

There follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by Station KLPW, Washington, Missouri, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of OCTOBER THROUGH DECEMBER, 2015. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Time Duration	Description
Second Blessing in Union hold an annual Coat Giveaway to individuals and families. Their donations of warm winter outerwear are free and open to the public. Hundreds of coat selections are organized by gender and size to make for easier decisions.	Wednesday, Oct. 7 8:35 25 minutes	Deanna Thompson and committee members join the show to promote coat donations and drop off points as well as advertise the 9th Annual Coat Giveaway to be held at the Moose Lodge October 24 in Union.
Veteran's Affairs and issues are discussed and experts from various branches of the military are encouraged to join the Morning Show. Our own local Veteran Advocate Mike Pate has direct connections to furnish answers to veterans and their families, especially for healthcare questions.	Friday, Oct. 9 8:35 25 minutes	St. Louis V.A. Public Affairs Manager and Women's Veteran Manager Eve Holzemer provide the latest healthcare information concerning women veterans and their families. They accept call and answer questions from listeners.
The Tannenbaum Auction was created and developed as a way to raise needed funds for Emmaus Homes, a home for disabled adults throughout Missouri located in the Marthasville area. It is a festive Christmas decor sale that is also an online auction.	Wednesday, Oct. 14 8:15 15 minutes	Chairperson for this year's event Ginny Brinker explains how to donate Christmas items, attend the celebration and sale, and bid on the various items online. This year, the live sale will take place at an expanded venue, the K.C. Hall on November 4.
Preferred Family Healthcare is a non profit drug prevention program devoted to alternatives for youth in Franklin County. They provide counseling, intervention, and healthcare for young adults and their families.	Friday, Oct. 16 8:35 25 minutes	Eric Granger and Tim Owens explain their role in drug prevention, upcoming activities and the Arts program for self-expression to help keep kids away from drug addiction.
St. Francis Borgia Catholic Church in Washington held a week long mission, headed by a famous speaker and organizer for the purpose of renewing faith and inspiring lives and families.	Wednesday, Oct. 21 9:15 45 minutes	Mission Leader Father Pete Schavitz and Church Pastor Father Joe Wormack promote participation in the mission and encourage people to attend by previewing the topics that will be covered and the benefits.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Operation Christmas Child is a national effort to provide necessities, toys, toiletries to young people around the world. Shoe boxes are distributed, filled and sent. A large group of volunteers make this happen.	Wednesday, Nov. 4	8:35	25 minutes	Lynne Moll, Area Coordinator for the Southwest St. Louis Region and her husband who is the Network Coordinator explain the process of collection and distribution. This year's project will be collected November 16-23.
St. Peter's United Church of Christ in Washington hold an annual event - The Festival of Trees for the enjoyment of the public and to collect food for area food pantries.	Friday, Nov. 6	8:35	25 minutes	Ruth Wood and Susan Harms discuss the history of the festival, the purpose, preparation, and the collection of food items. Hundreds of community organizations and groups decorate their own trees and compete for the food drive. It is open to the public each week-end in December.
The Missouri Conservation Dept. Agents Todd Wright and Ben Pursley provide information and answer questions on a monthly basis concerning hunting and nuisance animals.	Friday, Nov. 6	9:15	45 minutes	In this segment the Conservation Agents focus on the safety procedures during the deer hunting and harvest season. They also review regulations for deer, waterfowl, and winter trout fishing seasons. They receive many calls with questions from listeners.
The St. Clair Chamber of Commerce Business of the is RHT CCW LLC, run by an NRA Certified Instructor.	Wednesday, Nov. 18	8:35	25 minutes	Robert Triphahn is a certified NRA instructor who offers classes in concealed carry permits for the state of Missouri. He explains the curriculum and expectations of the classes.
The Craft and Gift Expo is an annual event in Washington, sponsored by the Washington Chamber of Commerce and gives an opportunity to those who make crafts to show their wares and offer them for sale to the public.	Wednesday, Nov. 18	9:40	20 minutes	Events Coordinator for the Chamber Amanda Griesheimer gives an overview of the variety of artistic items for sale. This year it will take place in the City Auditorium on Saturday, November 21 with close to 100 booths offering everything from handmade bird houses to jewelry.

Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Description
Dental health is important for all ages and can lead to other health problems if not taken care of properly on a regular basis. A local dentist joins the show to explain the basics.	Monday, Dec. 7	8:15	15 minutes	Dr. Melissa Smith from Washington Smiles Dentistry explains the relationship of good dental health and how it can lead to heart disease and other health problems. She educates the public on proper hygiene.
Surrounding school districts have achieved extraordinary results and awards for excellence from the state of Missouri. One of the highest achievers is the New Haven School District by implementing a core curricula and expectations.	Monday, Dec. 21	8:35	25 minutes	Superintendent of Schools for New Haven Kyle Kruse explains the process of aligning the curriculum K-12 as well as the addition of local standards to achieve state awards of excellence. He also comments on the completion of added classrooms and maintenance projects.
The Washington Chamber of Commerce sponsors many events and attracts thousands of tourists each year. The Director of Tourism for Washington visits the show on a monthly basis to preview upcoming family events and night time celebrations.	Wednesday, Dec. 23	8:35	25 minutes	Director of Tourism Marybeth Roettke informs the public about upcoming events, which include live music dates and times at surrounding wineries, music and dances at local night spots, new businesses and what they offer the community, and an update on number of people using Amtrack to visit the city.
The Pacific Chamber Business of the month was the Scenic Regional Library who offers many events for young and old to promote reading and education.	Wednesday, Dec. 23	8:15	15 minutes	The Scenic Regional Library is one of seven branches that offer kids, teens, and adult library events and services. The director joins the show to explain some new online features, like the virtual library, books by mail, and the impending merger with the Sullivan Library.
Diane interviews mayors and administration from several surrounding cities in Franklin County on a monthly basis. The mayor of Washington has the opportunity to comment on and give updates about many issues.	Wednesday, Dec. 23	9:15	45 minutes	The Mayor of Washington Sandy Lucy takes questions from listeners throughout the segment and also gives an update on the Chlorination process, Beautification Project, the proposed new bridge across the Missouri, street construction, new building projects underway, and a recap of the last Council meeting.