

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of January through March, 2016.

The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
A lecture and series will be offered free to the general public headed by various doctors and specialties by Natural Healing Centers. The focus of each lecture will be discussing the pain free life.	Thursday, Jan. 14	8:15	15 minutes	Dr. Rose Fischer, Director of Natural Healing Center in Union invites the public to a free lunch and lecture at a local restaurant once a month to discuss new and proven methods to live a pain free life.
A new initiative to help teens and improve educational development has been introduced in the St. Louis Metro area by Ascension Healthcare. Chess, led by Master players throughout the world will teach Chess to teens.	Friday, Jan. 15	9:15	20 minutes	Senior V.P. and Marketing Chief for Ascension Healthcare, St. Louis, Nick Ragone explains the initiative, which will begin in the Ferguson/Florissant School District and expand throughout the Metro area.
The economy for the upcoming year, 2016, and the stock market determines the quality of life and job opportunities in Franklin and surrounding counties. The world economy also has an effect. A local stock market expert and economist joins the show to give an overview as to what to expect in the coming year.	Wednesday, Jan. 20	7:45	15 minutes	Eric Park from L.P.L. Financial in Washington gives a prediction for economic growth and its effects for the upcoming year. He predicts little or no growth in the economy as well as the job market. He explains that world wide there is a slump but a good time to invest.
A new type of health care has been introduced to Franklin County. A Union doctor and staff have started a flat fee healthcare practice, where no insurance premium is involved. It required a monthly fee for primary care service.	Monday, Jan. 25	7:45	15 minutes	Dr. Keith Rattcliff, Director of Primary Care for Renaissance Family Healthcare in Union explains the process of joining and paying a monthly fee for individuals and families under this new system. He emphasizes the cost and health care benefits.
Mental health issues effect every family and CenterPointe Out-patient services, located in Washington address and help with everything from drug use to depression for all age groups.	Friday, Jan. 29	9:15	45 minutes	Raleigh Abell, Therapist, for the local out-patient office for CenterPointe in Washington talks about the different levels of depression and when to seek professional help.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Public Relations Director and Theatre Director from East Central College pair up to discuss and promote upcoming productions, and other special events for the spring.	Wednesday, Feb. 3 9:15	45 minutes	P.R. Director Dot Schowe and Theatre Director Grace Austin help gather enthusiasm and promote the Spring Musical production of Stephen Sondheim's award winning musical "Into the Woods," which will be performed April 14-17 in the theatre.
The Washington Historical Society Museum sponsors a variety of lectures, books, tours, demonstrations, and services that are open to the general public throughout the year. "An Evening at the Museum" lecture series for 2016 features many new opportunities.	Thursday, Feb. 11	8:35 25 minutes	Historical Society and Museum Director Marc Hausman previews the 2016 Lecture Series which features ten topics by ten experts in the field of Franklin County and Missouri history. The lectures are presented each month from March 8 through December 13 at the museum.
Franklin County has experienced and dealt with an increase of Meth, Heroin, and other addictive drugs as well as the manufacturing and distribution of them for several years. A new County drug enforcement group has been formed to coordinate efforts to reduce use and crime.	Thursday, Feb. 25	8:35 25 minutes	Leaders of the newly formed Foundations for Franklin County, Jennifer Slay, Jason Grellner, and Jane Mense discuss the work of this multi-county Narcotics and Violent Crimes Enforcement Unit, their purpose and their goals.
One of the managers of a highly successful business in the New Haven area reviews the job opportunities available to qualified individuals and the training they provide to prospective employees.	Friday, Feb. 26	8:15 15 minutes	Stacy Hymer from Henniges Automotive represents the Chamber New Haven Business of the Month. She explains that they are the suppliers of vehicle sealing systems and employ over 200 workers. She gives the history of the company as well as specific jobs that need to be filled.
The SBA and FEMA are working hard to help those effected by the recent flooding, to recover and rebuild their damaged businesses, property and homes with disaster relief.	Monday, Feb. 29	9:15 25 minutes	Small Business Association manager Roger Busch along with FEMA representatives are available at the Senior Center in Pacific to help with applications, deadlines and requirements to acquire disaster relief.

Description of Issue	Date Time Duration	Description
Exceptional Equestrians is a program that helps to improve the lives of those disabled by learning to ride. It is scientifically based and has helped thousands to build confidence, caring and sharing through riding a horse.	Thursday, March 3 8:35 25 minutes	Director of Exceptional Euestians of Franklin County Lindsay Mohr explains the benefits of the program and walks people through the what happens during a series of lessons. One way they exist financially is through fundraising. A benefit breakfast will take place on March 12.
The Union Ambulance District is asking the voters to pass a 1/2 cent sales tax to help defray the increased cost of services in the area. This will be placed on the April 5th ballot.	Wednesday, March 9 8:35 25 minutes	Administrator and Chief of the Union Ambulance District Ken Koch explains the reasons for the 1/2 cent sales tax initiative. The main reason is the increase of population as well as the expansion of the geographical areas being covered by the Ambulance District.
Franklin County has experienced and dealt with an increase of Meth, Heroin, and other addictive drugs as well as the manufacturing and distribution of them for several years. A new County drug enforcement group has been formed to coordinate efforts to reduce use and crime.	Thursday, Feb. 25 8:35 25 minutes	Leaders of the newly formed Foundations for Franklin County, Jennifer Slay, Jason Grellner, and Jane Mense discuss the work of this multi-county Narcotics and Violent Crimes Enforcement Unit, their purpose and their goals.
The Mercy Hospital Auxiliary has a rich history of improving services at the local hospital and providing educational, patient, and visitor experiences. March is Deep Vein Thrombosis education month. Their goals are to make sure everyone knows the signs and symptoms of this dangerous affliction.	Wednesday, March 9 9:15 45 minutes	Mercy Hospital Auxiliary President Carol Maune and Nurse Diane Kluesner joins the show to explain the disease, symptoms, diagnosis and treatment. The Auxiliary runs and gift shop, volunteers patient and visitor services, front desk assistance, and much more. They also provide an educational series of lectures open to the public.
The American Heart Association helps organize heart health awareness, walks and runs in cooperation with local business and health associations throughout Franklin County. This year the Walk will take place on Saturday, April 2	Friday, March 11 9:15 45 minutes	American Heart Association Director Matt Posinski reviews the list of sponsors, an estimated number of team, and the goal of raising $60,000 at the event. Many booths and health sceenings will also be available to the public during the event.