

FCC SPONSORSHIP ID RULES FOR FOREIGN GOVERNMENT-PROVIDED PROGRAMMING

RESPONSE REQUIRED

Inquiry From: Channel 32 Montgomery, LLC
To: Crimson Tide Sports Marketing (“Lessee”)
Re: Affiliate TV Agreement

Directions: Please respond to the two questions set forth below. Please be aware that if the answer to either of these questions is “Yes,” Lessee will need to cooperate with us in meeting the requirements of the new sponsorship identification disclosure rules.

1. Does Lessee qualify as a “foreign governmental entity” under the new FCC rules?¹

___ YES NO

2. Does Lessee know if anyone in the chain of producing/distributing the programming that will be aired pursuant to the Lease Agreement (or pursuant to sublease) qualifies as a “foreign governmental entity” and has provided some type of inducement to air the programming?

___ YES NO

The undersigned, an authorized representative of Lessee, certifies that the foregoing responses are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

¹ The FCC defines the term “foreign governmental entity” to include any of the following:

- A “government of a foreign country,” defined under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (“FARA”) to include any person or group of persons exercising sovereign de facto or de jure political jurisdiction over any country, other than the United States, or over any part of such country, and includes any subdivision of any such group and any group or agency to which such sovereign de facto or de jure authority or functions are directly or indirectly delegated. Such term shall include any faction or body of insurgents within a country assuming to exercise governmental authority whether such faction or body of insurgents has or has not been recognized by the United States;
- A “foreign political party,” defined under FARA to include any organization or any other combination of individuals in a country other than the United States, or any unit or branch thereof, having for an aim or purpose, or which is engaged in any activity devoted in whole or in part to, the establishment, administration, control, or acquisition of administration or control, of a government of a foreign country or a subdivision thereof, or the furtherance or influencing of the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a subdivision thereof;
- An entity or individual registered as an “agent of a foreign principal” under FARA; and
- An entity or individual that meets the definition of a “U.S.-based foreign media outlet” under section 722 of the Communications Act and has filed a report with the FCC.
