						(New book series, The Virtue Chronicles - I emailed you the press release.) 1. How does the Virtue Chronicles series help capture children's imagination and cultivate their faith?
						2. Why do you think books like The Lord of the Rings, the Chronicles of Narnia, Harry Potter, etc. have been so popular among young people over the generations?
		7:45	Morning Show	Paul McCusker	Paul McCusker is a writer of many different kinds of things. You may know him from Adventures In Odyssey and Focus On The Family Radio Theatre. Or the Father Gilbert Mysteries. Or the Augustine Institute audio dramas Brother Francis: The Barefoot Saint of Assisi (2018 Audie Award winner) and The Legends of Robin Hood. Or plays like The First Church of Pete's Garage and Catacombs. Or C.S. Lewis projects like The Chronicles of Narnia and The Screwtape Letters audio dramas or The Annotated Screwtape Letters. Or the film Beyond The Mask. Or lots of other dramas, novels, scripts and lyrics. He simply can't make up his mind what he likes to write.	3. In the ever-present age of technology, what can parents do to ensure their kids get a balanced experience when consuming entertainment content?
		9:00	Catholic Women Now	Susan Tassone	Catholic Author "Purgatory Lady"	4. After reading the series, what do you hope kids take away or apply to their lives?

		7:45	Morning Show	Fr. Michael Zimmerman	Fr. Michael Zimmerman was ordained to the priesthood in 2017 and currently serves as assistant Vocation Director for the Archdiocese of Boston and adjunct Scripture Professor at St. John's Seminary. With the heart of a teacher, Fr. Michael was inspired to create a systematic discernment program for young men drawing from the wisdom that he received as part of his own formation. During the pandemic lockdown in May 2020, Fr. Michael scripted 27 episodes which are now part of a video series called Scivias (SHEE-VEE-US). Filmed in a way that captures many of Fr. Michael's own interests such as rock climbing, track and field, art, drawing, and of course the city of Boston (!), Fr. Michael hopes others can identify with his journey and recognize how pursuing God's plan for their lives will fulfill their greatest desires.	https://vocationsboston.org/press-kit Tell us what the Scivias video series is and what makes it unique. What inspired you to create Scivias, and what need do you see it filling in our Church right now? Who do you see as the primary audience? How will Scivias help to promote vocations to the priesthood? Where can people go to access these videos? How will they be distributed?

19	Monday	7:15	Morning Show	Jim Papandrea	James L. Papandrea is a Catholic author, professor, speaker, and musician. He teaches Church history and historical theology at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary at Northwestern University. Papandrea is a fellow of the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology and also serves as a consultant for adult faith formation. Papandrea is the author of a number of books for academic and general audiences, including The Early Church (33-313), A Week in the Life of Rome, From Star Wars to Superman, and Trinity 101. He has appeared on EWTN TV and a number of Catholic radio shows. He is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature, the North American Patristics Society, and the Catholic Association of Music. Papandrea lives in the Chicago area.	https://www.avemariapress.com/products/praying-a-christ-centered-rosary . There are a lot of books on the rosary and other devotional practices - why this book? She "treasured all these things in her heart" and by her words and actions she teaches us, not only to follow her example, but also who Jesus IS We could go through the "methodology" of the book: 1) The historical: What happened? Where was Mary? 2) The theological/christological: How can we see Jesus through Mary's eyes? What does it tell us about Jesus? 3) The moral: How should we "imitate what they [the mysteries] contain" as the closing prayer says? You could ask why the rosary is not prohibited by Jesus' words in Matthew 6:7 You could ask for a brief history of the rosary - how it came to be, etc.

		7:45	Morning Show	John Huynh	Director of Faith Journey	Let's talk about the Eucharist and the importance of parents' roles in cultivating a love for them in their children.  With many second graders in the diocese set to receive communion for the first time, how can parents help their children to continue to love the Eucharist long after this special day? a. Parents should prioritize Mass, prioritize the Eucharist, and they themselves need to take the Sacrament seriously: to receive it, and to prepare themselves to receive it.  1. How do parents take the sacrament seriously? a. To their children, they should share how the Sacrament helps them grow closer to Christ. To show their children, they should go to confession together and receive the Eucharist at Mass with their children.

21	Wednesday				Peter Kreeft, Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy at Boston College, is one of the most respected and prolific Christian authors of our time. His many bestselling books cover a vast array of topics in spirituality, theology, and philosophy. They include Wisdom from the Psalms, Practical Theology, Doors in the Walls of the World, How to Be Holy, Because God Is Real, You Can Understand the Bible, Angels and Demons, Heaven: The Heart's Deepest Longing, and Summa of the Summa.	https://www.ignatius.com/How-to-Destroy-Western-Civilization-and-Other-Ideas-from-the-Cultural-Abyss-P3778.aspx . To the practicing Christian, it seems that Western Civilization is already destroyed. Can it be saved? You open the book proclaiming the only way to save Western Civilization is to have kids. Why is this so important? What about Catholics/Christians who are unable to have children? Is it selfish to not have kids if you're able to have them? One of the more heartbreaking aspects of the book is your chapter on the lack of heroes in today's world. Why is it that so many people don't have any heroes? How is religious liberty being attacked by sexual liberty? Why is the term "liberalism" so confusing today? You say the two most crucial causes of the common good are morality and religion. Why is that? Is Western Civilization at the point of Brave New World or 1984 yet?

		7:15	Morning Show	Sr. Theresa Aletheia Noble	Sr. Theresa Aletheia Noble is at the forefront of reviving the ancient discipline of memento mori ("remember your death"). She was inspired by her order's founder, Blessed James Alberione, who kept a skull on his desk to remind him of his inevitable death. After a spiritual retreat in 2017, Sr. Theresa Aletheia received a ceramic skull from one of her sisters and she has been meditating on death daily ever since.
