WODC
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WODC provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Allergies and asthma: Representatives from the American Lung Association talked about allergies and asthma and ways to reduce exposure to pollen, dust mites and other allergens.
- Childhood cancer: Alaina Brown, a Community Director for the Children's Cancer Society discussed how families of children with cancer often face many expenses health insurance doesn't cover. She talked about the many opportunities for help and emotional support that are available.
- Childhood hunger: Aleesa Boyer, Communications Coordinator for Children's Hunger Alliance, talked about the Summer Food Service Program, which feeds all school-aged children while school is out for the summer break.
- Compulsive gambling: Officials from the Ohio Problem Gambling Helpline talked about how recovering gamblers do everything they can do to avoid temptation. They said that some gambling addicts can't even read ads that give information to sports gambling because of the anxiety such ads cause.
- Dairy and nutrition: Officials from the American Dairy Association discussed how dairy foods play an important role in helping to meet the daily calcium needs to build and maintain good health.
- Heart-healthy eating: Krista Barber, Director of Communications for the American Heart Association, talked about how heart-healthy eating can protect your family from cardiovascular disease, which she said is linked to excess body weight and other risk factors.
- Learning enrichment for children: Officials from the Ohio Department of Education talked about how parents can help enrich their children's learning experiences, improving literacy and critical thinking skills.
- National Prescription Drug Take Back Day: Bernie Lucas of iHeartMedia hosted this special edition on the topic of disposing prescription drugs. Guest Uttam Dhillon, Acting Administrator of the DEA, discussed the Drug Disposal Act, gave information about legal and illegal drugs and the effects on our bodies and talked about locating authorized collection sites.

- Pickaway County health officials: Pickaway County health and safety officials talked about the rise in measles cases in the county, which they said could be due to vaccinations not done on time or at all.
- Retirement information: Lisa Keller of the Ohio Center for Retirement discussed ways to retire comfortably with a retirement plan to help save for one of life's bigger transitions.
- Small and mid-sized business resources: Representatives from the U.S. Small Business Administration talked about more efficient and cost-effective ways for small and mid-sized businesses to merge their IT resources.
- Spring & summer safety: Ashville and Pickaway County law enforcement officials discussed their spring and summer initiatives to help keep big-city crime from moving into the Village of Ashville.
- Summer reading programs: Teachers in the Ashville Schools District discussed the summer reading programs that will be available to school-aged children during the summer break.
