election exhaustion and how to put Christ above politics.

03/25 10:00am 26:00 Boundless with Lisa Anderson

Your siblings will always be part of your story, even when you're an adult. Learning to love and understand them can be a challenge, whether because of age, gender, personality or experience. This week's guests discuss some of the challenges they've overcome in their sibling relationships, plus how the dynamics have changed with age and life stage, and how to have hope if a sibling relationship is strained or distant. And, conflict is an inevitable part of life, but everyone handles it differently. To offer practical understanding for managing conflict, Dr. Danny Huerta shares five common conflict styles. He helps us determine our style, the pitfalls of each, and how we can do conflict better by understanding our tendencies. Sharing practical examples from his own relationships, Danny gives us the tools to turn conflict into a positive part of loving others.
