

2023 Public File

Quarter: Third

Months: July

1.)	Date: July 3, 2023	Times: 6am, 6:30am, 7am, 7:30am, 8am and 8:30am
Length: 20 Seconds	Issue: Severe thunderstorms left over 9,000 Danville Utilities customers without power yesterday.
Programming: Jason Grey, Danville Utilities Director said the storms knocked down trees and powerlines. Grey said trees that were knocked over in the Windsor Heights neighborhood crashed into homes leaving a dozen homes damaged. Multiple trees were knocked down near the new location of the police department blocking the Memorial Drive entrance. Grey said 1500 customers were without power as of late last night and it could be days before it is restored. Crews from North Carolina and South Carolina have been summoned for additional help. (Newscasts)
2.)	Date :July 12, 2023	Times: 6am, 6:30am, 7am, 7:30am, 8am and 8:30am
Length: 30 Seconds	Issue: Danville Transit system offering special services to seniors
Programming: Ken Larking, Danville City Manager, said the transit system operates door-to-door, reservation-based service for seniors Monday through Saturday 4 AM to 1 AM, 21 hours a day. Services include medical trips, grocery and shopping trips and occasional recreation trips. Seniors can make reservations for service by calling 434-797-8994 or 434-799-5144 before 11:00 AM the day before the service is needed. Larking said to qualify, the senior must be at least 60, live within the Danville City limits, and complete a one time transportation intake form, which can be completed over the phone by calling the transportation office. (Newcasts)

2023 Public File

3.)	Date: July 21, 2023	Times: 6am, 6:30am, 7am, 7:30am, 8am and 8:30am
-----	---------------------	-------------------------------------------------

Length: 20 Seconds	Issue: Progress being made on White Mill Project.
--------------------	---------------------------------------------------

Programming: Ken Larking, Danville City Manager said the contractors are already installing the first windows on the top floor. Framing is starting to take shape on the future apartments.

Larking said Dan River Falls, as it will be known, will include one, two and three bedroom units on the top three floors of the western two-thirds of the space on the first floor and the eastern one-third of the second floor. The lower level will accommodate 219 parking spaces for tenants. Larking said completion date is scheduled for late 2024. (Newcasts)