

There follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of April through June, 2018. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
The Franklin County Humane Society is a non-profit organization not funded by the government. They serve the Franklin County region through donation and volunteers and fundraisers. They have been successful in adoption programs, foster care, micro-chipping, neutering, and other health screenings.	Wednesday, April 11	8:35	25 minutes	Leighanne Hoekel is the director of programs, donations, and public relations for the FCHS. She explains the foster program for dogs and cats, and upcoming fundraisers in the area such as the Rummage Sale on April 14, the Spring Begging in the Streets Day, and the Luau on the River.
Grace's Place Crisis Nursery in Washington provides temporary shelter for kids in a time of crisis. They also provide food, clothing, and a safe environment. They are funded partially through government resources.	Wednesday, May 9	8:15	15 minutes	Executive Director Amanda Jones promotes the two upcoming fundraisers and awareness events in the area - The Vintage Market and The Classes Car Show which are held in the Spring.
The Union Chamber of Commerce sponsors events and promotes many businesses in the Union area, many of which help build a strong and united community.	Wednesday, April 25	9:15	45 minutes	Executive Director for the Union Chamber Melissa Vogt talks about the Annual Founders Day Walk and 10K Run set for June 2 and the Annual Sunrise Scramble Golf Tournament.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Former Washington High School Graduate Jordan Scheer passed away several years ago from a Cancer related illness. In his memory, several student led clubs join together to build awareness by hosting a Relay for Life on the campus.	Thursday, April 26	8:35	25 minutes	The student committee at Washington High School discuss the planning and preparation for this annual event, where several hundred students from grade school through high school participate. This year it will be held on April 27.
---	---------------------------	-------------	-------------------	---

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
First Christian Church in Union hosts a Back To School Fair in July to help under resourced children prepare for the upcoming school year with much needed supplies. At this point over 800 children have registered to participate in the program.	Wednesday, May 9	9:15	45 minutes	Co-Chairs of the Children's Ministry Theresa Wolf and Ann Beneten join the show to explain what the community can do to help. Backpacks and school supplies will be gathered and distributed to all children who participate. Volunteers are also needed.
The Franklin County Community Resource Board helps to fund many needed programs throughout the County offering counseling, adoption, foster care and much more.	Wednesday, May 16	8:35	25 minutes	Program Leader Emily Thoenen discusses the history, services, and events sponsored by Lutheran Family Services, which also includes pregnancy assistance, and child care.
Local businesses promote non-profit organizations throughout the year but some go beyond what is expected. John G's on the Riverfront in Washington made a special effort.	Monday, May 21	7:45	15 minutes	Terry Heisler, owner of John G's helps the community by hosting three benefit events: Washington Lion's Club on May 25, MS on May 26, and Missouri River Relief Organization on June 2.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

The Annual Trail Ride on the Washington Riverfront Trail is for Seniors and disabled who cannot normally walk the trail to see the nature along the river. It draws thousands of people each year and is done through volunteer efforts.	Wednesday, May 30	8:15	15 minutes	Barb Hellmann and Sharon Morzyk started the Annual Trail ride 13 years ago in memory of parents and for living relatives. It was a small event but now an all day events with food, games and prizes. This year it was held on June 2.
---	--------------------------	-------------	-------------------	---

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
Tom Aholt and Cancer survivor Wendy Wildberger are co-chairmen for the Annual Relay For Live event on the track at Washington High School. It begins in the early evening and lasts throughout the night, drawing hundreds of people.	Thursday, June 7	8:35	25 minutes	The 2018 Relay For Life event was held on June 8 to give survivors a time to celebrate, friends and relatives a time to grieve, and offer awareness and education to those remaining. A candlelight vigil, speakers, and camp were a few of the activities
Catherine Christensen is Executive Director of the Union Senior Center now called Aging Ahead. They hold many beneficial activities for Seniors in the area.	Monday, June 11	7:45	15 minutes	One very important functions of the Union Senior Center is to sponsor the "Meals on Wheels" program for homebound seniors. The serve 120 homebound clients with a hot lunch and are in dire need of volunteer drivers.
Local Pharmacists provide tips and symptoms of various summer health problems to educate and inform listeners on a variety of health concerns.	Thursday, June 14	8:15	15 minutes	Mark Weidle from Schroeder's Pharmacy discusses allergies, mosquito and tick bites and rashes. He provides over-the-counter medications as well as awareness of possible health problems.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Thirsty Thursday events are held in Downtown Washington throughout the year. It is sponsored by local merchants and provides a fun and new way to visit downtown while having the chance to taste local wines and brews.	Monday, June 18	7:45	15 minutes	Co-Chair for 2018 is Kristy Steyer. Along with Barb Hellermann, they organize the tour of local merchants and offer local wines, treats, and prizes at every participating merchant. The first one is being held on Thursday, June 21.
---	------------------------	-------------	-------------------	---