TEXT OF BROADCAST

On January 21, 2005 [KFMO or KDBB] was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until February 1, 2013.

Our license will expire on February 1, 2013. We must file an application for license renewal with the FCC on October 1, 2012. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for public inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning [KFMO or KDBB]'s performance during the last 8 years.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the Commission by January 2, 2013.

Further information concerning the Commission's broadcast license renewal process is available at 804 N. ST. JOE DR or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, DC. 20554.
