

KPFA - KPFB Quarterly Issues Report July 1st - October 31st 2023
Note: This listing is by no mean exhaustive
Description of Issue	Program	Date/Time/Length	Description/Local Relevance
Austerity & Inflation
	Behind the News	07.06.23/12:00PM/25 min	Austerity, economics, and fascism
	Letters and Politics	07.11.23/10:00AM/56min	A History of How Technological Innovation Has Led to Inequality Guest: Simon Johnson is the Ronald A. Kurtz Professor of Entrepreneurship in the Sloan School at MIT, where he is also head of the Global Economics and Management group. Previously chief economist at the International Monetary Fund, he has worked on global economic crises and recoveries for thirty years. He is the author of several books and publications including his latest, Power and Progress: Our Thousand-Year Struggle Over Technology and Prosperity co-authored with Daron Acemoglu.
	Letters and Politics	09.7.23/10:00AM/56min	Disinvestment In Cities, Crime, and the Persistence of the Racial Wealth Gap. Guest: Tanya Golash-Boza is the Executive Director of the University of California Washington Center and a Professor of Sociology at the University of California, Merced. She is the author of Before Gentrification: The Creation of DCs Racial Wealth Gap.
	Sunday Show	09.10.23/9:00AM/56 min	"Dollars and Sense" with James Galbraith
	The Pacifica Evening News, Weekdays	09.13.23/6:00PM/1 min	Inflation numbers up slightly in August in the U.S., gas prices among causes.
	Up Front	09.14.23/7:00AM/20 min	New Inflation Numbers with guest J.W. Mason, associate professor of economics at John Jay College, and a fellow at the Roosevelt Institute.
	Sunday Show	09.24.23/9:00AM/58 min	Money Makes the World Go Round with guest with Dean Baker
Labor Issues & Corporate Power
	Up Front	08.01.23 /7:00AM/20 min	Hollywood Actors and Writers on Strike. Guest: Felipe Torres Medina, is a writer for The Late Show with Stephen Colbert, currently part of the WGA strike.
	Law & Disorder	08.08.23 - 8:00AM/20 min	East Bay Wages Too Low for More Than Half of Workers to Support a Family. A new report by the UC Berkeley Labor called "The State of Working East Bay" analyzes living and working conditions among workers in the East Bay before the pandemic – from 2015-2019 – which demonstrates that many workers and their families struggled to make ends meet even before COVID hit. Joining me to discuss are Dr Savannah Hunter, a National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellow who studies work and inequality. She was the lead researcher for the report we're discussing today, which follows up a 2012 report of the same name published by East Bay Alliance for a Sustainable Economy – that's EBASE. We're also joined by Kate O'Hara the executive director of EBASE. Read the report here: https://laborcenter.berkeley.edu/state-of-working-east-bay-2015-2019/ Check out EBASE's website: https://workingeastbay.org/
	Sunday Show	09.03.23/9:00AM/57 min	Workers of the World Unite with Sasha Abramsky
	Against the Grain	09.04.23/12:00PM/53 min	Organizing in the Gig Economy. Can classic organizing methods be effective in gig economy workplaces? Paul C. Gray examines how methods like organizing conversations, social mapping, social charting, leader identification, and the identification of strategic chokepoints were applied by food couriers in Toronto to the peculiar circumstances of their platform-based work environment. (Encore presentation.) Labour/Le Travail Gig Workers United
	Behind the News	09.07.23/12:00PM/25 min	The Teamsters, class-struggle unionism and UPS. Sam Gindin, writer and activist on labor issues, on the shortcomings of the UPS–Teamster deal
	Up Front	09.12.23/7:00AM/25 min	Will UAW Go On Strike? Keith Brower Brown is Labor-Climate Organizer at Labor Notes, also a former steward in UAW 2865, which represents graduate student workers in the UC system.
	Background Briefing with Ian Masters	09.15.23/ 5:00AM/14 min	The Looming Strike by the UAW Against the Big Three Automakers Then finally we assess the looming strike by the UAW against the Big Three automakers as the deadline tonight of 11.59 PM EST fast approaches. Joining us is Sylvia Allegretto, a Senior Economist at the Center for Economic and Policy Research. She has co-authored several editions of The State of Working America, and her research interests include long-term unemployment, family budgets, teacher pay, public employee compensation, low-wage labor markets, inequality, and minimum wages.

	Background Briefing with Ian Masters	09.18.23/5:00AM/15 min	The UAW and the Transition to EV: Avoiding the False Choice Between a Good Job and a Green Job. We begin with the UAW strike and the possibility that two of the Democratic party's main constituencies, unions and environmentalists could be on different sides as the pro-union Biden administration finds itself at odds with the UAW over investments in the Inflation Reduction Act for EV batteries and EV vehicles since those policies have spurred worries among the 400,000-member UAW about losing tens of thousands of auto-assembly jobs, because producing an electric vehicle takes one-third fewer workers than producing a gas-powered one. Joining us is Steven Greenhouse, a Senior Fellow at The Century Foundation who was previously a reporter for The New York Times where he covered labor and the workplace for nineteen years. He is the author of The Big Squeeze: Tough Times for the American Worker and Beaten Down, Worked Up: The Past, Present, and Future of American Labor, and we discuss his article at The Atlantic, "Biden's Labor-Climate Dilemma."
	The Pacifica Evening News, Weekdays	09.26.23/6:00PM/5 min	Biden visits UAW picket line, tells union to 'stick with it.'
	The Pacifica Evening News, Weekdays	09.26.23/6:00PM/2 min	Writers Guild of America Union reached a tentative deal
Police Violence, Accountability, Criminal Justice & Human Rights
	Law & Disorder	08.01.23/8:00AM/17 min	SFPD Kills SF Resident. we go to San Francisco, where on July 26th, in broad daylight, the San Francisco Police Department shot and killed Ryant Blueford in front of his Bayview-Hunters Point community amidst pleas from bystanders not to shoot. Joining us to discuss is his first cousin L'Oreal Earle.
	Law & Disorder	08.03.23/8:00AM/10 min	Political Prisoner Ruchell Magee is Now Free. Ruchelle Magee, the longest held political prisoner in the United States was freed just this week after 67 years of imprisonment due to unceasing community organizing as well as some shifts in "compassionate release" policies in the state of California. Joining us to discuss is Camilo Pérez-Bustillo, the executive director of the Bay Area chapter of the National Lawyers Guild and co-chair of the NLG's Task Force on the Americas, as well as a former professor of human rights. We are also joined by Harold Welton, a member of the Coalition to Free Ruchell Magee and has been fighting for the liberation of Black people and all people for many decades, since being a member of the Southern California chapters of SNCC and then the Black Panther Party. Check out the website for the Committee to Free Ruchell Magee: https://www.freeruchellmagee.org/ Donate for Ruchell Magee's post-imprisonment support: https://fundrazr.com/82E6S2?ref=ab_3JUqVq1YXlm3JUqVq1YXlm
	Law & Disorder	08.21.23/8:00AM/40 min	On today's show, we start with Antioch councilmember Tamisha Torres-Walker in conversation about a federal raid and arrest of numerous Antioch police officers that occurred last week. Then, we dive deep into a recall effort against Alameda County District Attorney Pamela Price, in conversation with Darrell Owens, a housing activist, transit know-it-all, and Data Analyst with analysis on planning, displacement, mobility and society; as well as Saabir Lockett, founder and executive director of Pathways 2 Peace and lead organizer of the 4 Peace Coalition. Check out Darrell Owens substack: https://darrellowens.substack.com/
	Up Front	08.22.23/7:00AM/25 min	Federal raids on Antioch police. Nate Gartrell, reporter for the Bay Area News Group covering crime and corruption in Contra Costa County.
	Letters and politics	08.28.23/10:00AM/56 min	Poverty, Crime and Policy in America Guest: Nikhil Goyal is a sociologist and policymaker who served as senior policy advisor on education and children for Chairman Senator Bernie Sanders on the U.S. Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions and Committee on the Budget. He is the author of the book Live to See the Day: Coming of Age in American Poverty.
	Law & Disorder	08.31.23/8:00AM/11 min	The Vallejo Police Department has re-hired the officer who killed Sean Monterosa in 2020. We're joined to discuss by Michelle and Ashley Monterosa, sisters of Sean Monterrosa.
	Law & Disorder	09.13.23/ 8:00AM/17 min	Challenging a Murder Conviction in Alameda County
Mass Incarceration, Jail Expansion, and Violent Punishment Methods
	Law & Disorder	08.01.23/ 8:00AM/25 min	California's lack of mental health infrastructure is leaving some of our neediest people on the streets or to languish in jails and prisons which simply exacerbate their conditions. James Ramsey, who had repeated issues with mental health and problematic run-ins with law enforcement, received advocacy for long-term care by the Anti-Police Terror Project for years to no avail, as a result of over-crowded social support systems. Without that material and ongoing support, James Ramsey ended up on the streets, and his name appeared in the newspaper for having assaulted an Asian elder. Joining us this morning to discuss the lack of services and infrastructure in California to take care of our community members with high needs – especially those with criminal convictions – is Emily Hoeven, an Opinion columnist at The Chronicle. She previously wrote for non-profit newsroom CalMatters on California politics and policy.
	Law & Disorder	08.03.23 - 8:00AM/14 min	Texas Prisoners Bake in Cells. As the heatwaves continue in the US south and southwest, temperatures inside of Texas prisons are reaching unbearable levels. Joining us to discuss is Paul Flahive, an Accountability Reporter for Texas Public Radio who has has been focused on Texas prison conditions. Follow Paul Flahive's most recent reporting: https://www.kut.org/people/paul-flahive Follow Paul Flahive on social media: https://twitter.com/paulflahive?lang=en

	Law & Disorder	08.08.23/8:00AM/12 min	Sacramento Plans Jail Expansion. we go to Sacramento, where the county Board of Supervisors are voting today on an almost billion dollar bond for jail expansion – a project organizers thought they killed in 2021. We are joined by Mack Wilson a Community Organizer with Decarcerate Sacramento, and Jael Barnes, the pre-trial justice organizer for Decarcerate Sacramento, a Community Organizer with Sacramento Act, a steering committee member for Community Health and Justice Project, and an advocate for folks trapped in the Sac County Jail.
	Sunday Show	08.13.23/9:00AM/58 min	In the first hour, "California Incarceration" with James King.
	Law & Disorder	08.17.23/8:00AM/16 min	Women Face Unique Challenges in Exoneration. we're in conversation with Danielle Bernstein, a public defender and writer in New York City with a background in innocence work, who is uncovering some of the gendered challenges in exonerating wrongly incarcerated women in this country. The challenges include outdated stereotypes, and convictions for crimes that never occurred. Read Danielle Bernstein's latest on the subject: https://theappeal.org/womens-wrongful-convictions-no-crime-sexual-stereotypes/
	Law & Disorder	08.31.23 - 8:00AM/10 min	Impact of Heatwaves on Prisoners. We look at conditions for prisoners throughout the US south who've been suffering under a series of heatwaves with little to no reprieve. We're joined by Nick Wing, an editor at The Appeal, a worker-led nonprofit newsroom that covers the legal system. Read Nick Wing's latest piece for The Appeal: https://theappeal.org/heat-prison-deaths-air-conditioning/
	Law & Disorder	09.06.23/8:00AM/22 min	CA Prisons Collaborate with Deportations. A new report from the American Civil Liberties Union of Northern California shows that California prisons systematically profile and report suspected immigrants to ICE. The ACLU, along with community organizations, has systematically sifted through more than 2,500 public records that shed light on the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation's discriminatory, proactive deportation program. We're joined by the lead author of that report, Sana Singh, who is an Immigrants' Rights Fellow at the ACLU of Northern California, where she works to defend the rights of immigrants and advocate for immigration policies that treat all people with dignity. We're also joined by Hien Nguyen, a programming organizer with the Asian Prisoner Support Committee, who focuses her work on in-prison programming, mainly with people who have immigration and ICE statuses. The Asian Prisoner Support Committee is one of the community-based organizations involved in the Profile, Tag, Deport report.
	Law & Disorder	09.12.23/8:00AM/10 min	Judge: Vacate Angola Prison of Children. A federal judge has ordered Louisiana officials to move kids out of a former death row unit at Angola, one of the nation's most notorious prisons. The ruling found that authorities at the facility had locked children up in cells for days at a time as a form of punishment, punished detained youth with the use of handcuffs, mace, and denial of family visits, and failed to provide appropriate educational and social services and mental health treatment. We are joined to discuss by Elizabeth Weill-Greenberg, a senior reporter for The Appeal, who has consistently investigated the treatment of child prisoners held at Angola. Elizabeth writes on prison and jail conditions, and wrongful convictions. Read Elizabeth Weill-Greenberg's coverage: https://theappeal.org/louisiana-judge-ruling-angola-prison-children/
	Law & Disorder	09.14.23/8:00AM/43 min	The Violence of 'Family Court': When juvenile courts were first created more than 100 years ago, they were imagined as a therapeutic space where specially-trained public servants and a friendly, caring judge would help children and families. Our guest today illustrates how that vision never came to pass, and how the procedures and policies of family court are based in a heritage of racism and a disdain for poverty. We are joined by Jane Spinak, whose latest book is titled, The End of Family Court.
Climate Crisis, Corporate Pollution, & Environmental Justice
	Up Front	07.06.23/7:00AM/47 min	Christina Gerhart on Disappearing Islands. Christina Gerhardt is an environmental journalist and professor at the University of Hawaii at Manoa where she founded the environmental humanities initiative. She's just out with a new book called Sea Change: An Atlas of Islands in a Rising Ocean
	Up Front	07.11.23/7:00AM/21 min	Floods, Fires and Hurricane Response: Climate Change Roundup. Jeff Masters, has worked as a hurricane scientist with the NOAA Hurricane Hunters from 1986-1990. He co-founded Weather Underground in 1995 and writes, he is also an author for Yale Climate Connections
	Letters & Politics	07.17.23/10:00AM/50 min	How a Hotter Planet Affects Life. Guest: Jeff Goodell is the author of several books focusing on energy and environmental issues. He is a 2020 Guggenheim Fellow and a contributing editor at Rolling Stone. His latest book is The Heat Will Kill You First: Life and Death on a Scorched Planet.
	Up Front	08.08.23/7:00AM/21 min	Mojave Desert Wildfires:. Guest: Brad Shaffer is a Distinguished Professor in the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology at UCLA. He is also the director of UCLA's La Brea Center for California Conservation Science.
	Up Front	08.08.23/7:00AM/21 min	Toxic Algae Bloom in the Bay. Guest: Damon Tighe, works in biotechnology and moonlights as a naturalist; he's been organizing volunteer documentation of the bloom and its effects.
	Letters & Politics	08.09.23/10:00AM/50 min	The Past, Present, and Future of Water. Guest: Peter Gleick is an environmental scientist and expert on issues related to water and the environment. He is the co-founder of the Pacific Institute in Oakland, California and a member of the U.S. National Academy of Sciences and is the author of The Three Ages of Water: Prehistoric Past, Imperiled Present, and a Hope for the Future.

	Up Front	08.16.23/7:00AM/12 min	Campaign to Stop Oakland Airport Expansion. Ariella Granett is on the Steering Committee of the Stop OAK Expansion Coalition, a grassroots Coalition with 62 supportive organizations sharing concern about Airport Expansion. She has lived and worked in the East Bay for 24 years as an architect and volunteers for climate and environmental justice. Lujain Al-Saleh is the East Oakland Clean Air Project Coordinator at Communities for a Better Environment. Lujain directly collaborates with the Bay Area Air Quality Management District and East Oakland Community Steering Committee to develop a Community Emissions Reduction Plan, also known as CERP, under Assembly Bill 617.
	Up Front	08.16.23/7:00AM/13 min	The Maui Fires with Dani Anguiano, is a reporter for the Guardian, currently based in Maui.
	Letters & Politics	08.17.23/10:00AM/50 min	Salmon Wars: How the Industrialization of Atlantic Salmon is Endangering our Health and Environment. Guests: Douglas Frantz is a former managing editor of the Los Angeles Times and shared a Pulitzer Prize as a foreign correspondent at The New York Times. After his career in journalism, he was chief investigator for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, an assistant secretary of state in the Obama administration, and deputy secretary-general at the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development in Paris. He has written several nonfiction books with his wife, Catherine Collins, including Fallout and Celebration, U.S.A. His latest, co-authored with Catherine Collins is Salmon Wars: The Dark Underbelly of Our Favorite Fish. Catherine Collins is a former private investigator with specialty in international financial fraud. Previously, Catherine Collins was a reporter and foreign correspondent for the Chicago Tribune and a contributor to The New York Times and Los Angeles Times. She has written several nonfiction books with her husband, Douglas Frantz, including The Man from Pakistan and Death on the Black Sea. Her latest, co-authored with Douglas Frantz is Salmon Wars: The Dark Underbelly of Our Favorite Fish.
	Up Front	08.18.23/7:00AM/47 min	Matt Simon on How Microplastics Corrupt the Environment and Our Bodies. He is a science journalist and author. His latest book is "A Poison Like No Other: How Microplastics Corrupted Our Planet and Our Bodies."
	Up Front	08.22.23/7:00AM/9 min	California floods (in August!): Eugene Cordero, professor meteorology and climate science at San Jose State University; also founder of the educational publisher Green Ninja
	Law & Disorder	08.28.23 - 8:00AM/27 min	Environmental Concerns in West Oakland. we focus on the local environmental impact of West Oakland's Schnitzer Steel Factory, which has poured chemicals into the areas airways for many years. Earlier in August, the factory experienced a significant toxic fire. Joining us to discuss is Ms. Margaret Gordon, co-founder and co-director of the West Oakland Environmental Indicators Project (WOEIP). and a lifetime local community activist who has been collaborating with neighborhood organizations, physicians, researchers, and public officials to ensure West Oakland residents enjoy a clean environment. Check out the WOEIP website: https://woeip.org/ Then we continue the conversation about pollution in West Oakland, in conversation with Sejal Choksi-Chugh, Executive Director of SF Baykeeper since 2015, along with Ryan Nicole, a grammy-nominated rapper and an Oakland artist, actress, athlete and activist, who recently released an environmental anthem called Small but Mighty. Learn more about SF Baykeeper: https://baykeeper.org/ Check out Ryan Nicole's website: https://www.msryannicole.com/
	Up Front	09.06.23/7:00AM/20 min	New Amazon Distribution Center in the Bay View, a historically marginalized community with Tim Redmond is a long-time San Francisco investigative reporter and founder of 48Hills.org. CEQA bill AB 1307 May Greenlight People's Park development with Doug Carstens is managing partner at Carstern, Black & Minter, where's he's a CEQA practitioner and advisor to the CEQA Works coalition of environmental organizations.
	Up Front	09.07.23/7:00AM/25 min	EPA Approves Carcinogenic Fuel? Sharon Lerner, is a reporter for ProPublica covering health and environmental issues.
	Up Front	09.07.23/7:00AM/20 min	Africa Climate Summit: Aby Sene, is faculty in conservation social sciences at Clemson University. Sunny Morgan is a climate justice activist and trained Climate Reality Leader. He is the co-founder of the global grassroots organization Debt for Climate.
	Up Front	09.08.23/7:00AM/45 min	When people break nature's soundscape. David Haskell, Guggenheim fellow, professor of biology and environmental studies at Sewanee: the university of the south; author of Sounds Wild and Broken: Sonic Marvels, Evolution's Creativity, and the Crisis of Sensory Extinction. [originally recorded in 2022]
	Up Front	09.13.23/7:00AM/20 min	Storm Daniel Causes Catastrophic Floods in Libya with guest Malak Altaeb is a non-resident scholar at the Middle East Institute with the Climate and Water Program. She has conducted research on renewable energy and water politics in Libya.
	Up Front	09.14.23/7:00AM/13 min	New Research Predicts Oil & Gas Expansion with guest Kelly Trout, is Research Director at Oil Change International and co-author of the report "Planet Wreckers: How 20 Countries' Oil and Gas Extraction Plans Risk Locking in Climate Chaos."
	Against the Grain	09.18.23/12:00PM/52 min	Phosphorus: Reaping the Harvest. It's both a precious resource and a dangerous pollutant, exponentially increasing crop yields, while fouling our waterways with blue-green algae. The element phosphorus has played a crucial role in agriculture and war, while its reserves are unevenly distributed, with much of the world's supply located in the occupied territories of Western Sahara. Writer Dan Egan discusses the double-edged nature of an element that is increasingly depleted and overused. Resources: Dan Egan, The Devil's Element: Phosphorus and a World Out of Balance Norton, 2023

The Indictment of a President
	Up Front	08.02.23/7:00AM/20 min	Trump Indictment. New set of charges. Guest: Kenneth White, former federal prosecutor, current federal defense attorney, and the host of the podcast "Serious Trouble" about Donald Trump's legal problems.
	Letters & Politics	08.02.23/10:00AM/50 min	Third Trump's Indictment: Efforts to Overturn his 2020 Presidential Election Loss. Guest: Hadar Aviram is a Professor of Law at the University of California College of the Law, San Francisco. She is the author of several books including her latest, Yesterday's Monsters: The Manson Family Cases and the Illusion of Parole. And listener calls
	Letters & Politics	08.07.23/10:00AM/37 min	Understanding the Electoral College in the Trump's Indictment. Guest: Robert M. Alexander is a professor of political science and founding director of the Institute for Civics and Public Policy at Ohio Northern University. He is the author of Representation and the Electoral College.
	Letters & Politics	08.15.23/10:00AM/25 min	Racketeering Charges in the Trump's Georgia Indictment. Guest: Karen Greenberg is the director of the Center on National Security at Fordham Law. Her most recent book is Subtle Tools: The Dismantling of American Democracy from the War on Terror to Donald Trump, now out in paperback.
	Up Front	08.16.23/7:00AM/20 min	Trump Indictment in Georgia with Andrew Fleischman is a Georgia Trial and Appellate Lawyer at Sessions & Fleischman, LLC.
	Sunday Show	08.20.23/9:00AM/58 min	Indicted but not Interned" with Karen Greenberg
	Up Front	08.29.23/7:00AM/20 min	Trump DC Trial Set for March with guest Robert Katzberg, former federal prosecutor, turned defense attorney. Author, most recently of The Vanishing Trial.
LGBTQIA+ Rights
	Letters & Politics	08.10.23/10:00AM/50 min	Homosexuals & Communists in the First Half of the 20th Century. Guest: Aaron S. Lecklider is Professor of American Studies at the University of Massachusetts Boston and author of Love's Next Meeting: The Forgotten History of Homosexuality and the Left in American Culture.
	Up Front	08.24.23/7:00AM/25 min	CA School District Requiring Reporting Transgender Students to Parents: Tony Thurmond, is the CA State Superintendent of Public Instruction.
	Against the Grain	09.11.23/12:00PM/53 min	Hansberry and Hay. To be queer and communist at a time when the Communist Party in the U.S. banned LGBT people was tricky and often perilous. In her new book Bettina Aptheker profiles Lorraine Hansberry (who famously penned the play "A Raisin in the Sun"), Harry Hay (best known for founding the Mattachine Society), and other figures with radical sensibilities and closeted sexualities. (Encore presentation.) Bettina Aptheker, Communists in Closets: Queering the History 1930s-1990s Routledge, 2023
Russia-Ukraine War
	Up Front	07.10.23/7:00AM/20 min	Russia's War in Ukraine with guest John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies.
	Up Front	07.17.23/7:00AM/20 min	Russia's War in Ukraine with guest John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies.
	Up Front	07.31.23/7:00AM/20 min	Russia's War in Ukraine with guest John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies.
	Up Front	08.07.23/7:00AM/20 min	Russia's War in Ukraine with guest John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies.
	Letters & Politics	08.08.23/10:00AM/50 min	An Eastern Ukrainian's Perspective of the War. Guest: Olga Baysha is Associate Professor in Media and Communication at the National Research University Higher School of Economics in Moscow, Russia and author of War, Peace, and Populist Discourse in Ukraine.
	Up Front	08.14.23/7:00AM/20 min	Russia's War in Ukraine with guest John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies.
	Up Front	08.21.23/7:00AM/20 min	Update on the Russia's War in Ukraine with John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies
	Sunday Show	08.27.23/9:00AM/58 min	"Don't Cross Vlad" with Anthony D'Agostino
	Up Front	08.28.23/7:00AM/20 min	What comes after Prigozhin with John Feffer, Director of Foreign Policy in Focus, on the mid-flight explosion that killed Yevgeny Prigozhin, the head of Russia's largest mercenary group.
	Up Front	09.05.23/7:00AM/20 min	Update on the Russia's War in Ukraine with John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies
	Up Front	09.11.23/7:00AM/20 min	Update on the Russia's War in Ukraine with Chris Miller, is the Ukraine correspondent for the Financial Times and author of the new book The War Came To Us: Life And Death In Ukraine.
	Up Front	09.18.23/7:00AM/20 min	Update on the Russia's War in Ukraine with John Feffer is Director of Foreign Policy in Focus at the Institute for Policy Studies
The Housing Markets and the Unhoused Communities
	Up Front	08.02.23/7:00AM/25 min	Eviction Moratoriums Across the Region are Expiring. Guest: Leah Simon-Weisberg is Legal Director at ACCE Institute and Adjunct Professor of UC Law, SF (UC Hastings) and Chair of the Berkeley Rent Board.

	Up Front	08.04.23 - 7:00AM/47 min	Dr. Robert Okin on "SILENT VOICES: People with Mental Disorders on the Street". Dr. Robert Okin is former chief of psychiatry at San Francisco General Hospital. He spent two years interviewing people on the street who seemed to have mental disorders; his book about that, just out in its second edition, is SILENT VOICES: People with Mental Disorders on the Street.
	Sunday Show	08.20.23/9:00AM/58 min	In the second hour "Tenderloin Tales" with Randy Shaw.
	Up Front	08.23.23/7:00AM/12 min	Injunction Banning SF Homeless Sweeps May be Compromised with Tim Redmond is a long-time San Francisco investigative reporter and founder of 48 Hills.
	Letters & Politics	08.30.23 - 10:00AM/20 min	Upending the Tenderloin's 'Doom Loop' Narrative
	Letters & Politics	09.07.23/10:00AM/50 min	Disinvestment In Cities, Crime, and the Persistence of the Racial Wealth Gap. Guest: Tanya Golash-Boza is the Executive Director of the University of California Washington Center and a Professor of Sociology at the University of California, Merced. She is the author of Before Gentrification: The Creation of DC's Racial Wealth Gap.
	Law & Disorder	09.11.23 - 8:00AM/10 min	SF Plan for Housing Homeless. San Francisco Supervisor Dean Preston has introduced legislation that would push the Department of Homelessness and Supportive Housing to fill half of its 1,002 vacant supportive housing units and remain at a vacancy below five percent moving forward. We're joined by Supervisor Preston, who represents District 5, which includes the Tenderloin, the Haight, the Fillmore, Japantown, Civic Center and the Western Addition.
	The Pacifica Evening News, Weekdays	09.14.23/6:00PM/3 min	SF Mayor London Breed rolls out new streamlined housing construction program.
COVID, Long COVID, and the New Vaccines
	Up Front	07.10.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
	Up Front	07.17.23/7:00AM/20 min	Corona Calls with Dr. Peter Chin-Hong is a professor of medicine and infectious disease physician at UCSF Medical Center.
	Up Front	07.31.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
	Up Front	08.07.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
	Up Front	08.21.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
	Up Front	08.14.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
	Up Front	08.28.23/7:00AM/25 min	What's coming from B.2.86 with John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley, on the COVID subvariant nicknamed Pirola (B.2.86), and why it's prompting concern in public health circles. (More detailed information, along with links to new research discussed, is available via the dedicated Corona Calls podcast archive.)
	Up Front	09.05.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
	Up Front	09.11.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
	Up Front	09.18.23/7:00AM/25 min	Corona Calls with Dr. John Swartzberg, clinical professor emeritus of infectious diseases at UC Berkeley's School of Public Health.
Public Safety Issues
	Up Front	08.09.23 /7:00AM/25 min	California Public Utility Commission (CPUC) Vote on Self-driving Taxis.. Guest: Joe Eskenazi, managing editor and columnist at Mission Local.
	Law & Disorder	08.14.23 - 8:00AM/25 min	CA Sends $1.2m to Oakland for License Plate Readers. Governor Gavin Newsom has committed $1.2 million for automated license plate readers in Oakland. Joining us to discuss is Brian Hofer is the Executive Director of Secure Justice, a non-profit that advocates against state abuse of power, and for reduction in government and corporate over-reach. He has also been the Chair of Oakland's Privacy Advisory Commission since 2016.
	Up Front	08.15.23/7:00AM/12 min	Self Driving Robotaxis program expands in San Francisco with guest Aaron Peskin is the President of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, representing District 3.
	The Pacifica Evening News, Weekdays	09.14.23/6:00PM/4 min	Oakland Mayor Thao unveils new program to boost community support for small businesses.
	Hard Knock Radio	09.18.23/4:00PM/48 min	Oakland: Public safety discussion, problems and solutions. Guests Nicole Lee, Executive Director of Urban Peace Movement (UPM); and Chaney Turner, Founder of Beyond Equity and Chair of Oakland Cannabis Commission
	The Pacifica Evening News, Weekdays	09.26.23 /6:00PM/2 min	Oakland merchants and restaurants hold one-day business strike to protest the city's lack of action on safety and support for local businesses.