Title	Date	Time	Duration	Issue	How Addressed
Getting Through College Debt-Free	1/1/2013	6:30 PM	24:30	Financial	Is it possible to get through college without going into debt? Ron Blue, Founder of Ron Blue & Co. and the current president of Kingdom Advisors, talks to parents and students alike about the benefits of paying for college as you go rather than relying on student loans.
Purifying the Marriage Bed	2/12/2013	6:30 PM	24:30	Relationships	It's been said that the best defense is a good defense. Russell Moore says that when it comes to maintaining marital fidelity, a wife's best defense may well be to move into her husband's life with hard questions and a loving presence to open up the dialogue about marital fidelity, before the affair happens.
On The Death of the Saints	3/15/2013	6:30 PM	24:30	Social	The death of someone we love is an unwelcome reality, but how do we continue to live and function in a worldly realm when someone who has impacted us so deeply is no longer with us? Dr. Michael Easley eulogizes his friend and mentor Dr. Howard Hendricks, and unpacks the Gospel truth of our coming resurrection.
Jesus Loves Me	3/21/2013	6:30 PM	24:30	Addiction	Dennis Mansfield, an executive film producer and father of three, talks about his spiritual journey, his marriage and his children, particularly his oldest son, Nate. Dennis talks openly about Nate's early drug use, his spiral downward into the drug culture, including his run-in with the law, and his attempts with his wife to help their prodigal son.

A Gay Son's Journey to God	3/25/2013	6:30 PM	24:30	Family	Often the road God takes us on has unexpected twists and turns. Christopher Yuan, a professor at Moody Bible Institute, reflects back to the day when he finally "came out" to his parents and drove resolutely away, ready to fully embrace the gay lifestyle he knew back at University of Kentucky. In despair, his mother, Angela tells how she turned to a God she'd only heard about to find peace, joy, and hope for her family.
