

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of July through September, 2016.

The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Through the months of June through August, 2016, "Meet the Candidate" interviews were conducted on The Diane Jones Morning Show in response to an invitation letter to all candidates participating in the August Primary.	June through August, 2016 - each interview was approximately 20 minutes in length.	Attached is the schedule of candidates in the August Primary who participated in the get to know the candidate interviews. About 40 candidates on the County, State, and Federal levels were on the air. Calls from listeners were always welcome during the interview process by phone or in the studio.
The "Riverside Players" have been active in Franklin County for many years, providing local talent an opportunity to act, sing, and bring entertainment to the area. Their summer production in July was a musical comedy All Shook Up, an Elvis spot.	Wednesday, July 13 8:15 15 minutes	Musical Director David Dennis and lead Gail Obermark joined the show to talk about plot, music, ticket purchase and what to expect at the open air theatre production, which will take place on the main stage at the Washington Fairgrounds July 15.
The Washington Town and Country Fair is the second largest fair in the State of Missouri, offering something for all ages, including the agricultural focus, big name entertainment, food, drink, and competition, dating back to 1872. This year, "A Family Tradition" took place on August 3-7.	Thursday, July 14 9:15 45 minutes	Washington Chamber Director Amanda Griesheimer discusses every aspect of the fair which is an all volunteer endeavor. This is made possible through the generous support of local and state sponsors, local organizations, and the Fair Board. Ticket sales and crowds exceeded expectations.
Today's digital communication has created some negative effects, especially for today's teens. Digital bullying, sexting, inappropriate pictures, videos, and even the game Pokeman has become a local problem. The Franklin County Sheriff's Department has become involved.	Friday, July 15 8:15 15 minutes	Detective James Briggs from the Franklin County Sheriff's Department has planned several workshops for parents and teens to make them more aware of the problem as well as educating them on ways to avoid getting trapped in the negative effects.
Washington Mayor Sandy Lucy appears on the show on a monthly basis. The community is excited about getting started on the building of a new bridge across the Missouri to improve transportation into Warren County.	Thursday, July 21 9:15 45 minutes	Mayor Lucy describes the architecture of the new bridge, time line for building, and groundbreaking ceremonies. Over 11,000 people cross the narrow, no shoulder bridge everyday. Building will begin in early September.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
The Diane Jones Morning Show was on the Fairgrounds of the 2016 Washington Town and Country Fair from August 3-7. Diane, in cooperation with The Washington Chamber of Commerce and Fair Board conducted live interviews Wednesday through Friday mornings.	Wednesday, August 3-Friday, August 5 7:30-10:00 am	A schedule of Committee chairs, the Fair Queen and Court, food vendors and entertainers were all showcased in each segment of the morning show. This gave the listeners a preview of what to expect each day of the fair.
Operation Clean Stream is an annual event made up of volunteers and local sponsors who dedicate their time to cleaning up our rivers and stream of trash. Everything from old tires to refrigerators are hauled away for proper disposal. This is followed by a huge picnic and celebration.	Monday, August 22 7:45 15 minutes	Leonard Benter and Frank Friese, long time organizers of this event explained the teams of hundreds who volunteer their time and resources in this well planned endeavor. This year the event took place on Saturday, August 27.
The Fishing Derby at Lion's Lake in Washington is a joint effort among local Washington Veteran's Clubs. This year, the Elks, V.F.W. and American Legion are organizing the event for young people to have fun, learn about the sport, and compete for prizes.	Wednesday, August 24 9:15 45 minutes	Brent Triplett is the Chairman of the annual Fishing Derby which will take place through preregistration on Saturday, August 10. Hundreds of young people and their parents, friends and guardians learn about the techniques and sport as well as win prizes for the largest fish.
SB 656 is a controversial Senate Bill that would change the present Conceal and Carry rules in Missouri. There are pros and cons to this legislation coming from different sides. Now the law requires an educational program to receive a license to conceal and carry.	Monday, August 29 8:15 15 minutes	Sgt. Kevin Ahlbrand, who is a Det. Sgt. with the St. Louis Police Force joined the show representing the Missouri Fraternal Order of Police to explain why the group is lobbying against this change in Missouri gun conceal and carry law.
The Fluence Project is an economic development program originating in St. Louis but has a national and worldwide component to stimulate jobs and increase business.	Monday, August 29 8:35 25 minutes	Professor John-David Kerr and veteran advocate Mike Pate are on the Fluence Project committee and offer an update on the transportation, workforce, and veteran transition assistance plans.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Congressman Blaine Luetkemeyer, representing the 3rd Congressional District in Missouri is a regular monthly guest on the morning show. He invites listeners to call in with question and comments during the hour.	Friday, Sept. 2 9:15 45 minutes	The Congressman addresses issues dealing with the future of the Internet, immigration, overtime pay, the Missouri highway system, especially Interstate 70, plus the groundbreaking for the new Washington Bridge, linking Warren and Franklin Counties.
The Fifth Annual Journey For Charity Tractor Cruise is sponsored by the Washington Knights of Columbus to benefit local food pantries and focus on Agriculture and patriotism.	Friday, Sept. 9 8:35 25 minutes	John Jasper, Committee Chairman joins the show to explain the route of the tractor trade which will take place on September 11 and cruises for approximately 20 miles. It showcases the agricultural community and features antique as well as new technology in farming. Entry fees are donated to charity.
September is National Gum Care Month set aside to emphasize the importance of regular check ups and deep cleaning of gums. Periodontal disease is found in the majority of adults and can help to save teeth and overall health of each person.	Monday, Sept. 12 8:15 15 minutes	Whitney Duvall is a Registered Dental Hygienist with a local Dental practice Washington Smiles. She explains how disease is diagnosed and treated with deep cleaning and medication. She emphasizes how bad gum health can lead to other diseases in the body as well as tooth loss.
Loving Hearts Outreach in Washington is a food pantry, resell it shop, and charity for families in need. Loving Hearts campaigns and promotes the works of the Salvation Army to help collect money, food and clothing for the underserved in the county.	Friday, Sept. 16 9:15 20 minutes	Sandy Crider, Loving Hearts Director, explains the work and mission of The Salvation Army in Franklin County and the fact that Schnuck's Market will no longer allow bell ringing to take place outside their store in Washington during the Christmas season. This will truly hinder their collection efforts. She offers alternative ways to give.
The Veteran's Administration, the St. Louis and Washington Branch has joined the Million Veteran Program which has now enrolled over 2,000 Veterans in the effort to improve health nationwide by collecting DNA and health data.	Monday, Sept. 19 8:35 25 minutes	St. Louis VA Media Relations Representative Marcena Gunther and others explain the purpose of the DNA collection and how it will be used to help researchers learn about the role of genes in health and disease and improve veteran health.	