WODC
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WODC provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Health & safety: As the state initiates a slow reopening, officials from Ashville and Pickaway County law enforcement agencies talked about the steps they will take to make sure citizens adhere to COVID-19 directives as issued by Ohio Governor Mike DeWine.
- Health & safety/COVID-19 information: In a series of special presentations by iHeartRadio, designed to be a good balance of necessary and factual information to help ease the panic regarding the coronavirus pandemic, host Ryan Gorman spoke with government officials updating us on our country's response to the COVID-19 outbreak and highlighted organizations on the front lines helping people in need across the country.
- Safe blood donation during COVID-19: Host Mike Eiland interviewed American Red Cross staff and volunteers while giving blood to show how safe it is to donate, even during the coronavirus pandemic. Also discussed was the screening process to determine the eligibility to give blood.
- Home safety: Members from the Ohio Home Safety Foundation talked about how smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms save lives, but only if they are functional. They offered information on testing.
- Public safety during COVID-19: Officials from Franklin and Pickaway County law enforcement units updated listeners on the Central and Southern Ohio response to the coronavirus pandemic.
