

2023 Public File

Quarter: Third	Months: July-September
----------------	------------------------

Date: September 7, 2023	Times: 6am, 6:30am, 7am, 7:30am, 8am and 8:30am
Length: 35 Seconds	Issue: Danville's Police chief headed to Roanoke
Programming: Scott Booth will be leaving his post on October 31st. Booth has headed the Danville Police Dept. since 2018. Danville City Manager, Ken Larking, said he was disappointed that Chief Booth would be leaving and thankful for what he and his team accomplished under his leadership. Alonzo Jones, Danville's mayor, said Booth has done a great job for the city. (Newscasts)

Date: September 8, 2023	Times: 6am, 6:30am, 7am, 7:30am, 8am and 8:30am
Length: 40	Issue: Danville Public Schools celebrate all the schools accreditation.
Programming: For the '23-'24 school year, Galileo Magnet High School, Forest Hills Elementary School, and Schoolfield Elementary received full accreditation, and all other schools were accredited with conditions. No schools were denied accreditation. School Superintendent, Dr. Angela Hairston, said "our administrators, teachers, and students are working hard for this achievement ". (Newscasts)

Date: September 20, 2023	Times: 6am, 6:30am, 7am, 7:30am, 8am and 8:30am
Length: 50 Seconds	Issue: DCC enrollment continues to rise.

2023 Public File

Programming: Continuing the trend of enrollment growth seen in the spring 2023 and summer 2023 semesters, Danville Community College fall 2023 enrollment numbers are up 8.47% over fall 2022, as of September 18th. Dr. Jerry Wallace, DCC President, said “the DCC community is ecstatic to see our growth trending in the right direction over consecutive semesters. We expect to see additional students added to this number as we move into our second 8-week session in mid-October”. (Newscasts)