

ISSUES LIST FOR KLOE-KKCI SECOND QUARTER, 2023

April 27,--Visited on KLOE and KKCI with Julicia O'Hara, Exec. Director of the Sherman County Community Development concerning the Plans underway for development of the Goodland Industrial Park. told of extra funding available from the Federal Government..what the funds will be used for in Goodlands West Industrial park..The grant totaled 13 million dollars.

April 2, KLOE Am--Guests visited ON-Air about the "Parent of Your Parent" clinic..Three presentations to be made talking about you and your parents.. Having Hard Conversations...Legal Issues to Consider and Care Options for Aging Parents. Speakers were A Speech Therapist..Local Attorney and Healthcare Manager The 6 minute visit was aired on KLOE and KKCI twice, at 8am on the 24th...and 6:45am on the 28th,.

April 16th...Promoting and educating listeners on The Civil War. A live reenactment is set for Bird City, Ks on April 28th in East Bird City. Horses, Cavalry and machines used in the war will be presented, as well as Civil War encampments..food served and battle plan maps on view, Aired on all three stations with Advertising and live reads. Presented by the Tri-State Antique Engine and Threshers Association

April 17th --KLOE and KKCI--Visited about the Dane G. Hansen Grant writing workshop. Why the workshop is needed..who can go..and what it fully covers. It is designed to assist area Grant writers in Western Kansas learn how the Foundation wants the information..when to submit it and future funding that will be available. Carol Sloper is a speaker..and Bedtsey Wearing is from the Dane G. Hansen Foundation. Aired on KLOE-KKCI and KWGB and live reads from local announcers

May 15, Five-5 minute features concerning Severe Weather precautions and local past stormst. Visited with Ryan Husted, Emergency Warnings Coordinator, Goodland National Weather Service office. Told of Watches and warnings, the differences..Spoke of Tornado and Severe Thunderstorm issues. Advance planning and preparation of storm survival kits..how to build those kits. Talked about flooding issues with heavy rainfall and torrential rain events of past. The Programs aired twice each day on KLOE and KKCI-FM Retold the storm Slogans..."Turn Around, Don't Drown---When Thunder Roars, Go Indoors' ' .

June 7th and 8th..6:45am visited with Sherman County Health Nurse Jennie Kerr on summer inoculations update...what shots to get..ages for childrens shots..How the Health Department is big in Prevention. The County is now Certified for educating expectant Mothers and current birth Mothers the importance of breastfeeding early in life to fully assist the baby in better strength and nutrition. Health records were discussed on how the Department retains your records and shares with your local Health Care provider. (Program aired three times on KLOE and KKCI).