This document must be completed and uploaded to the station's public inspection file by June 23, 2014.

The text of the pre-filing announcement is as follows:

KLCW-TV is licensed by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee.

We must file an application for renewal with the FCC by April 1, 2014. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for public inspection at www.fcc.gov. It contains information concerning this station's performance during the current license term.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by July 1, 2014.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 9800 University Avenue, Lubbock, Texas or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, DC 20554.
