

There follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of July through September, 2017. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
The Franklin County Humane Society, located in Union, depends on the general public and fundraisers to keep the doors open. They offer adoptions at low cost and take in hundreds of unwanted animals every year.	Wednesday, July 12	8:35	25 minutes	Director of Development Melissa Beste explains the upcoming fundraising campaigns, including the Cinderella, dine to donate, and "Bark in the Park" events. She also highlights some of the animals ready for adoption at the shelter.
The Washington City Library is funded primarily through Washington Tax - payers but does have a reciprocal agreement with the Scenic Regional Library. The local events and programs are offered to all age groups throughout the summer.	Wednesday, July 26	8:15	15 minutes	Claire Miller was appointed just a few months ago but she is well versed about the large variety of programs such as the summer reading program, lego building, chess club, story time, and adult reading groups.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

St. Clair Missouri was ground Zero for the Total Eclipse on August 21. The community planned numerous festivities leading up to the historic day. The Chamber of Commerce and Lost Hill Lake combined efforts.	Friday, July 21	9:15	45 minutes Thousands of people visited and took part in parades, food, music, Crusin on Route 66, car shows, Bluegrass Festival, and camping. Director of the Chamber Charlene Saling reviews all events and takes caller questions.
The Washington Town and Country Fair took place August 2-6. It always includes special events, food sponsored by local organizations, big name entertainment, rides, and agricultural information and programs, such as the livestock auction, kiddie land, competitions, arts and crafts and more.	Wednesday, July 19	7:45	15 minutes Chairman of this year's fair Joe Maniaci gives a daily run down about what to expect this year. It all starts with a giant parade filled with local organization floats, a run/walk for charity, and then the fair begins for five days.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
Diane does her show from the Washington Town and Country Fairgrounds Wednesday thru Friday, August 2-5 from 7:30-10:00 am. The KLPW booth and remote equipment is set up throughout the five day event and various live updates are aired.	Wednesday, August 2 thru Friday, August 4	7:30-10:00 am		Each segment of the Morning Show is scheduled for interviews which includes Fair Board Chairman for each major event such as the Chairman of Agri-Land, Main Stage and Tent entertainment, the newly crowned Queen and her Court, food, livestock, and youth competitions.
East Central College, located in Union, provides monthly updates about activities, classes, and changes on campus as well as their satellite education programs. The fall semester begins in a few weeks and preparations are made.	Wednesday, August 9	9:15	45 minutes	Public Relations Director for ECC Jay Scherder joins the show to explain the web site improvements, application process, student aid, new classes, and adult learning courses. He also highlights speakers, activities, and sports.