

KTXH EDUCATIONAL AND INFORMATIONAL PROGRAMS, 3rd QUARTER 2015

Here is the list of educational and informational children's core programming targeted to children 13-16. Refer to the quarterly 398 for details:

“Elizabeth Stanton’s Great Big World” offers a dynamic television experience for teens – combining the exciting, fun, and diverse experiences of world exploration with the life-changing volunteer opportunities available in these same areas.

“Awesome Adventures” Our host, as well as two different teens, will travel each week to destinations around the world that can be both exotic and remote.

“Wild about Animals” will consist of four (4) different stories designed to teach children about both exotic and unique animals, as well as to educate them further about animals they see every day.

“Biz Kids” teaches the importance of understanding the economy and basic business principles featuring teens starting their own businesses, actively solving problems and developing important life skills. (7/2-8/27)

“Made in Hollywood: Teen Edition” introduces its audience to behind-the-scene filmmaking, special effects techniques and career opportunities focusing on the creative, technical and artistic skills of the motion picture and television industries. (9/3-9/24)

“Live Life & Win” features inspirational segments from character and determination in the arts, school and sports to health and wellness to teen success stories, with themes including social responsibility, perseverance, leadership, academic achievement, volunteerism, and exercise and nutrition.

“Teen Kids News” presents news and information features in a teen appropriate manner with segments including college advice; personal safety-including tips for new drivers; vocabulary skills; training and nutrition.
