Midland Freshman H.S. Lockdown, Pick-Up Instructions

Posted: Friday, April 25, 2014 3:56 pm

MIDLAND - Following the report of a shooting in the neighborhood near Midland Freshman High School (the shooting is not related with the school), 100 E. Gist Ave., the school has been placed in lockdown as a precaution. In a lockdown situation, individuals are not allowed to enter or exit a campus until the order lifts. Midland Police Department and MISD Police Department officials are on hand.

MISD Superintendent Dr. Ryder Warren said, "We're not releasing students until the situation is resolved. We're asking parents not to pick up their children at this time, and are asking area schools to hold their walking students."

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

USTA TEXAS JR. TEAM TENNIS SPRING CHAMPIONSHIPS IN MIDLAND THIS WEEKEND

Midland, Texas – On Friday, May 16, through Sunday, May 18, the United States Tennis Association (USTA) Texas will host the Junior Team Tennis Spring Championships at four tennis facilities across the city of Midland. Approximately 300 tennis players age eight to 18 from across the state will be participating in this event, including local area teams from Midland, Odessa and Fort Stockton. Winners from the 14U Intermediate Division and 18U Intermediate Division will advance on to compete at the USTA National Championships. The tournament will take place at the Bush Tennis Center (tournament's main site), 5700 Brianwood Ave., Midland College Tennis Center, 3600 N. Garfield St., Green Tree Country Club, 4900 Green Tree Blvd., and Midland High School, 1206 W. Illinois Ave.

Amanda Friday is the West Texas Tennis Service Representative with USTA Texas and says this is the first time a USTA Texas sectional event has been held in Midland. She said to host the Jr. Team Tennis Championships, a city needs a minimum of 50 tennis courts. With the new Bush Tennis Center in Midland, along with its other great facilities and strong tennis community, Midland immediately became a contender because they could handle an event this size and they wanted us to be here.

"The Sports and Entertainment Association of Midland worked extremely well with us and we were lucky to be eligible to apply for grant funding with them that would allow us to make this event bigger and better than ever, along with securing hotel rates that would allow teams to stay at a reasonable cost," said Friday. "Everything from the get-go has been smooth and handled very well."

On Saturday evening, the Midland Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB), Midland Sports & Entertainment Association (SEAM), and the USTA Texas is providing a free dinner for all coaches, parents and players. Motivational speaker, former professional tennis player, and best-selling author, Dwight Edwards, will be the keynote speaker during dinner. Following the dinner, there will be a party with a DJ, photo booth, graffiti paint tennis ball wall, along with other fun activities on the center court of the Bush Tennis Center.

"We want kids to experience things at this Championships that they never have before and we couldn't have done it without the help from the Midland Convention and Visitor's Bureau and SEAM," said Friday. "We're very excited the event is coming to Midland. Our West Texas teams are used to traveling to Austin, Waco, San Antonio, Houston, or New Braunfels for events, so it's nice to have something in your own backyard. Visitors should expect some great West Texas hospitality."

Sarah Marston is the sports sales manager for the Midland Convention & Visitors Bureau and worked with Friday to secure this event in Midland.

"Some of these athletes have never been to this part of Texas and we're excited to roll out our West Texas hospitality for this group," said Marston. "We've got a lot of exciting activities planned for them to be out in the community between their matches. We hope to keep them coming back for future events."

All tennis matches during the USTA Texas Junior Team Tennis Spring Championships are free and open to the public. Matches are running from 8 a.m. until about 4 p.m. on Saturday and 8 a.m. until about 1 p.m. on Sunday at all sites. There will be a "PlayDay" at Bush Tennis Center's 10 and Under 36' courts starting at 1 p.m. Saturday with John Newcombe's Tennis Ranch. It's free and open to the public. More information can be found online at <https://www.youthtennis.com/events/details/?EventId=TRc1FKku2yUH1ehVcPdGgdBnigFmVKaF24fYHyHrnGw%3d#.U2wGlyg0oRk> or youthtennis.com by entering your Midland zip code.

"Please come out and support our local teams who have never had the home court advantage before," said Marston. "This event is estimated to bring in more than a million dollars in direct visitor spending with each tennis participant traveling with their family, fans, trainers and coaches. Please welcome them to Midland as you may see them in our restaurants, retail shops and attractions."

The above information has been provided by USTA Texas and distributed by the Midland Convention & Visitors Bureau. This event is projected to bring in $1,068,000 in direct visitor spending to the Midland economy.

The mission of the Midland Convention & Visitors Bureau is to encourage economic growth by developing, promoting, enhancing and supporting Midland as a vibrant visitor destination.

Subject: IMPORTANT Honor Cel Tel (RADIO)

Attachments:

TO Radio PDs -- Justin Waldrop(CBS7) & Kathy Swindler

Each station should have the flyer with info on the Honor Celebration telethon. What the flyer doesn't go into detail about is... what this really is...

This is a trip for WWII vets and some Korean and Vietnam vets to go to Washington DC in Sept.

It is completely paid for with these donations. Many of these men are elderly and so the flights are expensive because they are manned with chaperones and medial personel to insure a easy trip.

3 days 2 nights in DC, and visits to the Memorials. Truly is a trip of a lifetime, and especially for folks who would have no other means of going. The trip in Sept. will only be carrying Permian Basin vets and support staff.

The radio plans ARE to promo it over the weekend and really hard MONDAY- The Telethon actually starts at 5a- and will run thru the 10 oclock news.

Most activity at the Carousel stage. TV will be running a crawl with the phone and do live cut ins.

RADIO will also support the telethon by giving out phone number (362-4902) Throughout the day Monday.

ALSO MONDAY-4-6:30 Radio will be at Music City Mall (Fuddruckers Entrance) and in Midland at Rockhounds Game to help collect donatations from drive- by doners, much the same as we've done for other ICA fund raisers. Grace has buckets for MCM location/Robert for Midland. We have decided to divide up... KCRS-a KCRS-f & FZX (Kris, Steve and Robert) in Midland, and Mix, MyCountry, Kiss PT2? in Odessa (Grace, Chris and Danny?) in Odessa. AM will be broadcasting the game and we are hoping for drop ins from Bob.

CBS is sending a live truck to get reports from Midland. Odessa crew can expect to get TV time as well.

Feel free to go to the staging area... Mike Barker is the main CBS personality on the telethon and lend your support there anytime during the day. But our concentrated radio time is 4-6:30 Monday aft.

(Kathy) any addtional signage you can send with the live truck to Midland would be helpful.

Issue: Drug Prevention

Federal, state, and local law enforcement hold a news conference with medical professionals to discuss the dangers of synthetic marijuana and other synthetic drugs. U.S. Attorney Robert Pitman says the substances are sold on the Internet and at small "Mom and Pop" shops, so many people believe the substances are safe and legal. He says that is not true, that they are dangerous and illegal. Medical professionals told of the serious health problems the drugs can cause, and the difficulties they have treating victims in the emergency rooms.

Issue: West Texas Food Bank

Officials with the West Texas Food Bank held a groundbreaking for a new 12 million dollar warehouse facility that will double the food storage capacity of the organization. The Food Bank serves about 75-thousand people in 19 counties in West Texas. Executive Director Libby Campbell, board president David Dowd, and board member Lorraine Perryman talk about the need to address hunger, especially among the elderly and single parent families. Despite the current oil boom, not all people are benefitting. Some have to make a choice between paying for food or medicine. (11:00)

Issue: School funding

Midland School Superintendent Dr. Ryder Warren discusses plans to address a 3.7-million dollar budget deficit for the next school year. The Midland School Board has to consider whether to make additional cuts, do away with the homestead exemption, or ask voters for permission to raise taxes. (18:00)

Issue: Drug Prevention

Federal, state, and local law enforcement hold a news conference with medical professionals to discuss the dangers of synthetic marijuana and other synthetic drugs. U.S. Attorney Robert Pitman says the substances are sold on the Internet and at small "Mom and Pop" shops, so many people believe the substances are safe and legal. He says that is not true, that they are dangerous and illegal. Medical professionals told of the serious health problems the drugs can cause, and the difficulties they have treating victims in the emergency rooms.

Issue: West Texas Food Bank

Officials with the West Texas Food Bank held a groundbreaking for a new 12 million dollar warehouse facility that will double the food storage capacity of the organization. The Food Bank serves about 75-thousand people in 19 counties in West Texas. Executive Director Libby Campbell, board president David Dowd, and board member Lorraine Perryman talk about the need to address hunger, especially among the elderly and single parent families. Despite the current oil boom, not all people are benefitting. Some have to make a choice between paying for food or medicine. (11:00)

Issue: School funding

Midland School Superintendent Dr. Ryder Warren discusses plans to address a 3.7-million dollar budget deficit for the next school year. The Midland School Board has to consider whether to make additional cuts, do away with the homestead exemption, or ask voters for permission to raise taxes. (18:00)

Issue: Economic Development

Developers of the Energy Tower project presented a revised proposal to the Midland City Council. The new proposal calls for a 22 story office building, and a 20 story hotel and convention center in downtown Midland. This would replace another project that called for a single, 53 story building housing a hotel, business offices, retail stores, and townhouses. The Midland City Council will begin negotiations on the revised proposal. (17:30)

Issue: Parenting

High school teacher David McCullough has written a book "You're Not Special" to tell teenagers that many of their problems have been shared by nearly everyone. The book gives advice to teens and their parents on a number of social issues. (13:00)
