

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of JANUARY THROUGH MARCH, 2015. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
The Children's Advocacy Center of East Central Missouri (CASA) is located in Union and has several upcoming events to help fundraise and promote volunteers to take part in the program.	Thursday, Jan. 15 8:15 15 minutes		Director of CASA Glenda Volmert announces the volunteer training program for Advocates and explains the purpose of the Disabilities Fair and Family Fun Day.
The Veteran's Affairs Health and Services program in St. Louis has come under immense scrutiny in recent months for its lack of efficiency and use of funds. A plan to fix the problems is underway.	Friday, Jan. 23 8:35 25 minutes		Public Affairs Director for the VA Marcina Gunther, along with Veteran's Advocate for the Franklin County area Mike Pate explain the root of the problem, the lack of oversight in scheduling appointments for veterans, and some plans that are underway to fix the problems.
The Culinary Arts Program at East Central College offers degree programs to area students as well as provides dinners and desserts for fundraisers. The students also reach out to the general population and offers opportunities in the culinary arts.	Wednesday, Jan. 28 7:45 15 minutes		Chef for the East Central College Culinary Program Mike Palazzola promotes a special learning opportunity for couples for Valentine's gourmet cooking. The class is offered on Friday, Feb. 6 from 6-9 pm. He explains the curriculum, the menu, and cost.
Mercy Hospital in Washington has become an Accountable Care Organization (ACO) through the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The Director of the program explains the significance of this change.	Friday, Jan. 30 8:15 15 minutes		Dr. Kelly Bain representative from Mercy Hospital in Washington joins the show to inform the general public about the ACO and how it serves the health needs the the poor and underserved in the community.
The Annual Local History class at East Central College is celebrating its 12th straight year, offering a different expert on local history throughout the area each week to the general public.	Friday, Jan. 30 8:35 25 minutes		Sue Blessi from the Franklin County History Society has organized the history class for the 12 years. She promotes participation by explaining what each of the 10 classes will cover as well as the historian who will teach them, times, dates, and cost.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
February is National Nutrition Month and the St. Louis Area District Dairy Council provides education and inspiration to listeners of all ages.	Thursday, Feb. 5	8:15 15 minutes	Nutritional Educator for the St. Louis area District Erin Rich provides information about healthy snacks and alternatives, enjoying the taste of eating right,, new foods and flavors, and avoiding Gluton cross-contamination.
The Franklin County Farm Bureau is a local sponsor of "Thank a Farmer Week" by providing information about how our food ends up on our table, from planting to harvesting to consumption.	Monday, Feb. 9	8:15 15 minutes	Erica Schwoeppe, a Franklin County Farm Bureau representative joins the show to help develop a healthy lifestyle and appreciate farming and farm families. She discusses the shrinkage of family farms and our need to help preserve them.
The American Heart Association of greater St. Louis sponsors various fundraisers and education programs throughout the year. One of the most successful is the Franklin County Heart Walk. This year it will take place on March 28. Last year hundreds of individuals and industrial teams joined in.	Monday, Feb. 16	8:15 15 minutes	Heart Walk Director Colleen Phillips represents The American Hear Association. She explains how to get involved online, form a team, and raise money for heart health research. The Chairman for the event is our own Buzz Eckelkamp.
CenterPoint Out Patient Services is new to the area, providing mental health services which range from individual to group therapy for the entire spectrum of mental problems. A local group explains the depth of their work.	Friday, Feb. 20	9:15 45 minutes	Raleigh Abell, Mark Gronski, and Baker Symes, Therapists and health staff talk mainly about common teen related problems and how they are handled in an outpatient setting. Hospitalization is also available at their St. Louis campus.
The St. Francis Borgia Regional High School Principal joins the school districts interview time sessions by giving information about events, curriculum, and extra curricular activities offered.	Friday, Feb. 27	8:35 25 minutes	SFB Principal Dr. Kevin Mabie discusses the latest learning tools for students, especially the digital textbooks, papers, grades, and how these are becoming a vital part of education. He also highlights upcoming events at the school.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
The Washington Home Show is an annual event, sponsored by the Washington Chamber of Commerce. It offers displays, vendors and instruction to homeowners throughout the area who are interested in building, restoration, and maintenance of home projects.	Wednesday, March 4 8:35 25 minutes	A Director of the Washington Chamber of Commerce Amanda Griesheimer describes the Home Show, taking place March 6-8 at the City Park Auditorium, with new features, vendors, food, and programs that will benefit any homeowner.
The Mercy Hospital Cardio-vascular Department in Washington has added doctors and services for patients in the last couple of years, to provide local one stop heart care. Facilities and procedures have been expanded.	Friday, March 6 7:45 15 minutes	Dr. Michael Wood, a new team Cardiologist at Mercy explains the procedures that can be done locally, without traveling to the St. Louis Hospital. Such things as all testing procedures, stints, angioplasty, pacemaker and defibrillator installation and monitoring procedures can be done at Washington.
Ameren UE has gone through proceedings to bury coal ash in the Labadie, Missouri area near the river. An active local group, called LEO is skeptical of this decision and offers alternative views in protest against this decision.	Friday, March 13 9:15 45 minutes	Local LEO President Patricia Schuba and documentary filmmaker Rhiannon Florn are bringing the protest to the public by showing four short films about other areas where coal ash is buried throughout the county. The films will be shown on the ECC campus on March 18 and open to the public.
Home sales have increased throughout Franklin County and springtime is an active buying and selling time. A local Real Estate Agent brings the public up to date on what to look for when buying and selling.	Thursday, March 12 8:15 15 minutes	Coldwell Banker Premiere Agent Mark Thayer joins the show to give realistic and important tips on buying and selling your home - such things as heating and cooling, electrical, and foundation concerns.
A Transition Resource Fair, highlighting services offered to students and adults with disabilities is an annual event in Franklin County for the purpose of education and informing the disabled and their caregivers.	Wednesday, March 18 8:35 25 minutes	Chairperson of this year's Fair Maria Kerr has established the theme "Freeway To Change." The Fair will take place on the ECC campus on March 24 with new exhibits and fun for all.	