HEART & SOUL: Sunday 10/23 at 11:00pm – 11:30pm and 12/4 at 4:30pm - 5:00pm

This edition of Heart & Soul is hosted by Hosea Sanders and Karen Jordan, with contributions by Evelyn Holmes, and Terrell Brown.

HEART & SOUL showcased the Chicago Multicultural Dance School. Viewers were introduced to “Hiplet,” an exciting form of ballet that combines classical ballet with hip-hop from acclaimed artist Homer Hans Bryant. Next, a young and talented hip hop artist who hails from the South Suburbs of Chicago is presented, Nia Kay. This 14 year old has been recording songs and making videos since she was 10 years old. This rapper who is beloved by social media is working on her next album after having just competed on the Lifetime reality show “The Rap Game” produced by Jermaine Dupri and Queen Latifah. HEART & SOUL gives viewers a close up look at Dr. Toni Scott-Terry, an O-B, G-Y-N who has dedicated more than 20 years to delivering babies, performing surgeries and enhancing the health of women. She's decided to do even more to help those in the battle for their life, as well as improving the overall health for both women and men with the opening of Allure Laser and Medical Spa. Then, the show features Chef David Fuller, a product of the Englewood community. His journey of success comes full circle when a partnership with Whole Foods allows him to share one of his signature savory dishes with customers in 50 Whole Food Markets throughout the Midwest. HEART & SOUL catches up with two college friends who started Pyramid, an event planning company that specializes in events for young African American professionals. In addition to two avid Chicago sports fans and writers who launched a new brand of Chicago sports journalism. Eugene McIntosh and Terrence Tomlin felt their perspective wasn't being heard. So, a year ago they launched The Bigs, a website that tells the days sports headlines and brings its readers/viewers interviews from some of Chicago's biggest athletes. Lastly, the show highlighted a home designated as the only licensed African American B&B in Chicago, the Welcome Inn Manor, built in 1893 is a historic Queen Anne home owned by a couple that wanted to offer a different experience to visitors looking for housing.

THE Ñ BEAT, Saturday 10/8 at 6:30pm - 7:00pm and Sunday 10/9 at 4:30pm - 5:00pm

Hosted by Stacey Baca... with contributions from Rob Elgas, Michelle Gallardo, John Garcia and Roz Varon, THE Ñ BEAT is a show that turns a positive spotlight on Chicago's vibrant Latino community.

This edition explores how a Chicago-based magazine is 'lifting up' Latinos who've made it in the business world. We go inside the headquarters of 'Hispanic Executive'. See how Chicago designer Carina Chiquito 'rocked the runway' during Latino Fashion week. We meet Roho, an accomplished artist who is just as passionate about 'giving back' to the community as he is about creating his masterpieces. We also meet the Cerdas-Salazar family, whose Chicago restaurant will make you feel like you've been transported to Costa Rica! And everyone knows the name Lin-Manuel Miranda... he is the man 'behind' the -Biggest- show to ever hit Broadway. In town for the Chicago premiere of Hamilton, Miranda says his Puerto Rican 'roots' helped the blockbuster show.

WINDY CITY LIVE, Friday 11/11 at 1:00pm - 2:00pm and re-broadcast on 7.2 at 2:00pm - 3:00pm

In addition to our on-air programming, our station serves its local community off air through a wide variety of community outreach efforts and programs, often undertaken in cooperation with local leaders and not-for-profit organizations. These include, but are not limited to: internally-organized drives for food, blood donations as well as fundraising and/or awareness efforts for local non-profit organizations; production assistance with public service announcements; on- and off-site meetings and events with community groups; the organization, participation and/or hosting of, community discussions and debates; facilitation of talent appearances at community and charitable events; station participation in local parades (in addition to the broadcasting commitment); and station tours for local groups and schools.

From community residents we've determined that the following issues are of particular importance to our local community:

- CHILDREN AND FAMILIES
- COMMUNITY SERVICES
- DIVERSITY/DISCRIMINATION
- ECONOMY/LOCAL BUSINESS
- EDUCATION AND SCHOOLS
- ENVIRONMENT
- GUN CONTROL/VIOLENCE
- HEALTH
- I-TEAM INVESTIGATIONS
- POLICE
- POLITICS
- TRANSPORTATION/SAFETY
- TROOPS/WAR/TERRORISM
- VIOLENCE/CRIME
- MISCELLANEOUS

Some of the station's most significant treatment of those issues is described in the pages that follow.
