

WOBN PUBLIC FILE ISSUES LIST 2024

January, February 2024

January 2024

Live Sports Programming

13: Women's Basketball – Otterbein vs. Muskingum – 1:00 PM – 2:30 PM.

20: Women's Basketball – Otterbein vs. Capital University – 4:50 PM – 7:00 PM.

20: Men's Basketball – Otterbein vs. Capital University – 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM

February 2024

Live Shows

1: Sean Money Penny celebrated Vivien Thomas in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Money Penny discussed her successes such as being the first to discover a solution for Blue Baby Syndrome. 6:30 - 7:30 AM.

5: Sean Money Penny celebrated Wentworth Cheswell in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Money Penny discussed how Wentworth was the 1st Black elected judge in American history. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

8: Sean Money Penny celebrated John Williams birthday by celebrating his achievements and accomplishments on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Money Penny discussed how Williams' music was a big inspiration to Money Penny growing up. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

8: Sean Money Penny celebrated Benjamin Banneker in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Money Penny discussed how Banneker was a mathematician and compiler of almanacs. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

12: Sean Money Penny celebrated Michael Jackson in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Money Penny discussed Jackson's impact and influence on music. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

14: Sean Money Penny celebrated Fredrick Douglass in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Money Penny discussed Douglass' accomplishments and his life as an inspirational abolitionist. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

15: Sean Money Penny celebrated Joseph Bologne in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Money Penny discussed Bologne's status as a champion fencer, master violinist and more. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

16: Sean Moneyppenny celebrated Jimi Hendrix in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show. Moneyppenny discussed Hendrix' skill on the electric guitar, and his status as the "greatest electric guitar player." 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

19: Sean Moneyppenny celebrated Bessie Coleman in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Moneyppenny discussed her status as the first Black Female aviator and the first Black person to obtain an international pilot's license. 6:30-7:30 AM.

20: Sean Moneyppenny celebrated Charlotta Bass in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Moneyppenny discussed her being the first Black Woman to run for the U.S. Vice Presidency. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

21: Sean Moneyppenny celebrated Charley Pride in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Moneyppenny discussed Pride's music and baseball career. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

22: Sean Moneyppenny celebrated James Armstead in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Moneyppenny discussed how Armstead helped win the American Revolution. 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

23: Sean Moneyppenny celebrated James Brown in honor of Black History Month on his show "Money's Mornin' Show." Moneyppenny honored the "King of Funk." 6:30 – 7:30 AM.

27: Sean Moneyppenny interviewed D'Andre Person on his show "Money's Morning Show." They honored Malcom X to celebrate Black History Month. 6:30-7:30 AM.

Live Sports Programming

3: Men's Basketball – Otterbein vs. Baldwin Wallace. - 1:00 – 2:30 PM.

10: Men's Basketball – Otterbein vs. Muskingum. – 1:00 – 2:30 PM.

14: Men's Basketball – Otterbein vs. John Carrol. – 7:00 – 9:30 PM.

17: Women's Basketball – Otterbein vs. Mount Union. – 1 – 2:45 PM.