Arts, Lifestyle, Local & Multicultural History, and Profiles

The station brings attention to local artists and the arts community through its local productions. It also airs national programs featuring an array of arts and artists not otherwise accessible to the viewing audience. KVIE Arts Showcase features local and national artists. Rob on the Road, produced by the station, visits the people and places that inhabit our region. PBS KVIE is the premiere storyteller about its region and that is evidenced in the local and multi-cultural programs produced and aired. Stories listed cover a range of topics including immigrant history, regional destinations, and more. ViewFinder, produced by the station, showcases historic and up-and-coming communities and the people who develop and live in them. The Journey with Rob Stewart profiles local community leaders and their journey to where they are now.

GREAT PERFORMANCES SPECIAL: ANDREA BOCELLI – MUSIC FOR HOPE

(25:18)

Experience iconic Italian tenor Andrea Bocelli in an Easter Sunday concert from Milan's historic cathedral. With the city under lockdown due to COVID-19, the singer performs "Ave Maria," "Amazing Grace" and more accompanied only by an organist.

STORIES FROM THE STAGE: CHALLENGE ACCEPTED #316

(26:40)

The COVID-19 pandemic has challenged us in innumerable ways. It has taught us to be patient, kind and creative. And it has forced us to find courage in the face of uncertainty and loss. Matthew Dicks breaks through the boredom on a bike ride through lightning and hail; Michelle Figueroa starts a "good news" movement on Instagram; Kemp Harris tries to convince his 90-year-old mom that coronavirus is serious; and Kelli Dunham, hospitalized with COVID-19, discovers new ways to connect. Four storytellers, four interpretations of CHALLENGE ACCEPTED – a Stories from the Stage At-Home Edition, hosted by Wes Hazard.

VIEWFINDER: SAVING HISTORY – HUNTING THE OLD PIONEER TRAILS #2516H

(26:56) Magazine (Local)

Starting in the 1840s, America quite literally picked up and moved west. Hundreds of thousands of people hit the road, creating a long line of wagon trains that made up the Great Western Migration. Nearly two centuries later, a group of history buffs turned detectives are hunting for their old trails. This is the story of retracing the paths and wagon ruts that tell the story of the journey. Using pioneer diaries, these detectives are finding and marking the trails before they just disappear. Reporter Dave Courvoisier retraces 2,000 miles of trail – and 170 years of history – to tell the story of the men and women who are saving history by tracking down the old pioneer trails.

Education

Education, distance learning, access to education, technology in education, alternative platforms/tools of education, multiculturalism, funding constraints, and more issues continue to be important to the station’s viewing area. Programs listed focused on efforts to address these issues, and more, in the community and in communities nationwide that could have an impact on local level strategies in the future. Inside California Education—the station’s primary show about education, now in its third season, features compelling stories from all over the Golden State about California’s complex, evolving, and innovative public education system. It focuses on how public education’s challenges, opportunities, and successes impact students, parents, teachers, administrators, policymakers, and others. It also profiles some of the heroes making a daily difference in the lives of California’s six million public school students. Studio Sacramento features people and programs impacting education in the region.

INSIDE CALIFORNIA EDUCATION

(26:46) Magazine (Local)

Inside California Education brings compelling stories from all over the Golden State about California’s complex, evolving, and innovative public education system. It focuses on how public education’s challenges, opportunities, and successes impact students, parents, teachers, administrators, policymakers, and others. Stories may range from pre-kindergarten to twelfth grade, and include special education, bullying, charter schools, discrimination, agriculture, food issues, sign language, musical education, immigration, arts, vocational training, local funding issues, teacher shortages, groundbreaking new education programs, and more. It also profiles some of the heroes making a daily difference in the lives of California’s six million public school students. More than a dozen different episodes aired during the reporting period. During the reporting period, the show produced one episode remotely in adherence with state and county stay-at-home health orders during the COVID-19 crisis. This allowed the show to continue to tell stories and reach the community it serves with current content. This episode specifically addressed online learning.

Environment, Nature, and Agriculture

Issues affecting the community like natural wonders, animal life, exploration, eco-conservation, and more are significantly important to a region that is a major agricultural supplier for the entire planet. The station continues to air its national program (which periodically includes regional stories), America's Heartland—giving consumers an inside look at the people and processes involved in bringing food, fuel, and fiber to those in the United States and around the world. ViewFinder, produced by the station, focuses on regional issues affecting the environment, nature, and agriculture.

AMERICA'S HEARTLAND(26:46) Magazine (Local)

America's Heartland celebrates the men and women across who grow the country's crops, raise its livestock, tend its nurseries, and prepare its food. America's Heartland taps into the national fascination with food and curiosity about unfamiliar places and ways of life, while also exploring the American values of family, hard work and the spirit of independence. The series, produced entirely on location, portrays the worlds of agriculture, horticulture, and aquaculture complete with fascinating stories, compelling characters, innovative ideas, and enticing travel destinations.
