FOURTH QUARTER 2016

Program: Bay Area Vista Episode: #607
Air Date: Tuesday, October 4, 2016 6:00am
Topic/Title: Bay Area Vista: San Jose Jazz Festival 2016
Duration: 28:30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Bay Area Vista
Issues Addressed: Entertainment, History
Host: Janice Edwards
Guests: Dr. Emmett Carson, CEO and President – Silicon Valley Community
Foundation
Jan De Carli – San Jose Jazz Board Member
Big Russ – World Famous Rick and Russ Show
Sandra Dailey – Sandri's Cobbler Cup
Andy Comeau – Vaud and the Villians

Performances by Kermit Ruffins & the BBQ Swingers, Bobby Caldwell, C.J. Flash (The World Famous Rick and Russ Show), Vaud and the Villians, and Ledisi (from 2014. Blast from the past.)

Dr. Emmett Carson, CEO and President of Silicon Valley Community Foundation, talked about why his company supports the San Jose Jazz Festival. It helps bring people together of all ages, races, and ethnicities to enjoy music and how participation in community is important. He talked about the work that his company has done dealing with stopping payday lending in 17 communities, getting a bill signed by Governor Brown that if students pass 8th grade math, they are promoted to 9th grade, and welcoming immigrants and getting them citizenship. He talked about working on the housing crisis in San Jose and finding a way to create affordable housing in San Jose.

Jan De Carli, San Jose Jazz Board Member, talked about how the Jazz Festival brings people to San Jose.

Bobby Caldwell talked about how he will work wherever they will pay him. He talked about the inspiration of his biggest song "What You Won't do for Love." It's about unrequited love and dumped in a bad way. He wrote the song to get it out of his system. He talked about how that song changed his life. He was wet behind the ears. It changed his life from an unknown to stardom and he wasn't ready for that. He had some learning curves and adjusting, but it has been a blessing.

Big Russ, from the World Famous Rick and Russ Show, talked about how much good music and how the crowd is into it. He talked about how he started the Rick and Russ Show as a hobby, with his day job being in healthcare. His hobby grew and he left his healthcare job. He talked about how he and CJ met at a club through a mutual friend. He also talked about how the changes in music has been a slippery slope, we are seeing the results not having music in the schools: there are some good musicians but the music is mostly stagnant and there's no incubator for that.

FOURTH QUARTER 2016

Sandra Dailey, owner of Sandi's Cobbler Cups, talked about how she started her business at Levi's Stadium (in 2014) and how she is doing with her business. She has been contracted by Levi's to do gumbo, in addition to cobbler cups and jambalaya. She takes 8 gallons to Levi's Stadium on Fridays. She also has been doing a lot of catering and festivals. She got her cobbler cup recipe from her grandma. She is vice president of Black Leadership Cabinet in Santa Clara. It is a group of professionals who get together every month and talk about issues in the African American community and community of color and the issues that are affecting the children and jobs. This group has been together since 2005.

Andy Comeau, "Vaud" in Vaud and the Villains, talked about how fun his performance was and the challenge of being a rock and roll band performing at a jazz festival. He talked about how his group's name came about. He and his wife were inspired by the Bruce Springsteen/Pete Seger sessions and acting projects in creating the show.

FOURTH QUARTER 2016

Program: California Living With Aprilanne Episode: #1006
Air Date: Tuesday, October 4, 2016 6:30am
Topic/Title: California Living: Sonoma Food & Wine Pairing
Duration: 28:30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Inside Look TV
Issues Addressed: Food, Entertainment
Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Sondra Bernstein, Author and Owner - Girl in the Fig
John Toulze, Executive Chef - Girl in the Fig
Christopher Ferranti, Chef - Bay View Restaurant
Marco Galazzo, Food and Beverage Manager, Bay View Restaurant

Aprilanne interviewed Sondra Bernstein, author and owner of Girl in the Fig restaurant, about how to pair food with wine. Sondra talked about the importance of having fun at a party, but at the same time having items that the guests will like, will be easy to make and making sure that the flavor profiles will match. The secret here is having it at home and available.

Aprilanne interviewed John Toulze, executive chef, Girl in the Fig restaurant, on how to keep it simple. His philosophy is to use the freshest, seasonal ingredients, from the garden or from the farmer to the pan and to the guest with a minimal amount of processing. His job is to highlight what the gardener/farmer had done. He talked about the importance of pairing food and wine from the same geographical area.

Aprilanne gave the top three wine tasting party planning tips: 1) choosing a theme for the wine selection. 2) The important supplies that are needed for the wine tasting, and 3) keep it simple when it comes to the menu.

Aprilanne interviewed Christopher Ferranti, chef, Bay View restaurant, about the challenge of arranging a wine tasting party at a restaurant. According to Christopher, he is dealing with 5 courses and 5 different wines. He has to be organized from the get go: from pairing the food correctly with the wine that comes from the winery, preparing it in a timely matter and getting it out.

Aprilanne interviewed Marco Galazzo, food and beverage manager, Bay View restaurant, about the wine maker dinners that Bay View restaurant puts on for the past 20 years. They do one dinner per month with a different winery every month and they have a turnout of 90-100 people. He talked about the experience that the guests will have. The owner and/or winemaker will be there and they will dine on the same food/wine as the other guests. And between courses, the owner or winemaker will go around the tables and talk to the guests.

Style/Type: Interview
Source: Bay Area Vista
Issues Addressed: Entertainment, History
Host: Janice Edwards
Guests: Mike Fox Sr, Founder – M.E. Fox

Mike Fox Sr., wholesale beverage distributor (founder of M. E. Fox) and philanthropist, talked about his decision to close his accounts with Bank of America to move his money to a local bank. This action was taken as a result of discussions that he had with People Acting in Community Together (PACT), and the actions that Bank of America took with foreclosures. He talked about how people reacted to his decision to move his accounts to a local bank. He talked about how the Occupy movement affected him, how the movement is counterproductive in some ways, like pension funds for unions and non-profits being invested in Wall Street and larger companies. He talked about how work stoppages at the ports affect his employees. He talked about how Bank of America lost their touch with the local community. He talked about how his family reacted to his closing the accounts at Bank of America and moving to the local bank. He talked about the sacrifice of doing that. He talked how the world economy affects everything. He talked about how his business is doing in the rough times (people do buy alcoholic beverages during good and bad times). He talked about following your conscience and values. He talked about the influences of his upbringing in the Midwest, Cesar Chavez and Martin Luther King have on how he runs his business.

Topic/Title: California Living: Insider's Guide: Tiburon, CA
Duration: 28:30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Inside Look TV
Issues Addressed: Food, Entertainment
Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Eva Claiborne, Owner – Eva Claiborne Skin Institute
Steve Merrifield, Owner – Demo Sport
Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain – Angel Island Tiburon Ferry
Brian Wilson, Owner – Sam's Anchor Cafe

Aprilanne went to the Eva Claiborne Skin Institute, where she interviewed the owner, Eva Claiborne, about an ultrasonic anti-aging facial treatment, which after 10 minutes will see youthful results. They used a model that had never had a facial treatment to do the facial treatment on. According to Eva, it will take several treatments for the skin of the model to have the desired result.

Aprilanne interviewed Steve Merrifield, owner of Demo Sport, about seeing the sights of the San Francisco Bay by paddle boarding. He talked about the ease of using a stand up paddle board (a long, wide surfboard which the person stands up on and uses a paddle). According to Steve, anyone can use it, especially on a lake or calm water. It takes minimal amount of training. There are some physical benefits of stand-up paddle boarding: it uses every muscle in the body. It takes a certain amount of balance to balance the legs. The mind is thinking about what's ahead and moving around.

Aprilanne interviewed Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain of Angel Island Tiburon Ferry about the 50th anniversary of her family running the Angel Island Tiburon Ferry. Aprilanne and Maggie talked about the various cruises that they have done for quite a few years. Video was shown of the various cruises that they had taken. Maggie talked about the sunset cruises, which happens every Friday and Saturday evening from May-October. The guests can bring out their own picnic dinners. They cruise towards the Golden Gate and back.

Aprilanne and Maggie went to Sam's Anchor Café, and Aprilanne interviewed Brian Wilson, co-owner of Sam's Anchor Café, about the specialty oyster dish, Oyster's Brian, that they make. Aprilanne and Maggie had the Oyster's Brian and a glass of wine. Then Brian brought the crab dish. He talked about using good, fresh seafood for the dishes. Danny the chef talked about some of his secrets of presenting food. He talked about making the food look right (98% of it is visual).

Aprilanne and Hilary then move on to "The Farm" signature restaurant. They are seated with the restaurant manager Brian Chipson. They talk about the indigenous menu and go over some of the available items on the menu. Brian also talks about the other two restaurants available at the property.

Topic/Title: Bay Area Vista: Omega Boys Club
Duration: 26:20 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Bay Area Vista
Issues Addressed: Exercise, Fitness, Health
Host: Janice Edwards
Guests: Dr. Joe Marshall Jr., Co-Founder – Omega Boys Club
Tanaya Reid, Member – Omega Boys Club
Rashad Demings, Member – Omega Boys Club

Omega Boys Club was founded in 1987 by a couple of individuals who were frustrated by the youth of San Francisco's Potero Hill district giving up on dreams of academic achievement and choosing lives of drug dealing and prostitution. There was a taped segment explaining how the program works. It originally started with serving boys, but expanded out to serve the girls as well. Dr. Joe Marshall, Jr., co-founder of the Omega Boys Club, and two students of the Omega Boys Club, Tanaya Reid and Rashad Demings, talked about the difference that the club is from the outside world of their neighborhoods. In the neighborhoods, they have to deal with peer pressure, violence, and trust issues with others and themselves. Tanaya talked about the first time she came to the Omega Boys Club, she stayed because of the topics of real life that were not talked about around her, but are talked about in the club. She talked about how the club helped her keep alive and free. Rashad talked about what brought him to the Omega Boys Club (he yearned for more & missing something in his life). He learned from the club things about his history that he didn't know that wasn't taught in school. He talked about how the Job corps led him to the club. Joe talked about how two alumni of the club led Rashad and others to the club. He also talked about the importance of education for the participants and the sense of family that he creates in the club. Tanaya and Rashad talked about the things that are not talked about on the street, like sex, violence, drugs, partying, etc. The things that people get caught up in but are overlooked. They are taught how to deal with the situations that they have to deal with on the streets. How to find the right friends. How to stay away from the wrong crowd. Joe talked about the spreading the Omega Boys Club model to other cities and to Haiti.

Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Nick Marlowe, Owner – Surf and Apparel Shop
Carlo Galazzo, General Manager – At the Tides Restaurant

Aprilanne first takes us to St. Teresa's Church and Modern Schoolhouse where a scene from "The Birds" was shot (the birds attack the schoolchildren). She then tells that Bodega is a quaint town with a lot of fun stores. She then interviews Nick Marlowe, who owns a surfboard and apparel shop in town. His shop sells custom surfboards and other surf related paraphernalia. He describes Bodega as a "tiny town, but we have everything." He also says that thousands of tourist a year come to town to see locations from "The Birds."

Aprilanne then takes us to Potter's Schoolhouse, where the cast was violently attacked by objects of the ornithological kind.

We then visit the Sonoma Visitor's Center which houses books on Alfred Hitchcock (the director of "The Birds") as well as paraphernalia, accessories and clothing based on "The Birds" and Bodega Bay.

The host then takes us to the area where there used to be a house for the main character in the +movie. After the house burned down in the 60's, the U.C. Davis Marine Dormitory was built in its place. She also shows us the Bodega Marine Lab nearby which is open for tours and seminars.

The restaurant where actress Tippi Hendren takes cover is next on the tour. The Tides Restaurant, is a very successful restaurant. It's a great place to shop for memorabilia about "The Birds" and offers gifts concerning Bodega Bay.

Aprilanne then explains that Hitchcock chose Bodega because of the fog. He hated beautiful, sunny days because that meant he would have to have the exposed film "tinted" to match the look of the previous "foggy" footage.

At the Tides Restaurant, Aprilanne visits the fish market where she meets Carlo Galazzo, the General Manager. He describes all of the different kinds of fish, wine and cheeses available at the restaurant. She then cooks clam chowder with Carlo.

Aprilanne then recaps all the great things that Bodega Bay offers in terms of food, wine, beautiful hotels, and great hiking trails.

Air Date: Tuesday, November 1, 2016 6:30am
Topic/Title: California Living: Marin Designers Showcase - Design Elegance #2
Duration: 28:30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Inside Look TV
Issues Addressed: Volunteer, Construction, Remodeling
Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Linda Davis, CEO – Center for Volunteer and Non Profit Leadership
Cathleen Gouveia, Owner – Cathleen Gouveia Design
Eric Shromer, Host and Carpenter – HGTV
Pablo Castro, Owner – Marin Hardwood Floor Center

Aprilanne interviewed Linda Davis, Executive Director for the Center for Volunteer and Nonprofit Leadership of Marin. Linda talked about the importance of the volunteers in the execution of the Marin Designer Showcase event (it is a yearlong process to put on the showcase event). Linda talked about how the process happens immediately after the house closes. They begin looking for another house to have the next year's showcase. They promote it to the designers and the designers come out and put bids down on the rooms. Sponsors are enrolled. They meet monthly. Aprilanne showed over some of the rooms that various designers had designed.

Aprilanne interviewed Cathleen Gouveia, owner of Cathleen Gouveia Design, about the bedroom that she designed. Cathleen talked about what had inspired her for the bedroom (this bedroom was in a historical home). She was thinking that since the home was built around the turn of the 19th century that previous owners and guest came to the home either by horseback or ferry. She talked about using the light of the room to make a summer cottage feeling. She was also inspired by butterflies when she was designing the room. She also talked about how she transformed the room by using various modern pieces and art. She wanted to blend in the warm and cool things together.

Aprilanne interviewed Eric Shromer, HGTV show host and celebrity TV carpenter, about some great ideas for re-imagining a home. He talked about budget and how to stand apart from the home next door (if selling a home). He talked about saving money by repurposing/resurface the existing kitchen cabinets, painting, and dimmer switches on lighting fixtures. He talked about the difficulties of turning a remodeling dream into reality. He talked about the inspiration for his book, "Do It Yourself Family," (he is the father of 3 and he wanted to get his kids involved in design).

Aprilanne interviewed Pablo Castro, Owner of Marin Hardwood Floor Center and an over 32 year volunteer of the Marin Designer Showcase. He talked about his experience of being a volunteer designer. From volunteering, he learns from the other designers. He tries to help out the designers as much as he can by doing the wood floors or decorating. According to Pablo, volunteering is a terrific thing for health. Aprilanne interviewed several volunteers after her interview with Pablo.

Topic/Title: Deepak Chopra/Change
Duration: 26.45 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Edwards Unlimited
Issues Addressed: Religion, Politics
Host: Janice Edwards
Guest(s): Dr. Deepak Chopra; Dwayne Omarr-Exec. Producer; Donald Hasan-
Exec. Producer; Larry Butler-volunteer Obama Campaign

Dr. Deepak Chopra talked about his latest book, "God: A Story of Revelation," and a documentary that his son, Gotham, did on him, called "Decoding Deepak." Deepak said that the documentary is about the public, private, family, mysterious Deepak, as well as, his son's relation with him and his son's struggle with his own identity. He talked about the challenge that he had when he was training to be a monk. He talked about why he chose the Story of Job to start off his book about God. It goes to the eternal question if there is a God. Deepak then went into the Story of Chakra, which explains why suffering has a purpose. He talked about the purpose of all suffering. He talked about how the political scene reflects the collective conscience of the people, the politicians, and media. He talked about the shifting of the father/son relationship with Gotham.

Dwayne Omarr, co-executive producer, talked about the concept for the song, "Change." Music artist, Suave, sent an idea to the producers and Dwayne saw the vision of the song and went into the studio and composed a track for the song and used some other artists to flesh out the song. Donald Hasan, co-executive producer, talked about how the song moved him. It had a great hook, beat and timing according to Donald. Dwayne talked about how he started in the music business (he is related to B.B. King on his mother's side.) Dwayne also talked about how "Change" causes people to think and to get people out to vote and make changes for themselves. Larry Butler, volunteer for the Obama campaign, talked about how he used "Change" to make the people of the state of Virginia aware, and how important the song is to him. He used the song to rally the youth. Janice talked to several people at the rally for President Obama which took place recently in San Francisco. These people talked about what they want Obama to do and why they will vote for Obama.

Issues Addressed: Wine Tasting, Tourism, Travel, and Entertainment
Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: John Conover, General Manager – Plump Jack Winery
Anthony Biagi, Wine Maker – Wine Jack Winery
Kimball Jones, Executive Chef

Aprilanne interviewed John Conover, General Manager of Plump Jack Winery in Napa Valley. He talked about the history of Plump Jack Winery (it was founded in 1995 by a couple of people, Gavin Newsom and Gordon Getty, who are from San Francisco). The goal is to make wine less intimidating, more inviting experience for people. He talked about how he takes the mystery out of the wine experience for wine lovers by allowing people to see the grape growing, wine making, bottling process, and enjoy wines in a very casual environment. He talked about having the founders overlook the property, and their passion for fine wine. He talked about how Plump Jack Winery had gotten its name (from a character in Shakespeare's play "Falstaff"). He talked about how wine and food are theatre and entertainment. He talked about having your palate be your ultimate judge when tasting wine. He talked about screw cap wines, where there is a screw cap on the bottle instead of a cork. He talked about seeing mold in their corks about 7 – 8 years ago and if affected about 6 – 7% of all wines. It gives a moldy off character in wine. He, Gavin and Gordon looked for alternative closures for their wines. He talked about how the wine industry was kicking and screaming over this switch. He talked about the environmental aspects of using a screw cap instead of a cork (it saves trees from being used for cork and the ease of opening the bottle of wine). He gives a demonstration on how he does a wine tasting and some tips on wine tasting.

Anthony Biagi, winemaker, Wine Jack Winery, talked about the three things that go into making a great wine: 1) having a wonderful vineyard, 2) having a great team who believes in making great wine and 3) having a great ownership that supports the winemaking team. It takes 2 years for a return on an investment in wine.

Kimball Jones, Executive Chef, gives his tips on pairing wine with food and the barbecue. He talks about making the food go with the wine and making it well balanced. Aprilanne gave the 6 steps to wine tasting.

Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: John Ash, Executive Chef – Culinary Institute of America
Damon Calegari, Taste Tester
Ralph Pagano, Celebrity Chef – Almost Famous Chef Competition

Aprilanne interviewed John Ash, Executive Chef. He talked about the programs that are offered through the Culinary Institute of America (which was expanded to include home cooks and foodies.) He talked about how he became interested in cooking (it was helping his grandmother make comfort food while he lived on a ranch in Colorado when he was a child). He gave his secret for matching food with wine: making sure that the acidity level of the food is in balance with the acidity level in the wine. You can add acid to the food through vinegar, citrus, or wine. He talked about how he used seasonal, fresh, and local food in his cooking and how he contributed to the California Cuisine.

Aprilanne and taste tester Damon Calegari did a preview of what John teaches. John teaches how to make food and wine more enjoyable by putting things that are similar in flavor or contrasting in flavor together. Usually he looks for things that are similar. In the class that Aprilanne and Damon sat in, John talked about the most important organ for taste: the nose. He highlighted the important role that our senses play in successfully pairing wine with food. Aprilanne and Damon had gotten more appreciation of the complexities of wine and a deeper understanding on how to pair food with wine.

The National Pellegrino's Almost Famous Chef Competition. Aprilanne and Damon tasted some of the dishes that were prepared by the contestants. David Awad, the winner of the Almost Famous Chef Competition, talked about what made his dish the winner. He tries to have balance and clean flavors with his dish. He talked about how he dealt with the pressure of cooking for over 200 people. He talked about putting himself into the food and the passion and love into what you are doing, and hope that everything falls into place and that the people enjoy the dish. Ralph Pagano, Celebrity Chef and co-sponsor of the Almost Famous Chef competition, talked about how he became involved in the Almost Famous Chef Competition. He is interested in mentoring the future chefs.

He talked about how he has been in the waves since he was a child (he had gotten into the ocean before he could walk). When he got older, he noticed how high the surf was in Half Moon Bay and he decided to surf the waves by himself. Jeff convinced other experienced surfers to surf in Half Moon Bay and word spread like wildfire. The next time that the high waves were happening, more surfers came and changed Half Moon Bay and the world of big wave surfing. He talked about how he and Peter Mell talked about doing an event and the next thing is that they were putting on the Mavericks Surf Contest. He also talked about custom making surf boards and designing a surf board that can be used for the Mavericks Surf Contest. His advice for those who want to learn how to surf: don't bite off more than you can chew. Start slow and sure and get a couple of lessons. Figure out where your comfort zone is and enjoy it.

Aprilanne interviewed Julie Shenkman, co-owner of Sam's Chowder House, about the secret of Sam's Chowder House's success (great seafood, great ocean view, and a world class chef). She talked about Sam's Cam (a live web camera that shows views of Pillar Point Harbor view, as well as views of the ocean and beach). She talked about having a New England Style menu based on simple, fresh and authentic ingredients with a California twist. She uses local and seasonal ingredients as well.

Aprilanne interviewed Paul Shenkman, co-owner of Sam's Chowder House. He talked about how he was originally from the East Coast, where he ate from the local seafood shacks among the East Coast. When the location for Sam's became available, he jumped on. He showed off several dishes and how he pairs this with various wines. Aprilanne and Paul tasted several items.

Aprilanne interviewed Tony Canadas, Director of Marketing, Oceano Hotel and Spa. He talked about the conveniences that of being close to everywhere in the San Francisco Bay Area. He talked about the rooms and how green the hotel is. He talked about several things that one can do in Half Moon Bay. Then Aprilanne interviewed Nichole Vroman, Spa Director, Oceano Hotel and Spa. Nichole concentrates on holistic, all-natural custom blended products and services for the customers. Nichole gave Aprilanne a spa treatment.

Guests: Eva Claiborne, Owner – Eva Claiborne Skin Institute
Steve Merrifield, Owner – Demo Sport
Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain – Angel Island Tiburon Ferry
Brian Wilson, Owner – Sam's Anchor Cafe

Aprilanne went to the Eva Claiborne Skin Institute, where she interviewed the owner, Eva Claiborne, about an ultrasonic anti-aging facial treatment, which after 10 minutes will see youthful results. They used a model that had never had a facial treatment to do the facial treatment on. According to Eva, it will take several treatments for the skin of the model to have the desired result.

Aprilanne interviewed Steve Merrifield, owner of Demo Sport, about seeing the sights of the San Francisco Bay by paddle boarding. He talked about the ease of using a stand up paddle board (a long, wide surfboard which the person stands up on and uses a paddle). According to Steve, anyone can use it, especially on a lake or calm water. It takes minimal amount of training. There are some physical benefits of stand-up paddle boarding: it uses every muscle in the body. It takes a certain amount of balance to balance the legs. The mind is thinking about what's ahead and moving around.

Aprilanne interviewed Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain of Angel Island Tiburon Ferry about the 50th anniversary of her family running the Angel Island Tiburon Ferry. Aprilanne and Maggie talked about the various cruises that they have done for quite a few years. Video was shown of the various cruises that they had taken. Maggie talked about the sunset cruises, which happens every Friday and Saturday evening from May-October. The guests can bring out their own picnic dinners. They cruise towards the Golden Gate and back.

Aprilanne and Maggie went to Sam's Anchor Café, and Aprilanne interviewed Brian Wilson, co-owner of Sam's Anchor Café, about the specialty oyster dish, Oyster's Brian, that they make. Aprilanne and Maggie had the Oyster's Brian and a glass of wine. Then Brian brought the crab dish. He talked about using good, fresh seafood for the dishes. Danny the chef talked about some of his secrets of presenting food. He talked about making the food look right (98% of it is visual).

Aprilanne and Hilary then move on to "The Farm" signature restaurant. They are seated with the restaurant manager Brian Chipson. They talk about the indigenous menu and go over some of the available items on the menu. Brian also talks about the other two restaurants available at the property.

Association

Aprilanne interviewed Coy and Sarah Barnes, Owners of the Wine Wrangler. They talked about how they customize their tours based on their customer's preference in wine. Coy talked about how Paso Robles became the third largest wine growing region in California. Coy talked about a green getaway where the customer arrives on an Amtrak train, stays in a local hotel and give them a tour of the local area. They talked about how they founded Wine Wrangler. They took Aprilanne to Eagle Castle Winery, where she interviewed Gary Stemper, Owner of Eagle Castle Winery. He talked about how the building that the winery is based in (a castle) won an award. He talked how some of his wines had won awards. Gary and Aprilanne tasted some wine.

Aprilanne interviewed Joe Barton, Owner and Winemaker, Grey Wolf Cellars. He and Aprilanne tasted some of the wines that he had made. He got the inspiration for the Grey Wolf Cellar name from his parents, who love the idea of the family being part of a pack. He talked about the challenge of making wines that go beyond regular wines. He showed Aprilanne how he makes his wines.

Aprilanne interviewed Norma Moye, Executive Director, and Paso Robles Downtown Main Street Association about the revitalization of Paso Robles. According to Norma, they started with Main Street, where they revitalized and preserved the old buildings. They used community volunteers and board/committees. She talked about how the revitalization started with putting a movie theatre in, followed by shops, wine tasting rooms and restaurants. She talked about having old sulfur water springs, where people come and use the spring water for healing. Aprilanne and Coy Barnes went to an underground room, where they tried various wine and food pairings. Coy talked about the wine club that he runs. He uses various wines from various wineries, both large and small, to find the sleepers that people don't know about.

Program: Bay Area Vista Show #: 609
Air Date: Tuesday, December 13, 2016 6:00am
Topic/Title: Felton Monterey/Mental Health Show
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Edwards Unlimited
Issues Addressed: Mental Health/Illness Discovery and Prevention
Host: Janice Edwards
Guest(s): Al Gilbert-President & CEO, Adriana Furuzawa-Division Director, Brandon Staglin-Director of Marketing and Communications, Dr. Nev Jones-Director of Research, Dr. Amie Miller

The Felton Institute provides services for all ages & incomes. Janice interviewed Al Gilbert, President & CEO of the Felton Institute. He talked about how the mental health field is evolving towards early intervention and ultra-high risk treatment. He talked about how he grew up in the inner city and saw people with mental health problems, which leads to incarceration in jail.

Adriana Furuzawa, Division Director of PREP (Prevention and Recovery in Early Psychosis) at Felton Institute, talked about how Felton has PREP programs in 4 counties: San Francisco, Alameda (Hayward), Monterey (Salinas), & San Mateo (San Mateo). These programs are designed to help at the earliest signs of mental health crisis/psychotic illness. PREP is for the ages of 16-35. She talked about how it is difficult for families to recognize the signs of mental illness.

Brandon Staglin, Director of Marketing and Communications at Staglin Family Vineyard & One Mind Institute, talked about the presentation that he had given recently at Felton Institute about the promise of prevention: How intervening early for oncoming psychosis can help young people who are at risk. He had a psychotic break when he was 18 and a friend helped him out very early in his break.

At the seminar that was given at Felton Institute, Dr. Nev Jones, Director of Felton Research and CCOR, talked about Brandon's story and how her work has been affected by the challenges that she had encountered when she was a patient. In the interview with Janice, she talked about the diverse audience that had attended the seminar: police, representatives from schools, county behavioral health, and local organizations. These groups have similarities but don't often come together in the same place. She talked about those who don't get the help early and the opportunities for them to get back on track.

Dr. Amie Miller talked about how big of a divide that Monterey County is: The very wealthy living on the coast vs the people who work in agricultural industry in the Salinas Valley and South County, where there is a high level of poverty and undocumented beneficiaries. 50% of Monterey County's population is part of the safety net, either undocumented or have MediCal.

Topic/Title: California Living: Sonoma Food & Wine Pairing
Duration: 28:30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Source: Inside Look TV
Issues Addressed: Food, Entertainment
Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Sondra Bernstein, Author and Owner - Girl in the Fig
John Toulze, Executive Chef - Girl in the Fig
Christopher Ferranti, Chef - Bay View Restaurant
Marco Galazzo, Food and Beverage Manager, Bay View Restaurant

Aprilanne interviewed Sondra Bernstein, author and owner of Girl in the Fig restaurant, about how to pair food with wine. Sondra talked about the importance of having fun at a party, but at the same time having items that the guests will like, will be easy to make and making sure that the flavor profiles will match. The secret here is having it at home and available.

Aprilanne interviewed John Toulze, executive chef, Girl in the Fig restaurant, on how to keep it simple. His philosophy is to use the freshest, seasonal ingredients, from the garden or from the farmer to the pan and to the guest with a minimal amount of processing. His job is to highlight what the gardener/farmer had done. He talked about the importance of pairing food and wine from the same geographical area.

Aprilanne gave the top three wine tasting party planning tips: 1) choosing a theme for the wine selection. 2) The important supplies that are needed for the wine tasting, and 3) keep it simple when it comes to the menu.

Aprilanne interviewed Christopher Ferranti, chef, Bay View restaurant, about the challenge of arranging a wine tasting party at a restaurant. According to Christopher, he is dealing with 5 courses and 5 different wines. He has to be organized from the get go: from pairing the food correctly with the wine that comes from the winery, preparing it in a timely matter and getting it out.

Aprilanne interviewed Marco Galazzo, food and beverage manager, Bay View restaurant, about the wine maker dinners that Bay View restaurant puts on for the past 20 years. They do one dinner per month with a different winery every month and they have a turnout of 90-100 people. He talked about the experience that the guests will have. The owner and/or winemaker will be there and they will dine on the same food/wine as the other guests. And between courses, the owner or winemaker will go around the tables and talk to the guests.

Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Nick Marlowe, Owner – Surf and Apparel Shop
Carlo Galazzo, General Manager – At the Tides Restaurant

Aprilanne first takes us to St. Teresa's Church and Modern Schoolhouse where a scene from "The Birds" was shot (the birds attack the schoolchildren). She then tells that Bodega is a quaint town with a lot of fun stores. She then interviews Nick Marlowe, who owns a surfboard and apparel shop in town. His shop sells custom surfboards and other surf related paraphernalia. He describes Bodega as a "tiny town, but we have everything." He also says that thousands of tourist a year come to town to see locations from "The Birds."

Aprilanne then takes us to Potter's Schoolhouse, where the cast was violently attacked by objects of the ornithological kind.

We then visit the Sonoma Visitor's Center which houses books on Alfred Hitchcock (the director of "The Birds") as well as paraphernalia, accessories and clothing based on "The Birds" and Bodega Bay.

The host then takes us to the area where there used to be a house for the main character in the movie. After the house burned down in the 60's, the U.C. Davis Marine Dormitory was built in its place. She also shows us the Bodega Marine Lab nearby which is open for tours and seminars.

The restaurant where actress Tippi Hendren takes cover is next on the tour. The Tides Restaurant, is a very successful restaurant. It's a great place to shop for memorabilia about "The Birds" and offers gifts concerning Bodega Bay.

Aprilanne then explains that Hitchcock chose Bodega because of the fog. He hated beautiful, sunny days because that meant he would have to have the exposed film "tinted" to match the look of the previous "foggy" footage.

At the Tides Restaurant, Aprilanne visits the fish market where she meets Carlo Galazzo, the General Manager. He describes all of the different kinds of fish, wine and cheeses available at the restaurant. She then cooks clam chowder with Carlo.

Aprilanne then recaps all the great things that Bodega Bay offers in terms of food, wine, beautiful hotels, and great hiking trails.
