Quarterly Report

Program/Segment: In Touch with the Tri-Counties with Steve Perez

Date Aired: October 2, 2016

Time: 5:30 a.m.

Stations: KHAY/KBBY/KVYB/KVEN/KRRF

Duration: 25-30 minutes

Organization: Habitat for Humanity

Guests: Donielle De Leon Community Engagement Manager

In southern Santa Barbara County, the high cost of living and .5% vacancy rate means hundreds of low-income families and individuals are forced to live in overcrowded, unsafe, or cost-burdened housing conditions, or commute long distances to and from work. Habitat for Humanity SSBC is dedicated to eliminating substandard housing through constructing, rehabilitating and preserving homes; by advocating for fair and just housing policies; and by providing training and access to resources to help families improve their housing conditions. Habitat for Humanity was founded on the conviction that every man, woman and child should have a simple, durable place to live in dignity and safety, and that decent shelter in decent communities should be a matter of conscience and action for all. Stability for families and children. Sense of dignity and pride, Health, physical safety and security Increase of educational and job prospects

Stations: KHAY/KBBY/KVYB/KVEN/KRRF

Duration: 25-30 minutes

Organization: The City Center Domestic Violence

Guests: Lisa Marquez, Dr. Kirt Gonzales and Maureen Shea

The City Center Take a Punch out of Domestic Violence, The City Center was built upon the premise that together we can help end homelessness in Ventura. By your generous donations, mentoring provided by churches, and support by our community and local businesses, we will accomplish our vision. Your donations help provide skilled, professional case management as well as around the clock on-site management at our mid-town location. Spiritual mentoring is a crucial part of the TCC experience, and we look to our local houses of worship to encourage spiritual growth and provide life skills.

Opportunities abound for local businesses to partner with us by providing building supplies, meals or monetary donations Thursday, October 13, 2016 at The River Community Conference Center. The evening will feature guest speaker and New York based writer Dr. Kirt Gonzales, author of "The Chauncey Street Monster". Dr. Kirt Gonzales is an ordained minister and conference speaker who holds doctoral degrees in theology and Christian counseling.

Organization: SEEAG (Students for Eco-Education and Agriculture)

Guests: Mary Maranville - Founder & Executive Director.

Mission: SEEAG educates students about the farm sources of their food from field to table while connecting them to the farmland in their own backyards. This free education program provides schools with much-needed agricultural education and field trips to local farms. The agricultural education begins with a 45-minute, in-class presentation that covers topics such as agricultural labor, nutrition, the food journey from field to table and sustainable practices. After the course, students are taken on a field trip to the historic Limoneira Lemon Ranch in Santa Paula to tour the citrus groves, farmland, packinghouse and the solar "orchard" that provides sustainable power to the ranch. SEEAG is a cost-free agricultural education program available to all K-12 schools, and includes transportation, education and tours. To date, SEEAG has helped over 8,000 students better understand the food journey and aims to educate 5,000 more by the end of 2016

Organization: Hopes Haven

Guests: Mike Hale and Dave Pomerantz Directors

Hope's Haven Children's Charity is a leading Ventura County 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to enriching the quality of lives of children facing life threatening illnesses and serious injuries. Through the support of local communities and annual fundraising events, Hope's Haven works directly with Ventura County hospitals, clinics and social workers to provide financial and emotional support for families during treatment. Hope's Haven is on the road to delivering iPads to all of the pediatric hospital beds within Ventura County, one of the long term impact programs, allowing kids to communicate, interact, be encouraged and entertained while undergoing medical care. Hope's Haven is able to lighten the load during the most challenging times when children and their families need it most. Hope's Haven Children's Charity was created on the belief that when you invite people to care, change will happen for families when they need it most. When a family is dealt the blow of a life-threatening diagnosis for their child
