Issues File For 1/1/2024 – 3/31/2024

As indicated by prior surveys, we observe these major issues to be addressed in programming: 1- Environment/Pollution 2-Economic Development/Tourism 3-Health/Wellness 4-Treaty Rights/Native Issues WXPR offers seventy-nine hours per week of national programming in news and public affairs from National Public Radio and independent program producers.

These programs include Morning Edition, All Things Considered, Weekend Edition (including WXPR Saturday Edition), Weekend All Things Considered, This American Life, and Reveal.

The above issues are addressed from a national perspective in these programs.

In addition, local perspectives on these issues are addressed in local newscasts presenting area and regional news stories, and reports from local producers which are inserted into both local and national programming.

The remaining eighty-nine hours of programming per week consists of entertainment and topics of general interest – the vast majority of which are hosted by local volunteers consistent with the overall mission of WXPR/White Pine Community Broadcasting, Inc.

Additional program providers in this category also include National Public Radio, Public Radio Exchange, American Public Media and National Native News.

WXPR broadcasts 24/7 from its transmitter in Sugar Camp, WI and translator in Ironwood, MI. WXPW shares time with WLBL, broadcasting from Wausau, WI; WXPR/WXPW is only broadcasting in Wausau Monday - Thursday 6pm to 4am and Friday 6pm to Sunday 5pm.

The following issues and programs list are only relevant for WXPW during the times it is on air. Enclosed are news stories generated by WXPR during the last three months. These stories were broadcast during our regularly scheduled newscasts:

Monday through Friday at 6:04am to 6:07:30am, 6:29:30am to 6:34am, 6:42:30am to 6:45am, 7:04am to 7:07:30am, 7:29:30am to 7:34am, 7:42:30am to 7:45am, 8:04am to 8:07:30am, 8:29:30am to 8:34am, 8:42:30am to 8:45am. The other weekday newscasts are from 1:06pm to 1:10pm and again from 5:04pm to 5:06:30pm, 5:29:30pm to 5:35pm.

Recurring local features include All Things Outdoors at 7:45am and 5:44pm every other Mondays; Field Notes at 7:45am and 5:44 pm on the second Tuesday of the month; and, Northwoods Moment in History at 6:45am, 8:45am and 5:44pm on the first Wednesday of the Month. One newscast is scheduled for Saturday morning: 8:04am to 8:06:30am and 8:35am to 9:00am.
