

There follows a listing of the significant local issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of January through March, 2018. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
Alternatives To Living In Violent Environments helps families and individuals in the area to escape a potential dangerous environment. ALIVE offers useful information on a monthly basis on the show.	Wednesday, Jan. 3	7:45	15 minutes	Crisis Interventionist Cathy Covington and Donald Simpson, Child Therapist discuss the potential long term effects of the children caught in a violent home-life and what can be done to help.
Jim's heating and Cooling offers valuable tips on saving heating costs, changing filters, adding moisture to dry homes and more. For the new year, he is offering a free HVAC system to a lucky winner.	Thursday, Jan. 11	8:15	15 minutes	Dan and Theresa Haire, owners of Jim's Heating and Cooling will donate a free complete system to a family in need through an exclusive KLPW promotion and application process in the month of January.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) train and volunteer to help children in need, especially if parents are not able to care for them. CASA is funded through a tax administrator called Franklin County Community Resource Board.	Friday, Jan. 19	7:45	15 minutes Franklin County Executive Director Glenda Volmert promotes a fundraiser Trivia Night which will help fund the extra expenses needed to train volunteers due to the increasing number of children needing services.
CenterPointe Hospital and Therapy Centers help those with mental and addiction problems. They provide counseling for groups, individuals in the hospital as well as out-patient therapy centers.	Monday, Jan. 29	9:15	45 minutes Mental Health Therapists Raleigh Abell and Steve May discuss new techniques being implemented to help those suffering from PTSD and their remarkable results.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
The Washington Lion's Club volunteers and donates to local, national, and worldwide campaigns every year. Locally, they have contributed to parks expansion, maintenance projects, and many others.	Friday, Feb. 2	7:45	15 minutes	Tim Matthews joined the show, representing and promoting the Washington Lion's Club Annual Super Bowl BBQ. The event is a fundraiser that sells over 500 dinners each year and is showing continued growth.
The Scenic Regional Library service branches oversees libraries in 10 locations, plus a traveling Bookmobile program. The Administration is located at the Union Branch. They are undertaking renovation and expansion at several Branches.	Wednesday, Feb. 7	8:35	25 minutes	Scenic Regional Director Steve Campbell explains the renovation projects and expected completion as well as how tax dollars are being spent. He also reviews the many programs for children and adults at the various Branches.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Todd and Katie Geisert opened The Farm To You Market and Restaurant in the spring of 2016, the 100th anniversary of Geisert Farms. This addition to the community offers patrons an indoor farmer's market with locally grown and clean food.	Monday, Feb. 12	8:15	15 minutes Todd Geisert highlights the fresh meats and produce available. Livestock is raised in a pasture nearby. Products are produced without added growth hormones or antibiotics. He explains the many benefits to the consumer.
Hochschild Bloom financial services has been in existence for over 60 years. The have seen many changes in the tax law and have been able to pass this information to their customers.	Wednesday, Feb. 14	7:45	15 minutes Tax expert Rita Griescheimer explains the many changes individuals and families will see in the Federal Tax Code and answers specific questions about filing with listeners.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

DESCRIPTION	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	ISSUE
The Road Home Homelessness Event will take place at Union High School on April 20-21. This year, the project is being run by the SafeKids Youth Homelessness Organization.	Thursday, March 8	9:15	45 minutes	Past Chairman UHS student Josie Arens and SafeKids representative Debbie Hendrickson explain the purpose and benefits to youth who face homelessness in the area. They highlight the awareness activities and ways to volunteered, participate and donate to the cause.
On the April 3, 2018 ballot for the City of Washington is the Sales Tax Renewal proposal. Members of Downtown Washington Inc. explain the benefits to its passage for the downtown community.	Friday, March 9	7:45	15 minutes	Downtown Washington Inc. Director Bridgette Kelsh and President of DT Washington Chris Ecklekamp review what the tax has accomplished in past years and what specific improvements can be made by its renewal.

THE DIANE JONES MORNING SHOW KLPW AM AND FM - LOCAL PROGRAMMING EXAMPLES

Proposition P is on the ballot for Franklin County on April 3, 2018. Revenues from this 1/2 cent sales tax shall be allocated to law enforcement salaries, jail expansion, and Emergency Management.	Monday, March 12	9:15	45 minutes Franklin County Sheriff David Pelton and former Sheriff Gary Toelke explain the increased need to pass this sales tax by a simple majority in order to keep a strong police department, increase 911 technology, and expand jail facilities already very overcrowded.
Exceptional Equestrians of the Missouri Valley manages a horse ranch with the goal of improving the lives of children and adults with disabilities, physical and mental.	Monday, March 26	8:35	25 minutes Administrative Manager Lindsay Mohr promotes the next fundraiser on April 7 and volunteer training activities. She explains the benefits and scientific methods used to help those with disabilities improve their lives. Children with autism are especially helped by riding horses under the guidance of a trained professional.