Appendix 3: Supplemental (Non-Vacancy Specific) Recruitment Activities Undertaken by KCCU

Description of Activities:

Job Fairs:

KCCU personnel had a virtual presence at the Red River Career Expo at Cameron University, Lawton, Oklahoma on Tuesday, March 9 at ten am. The Director of Broadcasting and Station Manager were available via Zoom to speak with those interested in a broadcasting career. KCCU has no open positions at that time. The Career Expo was organized by Cameron University. KCCU is a department of Cameron University.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, KCCU personnel were only allowed to attend the one, virtual job fair. The other opportunities were all cancelled.

Internship / Broadcasting Lab:

As a department of Cameron University, KCCU facilitates the education of Cameron University students by supplying positions for students involved in Cameron University's Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications.

The mission of the Communications program is to support Cameron University's mission of offering educational opportunities for a diverse student body. The program strives to develop students' intellectual capacities, prepares students for entry into graduate school and communication-related professions, and plays a role in general education.

Each semester, KCCU hosts several students involved in CU's Communications curriculum, including students enrolled in the following courses:

- RTV3911 Radio Lab - Preparation for and participation in all phases of radio and television; may be repeated. Prerequisite: Department permission.
- RTV4923 Practicum - Supervised work experience in a professional setting which relates to the student's career objectives. The internship will allow practical experience in radio/television. May be repeated for a maximum of six hours. Prerequisites: Upper division standing and department permission.

Students are involved in writing and producing PSAs, news writing and production, and other duties as assigned by staff. KCCU staff assigns the students their letter-grade for the course(s).

- Internship - KCCU mentors one Cameron University communications student in the spring semester. The intern is selected by the communications department faculty. The intern is taught interviewing techniques and news production with natural sound in a one-on-one basis with the director of broadcasting. The student then produces a Cameron University centric news program entitled 'CU News' for broadcast on KCCU. The intern is also mentored by the director with respect to positions and job expectations in the media industry as a whole. Since the student news production studio is adjacent to the director's office, the intern has full access to the director. The intern is required to be present 10 - 12 hours per week.
