Issues Addressed:	Education, History
Host:	Janice Edwards
Guests:	Willie Brown, Politician

Janice interviewed Willie Brown as part of the Northern California Dr. King Jr. Community Foundation's "Celebration: The Dream at 50." Willie talked about meeting Dr. King. He talked about how Dr. King was ahead of his time in dealing with race in America and Willie was impressed with how Dr. King led the civil rights movement. Willie talked about how the country was separate when he was growing up in Texas and the African Americans didn't have access to resources. He talked about how he won his first elected office in 1960 (as a member of the county committee for San Francisco.) Willie talked about how he lost the election for the state assembly in 1962. He talked about how he had to deal with the mistreatment that he went through back then. He talked about how he got people signed up to vote in San Francisco. He talked about how Sacramento didn't want him (he was black and he came from San Francisco). Willie talked about how the "I Have a Dream" speech that Dr. King gave had an impact on him. Willie talked about how people treated the 1963 civil rights march on Washington more favorable over the first inaugural of Barack Obama in 2009 (there was more of a unification over civil rights than with the inaugural). When the march happened, the people knew that the African Americans were being discriminated against and mistreated based on the color of their skin. After the march on Washington and other acts that were passed (such as the civil rights act) there were people who began to have real success. There wasn't the same passion for the race issue only, as King had expressed when Obama came into office. He talked about the growth of Latinos, African Americans and women to positions of power and how it came as a result of the civil rights movement. He talked about how much the politics of San Francisco had changed since he served in the state assembly. He talked about how more people of color are holding power in San Francisco and how the stage was set 15-20 years ago. He talked about how King had set the stage for Obama.

Tony Canadas, Director of Marketing – Oceano Hotel and Spa

Aprilanne interviewed Jeff Clark, founder of the Mavericks Surf Contest and Mavericks Surf Shop. He talked about how he has been in the waves since he was a child (he had gotten into the ocean before he could walk). When he got older, he noticed how high the surf was in Half Moon Bay and he decided to surf the waves by himself. Jeff convinced other experienced surfers to surf in Half Moon Bay and word spread like wildfire. The next time that the high waves were happening, more surfers came and changed Half Moon Bay and the world of big wave surfing. He talked about how he and Peter Mell talked about doing an event and the next thing is that they were putting on the Mavericks Surf Contest. He also talked about custom making surf boards and designing a surf board that can be used for the Mavericks Surf Contest. His advice for those who want to learn how to surf: don't bite off more than you can chew. Start slow and sure and get a couple of lessons. Figure out where your comfort zone is and enjoy it.

Aprilanne interviewed Julie Shenkman, co-owner of Sam's Chowder House, about the secret of Sam's Chowder House's success (great seafood, great ocean view, and a world class chef). She talked about Sam's Cam (a live web camera that shows views of Pillar Point Harbor view, as well as views of the ocean and beach). She talked about having a New England Style menu based on simple, fresh and authentic ingredients with a California twist. She uses local and seasonal ingredients as well.

Aprilanne interviewed Paul Shenkman, co-owner of Sam's Chowder House. He talked about how he was originally from the East Coast, where he ate from the local seafood shacks among the East Coast. When the location for Sam's became available, he jumped on. He showed off several dishes and how he pairs this with various wines. Aprilanne and Paul tasted several items.

Aprilanne interviewed Tony Canadas, Director of Marketing, Oceano Hotel and Spa. He talked about the conveniences that of being close to everywhere in the San Francisco Bay Area. He talked about the rooms and how green the hotel is. He talked about several things that one can do in Half Moon Bay. Then Aprilanne interviewed Nichole Vroman, Spa Director, Oceano Hotel and Spa. Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: John Ash, Executive Chef – Culinary Institute of America
Damon Calegari, Taste Tester
Ralph Pagano, Celebrity Chef – Almost Famous Chef Competition

Aprilanne interviewed John Ash, Executive Chef. He talked about the programs that are offered through the Culinary Institute of America (which was expanded to include home cooks and foodies.) He talked about how he became interested in cooking (it was helping his grandmother make comfort food while he lived on a ranch in Colorado when he was a child). He gave his secret for matching food with wine: making sure that the acidity level of the food is in balance with the acidity level in the wine. You can add acid to the food through vinegar, citrus, or wine. He talked about how he used seasonal, fresh, and local food in his cooking and how he contributed to the California Cuisine.

Aprilanne and taste tester Damon Calegari did a preview of what John teaches. John teaches how to make food and wine more enjoyable by putting things that are similar in flavor or contrasting in flavor together. Usually he looks for things that are similar. In the class that Aprilanne and Damon sat in, John talked about the most important organ for taste: the nose. He highlighted the important role that our senses play in successfully pairing wine with food. Aprilanne and Damon had gotten more appreciation of the complexities of wine and a deeper understanding on how to pair food with wine.

The National Pellegrino's Almost Famous Chef Competition. Aprilanne and Damon tasted some of the dishes that were prepared by the contestants. David Awad, the winner of the Almost Famous Chef Competition, talked about what made his dish the winner. He tries to have balance and clean flavors with his dish. He talked about how he dealt with the pressure of cooking for over 200 people. He talked about putting himself into the food and the passion and love into what you are doing, and hope that everything falls into place and that the people enjoy the dish. Ralph Pagano, Celebrity Chef and co-sponsor of the Almost Famous Chef competition, talked about how he became involved in the Almost Famous Chef Competition. He is interested in mentoring the future chefs.

Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Nick Marlowe, Owner – Surf and Apparel Shop
Carlo Galazzo, General Manager – At the Tides Restaurant

Aprilanne first takes us to St. Teresa's Church and Modern Schoolhouse where a scene from "The Birds" was shot (the birds attack the schoolchildren). She then tells that Bodega is a quaint town with a lot of fun stores. She then interviews Nick Marlowe, who owns a surfboard and apparel shop in town. His shop sells custom surfboards and other surf related paraphernalia. He describes Bodega as a "tiny town, but we have everything." He also says that thousands of tourist a year come to town to see locations from "The Birds."

Aprilanne then takes us to Potter's Schoolhouse, where the cast was violently attacked by objects of the ornithological kind.

We then visit the Sonoma Visitor's Center which houses books on Alfred Hitchcock (the director of "The Birds") as well as paraphernalia, accessories and clothing based on "The Birds" and Bodega Bay.

The host then takes us to the area where there used to be a house for the main character in the movie. After the house burned down in the 60's, the U.C. Davis Marine Dormitory was built in its place. She also shows us the Bodega Marine Lab nearby which is open for tours and seminars.

The restaurant where actress Tippi Hendren takes cover is next on the tour. The Tides Restaurant, is a very successful restaurant. It's a great place to shop for memorabilia about "The Birds" and offers gifts concerning Bodega Bay.

Aprilanne then explains that Hitchcock chose Bodega because of the fog. He hated beautiful, sunny days because that meant he would have to have the exposed film "tinted" to match the look of the previous "foggy" footage.

At the Tides Restaurant, Aprilanne visits the fish market where she meets Carlo Galazzo, the General Manager. He describes all of the different kinds of fish, wine and cheeses available at the restaurant. She then cooks clam chowder with Carlo.

Aprilanne then recaps all the great things that Bodega Bay offers in terms of food, wine, beautiful hotels, and great hiking trails.

Host: Janice Edwards
Guests: Eriq La Salle, Actor and Author – The Laws of Depravity
Lee Reed, Founding President – 100 Black Women of San Francisco

Eriq La Salle, actor and author of “The Laws of Depravity,” talked about what had inspired him to write a book. According to Eriq, everything is about storytelling, and writing is another way of telling a story. He was inspired to write his book by an article that he read about how most of Jesus’ disciples were brutally murdered. John was the only disciple who wasn’t killed. Eriq came up with a modern day serial killer who is killing corrupt clergy in the fashion that the apostles were killed. Then he came up with the heroes, who are very human and searching for love and spiritual reconciliation. Eriq talked about Shakespeare essentially never wrote about a bad character but he wrote about people doing bad things. In their minds, they were justified. Eriq gave the example of Richard III (Eriq studied Shakespeare at Julliard.) Eriq wanted to create the enemy to have certain empathy for the readers. He also wanted to show the dark side for the heroes as well. He creates characters that make him want to play with them like a child. He talked about the person (Clay Stevenson, who ran the Hartford Stage Summer Program/Old Plays and was Eriq’s mentor) who helped him with fulfilling his dreams of acting. (Eriq was in an inner city program in Hartford, CT in the 1970’s that had exposed him to different things that he wouldn’t have been exposed to normally). Clay had found a play that Eriq can be in that Eriq didn’t have to sing. Clay convinced Eriq to apply to Julliard. He talked about the love story between Quincy and Elena (two of the characters in the book) and what had inspired him to write this love story in his book. He wanted to create a hybrid book. He wanted to put in lyricism so that it balances out the gruesome element. Quincy and Elena were in searching all of their lives for the right one and they never truly gave themselves to anyone until they met. It is a high standard for love, but according to Eriq, there is a high payoff for that type of love. Quincy and Elena became to metaphor for holding out for true love.

John Toulze, Executive Chef - Girl in the Fig
Christopher Ferranti, Chef - Bay View Restaurant
Marco Galazzo, Food and Beverage Manager, Bay View Restaurant

Aprilanne interviewed Sondra Bernstein, author and owner of Girl in the Fig restaurant, about how to pair food with wine. Sondra talked about the importance of having fun at a party, but at the same time having items that the guests will like, will be easy to make and making sure that the flavor profiles will match. The secret here is having it at home and available.

Aprilanne interviewed John Toulze, executive chef, Girl in the Fig restaurant, on how to keep it simple. His philosophy is to use the freshest, seasonal ingredients, from the garden or from the farmer to the pan and to the guest with a minimal amount of processing. His job is to highlight what the gardener/farmer had done. He talked about the importance of pairing food and wine from the same geographical area.

Aprilanne gave the top three wine tasting party planning tips: 1) choosing a theme for the wine selection. 2) The important supplies that are needed for the wine tasting, and 3) keep it simple when it comes to the menu.

Aprilanne interviewed Christopher Ferranti, chef, Bay View restaurant, about the challenge of arranging a wine tasting party at a restaurant. According to Christopher, he is dealing with 5 courses and 5 different wines. He has to be organized from the get go: from pairing the food correctly with the wine that comes from the winery, preparing it in a timely matter and getting it out.

Aprilanne interviewed Marco Galazzo, food and beverage manager, Bay View restaurant, about the wine maker dinners that Bay View restaurant puts on for the past 20 years. They do one dinner per month with a different winery every month and they have a turnout of 90-100 people. He talked about the experience that the guests will have. The owner and/or winemaker will be there and they will dine on the same food/wine as the other guests. And between courses, the owner or winemaker will go around the tables and talk to the guests.

Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Eva Claiborne, Owner – Eva Claiborne Skin Institute
Steve Merrifield, Owner – Demo Sport
Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain – Angel Island Tiburon Ferry
Brian Wilson, Owner – Sam's Anchor Cafe

Aprilanne went to the Eva Claiborne Skin Institute, where she interviewed the owner, Eva Claiborne, about an ultrasonic anti-aging facial treatment, which after 10 minutes will see youthful results. They used a model that had never had a facial treatment to do the facial treatment on. According to Eva, it will take several treatments for the skin of the model to have the desired result.

Aprilanne interviewed Steve Merrifield, owner of Demo Sport, about seeing the sights of the San Francisco Bay by paddle boarding. He talked about the ease of using a stand up paddle board (a long, wide surfboard which the person stands up on and uses a paddle). According to Steve, anyone can use it, especially on a lake or calm water. It takes minimal amount of training. There are some physical benefits of stand-up paddle boarding: it uses every muscle in the body. It takes a certain amount of balance to balance the legs. The mind is thinking about what's ahead and moving around.

Aprilanne interviewed Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain of Angel Island Tiburon Ferry about the 50th anniversary of her family running the Angel Island Tiburon Ferry. Aprilanne and Maggie talked about the various cruises that they have done for quite a few years. Video was shown of the various cruises that they had taken. Maggie talked about the sunset cruises, which happens every Friday and Saturday evening from May-October. The guests can bring out their own picnic dinners. They cruise towards the Golden Gate and back.

Aprilanne and Maggie went to Sam's Anchor Café, and Aprilanne interviewed Brian Wilson, co-owner of Sam's Anchor Café, about the specialty oyster dish, Oyster's Brian, that they make. Aprilanne and Maggie had the Oyster's Brian and a glass of wine. Then Brian brought the crab dish. He talked about using good, fresh seafood for the dishes. Danny the chef talked about some of his secrets of presenting food. He talked about making the food look right (98% of it is visual).

Guests: Linda Davis, CEO – Center for Volunteer and Non Profit Leadership
Cathleen Gouveia, Owner – Cathleen Gouveia Design
Eric Shromer, Host and Carpenter – HGTV
Pablo Castro, Owner – Marin Hardwood Floor Center

Aprilanne interviewed Linda Davis, Executive Director for the Center for Volunteer and Nonprofit Leadership of Marin. Linda talked about the importance of the volunteers in the execution of the Marin Designer Showcase event (it is a yearlong process to put on the showcase event). Linda talked about how the process happens immediately after the house closes. They begin looking for another house to have the next year's showcase. They promote it to the designers and the designers come out and put bids down on the rooms. Sponsors are enrolled. They meet monthly. Aprilanne showed over some of the rooms that various designers had designed.

Aprilanne interviewed Cathleen Gouveia, owner of Cathleen Gouveia Design, about the bedroom that she designed. Cathleen talked about what had inspired her for the bedroom (this bedroom was in a historical home). She was thinking that since the home was built around the turn of the 19th century that previous owners and guest came to the home either by horseback or ferry. She talked about using the light of the room to make a summer cottage feeling. She was also inspired by butterflies when she was designing the room. She also talked about how she transformed the room by using various modern pieces and art. She wanted to blend in the warm and cool things together.

Aprilanne interviewed Eric Shromer, HGTV show host and celebrity TV carpenter, about some great ideas for re-imagining a home. He talked about budget and how to stand apart from the home next door (if selling a home). He talked about saving money by repurposing/resurface the existing kitchen cabinets, painting, and dimmer switches on lighting fixtures. He talked about the difficulties of turning a remodeling dream into reality. He talked about the inspiration for his book, "Do It Yourself Family," (he is the father of 3 and he wanted to get his kids involved in design).

Aprilanne interviewed Pablo Castro, Owner of Marin Hardwood Floor Center and an over 32 year volunteer of the Marin Designer Showcase. He talked about his experience of being a volunteer designer. From volunteering, he learns from the other designers. He tries to help out the designers as much as he can by doing the wood floors or decorating. According to Pablo, volunteering is a terrific thing for health. Aprilanne interviewed several volunteers after her interview with Pablo.

Host: Janice Edwards
Guests: Dr. Sasha Bardey, Co-Producer – Side Effects

Dr. Sasha Bardey, Co-Producer of "Side Effects," and a Forensic Psychiatrist, talked about the story line for the film, "Side Effects." He wants people to take away from watching "Side Effects" is that more people are leaving the psychiatrists with prescriptions in their hands. As more people are using these medications, there are going to be more side effects to deal with. He talked about how these medications are very effective in improving people's lives. He talked about how people have lost the ability to cope with various stresses. He talked about how society wants results right away; have people feel better quickly. As a professional, he tries to get people to work through their problems and to make changes in their lifestyles and relationships that will have an enduring effect on their well-being, instead of popping a pill. He talked about his work as a Forensic Psychiatrist. He loves to find out answers so that he can explain to a jury, DA, or defense attorney and see what impact it has on the outcome of a case. He talked about the signs that will determine if a child will become a psychopath. He talked about the signs of someone who is really not truly presenting himself/herself to be. He talked about the stigma of mental illness is real and it touches every family and how many people don't get the proper treatment because of the stigma. He talked about how the reality shows that deal with hoarding or substance abuse are getting people to understand these things. He talked about if more people get more treatment for mental illness, then the stigma will be removed. He talked about watching the actors master their emotional reactions. He talked about boundaries between psychiatrist and patient and how it can be breached. He talked about how he got into Forensic Psychiatry.

Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: John Conover, General Manager – Plump Jack Winery
Anthony Biagi, Wine Maker – Wine Jack Winery
Kimball Jones, Executive Chef

Aprilanne interviewed John Conover, General Manager of Plump Jack Winery in Napa Valley. He talked about the history of Plump Jack Winery (it was founded in 1995 by a couple of people, Gavin Newsom and Gordon Getty, who are from San Francisco). The goal is to make wine less intimidating, more inviting experience for people. He talked about how he takes the mystery out of the wine experience for wine lovers by allowing people to see the grape growing, wine making, bottling process, and enjoy wines in a very casual environment. He talked about having the founders overlook the property, and their passion for fine wine. He talked about how Plump Jack Winery had gotten its name (from a character in Shakespeare's play "Falstaff"). He talked about how wine and food are theatre and entertainment. He talked about having your palate be your ultimate judge when tasting wine. He talked about screw cap wines, where there is a screw cap on the bottle instead of a cork. He talked about seeing mold in their corks about 7 – 8 years ago and if affected about 6 – 7% of all wines. It gives a moldy off character in wine. He, Gavin and Gordon looked for alternative closures for their wines. He talked about how the wine industry was kicking and screaming over this switch. He talked about the environmental aspects of using a screw cap instead of a cork (it saves trees from being used for cork and the ease of opening the bottle of wine). He gives a demonstration on how he does a wine tasting and some tips on wine tasting.

Anthony Biagi, winemaker, Wine Jack Winery, talked about the three things that go into making a great wine: 1) having a wonderful vineyard, 2) having a great team who believes in making great wine and 3) having a great ownership that supports the winemaking team. It takes 2 years for a return on an investment in wine.

Kimball Jones, Executive Chef, gives his tips on pairing wine with food and the barbecue. He talks about making the food go with the wine and making it well balanced.

Aprilanne gave the 6 steps to wine tasting.

Miko Marks is an award winning African American country music artist. At the time of this interview, she was at Pajama Studios recording an EP. In the first segment, Marks talks about her youth and growing up listening to various music types including country. She looks at country music as blues with different instrumentation. When she was growing up, she didn't think about pursuing a career in music, but something told her along the way that she needed to pursue her dreams. She talked about how her family discourage her from singing country music, but she kept her focus on being the best in what she wanted to do, and persevered. The advice that she gave to her son that she wished that she had when she was 14 is to think outside of the box, be encouraged to be "me" opposed to fitting into the stereotypical place where people want to place others. In addition Miko Marks discusses projects and organizations she supports in giving back to society such as; Habitat for Humanity, breast cancer, thanksgiving relief, etc.

The second segment is about the preparation for recording a song. Miko is joined by her producer, James Gartner, and musical prodigy Tyler Comes. She and James talked about how to record her song, "Mama." James gave Miko some tips on how to perform the song in the studio. Miko talked about the theme of the album that was being recorded at the time. She performed another song for James and he liked the hook of that song. Then it showed Miko in the recording studio, recording one of her songs. Aprilanne interviewed Jeff Clark, founder of the Mavericks Surf Contest and Mavericks Surf Shop. He talked about how he has been in the waves since he was a child (he had gotten into the ocean before he could walk). When he got older, he noticed how high the surf was in Half Moon Bay and he decided to surf the waves by himself. Jeff convinced other experienced surfers to surf in Half Moon Bay and word spread like wildfire. The next time that the high waves were happening, more surfers came and changed Half Moon Bay and the world of big wave surfing. He talked about how he and Peter Mell talked about doing an event and the next thing is that they were putting on the Mavericks Surf Contest. He also talked about custom making surf boards and designing a surf board that can be used for the Mavericks Surf Contest. His advice for those who want to learn how to surf: don't bite off more than you can chew. Start slow and sure and get a couple of lessons. Figure out where your comfort zone is and enjoy it.

Aprilanne interviewed Julie Shenkman, co-owner of Sam's Chowder House, about the secret of Sam's Chowder House's success (great seafood, great ocean view, and a world class chef). She talked about Sam's Cam (a live web camera that shows views of Pillar Point Harbor view, as well as views of the ocean and beach). Tanaya Reid, Member – Omega Boys Club
Rashad Demings, Member – Omega Boys Club

Omega Boys Club was founded in 1987 by a couple of individuals who were frustrated by the youth of San Francisco's Potero Hill district giving up on dreams of academic achievement and choosing lives of drug dealing and prostitution. There was a taped segment explaining how the program works. It originally started with serving boys, but expanded out to serve the girls as well. Dr. Joe Marshall, Jr., co-founder of the Omega Boys Club, and two students of the Omega Boys Club, Tanaya Reid and Rashad Demings, talked about the difference that the club is from the outside world of their neighborhoods. In the neighborhoods, they have to deal with peer pressure, violence, and trust issues with others and themselves. Tanaya talked about the first time she came to the Omega Boys Club, she stayed because of the topics of real life that were not talked about around her, but are talked about in the club. She talked about how the club helped her keep alive and free. Rashad talked about what brought him to the Omega Boys Club (he yearned for more & missing something in his life). He learned from the club things about his history that he didn't know that wasn't taught in school. He talked about how the Job corps led him to the club. Joe talked about how two alumni of the club led Rashad and others to the club. He also talked about the importance of education for the participants and the sense of family that he creates in the club. Tanaya and Rashad talked about the things that are not talked about on the street, like sex, violence, drugs, partying, etc. The things that people get caught up in but are overlooked. They are taught how to deal with the situations that they have to deal with on the streets. How to find the right friends. How to stay away from the wrong crowd. Aprilanne interviewed John Toulze, executive chef, Girl in the Fig restaurant, on how to keep it simple. His philosophy is to use the freshest, seasonal ingredients, from the garden or from the farmer to the pan and to the guest with a minimal amount of processing. His job is to highlight what the gardener/farmer had done. He talked about the importance of pairing food and wine from the same geographical area.

Aprilanne gave the top three wine tasting party planning tips: 1) choosing a theme for the wine selection. 2) The important supplies that are needed for the wine tasting, and 3) keep it simple when it comes to the menu.

Aprilanne interviewed Christopher Ferranti, chef, Bay View restaurant, about the challenge of arranging a wine tasting party at a restaurant. According to Christopher, he is dealing with 5 courses and 5 different wines. He has to be organized from the get go: from pairing the food correctly with the wine that comes from the winery, preparing it in a timely matter and getting it out.

Aprilanne interviewed Marco Galazzo, food and beverage manager, Bay View restaurant, about the wine maker dinners that Bay View restaurant puts on for the past 20 years. They do one dinner per month with a different winery every month and they have a turnout of 90-100 people. He talked about the experience that the guests will have. The owner and/or winemaker will be there and they will dine on the same food/wine as the other guests. And between courses, the owner or winemaker will go around the tables and talk to the guests.

Topic/Title: California Living: Culinary Institute of America
Duration: 28:30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Issues Addressed: Food, Entertainment
Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: John Ash, Executive Chef – Culinary Institute of America
Damon Calegari, Taste Tester
Ralph Pagano, Celebrity Chef – Almost Famous Chef Competition

Aprilanne interviewed John Ash, Executive Chef. He talked about the programs that are offered through the Culinary Institute of America (which was expanded to include home cooks and foodies.) He talked about how he became interested in cooking (it was helping his grandmother make comfort food while he lived on a ranch in Colorado when he was a child). He gave his secret for matching food with wine: making sure that the acidity level of the food is in balance with the acidity level in the wine. You can add acid to the food through vinegar, citrus, or wine. He talked about how he used seasonal, fresh, and local food in his cooking and how he contributed to the California Cuisine.

Aprilanne and taste tester Damon Calegari did a preview of what John teaches. John teaches how to make food and wine more enjoyable by putting things that are similar in flavor or contrasting in flavor together. Usually he looks for things that are similar. In the class that Aprilanne and Damon sat in, John talked about the most important organ for taste: the nose. He highlighted the important role that our senses play in successfully pairing wine with food. Aprilanne and Damon had gotten more appreciation of the complexities of wine and a deeper understanding on how to pair food with wine.

The National Pellegrino's Almost Famous Chef Competition. Aprilanne and Damon tasted some of the dishes that were prepared by the contestants. David Awad, the winner of the Almost Famous Chef Competition, talked about what made his dish the winner. He tries to have balance and clean flavors with his dish. He talked about how he dealt with the pressure of cooking for over 200 people. He talked about putting himself into the food and the passion and love into what you are doing, and hope that everything falls into place and that the people enjoy the dish. Ralph Pagano, Celebrity Chef and co-sponsor of the Almost Famous Chef competition, talked about how he became involved in the Almost Famous Chef Competition. He is interested in mentoring the future chefs.

Steve Merrifield, Owner – Demo Sport
Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain – Angel Island Tiburon Ferry
Brian Wilson, Owner – Sam's Anchor Cafe

Aprilanne went to the Eva Claiborne Skin Institute, where she interviewed the owner, Eva Claiborne, about an ultrasonic anti-aging facial treatment, which after 10 minutes will see youthful results. They used a model that had never had a facial treatment to do the facial treatment on. According to Eva, it will take several treatments for the skin of the model to have the desired result.

Aprilanne interviewed Steve Merrifield, owner of Demo Sport, about seeing the sights of the San Francisco Bay by paddle boarding. He talked about the ease of using a stand up paddle board (a long, wide surfboard which the person stands up on and uses a paddle). According to Steve, anyone can use it, especially on a lake or calm water. It takes minimal amount of training. There are some physical benefits of stand-up paddle boarding: it uses every muscle in the body. It takes a certain amount of balance to balance the legs. The mind is thinking about what's ahead and moving around.

Aprilanne interviewed Maggie McDonogh, CEO and Captain of Angel Island Tiburon Ferry about the 50th anniversary of her family running the Angel Island Tiburon Ferry. Aprilanne and Maggie talked about the various cruises that they have done for quite a few years. Video was shown of the various cruises that they had taken. Maggie talked about the sunset cruises, which happens every Friday and Saturday evening from May-October. The guests can bring out their own picnic dinners. They cruise towards the Golden Gate and back.

Aprilanne and Maggie went to Sam's Anchor Café, and Aprilanne interviewed Brian Wilson, co-owner of Sam's Anchor Café, about the specialty oyster dish, Oyster's Brian, that they make. Aprilanne and Maggie had the Oyster's Brian and a glass of wine. Then Brian brought the crab dish. He talked about using good, fresh seafood for the dishes. Danny the chef talked about some of his secrets of presenting food. He talked about making the food look right (98% of it is visual).

Aprilanne and Hilary then move on to "The Farm" signature restaurant. They are seated with the restaurant manager Brian Chipson. They talk about the indigenous menu and go over some of the available items on the menu. Brian also talks about the other two restaurants available at the property.

Topic/Title: California Living: New Hitchcock Movie Tour
Duration: 28:30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview
Issues Addressed: Entertainment, Travel
Host: Aprilanne Hurley
Guests: Nick Marlowe, Owner – Surf and Apparel Shop
Carlo Galazzo, General Manager – At the Tides Restaurant

Aprilanne first takes us to St. Teresa's Church and Modern Schoolhouse where a scene from "The Birds" was shot (the birds attack the schoolchildren). She then tells that Bodega is a quaint town with a lot of fun stores. She then interviews Nick Marlowe, who owns a surfboard and apparel shop in town. His shop sells custom surfboards and other surf related paraphernalia. He describes Bodega as a "tiny town, but we have everything." He also says that thousands of tourist a year come to town to see locations from "The Birds."

Aprilanne then takes us to Potter's Schoolhouse, where the cast was violently attacked by objects of the ornithological kind.

We then visit the Sonoma Visitor's Center which houses books on Alfred Hitchcock (the director of "The Birds") as well as paraphernalia, accessories and clothing based on "The Birds" and Bodega Bay.

The host then takes us to the area where there used to be a house for the main character in the movie. After the house burned down in the 60's, the U.C. Davis Marine Dormitory was built in its place. She also shows us the Bodega Marine Lab nearby which is open for tours and seminars.

The restaurant where actress Tippi Hendren takes cover is next on the tour. The Tides Restaurant, is a very successful restaurant. It's a great place to shop for memorabilia about "The Birds" and offers gifts concerning Bodega Bay.

Aprilanne then explains that Hitchcock chose Bodega because of the fog. He hated beautiful, sunny days because that meant he would have to have the exposed film "tinted" to match the look of the previous "foggy" footage.

At the Tides Restaurant, Aprilanne visits the fish market where she meets Carlo Galazzo, the General Manager. He describes all of the different kinds of fish, wine and cheeses available at the restaurant. She then cooks clam chowder with Carlo.

Aprilanne then recaps all the great things that Bodega Bay offers in terms of food, wine, beautiful hotels, and great hiking trails.
