Dear Affiliate Partner:

To assist you in complying with the reporting requirements for children's television and the requirement that stations air "core" children's programming, we are providing you with episode-specific descriptions (for QUBO Kids on NBC) as set forth in the attached Community Relations Quarterly Children's Programming Report for 2nd quarter 2010. The report includes information to help prepare FCC Form 398. Please note that we have not included the specific dates and times for each of the programs as that may be station-specific.

This report is divided into the following categories:

1. Educational Objectives: QUBO for both 2nd quarter 2010 and 3rd quarter 2010.
2. Core programming: Regularly scheduled programming furnished by the NBC Network that is specifically designed to serve the educational and informational needs of children 16 and under. Please note that the age target for QUBO programming on NBC is 4-8 years old. Each of these programs is identified on-air as educational and informational with the "E/I" icon, and is similarly identified to the national listing services. To assist stations with the preemption report section of the new FCC Form 398, we have added specific episode numbers.
3. Other programming: Programming furnished by the NBC Network that contributes to the educational and informational needs of children 16 and under, but is not specifically designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children.
4. Public service announcements targeted to children 16 and under.
5. Non-broadcast efforts that enhance the educational and informational value of NBC Network programming to children.
6. Network on-air promotional efforts, which include a schedule of QUBO programming on NBC on-air promos.

The regularly-scheduled children's programming and promotional content furnished to you by the NBC Network during the 2nd quarter of 2010 complied with the commercial limits of the Children's Television Act, and 47 C.F.R. §§ 73.670(a)-(d), provided that you broadcast and distributed such programming as furnished to you by NBC, and did not add any promotional or advertising content there to other than as directed by NBC via weekly postings on APT.

"QUBO ON NBC" EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

For 2nd Quarter 2010

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

2nd Quarter 2010 Educational Objectives

In compliance with the Children's Television regulations that became effective January 2, 1997, the QUBO Programming Block on NBC features an on-air icon (E/I) indicating that each program is "educational and informational" for children. This icon is displayed throughout each program. Also, in compliance with the regulations, the following document, which includes "educational and informational" objectives of QUBO on NBC, must be placed in your public file.

Each of the programs listed below, which make up the QUBO on NBC programming block, is specifically designed to serve the educational and informational needs of children ages 4-8. All of the programs have educational objectives that are central to the content and appropriate to the program genre.

From April 3, 2010 - June 26, 2010, QUBO on NBC aired six shows returning from the 1st quarter. These are: Turbo Dogs, Sheldon, 3-2-1-Penguins!, Babar, Willa's Wild Life, and Jane and the Dragon. All eight shows were developed specifically for a target audience composed of children 4-8 years of age. Three of the shows are book-based series. Six of the shows focus on important social-emotional messages for the target audience. All educational and informational messages are delivered through an animated narrative format.

"Turbo Dogs" is an animated show based on the books, Racer Dogs, by Bob Kolar. The series follows a group of six dogs from Racerville who love to compete with one another in races. In each story, one or more of the dogs encounter and solve problems that teach them social-emotional lessons on good sportsmanship, teamwork, cooperation, playing fair, and friendship. The show also imparts information on the mechanics of racing such as directionality and concepts of distance and time. The social-emotional messages are embedded through the stories using action and humor. The tags at the end of each episode reiterate and establish the educational message learned by the dogs.

"Sheldon" is an animated series about a school-aged yoka shell mollusk named Sheldon. He lives with his adoptive family, the Clams, in Shell Land, an undersea community populated by all sorts of sea species. Sheldon and his best friends, Connie (a cowrie shell mollusk) and Herman (a hermit crab), face a specific challenge in every episode. The problem may be managing a bully, improving their grades, learning how to be altruistic, or protecting their environment from natural and man-made disasters. In most cases, they rely on Dr. Shell, the most venerated intellectual and elder in Shell Land who teaches them and gives them opportunities to harness their potential and solve the problem. Each episode provides a direct social-emotional lesson and many episodes provide informational content relating to the sea life habitat of Shell Land and environmental conservation.

Based on the books by Laurent de Brunhoff, "Babar" is an animated show about a young orphaned elephant who finds the strength to rise above the challenges he faces, including the death of his parents, as he journeys through life. Each episode of the show develops a social-emotional message such as taking responsibility, being patient and persistent in hard work, respecting people's privacy, learning to cope with unforeseen changes, and being honest. These messages emerge from the need to resolve a dilemma that is faced by Babar, one of his friends or family members.

"3-2-1 Penguins!" features two children, Jason and Michelle, whose vacation at their grandmother's cottage ends up being more adventure than they expect when their toy spaceship with four toy Penguins comes to life. The children are sucked into the spaceship, where they meet the now live Penguins and journey through space to solve an inter-galactic disaster threatening the Penguins and their friends. Each story begins with a problem, a moral dilemma for one of the siblings that affects his/her relations with the other, and ends after the children have learned an important social-emotional message through their adventure. The show communicates messages on topics such as honesty, being patient with others, and avoiding jealousy.

"Willa's Wild Life" is a new animated series centered on a six-year-old girl and her menagerie of animals. Willa lives at home with her father and pets – an elephant, a giraffe, a pair of performing seals, a bear, penguins, and lots of rabbits. In each episode, Willa faces a challenge at home, in school or in her neighborhood. With her animals and best friend Dooley as key elements of her team, Willa works on solutions to overcome her challenge. Together they find ways to maintain healthy friendships, experience success, develop competence, and become altruistic. With help from her animal friends, Willa figures out how to earn the things she wants by helping others. She learns to appreciate the friends that she has rather than trying to change to fit in with the "cool" group. She realizes that asking questions is better than jumping to conclusions. Whether at school, home or in the neighborhood, Willa finds a way to analyze her situation and learn from experience.

Set in medieval times, "Jane and the Dragon" is an animated show based on Martin Baynton's best-selling book about a middle-class medieval girl named Jane. Jane is raised in the Royal Court as a Knight-in-Training after she demonstrates her courage by leaving the castle to conquer the local dragon. The giant green Dragon, whose sense of humor exceeds his ferocity, instead becomes Jane's best friend and a part of the castle community. In each episode, Jane encounters a challenge that tests her problem-solving skills and requires her to demonstrate her strength of character as a Knight of the King's Guard. Sometimes Jane learns a moral lesson, and other times she uses her analytical ability to illustrate how a problem can be made less complicated and easily solved.

3rd Quarter 2010 Educational Objectives

There are no new shows for the 3rd quarter of 2010.

2ND QUARTER 2010 SHOW SUMMARIES

TURBO DOGS is a show about six canine friends—Dash, GT, Clutch, Stinkbert, Strut, and Mags—who have their own distinct characteristics but share a common love of racing cars. The fastest dogs in Racerville, the Turbo Dogs often compete with one another in races. The dogs each have their own racers, which they maintain regularly, and that are equipped with individual GPS systems to help and guide them. Each story begins with one of the Turbo Dogs encountering a problem that must be resolved while preparing to compete. Usually, the Turbo Dog learns his/her lesson through experience and accountability for negative behavior. Social-emotional messages about sportsmanship, teamwork, cooperation, and fairness developed in the story are emphasized in a separate tag at the end of each episode.

SHELLDON is an animated series that takes place in Shell Land, a mythical undersea world populated by characters from a wide array of water-dwelling species. The main character, Shelldon, is an orphaned yoka shell mollusk adopted by the Clam family and living with them in the family-owned Charming Clam Inn. Dr. Shell, an elder and venerated inventor, and Connie, a cowrie shell classmate of Shelldon's also live at the inn. Shelldon and his buddies, Herman (a hermit crab) and Connie (a cowrie shell), always work together and solve problems that they face in school or in the community. A recurring problem is to staunch the plans of the local millionaire, Cecil Cracken, whose greed puts making money over protecting the environment. Dr. Shell is typically the children's key provider of knowledge and other resources. In each episode, the children learn a significant social-emotional lesson and also share information relating to their ocean habitat and environmental protection.

3-2-1 PENGUINS! draws upon characters from two stories and uses both long and short form material involving these characters to provide social-emotional messages to children. The show features two children, Jason and Michelle, whose vacation at their grandmother's cottage ends up being more adventure than they expect when their toy spaceship with four toy Penguins comes to life. The children are sucked into the spaceship, where they meet the now live Penguins and journey through space to solve an inter-galactic disaster threatening the Penguins and their friends. Each story begins with a problem and ends after the children have learned an important social-emotional message through their adventure with the Penguins.

WILLA'S WILD LIFE is a new animated series featuring a six-year-old girl, Willa, who is permitted to share her home with an ever-growing menagerie of animals-- an elephant, a giraffe, a pair of performing seals, a bear, three penguins, and lots of rabbits. These creatures speak to Willa, offering her advice and friendship from each of their respective points of view. In each episode, Willa faces a challenge at home, in school or in her neighborhood. Her animals and best friend Dooley help her develop solutions to overcome each challenge. With the support of Dooley and the animals as well as praise from her dad, Willa finds ways to maintain healthy friendships, experience success, develop competence, and become altruistic.

BABAR, based on the books by Laurent de Brunhoff, is an animated show about a young orphaned elephant who finds the strength to rise above the challenges he faces, including the death of his parents, as he journeys through life. Each episode of the show develops a social-emotional message such as taking responsibility, being patient and persistent in hard work, respecting people's privacy, learning to cope with unforeseen changes, and being honest. These messages emerge from the need to resolve a dilemma that is faced by Babar, one of his friends or family members.

JANE AND THE DRAGON is a coming-of-age story about a middle-class, medieval girl who lives in the Royal Court with her family. As an only child, Jane is raised to be a Lady-in-Waiting but through her determination and a stroke of luck, she ends up being trained as a Knight in the King's Guard. Accompanied by her best friend, a giant green Dragon that lives in her backyard, Jane experiences a series of adventures that test her character and her skills as a young knight in a castle full of friends and foes. Each episode in the show takes us through the problems and challenges Jane encounters and the process she goes through to find the solutions for them.

Mayor Yoka is also washed up on shore and during their conversation tells Shelldon that he is a Yoka Star Shell – a species that has special powers, leadership abilities, and skills to fight pollution. Feeling confident now that he understands the legacy of his "species," Shelldon heads back to town. He discovers that Cracken is trying to take over by buying all the run-down businesses and taking advantage of people. Shelldon, who now has a sense of empowerment and pride, confronts Cracken. PIÑATA PARTY [TDO111]

Strut accidentally places Mags' invitation for her piñata party, along with his mail, in the trunk of his car. On the racetrack, Mags gives GT's invitation to him, but Strut outraces her before she can verify whether he got his invitation from Delivery Dog. When Strut hears about Mags' party, he thinks he isn't invited. Stinkbert advises Strut to talk to Mags, but Strut refuses. Instead, he decides to ruin the party by filling her piñata with water balloons. At the party, Mags wonders why Strut didn't come. Meanwhile, Strut tries to spy on the party, but the window is too dirty. When he returns to his car to get a rag, he finds the invitation in his trunk. Realizing he was invited, he returns to the party to confess and warn them about his trick. Strut and Mags apologize to one another for assuming without knowing.

[Educational Message: If you are not sure about something, the best thing to do is to ask. Assuming the worst creates more misunderstandings with friends.]

But his plans keep going awry. He tricks Wrenchini into giving him Dash's new tire, but Dash catches Strut with the tire. When Strut gets a flat tire, Dash lends his own to him. On the racetrack later, Strut spins out of control on the very oil he spilled to ruin Dash's chances of winning. Dash ends up helping Strut by moving his car to the end of the racetrack. Strut ends up winning, but he realizes he's won unfairly. As he returns the card to Dash, Strut confesses that he cheated and apologizes to Dash. They race again, fairly.

When Michelle tries switching their rooms, after Jason leaves the ship, she's confronted with an actual green-eyed monster. Meanwhile, Jason and Zidgel try convincing the sheep of Planet Picket that the grass is green on both sides of their fence. When they don't listen, they're also confronted by a green-eyed monster. While everyone tries stopping the monsters from eating everything, Michelle recalls Sol's analogy about envy. Realizing that the only way to get rid of them is to appreciate what she has and not be envious of others, she asks the sheep to do the same. It's only when Michelle and the sheep appreciate what they have and stop feeling envious that the green-eyed monsters finally disappear.

[Educational Message: Envy is an unhealthy emotion. Instead of making yourself feel bad by wanting what others have, you should appreciate what you have and make the most of it.]

Though Charlie gets in trouble with Pompadour for other illegal acts, Arthur ends up selling the mine to Rataxes who uses it to mine mud for his kingdom's mud baths.

[Educational Message: Tricking someone who tricked you is not the right way to deal with a problem. If you've been tricked into buying something you didn't want, see if the person who tricked you will fix it, take it back, or get punished. See if someone else can use what you bought.]

Willa admits that she should not have gone snooping and agrees to check with Dad before opening things that don't belong to her. She eagerly starts cleaning up the mess she created.

They are very proud of their finished product until they see Lara, Cara and Sarah's enormous kite. Willa convinces Dooley that they should start all over and make a bigger kite. However, the bigger the kite, the more difficult it is to fly. In the end, they stick with their first kite, reasoning that it is not the biggest or the fanciest, but it is the one they like the best. Their kite flies the highest and wins the contest.

Jane shows the King that the problem doesn't lie with Pig, but with the way Prince Cuthbert treats Pig. Thanks to Jane, the misunderstanding is cleared, and Smithy returns to the castle with Pig.

But GT wins again, and Strut alters the rules once more so he wins. Upset, GT leaves the race and Mags tells Strut to stop changing the rules so much. Strut continues to change the rules to make sure he's the winner each time. Tired of Strut cheating, his friends eventually abandon Strut's game and make up their own game. When Strut confronts them, he learns they won't play with him because he cheats by changing the rules to win every time. But when he asks to play, they let him. He finally realizes he must play fairly, and apologizes to his friends for cheating.

[Educational Message: To win fairly, you must play fairly. Changing the rules to ensure your win is unfair and also alienates the players in a game. Nobody will want to play with you if you cheat just to win.]

KING FOR A DAY [TDO112]

Noting the resemblance between Stinkbert and the king, the dogs consider the possibility of Stinkbert being the king's heir. They convince him to send in his paw print and playfully indulge him with a make-believe crown and throne. But Stinkbert begins to get carried away with his new possible role. He watches an instructional video and begins making outrageous demands based on a set of "royal rules." Upset with Stinkbert's behavior, his friends separate themselves from him. Stinkbert finally receives the letter with the results of the paw print match and believes he will not be able to be around his friends if he's better than them. The delivery dog advises him that being a king won't make Stinkbert better than anyone, and acting like it will hurt his friends. So, Stinkbert tears up the letter in his friends' presence, without seeing the results, and apologizes for getting carried away.

[Educational Message: If you act like you are better than everyone else, your friends' feelings will be hurt and they will not want to be around you. It's important to treat everyone the way you'd like to be treated.]

Shelldon's "suit" has shrunk in the family laundry and he thinks he has lost his mojo. Dr. Shell gives him a new mojo, and Shelldon plays superbly. LAZY DAZE [PEN203]

Upset at Michelle for not loaning him money to buy what he wants, Jason complains about having to work. Following Jason's lead, Zidgel suggests they take the day off and picnic at Planet Rigel-13. On their way, they stop at Comet Lounge where Michelle tells Sol about Jason's aversion to hard work. Sol advises them to watch the ants closely and see how diligently they work. Upon reaching Rigel-13, the Penguins and the cadets find it a mess. After Fidgel and Michelle return to the ship for cleaning supplies, the others are attacked by giant ants. When Jason is confronted with the ants, he finally remembers Sol's words and understands that the ants are there to clean up the planet's mess because they are hard workers. He helps the ants clean up, apologizes to the Penguins for his laziness, and finishes all his chores when he returns home to Grandmum.

Dr. Shell builds the Shelbot1000 to help clean up more efficiently. The robot performs upon command. It begins sorting, crushing and stacking the garbage on the beach. However, Hook, Mack and Sam send the robot out to sea to get them some food, causing it to get wet and break down. Everyone works together to get oil and fix the robot. However, once the robot is cured, it tries to clean up everything, including Dr. Shell who got dirty during the repair. Ignoring Five's suggestions, it takes Strut much more than five minutes to deliver pizzas, which were ruined because of his tardiness. SHELLDON MAKES WAVES [SHL010]

Dr. Shell hosts/narrates this episode, which is a flashback to Shelldon's discovery of his true identity. Shelldon was told that he was not Mama and Papa Clam's baby. They assure him that they love him and that he is part of the family, but Shelldon is troubled with not knowing who he really is. While walking with Connie they are both washed up on a distant shore after a tsunami hits. Mayor Yoka is also washed up on shore and during their conversation tells Shelldon that he is a Yoka Star Shell – a species that has special powers, leadership abilities, and skills to fight pollution. Feeling confident now that he understands the legacy of his "species," Shelldon heads back to town. He discovers that Cracken is trying to take over by buying all the run-down businesses and taking advantage of people. Shelldon, who now has a sense of empowerment and pride, confronts Cracken. He encourages everyone to work together to clean up rather than sell out to Cracken.

Zidgel disagrees and argues with Wild Bill. Just then, Gopher Gus and his gang arrive and steal more cows. Finally, Kevin tells his friends that Wild Bill needs to be nicer. WILLA'S WILD NEWS [WIL013]

Willa is developing a show for the school TV show. Best friends Clara, Lara, and Sara do a show on fashion and hot new trends that the students think is very cool, making the girls school celebrities. Willa, whose first feature on her animals is quite boring, gets the bright idea to exaggerate the abilities of her animals in order to create exciting entertainment. She sets up shots and tells little lies about what the animals are doing. After a while, the animals rebel and refuse to continue the false reporting. They don't like it and they feel Willa doesn't appreciate them for who they really are. When people (including Willa's teacher) come from all to see the fantastic animals the pressure is on for Willa to admit the truth. At her next show, Willa tells everyone she has done her last report on her animals. She is sorry others don't find the animals as interesting as she does. But she'd rather tell the truth.

But when they go over the top and ruin Dad's rest in the hammock, Willa confronts them about their behavior. They explain they just wanted to be

WHAT A CARD [TDO111]

When Dash and Strut discover that Stinkbert has the missing racer card they want, they decide to compete for it by racing. To ensure his win, Strut tries to sabotage Dash's chances, but his plans keep going awry. He tricks Wrenchini into giving him Dash's new tire, but Dash catches Strut with the tire. When Strut gets a flat tire, Dash lends his own to him. At the garage, Dash finds Strut with Dash's wrench and believes Strut when he pretends to need it. On the racetrack later, Strut spins out of control on the very oil he spilled to ruin Dash's chances of winning. Dash ends up helping Strut by moving his car to the end of the racetrack. Strut ends up winning, but he realizes he's won unfairly. As he returns the card to Dash, Strut confesses that he cheated and apologizes to Dash. They race again, fairly.

[Educational Message: Don't try to sabotage someone else's chances of winning a competition because you want to win. Chances are you won't be successful and even if you win unfairly, you won't feel good about it. Play by the rules and be a good sport if you don't win.]

She wins the contest and is so excited about winning she forgets to thank the animals and Dooley for making it all possible. FAIR PLAY [TDO112]

Strut creates a new game and his friends ask to play by his rules. When GT wins, Strut changes the rules to ensure his own win. His friends comply with his rules, and agree to race again. But GT wins again, and Strut alters the rules once more so he wins. Upset, GT leaves the race and Mags tells Strut to stop changing the rules so much. Strut continues to change the rules to make sure he's the winner each time. Tired of Strut cheating, his friends eventually abandon Strut's game and make up their own game. He finally realizes he must play fairly and apologizes to his friends for cheating.

KING FOR A DAY [TDO112]

Noting the resemblance between Stinkbert and the king, the dogs consider the possibility of Stinkbert being the king's heir. They convince him to send in his paw print and playfully indulge him with a make-believe crown and throne. But Stinkbert begins to get carried away with his new possible role. He watches an instructional video and begins making outrageous demands based on a set of "royal rules." Upset with Stinkbert's behavior, his friends separate themselves from him. Stinkbert finally receives the letter with the results of the paw print match and believes he will not be able to be around his friends if he's better than them. The delivery dog advises him that being a king won't make Stinkbert better than anyone, and acting like it will hurt his friends. So, Stinkbert tears up the letter in his friends' presence without seeing the results, and apologizes for getting carried away.

[Educational Message: If you act like you are better than everyone else, your friends' feelings will be hurt and they will not want to be around you. It's important to treat everyone the way you'd like to be treated.]

The shells are trying out for the Coral Deep High School Fin-Ball team, which has a history of major losses. Shelldon doesn't make the team, and ends up being the team mascot. As a consolation, Crabby tells him the mascot is important; it's got the mojo to help the team win. At one game, Shelldon catches the ball in his bulky blowfish costume and manages to score a touchdown. Now the star player, Shelldon will not take off the blowfish costume, believing it is his mojo and the reason for the team's success. Then Cracken organizes a high stakes game with his own players and makes a bet that the winner of the game will get to drill for oil on the stadium land. Shelldon's "suit" has shrunk in the family laundry and he thinks he has lost his mojo. Dr. Shell gives him a new mojo, and Shelldon plays superbly. Little does he know until after the game that the new mojo was just a peanut butter treat and he succeeded because of his own skill and confidence.

Then, he joins the Penguins on a mission to Planet Mercy-Falls to deliver the crown jewel to the king. While delivering the package, Zidgel accidentally drops and breaks the emerald. The king imprisons Zidgel despite his apologies. Jason reminds the king to show mercy, recalling Grandmum's advice. The king agrees to free Zidgel after Jason promises to forgive Michelle. BABAR

RADIO RIOT [BAR203]

On Zephir's new radio show, kids call in to complain about their parents. His advice, however, is irresponsible and undermines parental authority. When Victor calls with his complaints against Rataxes, Zephir urges Victor to strike. Victor refuses to listen to Rataxes until Victor's terms are met. Angered, Rataxes announces that Victor is grounded for six months. Hearing this, all the children go on strike, marching on streets and refusing to obey their parents until Victor's given justice. Upset with their children's behavior, parents call Rataxes who has taken over Zephir's radio station. Like Zephir, Rataxes gives parents unreasonable suggestions against their children. Soon, both parents and children are rioting. Finally, Babar intervenes and advises the children to let Victor and Rataxes solve their own problem. Realizing Babar's right, Victor urges the kids to talk to their parents instead of rioting and sets an example by discussing his concerns with Rataxes.

[Educational Message: If you have a problem with something your parents say to you, you should talk to them honestly about it instead of disobeying them and creating a riot. Complaining to others causes more problems and doesn't solve anything.]

FOR CRYING OUT LOUD [JAD208]

The knights are invited to join the royal hunt with the King. After seeing how scared the wild boar looks in his cage, Dragon asks Jane to stop the hunt. Jane reasons with Sir Theodore that the boar belongs in the wild, but to no avail. So, Jane and Dragon work together to prevent the others from finding the boar once it's released. Though they try to protect the boar, they realize how dangerous it is when it heads toward the open where the Queen is enjoying a picnic with her children. Jester distracts the boar with his hat until Jane and Dragon come to their rescue. After a brief confrontation, Dragon captures the boar under his paws. When the hunters reach the picnic in search of the boar, the children point them in a different direction. As the hunters leave, Jane and Dragon return the boar into the wild.

[Educational Message: It is better to leave wild animals in the wild because they are untamed and they can be very dangerous to people.]

On Isla Tigre, Jack observes Howler, Capuchin, Spider and Tamarin monkeys. Daughter Kathaleen spends time in an Embera Indian village.

Diving into Dominica (2179) The watery world of Dominica, one of the Caribbean's most pristine islands, provides Jack and his daughter Kathaleen with an unforgettable island adventure. From an ocean encounter with Sperm whales to a lazy paddle up the Layou River, father and daughter plunge right into the Nature Island. Also, Kathaleen makes her first open water dive.

Galapagos: Fernandina Island (2185) Six hundred miles due west of Ecuador in the Pacific Ocean, Jack and his daughter Kathaleen continue their adventures on the Galapagos Islands. On Fernandina, Jack investigates the Galapagos penguin population while Kathaleen swims with the world's only marine iguanas.

Over the Hump (2190) On a camel trek in Israel, Jack learns first hand about the animal's unique physiology and important contribution to early trade. Later, Jack visits the International Camel Center, where he learns about one scientist's plan to help impoverished countries by exporting a "drome-dairy" program. At the Alpaca Farm, Jack and Kathaleen discover the camel's South American relative has adapted nicely to wool production in the desert.

Costa Rica: World of Reptiles (2197) In Costa Rica, Jack encounters reptiles including an Eye Lash Viper, a huge Python and the deadly Bushmaster at the World of Snakes. On the Caribbean coast, Jack meets an American couple who has established the Sloth Rehabilitation Center.

Orcas and Grizzlies (2213) In Canada's British Columbia, Jack flies by floatplane to Knight Inlet where he observes Grizzly Bears fattening up for hibernation on Pacific Salmon. Meantime, at Telegraph Cove, Kathaleen boards a boat to find Dahl Porpoises, Pacific White-sided Dolphins and Killer Whales, the most formidable predators of the sea.

Wild As Ever (2224)

In rural Ohio, Jack gets behind the wheel to experience "The Wilds," the largest zoological reserve in North America. Formerly a coal-mining site, the 10,000 habitat is now home to many rare and endangered species including the Indian Rhino, the Bactrian camel, Przewalski's Horse and Pere David's Deer.

Zoo School (2229) At Santa Fe Community College Teaching Zoo in Gainesville, Florida Jack visits with the students. This unique "hands-on" program teaches them how to become zookeepers. The teaching zoo, which includes more than 80 species, dates back to 1974 and was the first program of its kind in the country.

Animal R & R (2234) Injured, sick and orphaned wildlife in the San Diego area have the benefit of one of the country's most effective community-based animal rescue and rehabilitation networks. At "Project Wildlife," Jack visits a California couple that shares their home with baby possums and owls, while at Sea World San Diego orphaned elephant seals are nursed back to health.

Ngala (2239) Jack gets a close look at the natural behaviors of an active hyena den tunneled under a large termite mound. On a walking safari, Jack keeps pace with a white rhino. Also on this South African adventure, Jack is captivated by two playful leopards climbing trees. The Ngala Camp Choir entertains with traditional African music.

Laikipia Predator Project (2246) In the Laikipia District of Kenya, Jack finds out about a conservation project aimed at reducing the number of lions, leopards and hyenas killed by livestock owners. Instead of killing predators, researcher Laurence Frank is urging ranchers and villagers to improve their methods of protecting cattle and goats. Jack is accompanied by Sea World and Busch Gardens Animal Ambassador Julie Scardina.

Ngorongoro Crater (2251) With its enormous population of zebra and antelope, Jack discovers the crater is one of the world's most unique places for animal viewing. Known for elephants with some of the biggest tusks in Africa, Jack keeps his fingers crossed that he'll find a "Big Tusker". Kathaleen looks at the unusual role reversal in the crater between hyenas and lions.

Monkeys and Manatees (2256)

At Monkey River Village in Belize, Central America, Jack meets up with a local river guide named "Rambo" who delights in showing off a jungle that is inhabited by howler monkeys, crocodiles and tarantulas. Jack begins his adventure at Gales Point where researchers from the United States are continuing their study of the West Indian manatee.
