WODC
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WODC provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- COVID-19 health protocols: Representatives from the Pickaway County Health Department talked about protocols that continue in the wake of an extended wave of the coronavirus pandemic.
- Heart health: Dr. Ali Patel of Ohio Health discussed how a good doctor-patient partnership can help keep high blood pressure under control. He suggested asking about your blood pressure at each checkup, then to follow up as directed.
- Ashville services during COVID-19: Members of the Pickaway County Public Safety council talked about the extensive measures being taken to ensure safety as the COVID-19 pandemic continues.
- Winter home safety: Representatives from the Ohio Home Weatherization Collective talked about preparing your home for winter, especially guarding against extended power outages.
- Small businesses and COVID 19: Representatives from the U.S. Small Business Administration discussed how many small businesses were able to survive the COVID-19 pandemic up to this point and how the upcoming holiday season can be of further help.
- Children's health: Michelle Wagner of the Ohio Department of Education discussed how one in five kids and teens is overweight or obese and as a result are at risk for serious health issues.
